

Students vs. Administration

Each year all Delaware undergraduates pay $15 each for a student activity fee for the operation of the Student Government Association. The S. G. A. in turn allots this sum as it sees best in a budget which is available for all to see. To go over it briefly, the income is distributed to Review, Cauldron, Blue Hen, social functions, and other student activities, with the surplus being deposited in the sinking fund. Each year approximately $3,000 is placed in the social fund. This money is used to defray the cost of dances, to sponsor class events, etc. In the past years this expenditure was fine, just dandy, O.K. Now we find that it is an extravagant waste of money. How do we know?—the administration tells us so.

SENIORSTHE LOST WEEKEND

One so-called waste of money is the annual Senior Weekend. Approximately one thousand dollars is usually allotted for this occasion—roughly $2.50 per senior—which has been paid by the students themselves. In the spring of '51, $800 was granted. In the spring of '52, $1,057 was allotted. In the spring of '53, $1,000 is too much money. Why should the members of all four classes pay for a weekend for the seniors, asks the administration. Why should the senior class pay for their weekend in one lump sum rather than pay an installment of one-fourth the final figure each year that they are in college, we ask. This year's graduating class has in the neighborhood of $300 in their treasury. It was their desire that this money should be donated for a permanent outside bulletin board. These plans were discontinued because such would probably not be allowed. The suggestion was made by the administration that this money should instead substitute $300 of the S. G. A. money to be used for the Senior Weekend. What this amounts to is this: In the past three years, the Class of '53 have paid one-fourth of approximately $1000 expended in those years for the Senior Weekends. Should the suggested plan be followed for this year, the near-grads would be short-changed by the other classes, since they would be forced to contribute $475 of the $1,000 rather than approximately $250 as contributed by other graduating classes in their senior year.

WANT HEPCATS OR HOEDOWNERS?

A second accused malpractice of the students is the money spent by the S. G. A. to cover deficits from dances. This point was brought out rather emphatically with specific emphasis being placed on one dance in particular. The cause for the sizable loss for this dance is quite obvious and is one for which the S. G. A. has no cause to bear shame. However, practically all of the student dances do operate at a loss. This loss is expected and is provided for in the S. G. A. budget through the social fund. Here's why this condition exists. The students want good bands for the dances. Name bands cost money. Such orchestras as Les Brown and Tex Beneke set a tariff of $2,000 and above. In the bracket from $1300 to $2,000 is Billy May and Ralph Flannagan. Ray McKinley, Johnny Long, Blue Baron and Elliot Lawrence fall in the $811 to $1,300 category, often closer to the former figure. Below $800 are found Buddy Williams and the Delmelodians. Four hundred couples is a very good crowd at a U. of D. dance. To cover the cost of a $2,000 band, $5.00 per couple would have to be charged. This is disregarding the $50-$100 for decorations, $50 for programs, $20 for corsages for chaperones, $25 for piano rental, and $36 for moving and tuning the piano.

THE CURRENT POLICY

Acting under the philosophy that it is better to sponsor a dance at a price that most of the dance-attenders can afford and will attend rather than set the price at an enormous figure that would drive most escorts to Michelob, the S. G. A. fixes the price at a couple of dollars

SGA Sinks $10,000 In Treasury Bonds

At the suggestion of Dick Okonow, S.G.A. Treasurer, an investment of $10,000 in U. S. Treasury Bonds has been made from the S.G.A. Sinking Fund, in order to provide additional funds toward the construction of a new Student Union building. Previous to the approval of the move by the S.G.A. on February 12, the Sinking Fund was merely "resting," but dividends from the bonds will place an average of $225.00 yearly in an account to be opened in the Endowments section of the University records. The bonds will come due in 1962, but may be called in 1959.

Fourteen Schools Will Participate In Del. Play Festival

Prof. Robert Reifsneider Will Act As Critic Judge

Today, March 20, high school students from 14 schools throughout the state are visiting our campus to participate in the Eleventh Delaware Play Festival, sponsored by the University Dramatic Center and the Delaware Dramatic Association. The sessions of one act plays start at 10 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and the Community Theatre organizations will compete for the coveted plaque awarded to the best overall production at 7:30 p.m. tonight. Saturday morning, the high school sessions continue at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Professor Robert D. Reifsneider, a director of the Penn State Players since 1946, is the Critic Judge and will offer a critical analysis to each school's play. Also, he will choose the winners in the Community Theatre division.

Students might be interested to see their high school alma mater in their plays on Mitchell Hall stage. Also, many will have a chance to chat with old friends and teachers. Tickets for all 18 plays in the two-day session are 50c, but student tickets are acknowledged.

On Friday, the following high schools will participate:

10 a.m.—A. I. DuPont High School, Felton High School, Harrington High School.

1:30 p.m.—Delmar High School, Laurel High School, Newark High School, Wilmington High School.

On Friday night at 7:30, the four Community theatre organizations to participate are:

Arden Players Guild, University Drama Group, Walnut St. "Y" Theatre Guild, Wilmington Drama League.

Saturday, the following high schools will participate.

10:00 a.m.—Conrad High School, Millsboro High School, Mount Pleasant High School.

1:30 p.m.—Dover High School, North East High School, Smyrna High School, Ursuline Academy.

Bill Nicoll Appears On TV Panel Show

Bill Nicoll, president of the Student Government Association, has been selected as a panel member on the Junior Press Conference on Sunday, March 22, over WFIL-TV at 1:30 p. m. At that time Bill and other panel members will interview the Honorable Price Daniel, Senator from Texas on the "tidelands oil issue."

