Council Studying Pension Plan For City Employees

City Will Crack Down On Property Owners Who Fail To Keep Vacant Lots Mowed

Members of the Newark City Council are busy these days investigating the possibility of setting up a pension plan for the employees of the city.

Councilman Sam Diehl announced at Tuesday night's meeting of the Council that a meeting had been held with Arlington Jackson, local representative of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, to discuss plans submitted by that company pertaining to pensions.

A proposal by Mr. Diehl that members of Council set a date and invite Mr. Jackson to appear before the group to explain the details of the various plans was adopted.

City officials pointed out that the receipts from the parking meters in the city, which amounts to approximately $1000 per month, have been designated to take care of financing such a system.

According to Mr. Diehl, there are several possible plans from which the city will have to choose the one that most nearly meets the requirements of its employees and the financial capacity of the city.

Those property owners in the city who refuse to keep vacant lots mowed were the cause of concern to Council at the Tuesday night meeting. City Solicitor Sinclair was authorized to draw up an amendment to the ordinance requiring property owners to keep vacant lots mowed which would give Council the right to mow the lot and bill the owner for all expenses.

Recreation a 'Must', Says McVey in Support of Fund Campaign

"Properly directed recreation in Newark is not just desirable, it is a must." This statement was made this week by Joseph M. McVey, president of the Newark School Board, relative to the coming fund drive to be made by the Newark Recreation Association.

A fifty campaign has been mapped out by the officials of the association and will be carried out on Saturday, June 14, by a host of volunteer workers.

"In his statement this week, Mr. McVey went on to point out that the recreation program here "will help to mold the boys and girls of Newark into a desirable citizenry. If such a program is not properly carried out, then you and I may well be held accountable for many of the mistakes made by these boys and girls in later life."

The Reverend Leo W. O'Neil, pastor of the St. John's Catholic Church here, gave his approval to the coming fund drive when he said, "It gives me a great deal of pleasure to add my support to such a civic project as a recreation center for all the little people of Newark. I earnestly hope that your efforts will prove very successful."

A. H. Burnham, treasurer of the association, stated this week that the group spent a total of $3,122.19 carrying out its activities last year. Of the total, $2,198 was needed for salaries of nine paid employees including a director. Other expenses include program equipment, liability insurance premium, swimming pool tickets and property damage bond, and miscellaneous entertainment.

George Neighbors, president of the association stated this week that this is not enough money to provide adequate facilities for play and recreation for our youth. He said the group is definitely interested in acquiring more land for parks in the city. He called upon civic organizations, every boy and girl, and all resident interested in seeing that Newark has a decent place for recreation to give time as well as money to develop the ground already donated and to raise money to acquire more land.

Other Newark residents who spoke out this week in support of the recreation program included:

Dr. J. J. Bunting, Jr., minister of the Newark Methodist Church: "Recreation which is carefully planned and adequately supervised is essential to the well-rounded life of any community. This is especially true of Newark —a growing community which needs today an effective program of recreation and which in the near future will face large and important problems in this area. The Newark Recreation Association deserves our wholehearted support as it continues its present program and plans for the future."

Delaware Student Makes Radio Debut On Sunday Evening

To Appear On Phillip Morris Program With Vincent Price In 'Murder Without Crime'

Nancy Schnabel, an undergraduate student at the University of Delaware makes her professional radio network debut Sunday, June 8, as co-star to stage and screen actor, Vincent Price, in the "Phillip Morris Playhouse" presentation of "Murder Without Crime." The program is heard Sundays at 8:30 P.M. EDST over the CBS radio nets with Charles Martin is producer-host-director.

Miss Schnabel is the sixteenth student to participate in the present cycle of the Phillip Morris Intercollegiate Acting Competition which was begun last fall with the approval of ANTA. The Delaware University student will receive all travel expenses paid, $250 in cash, membership in the American Federation of Radio Artists, and a chance to accept the $2,000 Grand Finals prize to be awarded the winner on Sunday, June 15.

In "Murder Without Crime," the young student will take the role of the wife in the unusual story of mystery and suspense. Her co-star, Vincent Price, has the role of her husband.

