H. says I ought not to write you on post cards - But in a moment of madness I bought some and must use them on somebody! Hence these tears.
And thus you have been thoroughly instructed in the view the old woman took of her husband.

I have no news, but the idea has seized me, that in the order for my blacks, I did not say, six button length - as I should have done -

The day is one that belonged to the Egyptian darkness and was left over.
We have been moving all the
a. m. from the heights above, and are now properly settled for precisely one month from yesterday - Tomorrow I shall be sixty years old and shall knead the each grain respect from my family, of which you are an important factor