The Junior Press Conference is a college TV forum with four college students interviewing the guest of that particular week. Predecessors to Senator Daniel on the Junior Press panel have included Senator Wayne Morse, General Omar Bradley, Mr. Harold Stassen, Senator James Duff, Congressman Walter Judd, Senator George Smathers, and Sir Perry Spender.

The program, televised weekly from 1:30 p. m. to 2 p. m., originates in the WFIL-TV studio at Forty-sixth and Market Streets in Philadelphia.

Students Elect Bobbie Martin To Head May Court, May 16

BOBBIE MARTIN

Maid Of Honor Is Lois Alava; Duchess Is Margie Brennan

Bobbie Martin has been chosen Queen of the May festivities which will be held here at the university on May 16. Her Maid of Honor will be Lois Alava.

Trudy Gilgenast, chairman of the May Court, has announced that other members of the May Court will be: Marjorie Brennan as Senior Duchess, Joan Greenfield and Martha Forsyth as her attendants; Claire Alava as Junior Duchess, Ann Massoth and Olive Smith as her attendants; Genevieve Baird as Sophomore Duchess, Mitzel Greeley and Joan Roman as her attendants; Norma McClellan as Freshman Duchess, and Mary Jane Horty and Lee Seemet as her attendants.

Bobbie Martin, a biology major, comes from Drexel Hill, Pa. Bobbie was a Duchess in the May Court both her freshman and junior years. She is very well known around campus as one of the tireless workers in the S.G.A., of which she is vice-president.

Lois Alava, last year's Cherry Blossom Princess, comes from Wilmington. She is a music major.

Marjorie Brennan, who also comes from Wilmington, is this year's Cherry Blossom Princess. Margie, an English major, was Duchess in the May Court her sophomore year.

A sister combination will be represented on the May Court with Claire and Lois Alava as Junior Duchess and Senior Maid of Honor. Claire is an elementary education major.

Genny Baird, a sophomore Home Economics major, comes from Haddonfield, N. J. Norma McClellan, who comes from Wilmington, is an education major.

Ann Colona and Nancy Goyno are chairmen of the May Day activities this year. Trudy Gilgenast is their assistant.

Women's Weekend Opens Tonight With Semiformal Dance

A surprise will be one of the main features presented at the Women's Weekend dance on Friday, March 20. The dance which will be held from 9 until 1 o'clock in the Field House will officially begin the whirl of activities in store for the weekend. "The Garden of the Gods" will be the theme for the evening with decorations creating the suitable atmosphere. All escorts will be presented with favors at the door, and free refreshments will be served during the evening.

Parties are being planned for Saturday night by the individual dorms. Sunday afternoon there will be various parties including treasure and scavenger hunts, topped off with Sunday night buffet suppers.

Commuters are urged to attend and to participate in the dormitory activities.

Artist Series Features Little Orchestra Society

The remarkable Little Orchestra Society of New York will visit the university in its first extensive tour this season on Thursday, March 26, in Mitchell Hall. This is the final performance this year for the subscription Artist Series.

Thomas Scherman is the director of this group, which has become so popular in New York that the public pays to attend its dress rehearsals. The Little Orchestra plays music especially written for small orchestras by Bach, Mozart, Haydn, Handel, Beethoven, and other masters. A great portion of this music has seldom been heard by American audiences because it has never become established in the repertoire of large symphony orchestras.

This idea, to found the Little Orchestra Society, an ensemble that contains exactly the same instruments as a large modern orchestra but has only 25 musicians, was inspired by Thomas Scherman. It is thus a complete symphony and plays works originally composed for an orchestra of the size and not merely "arrangements."

Students Required To Pay Deposit For Room Reservations

The Office of the Dean of Students has announced that undergraduate students planning to live in a dormitory will be required to pay a 25-dollar deposit in order to reserve a room for the 1953-54 session.

The purpose of the deposit is to eliminate some of the confusion and uncertainty that previously has arisen at registration time with respect to room assignments. The plan was discussed with S. G. A. and representatives of other student groups before its adoption, and has their approval.

The deposit is payable at the Business Office during the period March 23, 1953, to May 15, 1953, inclusive and is credited to the student's account as a payment on his room rent for the first semester 1953-54. The full deposit will be refunded if the student gives written notice of cancellation of the

Echoes On Loosening The Leash

By DON KIDDOO, '52

During this season last year, there was a strong, determined movement in the student body seeking more social freedom, particularly the privilege of allowing women to enter fraternity houses in the afternoons and on weekends unchaperoned. This movement was spearheaded by the Inter-fraternity Council and the editorial columns of The Review, which headed its campaign, "Loosening the Leash."

After a great deal of discussion, investigation, many meetings, and much effort, student representatives found themselves right where they had started and facing the proposition that privileges would be granted when responsibility was exhibited.

I review these facts for the benefit of freshmen and to refresh the memory of those who may have forgotten. We '52'ers have not forgotten.

As a recent graduate viewing the activities of the undergraduate student body through friends still there, and through the pages of The Review, I believe that the time has come for the administration to recognize the responsibility that the student body is now exhibiting and to grant the privileges that have been long sought and long held as a prize to be granted when deserved.

It is common knowledge that, in compliance with the requests of the university, social groups are now effectively self-enforcing existing social regulations. Is this not a clear demonstration that students will cooperate and are now ready for privileges that are nothing more than normal, courteous and quite customary in every day social living?

I refer here to the privilege of allowing a woman to enter a fraternity house unchaperoned under circumstances that are entirely honorable and sociable.

In view of these thoughts, may I direct some questions to the principals and groups who should be taking steps now to "loosen the social leash."

