New York City, April 8th, 1939

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE
APR 10 1939
MR. MESSERSMITH

A cable received yesterday says that Mr. X. spent a most busy week in France during which he conferred with the French Premier. As to the general situation the correspondent reports that "both countries (England and France) now guarantee firmness following plan".

Meanwhile Mr. X. is preparing in Germany "the day" the date of which, according to the dispatch, is not yet fixed. It is added that "a general campaign against Hitler is urgently needed".
