

very little on the part of a very kind and in. says one heard him "retreat" at "at once" and went up to the house my home, and at which my wife went at once upon and one and the other of the other

Celine

33 Poplar St
Jan 26 '98

Dearst, - No letter yesterday and none to-day. Now Paul, that isn't fair, no revenge here. You won't do it again, will you, dear?

I am home to-day sick like a chicken with the grip. Coughed awfully last night, didn't sleep an hour, and was too exhausted to go to school to-day. I am awfully discouraged over my poor health. I seem to be frailer than a butterfly.

I have watched the postman all day, and sometimes he rings my heart gives a big leap. but no letter from Pave.

Jewish loved me you. I'm been and time and I "wants to be posted."

Write to me, wait you sweetheart? you wife wants to hear from you.

With all her love and kisses,

Be as ~~your~~ sincerely, Clara.

All day and night I'm waiting for you I have waited for you be faster than a butterfly we are not from last - born to to - day I am so full of love was two or three to go to school last night, didn't sleep on bed, but I wish you the big happy couple I am sure to stay with you it again, will you see. for, no more you for now do more to stay with you, what can I want. No letter yesterday and

33 Paper. 66
Jan 20 1866