I ask:

I. F. C.: Are you vigorously pursuing the goal of more social freedom that your predecessors have sought for many years with little success? Have you specifically requested the privileges that your member fraternities now deserve?

S. G. A.: Are you supporting your constituents by seeking more realistic social rules for the conduct of all social activities for all living groups?

The Review: Are you allowing the campus to forget this important issue? Have you reminded them to petition the administration to recognize and reward social groups for their self-enforcement of rules. Are you allowing this endless crusade to die a forgotten death?

Dr. Perkins: Have you reviewed the status of existing social regulations in view of student self-enforcement? Are you willing to grant now the privilege of allowing a woman to enter a fraternity house unchaperoned in perfectly honorable, normal, sociable circumstances? Have you recognized the progress of the student body in the past twelve months? Have you forgotten their goal?

Dean Hocutt: Has your acquaintance with the University of Delaware student body convinced you that it deserves some social reforms, some realistic, twentieth century rules of social conduct. Do you plan to follow through with a progressive program of privileges when social groups exhibit and honor the responsibility which has been placed upon them?

All underclassmen: Do you still have the ambition and initiative to seek the social reforms that have been vainly sought by many classes before you. Are you pressing the administration to grant the privileges that have been for years withheld because the administration wanted to see responsibility exhibited before privileges are granted? You should. Progress in the right direction is not made without determined effort, and it is your job to seek and win the privileges that you now deserve, for yourselves and for the classes that follow you.

The Review
University of Delaware
Newark, Delaware

Dear Sir:
What was my amazement, while reading through a recent copy of The Review, to come upon a story about the long-forgotten Newark-Wilmington walk. It was quite a fillip to my morale to find that I am still a record holder.

In the interests of historical accuracy, I must point out that the record breaking walk took place in 1942 not 1943, although, as stated, Leon Heck and I were both members of the Class of '43. As stated, Mr. Bush wrote a very challenging letter to the editor of The Review, casting serious doubts upon the stamina of the "pampered" college youth of 1942. With more bravado than confidence, I immediately drafted an answering letter announcing my intention of surpassing Mr. Bush's 2 hr. 45 minute record, and named the day for the attempt. My roommate at the Theta Chi house, Leon ("Long John") Heck eagerly agreed to make the hike with me.

We started from the gate in front of Old College at 1 p. m. on a Saturday afternoon, after a light lunch carefully supervised by our "Trainers," Art Stewart '44, and Jackson Kety, a special student. I believe The Review ran a picture of the historic start. The walk was without incident, except for the many classmates driving back to Wilmington who slowed down along side long enough to reflect unkindly upon our probity and to speculate on how far we would get. Little did they know that I was in top shape for the event, having often covered considerable stretches of the same road, by the same means, after a date in Wilmington. I never could seem to catch that last bus.

At this point I feel constrained to say that while Mr. Bush was, of course, wrong in 1942, college students seem to have softened up a good deal in the eleven years since then, and I seriously doubt that a student of this era can surpass Leon's and my record of 2 hr. 23 minutes.

Also a clarification of the ground rules would seem in order. It must be emphasized that this is a walk, and running is not allowed. Also, normal street wear, not athletic costume, is the prescribed garb. To the best of my knowledge, none of the prior contestants ever trained for the event, and I feel that this, too, should probably be prohibited.

I am hoping, though, it will be close, that I will be back in the States in time to attend my class's tenth reunion, and, if so, will be very interested to discover the results of the latest renewal of this "Classic."

Sincerely,
Howard R. Smith, '43

Notice To Honor Students

Among those students who graduate in the upper portion of their class there are usually many who plan to enter graduate schools for further study after graduating at the University of Delaware. To assist these and other undergraduates in the selection of a graduate school and to make available to them information concerning scholarships and fellowships, Dr. William G. Fletcher and Dr. C. J. Rees will be in Room 220 Hulihan Hall, Wednesday, March 25, at 4:15 p. m. to discuss graduate studies and to answer questions.

Post-election Period

Don't Vote And Stop

$15.00 is a rather expensive vote. That is just what is costing you when you cast (or ignore) your vote for the new slate of S.G.A. personnel. Multiply this $15.00 times the number of names on the list of U. of D. undergraduates and observe the sizable figure that you obtain.

Several new items have been mentioned in S.G.A. this year, a new Student Union Building and student radio station, to name two. Such projects will involve a considerable outlay of cash plus certain student obligations. The members of our student government are faced with these problems — and frequently without the benefit of the overall student feelings.

There have been instances in the past where decisions and expenditures of the S. G. A. caused unfavorable comment among the student body, after it had happened. The fault of the S. G. A. — hardly. Error of the students? — more likely.

How do you want your $15.00 spent next year? What do you want done that can't be bought with cash. Which of the candidates for election can, in your opinion, do the best job? It is important that you indicate your choice in the coming election. It is more important that you personally enlighten the new S. G. A. officers concerning matters which inevitably will arise. The term, "representative," should be made to mean much more. — W. G. D.

Students Expenditures

and forks over the rest of the bill. Should they attempt to make the ticket price cover the dance, Carpenter Field House would look like someone had scheduled a class there — only a few would appear. It is possible to make money on a dance of this nature. Should the U. of D. adequately advertise in Wilmington when a big name band was coming, the dance could easily show a profit. The dance could also show about 60 per cent outsiders — hardly a school affair. In 1950 every penny of the social fund was spent. That condition is not true now. Even at this sign of progress, considerable criticism by the administration has been raised.

The students contribute their money, not for the use of the university, but for their own expenditures. The finances of the S. G. A. have not been used in a manner which would violate any moral code. The students should be given at least this one liberty by the administration — the right to use the money as they see fit! — W. G. D.