Miss Schnabel marks her 21st birthday on May 31. In addition to her outstanding dramatic work at Delaware she appeared last summer with the Robin Hood Theatre in Arden. She has been heard over WDEL, WDEL-TV, and WILM in Wilmington.

Miss Schnabel is related to the world-famous pianist, Artur Schnabel, and a cousin to his son, Stephen Schnabel, television, screen, and radio star of the Phillip Morris Peabody Award-winning daytime drama, "Against the Storm." However, the young student has never met her cousin and, says Miss Schnabel, "I'm looking forward to meeting him while I'm in New York for the Playhouse' program."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Schnabel, 8 East Salisbury Drive, Edgmoor Terrace, Wilmington. As a student at Alexis I. du Pont High School, Miss Schnabel was named the outstanding student of the year in 1949 and selected for the annual book, "Most Outstanding Student in the U. S."

The dark-haired, hazel eyed coed has combined music and dancing along with dramatics. Since 5th Grade she has played leads in both operettas and plays. Last spring she played the role of Sharon McLanergan in the University's production of "Finian's Rainbow." Miss Schnabel faced her first audience when she was three as a tap-dancer. "I guess it was quite successful," she recalls, "mothers cooed."

Baby-Sitters Class To Be Part Of 4-H Course

"Aids for Baby-Sitters" will be taught by Miss June Patterson, instructor of the nursery school of the U. of D. It aims at making baby-sitting jobs more pleasant through knowledge of how to handle situations.

Newly Appointed

Charlotte Swanson

The appointment of Charlotte La Tour Swanson as Home Demonstration agent in Kent County, effective July 1, was announced this week by Miss M. Gertrude Holloway, State Home Demonstration leader.

Miss Swanson will graduate from the University of Delaware in June with a B.S. degree in home economics education.

Reared on a small farm near Milford, Miss Swanson has an outstanding record as a 4-H Club member and as a student at the University.

State VFW Posts To Meet Next Week In Annual Affair

500 Delegates Expected To Gather At Lewes To Make 22nd Annual Encampment

Final preparations are being made in Lewes this week for the twenty-second annual state encampment of the Department of Delaware, Veterans of Foreign Wars, which will be held at the seashore resort on June 13, 14, and 15, according to Harry Faust, general chairman. Faust is a past commander of Breakwater Post, Lewes.

Indications are that nearly 500 delegates from the 31 posts and auxiliaries will be in attendance, according to a joint statement by Department Commander George I. Sylvester, Jr., and Auxiliary President Helen Faust.

Sessions will open on Friday evening, June 13 in Lewes School, with the formal memorial service, which is an annual feature to honor the dead. Business sessions for the men will get underway Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in the auditorium of Lewes School. The women will meet in the gymnasium.

A joint luncheon will be a highlight of the gathering, to be held at noon on Saturday in Lewes Fire Hall, at which time distinguished guests will be in attendance. The guest list has not been announced. At 6 p.m. near Lewes school grounds a band concert and Flag Day ceremony is scheduled. Rev. Andrew J. White, national chaplain is in charge of arrangements for that affair. Business sessions will continue throughout Saturday, and final nominations, election of officers and installation ceremonies will be held on Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m.

Homemakers Course At U. of D. June 18

The fourteenth annual Homemaker's Short Course at the University of Delaware will open on June 18 with an afternoon tea and reception, according to Miss M. Gertrude Holloway, state home demonstration leader.

"Homemakers from all over Delaware will spend Wednesday afternoon, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday morning participating in a special program on the campus," Miss Holloway announced. "All the features of college life will be included in the short course."

In addition to talks on foods and nutrition, foreign affairs, money management, child care, and politics, the homemakers will take part in a full recreation program. They'll have a fashion show, a special vespers, a play and a square dance; they'll tour to Valley Forge; and they'll develop their own chorus.

"Three Delaware homemakers will attend on special scholarships," Miss Holloway declared. "These are the top awards for the homemaking exhibits at last year's Kent and Sussex County Fair. The winners are Mrs. Gladys Kates, of Felton; Mrs. Ione Thompson, of Magnolia; and Miss Roseanna Messick, of Houston."