ALUMNI NOTES

By

Martha

Shillito

2nd Looie Giff Nowland, class of '52, visited the Sig Ep diggings Saturday night. Apparently Bloomer Girl drew all the ex-52ers back to the Udell Campus. Giff, former history major, is stationed in Philadelphia with the artillery.

Two football-baseball players spent the week-end with their alma mater. Joe Lank, winner of the Taylor Award and Udell's Outstanding Athlete, and Al Brodhag, both stationed near Philadelphia, shed their military bearing and returned to "the ways of college boys" for a few days. Joe is sailing for Germany on May 14 to begin a three-year tour of duty.

How would you like to spend your days in a classroom and your nights in a barroom . . . and make it pay? Only an ex-"Campus Cave Man" could do it. Fred Hartman, Theta Chi of '50, is a journalism grad student at Columbia and also the best bartender MsGinnis' ever had. Drop in to see him, Brother OX's; Broadway and 48th, New York.

It must be a good fraternity — can't separate the brothers even after graduation. Ex-Snake Lt. Jack Ponton, class of '52, is in charge of teaching Radar Technique. Sgt. Ed Gode, another Greek Reptile, is an instructor under Lt. Jack.

Bill Covey, Udell of '52, will make Snake-Charmer Marge Minehan his Mrs. on April 11. Bill, 2nd Looie by courtesy of ROTC, is stationed at Aberdeen.

Doc "Scaramouche" Walls signed away his freedom to Joan Homiller on March 5 with one of those third finger, left hand sparklers. By the way, the younger member of the Walls family can't introduce Doc as his "Big Fat Brother" anymore; he's been on a diet. Wish we could print an admiring whistle.

John Finney Downham, Theta Chi of '51, and Katherine Leggett Downham, class of '52, became "mama" and "papa" to a son in January. A little late, but congratulations anyway.

The E-52 production and party drew grads from '51 and '52 back to the dusty campus. Giff Nowland of '52 represented the Sig Eps; Tom O'Donnell, prexy of the Deltas, same year, harmonized with undergrads; Kay Alston and Eleanor Pearce, now guiding the paths of little urchins, trekked back to the old stamping ground.

English Department Announces Judges For Writing Contest

Judges for the eighth annual creative writing contest, sponsored by the English Department for all undergraduates, were announced today by Mrs. Sara B. Rogers, chairman of the contest.

The judges are Miss Helen Merrill, instructor in English at the Middletown High School; Mrs. Abraham Shuchman, chief of Research and Public Relations, State Department of Public Welfare; and Mr. John J. Harty, who is associated with the DuPont Company.

Miss Merrill, who has taught high school English for the past ten years, is a graduate of the State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, and of Duke University. She has traveled extensively in the United States and made a trip to Europe during the summer of 1951. She is particularly interested in contemporary literature.

Mrs. Shuchman, who accepted her present post with the Department of Public Welfare after returning to this country from a year's stay in Germany, is a graduate of the University of Delaware where she won the fiction award in the English Department's writing contest in 1946 and 1947. Since her graduation, Mrs. Shuchman has been employed as a promotion writer for Scott-Foresman and Company, educational publishers, as woman's editor and feature writer for the Wilmington Sunday Star, and as continuity writer for Radio Station WTUX in Wilmington.

Mr. Harty, who is also a graduate of the University of Delaware, served as editor of the Cauldron, the undergraduate literary magazine, during his senior year. Mr. Harty, who is interested in contemporary art and literature, is now exhibiting two paintings in the current Alumni Art Exhibit at the University of Delaware.

Prizes for the creative writing contest, which closes Friday, March 27, will be awarded at the Honors Day exercises on May 21. In addition to Mrs. Rogers, the contest committee includes Mr. David Green and Mr. Edward Hungerford, all members of the English Department.

Children's Theatre Rehearsals Begin

The Sixth Children's Theatre Tour, given by the E-52 Players and the Department of Dramatic Arts and Speech, will present a record of 15 performances of "Cinderella," which is the largest number of performances ever given by the E-52 Players for the same play.

The tour will open with performances in Mitchell Hall on Thursday evening, April 30 and Friday afternoon, May 1. On Saturday afternoon of that week there will be two performances at the Playhouse in Wilmington under the auspices of the Alumnae Association. This will also present a "First" performance of the E-52 Players in the Playhouse, and the "first" time the Players have included Wilmington in their Children's Theatre Tour.

Beginning the following Wednesday morning, May 6, performances will be given morning, afternoon, and evening on a schedule which included the Governor Bacon Health Center, Dover, Camden, Bridgeville, Lewes and Georgetown (two performances each), Seaford, Selbyville, and Easton (Md.).

As a result of tryouts held three weeks ago the following cast has been selected: Judith Kase as "Cinderella," Barbara Baker as the Stepmother, Ann Armstrong and Irene Klahr as the two sisters, Ellen Ungerleider as the Fairy Godmother, Howard Seebach as the Prince, and Ed Phillips as the Lord Chamberlain.

German Clubs Aid War Orphan

Supporting a 12 year old German lad continues to be the leading project of the two German clubs at Wagner. Through the "Save the Children Federation" at New York, Peter Wilhelm of Hamburg, Germany, is being supplied with food, clothing, and shelter by the Wagner groups. This boy is an orphan. His mother and father died during the last war, and he now lives with his grandparents.

Fire!

Within two days, two fires have broken out at Lafayette. According to unofficial comments, the fires might have been caused by an arsonist. The first of the two fires caused an estimated damage of $20,000. The second blaze was discovered in its early stages and was quickly brought under control.

Dr. H. Gezork Reveals Four Ways to Fight Threat of Communism

Dr. H. Gezork spoke at a chapel program on the "Answer to Communism." He stated that the greatest threat to western civilization and Christianity is Marxist Communism which in only 100 years has attracted 800 million people within its power. In order to meet the communist challenge, he proposed four answers:

1. Military power. "Communism is a great military power against which we must be militarily strong to push back," he said.
2. Economic power. United States should help peoples of other nations maintain good living standards.
3. The Democratic Way. Live up to our ideals of freedom and equality.
4. Spiritual Way. Christianity has answers to "Why am I here?" According to Dr. Gezork the "spiritual way" is the main answer to Communism.

ACP National Poll Of Student Opinion

(ACP) College students overwhelmingly disapprove of enrollment policies which discriminate against Negroes, according to the Associated Collegiate Press National Poll of Student Opinion.

Students from all sections of the country were asked: What is your opinion of college policies which state that Negroes may not enroll there? Here are the results:

Approve 17 per cent
Disapprove 76 per cent
No opinion 5 per cent
Other 2 per cent

Students in the South are more evenly split on the question, but show a clear-cut majority against segregation. Here's the comparison between North and South:

	NORTH	SOUTH
Approve	5 per cent	35 per cent
Disapprove	90 per cent	53 per cent
No opinion	4 per cent	7 per cent
Other	1 per cent	5 per cent

Students who approve of segregation often point to equal but separate school facilities. "Equivalent schooling can usually be provided elsewhere," says a freshman at Agnes Scott College, a girls' school in Atlanta, Ga.

"Negroes have their own colleges where whites may not enroll," says an engineering junior at The Citadel, Charleston, South Carolina.

A sophomore at Gustavus Adolphus College, Minn., comments, "The sooner we realize Negroes are human and will act human if treated in such a way, the better it will be for all."

A male education student at Southeastern Missouri State Teachers College thinks "mixing" would be "uncomfortable for both white and colored races." But he adds, "I don't mean Mexican and other dark races."

Tentative Programs For College Hour Announced

An announcement of tentative college hours for the months of March, April, and May includes a film presentation on March 26 with "The Delaware Story," a new movie by the telephone company, and the University of Delaware film.

Scheduled for April 23, is a program sponsored by the English Department, which also may be a film.

While plans for May are still being formed, the presentation of an Honors Day program, singing by the men's and women's chorus, and a Blood drive program are being seriously considered.

'Neath The Arches

The beards are off, the makeup finally washed out, and the shipwrecked passengers are back on an even keel. It was a real crazy weekend for most of us. The long-awaited Bowery Ball roared into town, the Bloomer Girl cast threw a big one, the Sig Eps got lost at sea, and the KA's had a casino party. Up on Pike's Peak, another party was in progress, and on the corner the ATO's were host to neighboring brothers.

Up at the OX house, they were dancin' on the ceiling and up the walls. Wow those costumes... What a revelation!! Kay Oliver and Frank Hellig, Marty Baldwin and Gary Buckwalter, Jose, Judy Rigger and Bill Hopson, Mary Lou Miles and Don Montgomery, Janet Kennedy and Ingo, were all milling around staring and leering at the cartoons on the walls.

Jack Ryan (the shark) ended up with all the money at KA Saturday night. Ted Hughes and Syd Redfield, Ed Branecki and Nancy Schug, Kenny Smith and Jackie Hackett, and Jim Bueche and Kay Baur all tried valiantly to beat the percentages. Some one should have been lucky with all the St. Patrick spirit around. Irish Jack Ryan really took advantage of the atmosphere.

Sig Eps, in keeping with the Spirit of Costume Weekend, were shipwrecked in the Panther Room. Can you think of a better place? Sitting beneath the palms and battling the wild beasts; the new president, Dick Hughes, and Tish Ware, Don Williamson and Estelle Ryon, and Bill Richle and Lois Pellegrine.

Carrie Welmer entertained the grease paint crew from Bloomer Girl. A few people dropped in on it after the other parties were over. Stu Jackson and Judy dropped in after OX's let out. Stu was sporting a new face, we hear.

Tom Phillips and Marty Murphy, Bill Ward and Ann Armstrong, Bob Swain and Cynie Flery, Martha Shillito and Jack Kinter and a host of others and cast of thousands helped to make it A GOOD WAN.

The Armchair Umpire

By CHARLIE WILLIS

The dribbling of basketballs, the grunt and groans of wrestlers, and splashing of swimmers making their last turns have faded into the background for another year. Heard now, throughout balmy spring breezes are cracking fungoes, swishing of eight irons, crunching cinders, cross court smashes and desperate lunges by goalies.

The majority of the spring sports don't begin officially until after spring vacation. However, Coach Siemen's baseball nine and Coach Milt Roberts' lacrosse team swing into action March 30 and 26 respectively.

Ohio State, from the Big Ten, will be the first lacrosse opponent this year. This is the first Big Ten lacrosse team ever to invade the Newark campus. The Blue and Gold will be seeking to make it two straight victories over the Ohio squad as the Hens overpowered the "Buckeyes" in last year's meeting at Columbus 14-3.

The members of the swimming team that competed in last Saturday's ECSA Championship placed the University of Delaware on the swimming map. Their performance may be an indication of things to come next year — we hope so. Charlie Presnell, twice MAC diving champ, displayed excellent form in winning first honors in the one meter diving event. Charlie showed his versatility by capturing a second in the three meter event, which was the first time this year he had an opportunity of diving from this height. Charlie will seek further honors tomorrow at Harvard where he will compete against top-notch League divers in the EISL Championship. In addition to Presnell, Ted Zutz gained fourth place in the 100 yard and 200 yard backstroke; and other fourths taken were by Lorin Krusberg in the 440 yard freestyle and Bob Wagner in the 100 yard breaststroke.