Flag Etiquette Assembly Subject

American Legion Officials Instruct High School Students

J. Allison O'Daniel Post No. 10, American Legion and its auxiliary conducted an assembly on May 28, in the Newark High School auditorium to teach proper flag etiquette.

The program was a memorial service for those who have served in the armed forces. Dr. Glenn Skinner, post commander, began the program by introducing Mrs. Conrad Lewis, president of the auxiliary and chairman of the program; Mrs. Floyd Jackson, the song leader for the program; and Rev. James Bishop, the chaplain of the Post No. 10.

Other members of the organization who participated in the program are as follows:

Mrs. Harvey Dickey, Mrs. James Bishop, Amy Lovett, Mary Jannette Chalmers, Joan Jackson, and Nancy Lewis, who at the close of the program read the "American Creed."

Nutrition Specialist Warns Of Use Of Wonder Diets

"Food is the health ally of everyone, but especially so for those who have had 60, or 70, or more birthdays," says Miss M. Gertrude Holloway, nutrition specialist of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

She quotes from a new bulletin, "Food Guide for Older Folks," by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Warning against food fads and so-called wonder diets, which over-emphasize some foods and ignore others that are important, the bulletin points out: "Since food has so much work to do for you all your life, you can never retire from responsibility for eating the kinds and amounts you need."

Home Demonstration agents in Newark, Georgetown, Dover, and Wilmington have copies of the new bulletin, free on request. Copies may also be had by writing to the Bulletin Mailing Room, Wolf Hall, Newark, Del.

Mail Call

Write often to your service man
For, wherever he may be,
He is waiting for a letter
To keep his heart worry-free.
He seeks not war medals
Or to reach the Hall of Fame,
He's just a kid at "Mail Call,"
Hoping he'll hear his name.
Tho it may be just a post card.
It's a word that came from home,
You can either make or break him
While he fights across the foam!
This young face reflects his sadness
As he turns to walk away.
Happy boys are reading letters
But for him . . . "No Mail Today."
Are the 'folks back home' forgetting?
He grows weak . . . and sick . . . inside!
Tho he's not alone . . . he's LONELY
And his sadness he tries to hide.
Write to him . . . it takes SO LITTLE!
Just a scribble of a pen,
But it's more desired than riches—
By these kids who look (and fight) like men.

Errors Aid Elkton In 9-2 Win Over Newark Last Week

Elkton Club Tightens Lead In Susquehanna League With Fourth Straight Triumph

Taking advantage of five errors in the Newark infield, Elkton strengthened its lead on first place in the Susquehanna League last Friday by downing the locals, 9-2.

It was the fourth straight victory of the season for the Elkton club which has yet to lose. It was the second loss of the year for Newark which has won once.

Dick Waldt, who last season pitched for York of the Inter-State League, went the route for Elkton and allowed seven hits. Bob Hoch, who is slated to join Allentown of the same league after finishing the spring term at the University of Delaware, hurled the first eight innings for the losers and yielded all eight hits garnered by the winners. Hi Miller held the winners hitless the final frame.

Elkton crammed all its scoring into two big innings, getting five runs in the second innings and four in the fifth. Newark scored its two runs in the sixth.

Manager Leroy Hill announced this week that several new players will be in the Newark lineup when the locals meet the strong Havre de Grace Cokes on the Continental Field this Sunday, game starting at 2:15 p.m.

Included among the newcomers will be Douglas Lilley, who this year played the infield for Washington College; Jack Keterick, a member of last year's tea mwho played during the college season for Latayette; Bunny Blaney, Albert Sparks, Ronnie Bramble and Joe Thorpe, all of Newark High.

One player was also lost by the local club this week when Jimmy Ford, former Newark High athlete and team infielder, left to serve with the Navy.

Captain Brodhag Leads Hen Batters With .420 Average

Serpico, Moneymaker Only Other Delaware Hitters To Attain .300 Mark

Captain Al Brodhag compiled a hefty .420 batting average during the recent University of Delaware season to lead the Hen offense. "Buster," as he is called by his team mates, also batted in 35 runs to more than double the output of any other member of the club.

Frank Serpico, Blue Hen outfielder, took second place in the team averages by posting a respectable .347. Serpico led the club in runs scored with 23.