Sidelights — Golf captain Ronnie Watson was runner-up in last year's Delaware State Amateurs Golf Tournament — Delaware's all-opponent and all-conference basketball team will be in the next edition of the Review — Dick Knoll is now doing the golf write-ups. The track team which is rolling along in fine style with two convincing practice meet victories, seek victory number three against Albright tomorrow.

Speaking of Ronnie Watson, this versatile athlete can also be viewed preforming for the track team, where he is both a high and broad jumper. He has also seen action on the basketball court, but has been held back by a bad knee.

What with all the shifting in the major leagues being rumored around, we thought we might start a rumor of our own. From a reliable source it has been announced that a Newark Corporation headed by Mrs. Mack and "Pop" Roberts will purchase the New York Yankees and move them into the new Delaware stadium.

Three former Delaware basketball stars are now starting for two teams entered in the Dover tourney. Rocco's club of Wilmington features Frank Albera, former Delaware Captain, and Buddy Kee. Kee, always known for his great foul-shooting accuracy, moved Rocco's into the semi-finals with a pair of his favorites in a thrilling finish. Dick Evans, this year's Delaware captain till he graduated at mid-term, is starring for the Laurel entry which will also compete in the semi-finals. Dick also stars at first base for some of the down state amateur teams.

Glancing through the mail bag, we see where the Muhlenberg basketball team needs one more win to chalk up a better than .500 record for the season. The way Friedman, Maxwell and company scored against the Hens, Delaware rooters would be led to believe they were heading for an undefeated season. Lafayette College's releases are again the same as they were last year. The Maroon is again in the midst of a rebuilding process during Spring football practice as they were this time last year.

If you notice a worried look on Coach Seed Emmerson's face as he hustles around campus, it might be because "500-point" Crawford is out for Spring football practice. . . Jim Kinch will be the tallest man ever to represent Delaware on the basketball court next season, measuring 6'7" in his bare sneakers. (No socks).

 MARCH 24, 25, 26
 WOMENS' GYM
 8 P. M. — NO ADMISSION CHARGE

Yes, the dates for the Aquatic Club show are upon us at last. This year the theme for the show is "Through the Year." Each month of the year is well-represented by tunes that you all have heard many times over. You'll be watching synchronized and rhythmic swimming to such popular tunes as "Stormy Weather," "Summertime," and "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." Would like to tell you all more, but think I'll save the rest for a most pleasant evening watching this beautiful show.

The Womens' Aquatic Club is an honorary organization. Club membership is based upon watermanship skill as determined in tryouts. It offers the accomplished swimmer an opportunity to do advanced and creative work in an informal group situation. Members participating in this year's show are Allison Buckley, Virginia Wells, Dana Lamb, Bobby Wynn, Pat Thompson, Mary Lou Pinder, Lucy Lashar, Judy Warner, Dot Frye, Norma Parks, Liz Stafford, Nancy Goynne, Phyllis Dobb, Alice Simon and Elaine Hanlon.

Be sure to go!! It's a show you just can't miss!!!

Track Team Shows Hustle In Two Practice Meets

Coach Steer's hustling track team has scored two straight victories in practice meets thus far against Temple and West Chester. This Saturday the Blue and Gold meets Albright in Carpenter Field House at 1:30 p. m. Competition from Albright's trackmen are not expected to be as strong as the previous two meets this season. However, these indoor practice meets serve as excellent tune-ups for the coming season, which officially begins April 15 at Lehigh University.

Elwood Albert, champion Albright pole vaulter and holder of Carpenter Field House record with 12' 4", may pose as a serious threat to Delaware. If the cindermen from the U. of D. keep up their excellent form as displayed in previous matches, they're sure to come through with a fine performance this Saturday.

Delaware Mermen Place Fourth In Eastern Collegiate Swimming Meet

Baseball Season Opens March 30

Bob Siemen, new head baseball coach, believes this year's Hens nine is man for man as strong as last year's team and expects a season comparably successful to that team which won 13 and lost 6. Siemen isn't at all new on the coaching scene or in baseball. He has already coached varsity tennis, frosh basketball for seven years, and frosh baseball. He joined the Athletic Staff at Delaware in 1946, three years after graduating from here. Bob was a four letterman as an undergraduate.

Siemen put his ball club through a practice game Saturday and was well satisfied with the team, although he admitted that the fielding of bunts and the fielding of the outer guards could be improved. The Hens big four on the hill all worked three impressive innings. This quartet consists of veteran southpaw Lew Wright, last year's reliever Duke Evans, sophomore Dave Woodward and burly Ed "Moose" Morrow who threw a no-hitter for the frosh last year. Bill "Buck" Jones, hardest thrower on the squad, Dave Danello, Chuck Talpey, Pete Kelleher, and Mat Lamkin all could become first line throwers.

Handling the pitches behind the plate will probably be either Bob Trivits or John Stevens. Trivits has an edge in speed, but whichever man impresses with the stick will probably get the job.

Football captain Paul Mueller and smooth fielding Jack Wiberg, are a toss-up a first base with Charlie Rodriguez giving some outside competition. Mueller hits the longer ball, but his fielding isn't up to Wiberg's.

Jim Money-maker, who hit over .300 last year, will again hold down second base. Ray Hoopes has looked good and will provide insurance here. Jim Meyers, ineligible because he signed a professional contract, has been replaced by hard hitting Captain Chuck Abrams, who now moves from third to short. Bill Annonio, who has taken over the third base job, has looked good and probably will start the season there. Jack Messick is also capable of playing third and should make a topflight utility man.

The outer garden will have the fleet John Allen in center, Frank Serpico again in right, and either Gordon Murray or Gary Buckwalter in left. Tom Redfield, Bill Lloyd, and "Butch" Thompson are other outfield candidates who could break into the starting lineups.

Diamond Dust

Gordon Murray, Chuck Abrams, Tom Redfield and John Allen all hit the ball well in Saturday's scrimmage.

Last year's Hen backstop, Al "Buster" Brodhag, who made All-American, is working out with the Phillies when he gets time off from the Army.

Delaware had better have a road ball club this spring because 17 of the 24 games scheduled are on foreign diamonds.

Delaware's ace diver, Charlie Presnell, is entered in the Eastern Intercollegiate meet being held at Harvard this weekend. Presnell scored a first place in the 1-meter and a second in the 3-meter dives last week in the Eastern Collegiate championships.

Presnell Wins One Meter Competition

It took only 5 men to place Delaware fourth in the Thirtieth Annual Eastern Collegiate Swimming Meet held at New York University Pool in the heart of New York City. The co-captain of the Delaware team, Charlie Presnell, displaying almost perfect diving form, won the Eastern Collegiate one-meter diving championship and placed second in the 3-meter diving competition, although it was the first time he had dived from that height this season. Taylor Pool does not have a high board.

Charlie went far out ahead of the runner-up in the 1-meter diving competition, scoring 121.98 points for twelve optional dives. The second and third places were tightly contested between Lewis of N. Y. U. and Blosser of Pitt, who posted final tabulations of 112.35 and 112.07 respectively after the last dive.

In the three-meter diving Blosser of Pitt scored 134.57 while Presnell way out-pointed the third man with 125.8. Ted Zutz placed fourth in both the 100 yd. and 200 yd. backstroke events. Teddy took the 100 in 1:06.3 and the 200 in 2:28.

Bob Wagner copped a fourth in the 100 yd. breaststroke with a 1:06.3. Bob finished sixth in the 200 yd. breast with a 2:36. Lorin Krusberg pulled a fourth place in the 440 yd. freestyle events. Tony Di Maio did not qualify in the afternoon breaststroke event.

In Presnell's last dual meet in Taylor Pool, he set a new Delaware team and pool record by scoring 90.11 points to better his own record set earlier this year. This is the swimming team's first chance to place a member in Delaware's Hall of Fame.

Next week Coach Harry Rawstrom will take a few members of the team to Harvard to compete in the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming Meet.

Delaware Golfmen Begin Practice For Season's Opener

Now that spring has finally arrived, Delaware's golf men can be seen on the greens of the Newark Country Club practicing for the coming season. Prospects are bright this year of bettering last year's record of 6-6.

This year's linksmen will be under the able leadership of Coach Fred Emmerson and Captain Ron Watson who is in his third year of varsity competition. Along with Captain Watson, the squad will be bolstered by three returning lettermen, Bill Valler, Bob Waples, and Carl Wolf. Among the aspirants who are striving to fill out the remaining three positions, two regulars and an alternate, are John Roseberry, Bill Shaw, Jim Cowan, Tom Martin, John Ferrone, and Dana Burch.

The opening match with West Chester at the Newark Country Club draws the curtain on a 5 home, 5 away schedule which is highlighted by some of the better golf teams in the eastern area. The schedule is as follows:

Apr. 14—West Chester Home (2 p.m.)
 Apr. 17—Temple U. Home (2 p.m.)
 Apr. 23—Lehigh University Away
 Apr. 28—Bucknell U. Home (2 p.m.)
 May 1—Johns Hopkins Away
 May 6—Swarthmore Coll. Home (2 p.m.)
 May 8—Lafayette College Away
 May 13—Pennsylvania Away
 May 20—Drexel Institute Home (2 p.m.)
 May 25—St. Joseph's Away
 Home matches at Newark Country Club.

Medley Team Breaks Record In Mid Atlantic Championships

After a very successful season of 8-1, Harry Rawstrom's mermen captured second place in the Middle Atlantic Championships on March 7 at Lancaster. The home team, Franklin and Marshall, pulled a third. It was Lehigh who for the third straight year came out of the tank with top honors.

The Delaware 300 yard medley relay team broke a MACSA record. The former record was held by a Delaware team of Art Mayer, Charles Lloyd and George Ester at 3:07. The new record was set at a 3:06 by Art Mayer, Bob Wagner, and George Ester. This time is eight-tenths of a second off the Delaware record set at Taylor Pool the Saturday before against Lafayette.

In the medley relay, Lehigh's back stroker went out in the first leg of the race about three seconds better than Delaware's Mayer. Bob Wagner took over for Delaware and decreased Lehigh's lead. Then George Ester dove in and cut the lead down, until he was a foot behind Lehigh's man and two feet from the finish. Esther then pushed past the Lehigh's man by a touch to win the event for Delaware in record breaking time. Lorin Krusberg took second place in the 220 yard and the 440 yard free style to Lehigh's Don Williams.

Charlie Presnell took first honors in the diving with a score of 73.33 points. Close behind Presnell was Bryon Heston of Gettysburg, who was leading the pack going into the last round of diving. It took a tricky half gainer-half twist, one and one half somersault for Presnell to retain his diving crown for the second year in a row.

Ester placed fifth in the 100 yard freestyle and Art Mayer and Bob Wagner took a second in the 200 yard back and breast stroke respectively.

In the freshman events Stewart, Duff and Freibott took second honors in the 300 medley relay. Fred Freibott placed second and Tom Duff pulled sixth in the 220 yard freestyle. The freshman 400 yard relay placed fourth.