Jim Moneymaker, freshman second baseman, was the only other member of the club to top the .300 mark. Jim slapped out 23 hits in 75 attempts for a .307 mark.

Lefty Lew Wright compiled the best win-loss record among three starting pitchers used by Coach Shack Martin this year, winning four while dropping only one. Pete Carlson won four while dropping two, and Bill Shockley, the third starter, won three, lost two and tied one.

Blaney Two-Hitter Wins For Newark

Bunny Blaney pitched two-hit ball last week as the Newark High School baseball team scored in all but two of the game's seven innings in handing the Mt. Pleasant High club a 8-1 drubbing.

Alvon Sparks, Yellowjacket third sacker, led the thirteen hit attack of the Newark club, smacking out three hits in four trips. Blaney, along with Thorpe, Bramble and Seydell, collected two hits.

Thirteen Newark Golfers Will Take Part in State Tournament

Ellis Taylor, George Anderson, Al Dollins, Who Have Won Five Previous Titles, Will Try To Make It Sixth Straight Winning Year For Newark Golfer

Thirteen golfers from Newark will be among the 81 entries named so far in the sixth annual Delaware State Amateur golf tournament to be held today, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the DuPont Country Club course.

If one of the Newark golfers fails to bring back the title it will be the first time in the history of the tournament that a local player has failed to win the championship.

During the first five years of play George Anderson and Al Dollins each won once each while Ellis Taylor, playing out of Newark, has captured the title three times. Taylor is the present state amateur titlist having won last year.

In addition to above two Newark will be represented by the following aspirants: Bob Stewart, Jr., Harvey Hirst, Jim Tyler Wes Barrows, Stan Rapsis, William S. Hamilton, III, Harry Hackett, Ronnie Watson, James Riley, and Doyle McSpadden.

Roland Wollaston, who has competed several times as a representative of the Newark club, will be playing this year under the colors of the Seaford Country Club.

The qualifying round, which will be at medal play, will take place beginning Thursday morning in order to establish the brackets for further competition at match play. This is the first year in which the contestants will vie in match play. Previously the tournament was run entirely at medal play.

Thirty-two low qualifiers will make up the championship flight on Friday. The 36-hole finals will be played for the title on Sunday.

In addition to the thirteen local golfers the field will include the following entries: DuPont Country Club, 28; Rock Manor, 23; Hercules, 12; Brandywine, 3; Seaford, 2; Maple Dale of Dover, 4; Wilmington-Concord, 6.

Last Inning Single Costs Tom Baker Third No-Hitter

A last inning single by Paul Imburgia, Archmere right fielder, in the final inning cost Tom Baker, ace hurler of the Newark baseball team, his third no-hit game of the season last week as the Yellowjackets downed the Claymonters, 13-1.

Joe Thorpe, Yellowjacket catcher, led the 14-hit attack of the locals when he registered a perfect day at the plate, going four-for-four. Newark scored in all but the fourth inning, jumping off to a seven-run lead in the first two innings with two runs in the first and five in the second to coast to the eighth win of the year.

Potato Shortage To Be Over In June According To OPS

Agency Continues To Crack Down On Potato Dealers Found Selling Over Limit

Retail price ceilings on eastern-grown white potatoes are seven and a half cents a pound on western potatoes, ten cents a pound.

These price ceilings, computed by OPS apply to the entire Pennsylvania, Delaware and southern New Jersey areas. They have been announced as a guide to housewives when making purchases at grocery and produce stores in their neighborhood. OPS said housewives should question any higher quotations.

Eastern potatoes include all potatoes grown from Maine to Florida. Western potatoes include shipments as far west as California, OPS said. The higher ceilings for the latter are due to the added shipping costs involved.

The present shortage of potatoes, resulting from abnormally low plantings in 1951, is expected to end early in June, OPS said. By the end of that month supply should be heavy enough to bring potato prices again below OPS ceiling levels.

Meanwhile, OPS has shown no let-up in its drive against illegal sales and practices in potato distribution. Some 70 cases have already been sent to the U. S. Department of Justice for prosecution. Federal courts have issued injunctions against close to 100 potato dealers.

Over 100 investigations of overcharges, tie-in sales and other illegal practices have been made by OPS agents, many of them temporarily pulled from other assignments. OPS said it will continue these efforts until the crisis is over.

Sgt. Harold Crouse Home After Duty In Korea

S/Sgt. Harold Dean Crouse has recently returned from duty in Korea and is spending a 30-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Oran D. Spratt of Providence, Md. Mrs. Spratt was formerly a resident of Newark.

Direct Commissions In WAF Offered To College Graduates

The rapidly expanding United States Air Force needs 2,800 experienced business and professional women, with college degrees, for apointment as Air Force Reserve officers, it was announced today by M/Sgt. Burleigh Williams of the local Army and Air Force recruiting office.

In its search for qualified candidates for direct commissions as Second or First Lieutenants, the Air Force is stressing successful civilian leadership rather than prior military service. Basically qualified, states Sergeant Williams, are young women, 24 to 32 years of age, who have been accustomed to dealing with the public, and those who held supervisory or managerial positions. Such experience need not necessarily have been for pay, but may have been performed for an organization on a voluntary basis.

To be considered for appointment in the Air Force, all applicants must be college graduates with a bachelor's or higher degree. A young woman who aspires to wear the gold or silver bars of an Air Force Lieutenant need not hesitate to apply because she is married, provided that she has no dependents under 18 years of age.

Women accepted under this program —aimed for completion by July, 1952— will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve, at pay equal to that of other Air Force officers, and initially assigned to an eight-week indoctrination course at San Marcos Air Force Base, near San Antonio, Texas, before receiving their first permanent assignments.

For further information visit or call the local recruiting station located at the Post Office Building, Newark, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Otto Will Take Limited Number Of 3-4 Year-Olds For Training

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Otto announced this week plans for the opening of a nursery school here in Newark this coming September. It will be called the Bellemont Nursery School and will be open to a limited number of three and four-year-olds. If there is sufficient demand, two-year-olds will be admitted for two days during the week.

Its directors, Mr. and Mrs. Otto, have had considerable experience in the educational field. Mr. Otto taught at Cornell University for 10 years. Mrs. Otto, in addition to college training, directed a nursery school in Ithaca, N. Y.

According to the directors, the school will be built around standards set by the National Association of Nursery Education. The staff will be trained and experienced in the care and education of young children, they stated.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds, a graduate of the University of Delaware with a major in child development will be included on the staff.

Mr. Otto also announced that this summer, from July 7 to August 16, the school will offer a course in creative experiences for children from 4 to 10 years of age. The course will include painting, clay work, finger painting, creative dramatics and music appreciation.

Anyone interested is invited to call Mrs. Otto at Newark, 6-8311.

Chrysler Official

James C. Zeder

A living behind-the-scenes story of the fascinating engineering developments of the modern automobile will be presented by the Chrysler Corporation June 14 through June 28 at the John Wanamaker Department Store in Philadelphia.

The announcement of the show was made by James C. Zeder, vice president and director of engineering and research.

More than 3,750,000 persons have inspected Chrysler Corporation's "New Worlds in Engineering" show in New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Dallas, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Kansas City, Detroit, Cleveland and Columbus in the year that the exhibition has toured the country. During that time it has been visited by numerous engineering, Technical school and college and university groups, in addition to the motorists who want to know what makes their cars tick.

In addition to more than 70 moving models and demonstrations the show will demonstrate what has made Chrysler Corporation vehicles safer, more dependable and more comfortable, Mr. Zeder said.

Highlights of the "New Worlds in Engineering" show will be Maxine Regan, a member of the Chrysler Styling Studio who will present a glimpse into the styling of cars as she sketches models of the future. Close to her will be a study of fabrics and possible chrome substitutes which must be considered for a future car.

As a special feature the Chrysler Corporation will present the latest in experimental cars, the C-200.

To fire the imagination of the visitor there is a panel demonstrating an electron microscope which can produce magnifications up to 100,000 to one. By use of this device the actual structure of many kinds of material can be studied in minute detail. For instance, the diameter of the head of an ordinary pin under this microscope, if all of it could be seen at one time, would be eleven yards longer than a regulation football field.

The show is open, free to the public, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily except Wednesday when the hours will be from 12 noon to 9 p.m. The show will be closed on Sunday.