Looking ahead for next year, Rawstrom is going to lose some very big men, but it looks as though a few of the freshmen are going to help fill some of the large holes left by such men as Presnell, Mayer and Ester.

Lacrossemen Scrimmage Maryland Club

The Maryland Lacrosse Club presents the first opposition for the Delaware team tomorrow on Frazer Field at 2 p. m. This is the first scrimmage of the season.

The Maryland team is one of the leading lacrosse powers in the country, boasting excellent seasonal records during the past several years. Several former college All-Americans will play for the Maryland eleven.

The regular season commences Thursday when Ohio State visits the Blue Hen campus. Delaware defeated Ohio State last season 14-3.

Captain Jack Kinter will lead the Hens on offense with help from Kirk Banks and Jim Schaubel. Goalie Pat Morris leads the defense.

Hen Netmen Begin Spring Practices

The Blue Hen Tennis team has begun its pre-season workouts in Carpenter Field House, with an exceptionally large number of candidates turning out for both the Varsity and the Freshmen squads. This year's edition of the Delaware Netmen, co-captained by Frank White and Larry Cooperman, lists on its candidate roster Martin Burns, Stanley Crewe, Thomas Daley, Robert Dryden, James Hoey, Thomas Hopkins, Harold Ladd, Glenn McKibbin, George Reed, Pete Runkle, John Schuerman, Carl Schupp, and John Miles. The Blue Chick list at the present time numbers some eighteen men: W. V. Collings, John Farley, Walter Jebens, Richard Koch, Thomas Metz, H. T. Moore, Ed Mortlock, W. H. Nolde, Howard Simpkins, John Smith, Harry Veale, Kenneth Whittington, Arnold Williams, Wm. Wood, Art Elsner, Chas. Ingram, Howard McCurdy, and Tom Duff.

With the exception of Frank White, Delaware State, Public Parks, and Wilmington City Champion, who compiled the impressive record of ten wins in twelve matches last season, losing only to Coss of Swarthmore and Hubinger of Lafayette, the varsity lineup is at this point undetermined. The loss of four members of last year's squad, two via the graduation route and two through scholastic ineligibility, renders the competition for berths relatively wide open. Only a month remains until the opening match with Johns Hopkins, April 18 on the Frazer Field

Courts, but if the hoped for tennis weather arrives soon, outdoor practices and intra-squad matches should produce a formidable lineup to oppose the Hopkinsmen.

Intramural Highlights

The final week of volleyball is now here, and three teams are supporting clean slates at this point. Kappa Alpha, last year's champion, has one victory to their credit. Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon have each copped five contests.

Sig Ep, bolstered by the addition of 6'7" Jim Kinch, is the favored choice to take the volleyball laurels. Others on the team are Frank White and John Tuley who give the "Panthers" much height. Jim Schaubel and John Kinter supply most of the height for Sigma Nu. The standings at this time are:

Sigma Phi Epsilon	5-0
Sigma Nu	5-0
Kappa Alpha	1-0
Alpha Tau Omega	5-1
Phi Kappa Tau	4-2
Theta Chi	2-1
Alpha Epsilon Pi	3-2
Sigma Nu "B"	1-4
Chem Engineers	1-5
Phi Kappa Alpha	0-3

Wertenbaker Talks At Arts Program

Dr. Thomas Jefferson Wertenbaker, historian, teacher, and journalist, will be speaker under the American Decorative Arts Program next Tuesday, March 24, at 8:15 p.m. in Wolf Hall.

Dr. Wertenbaker has devoted a large share of his scholarly work to interpreting the history of his native Virginia. An authority on the American Colonial Period, he has long been associated with Colonial Williamsburg and with the Institute of Early American History and Culture at Williamsburg. Immediately after his retirement from Princeton in 1947, he spent two years in Williamsburg engaged in research and writing. The range of his historical writings covers the entire time of early American life. His published volumes include The Founding of American Civilization, The Middle Colonies, and The Old South and The Puritan Oligarchy.

Dr. Wertenbaker will conduct his talk on "The Culture of the Old South."

Theatre Review...

By JUDY KASE

The E-52 Players rate a healthy round of applause for a job well done on "Bloomer Girl." Much credit should be handed to the capable team of directors who co-ordinated the entire show. The choreography, directed by Miss Elizabeth Crook, was both interesting and well-timed and the vocal work, especially the chorus, directed by Mr. Marvin Fennema, was sung with depth and vitality, and literally carried the show. Especially outstanding in the choral numbers were "Pretty as a Picture," and "Sunday In Cicero Falls." The sets were beautifully and appropriately designed by Mr. Herman Middleton, and the costumes, especially in the fashion show scene, proved a great asset to the entire picture. Mr. Thomas B. Pegg capably directed the show, gave interesting and varied pictures, while keeping a unified mood of quaintness alive throughout the show.

The acting was, on the whole, well done by a capable cast. Bill Harkins played the slave, "Pompey," with true warmth and displayed his ability to sell a song quite ably in his hit numbers, "The Eagle and Me," and "I Got a Song." Jane Banks scored a tremendous success in her role as "Daisy," the maid at the Applegate household, and a radical believer in Aunt Dolly's bloomers, especially in her songs "T'morra," and "Never Was Born." Mary Little was both pretty and charming as "Evalina," and Howard Seebach ably portrayed the suave, southern gentleman, Jefferson Lightfoot Calhoun. Special mention should go to Harvey Porter, and James Sabo, who played "Horatio Applegate" and "Sheriff Quimby" respectively.

The outstanding singers of the show were Valerie Ross, Mary Lou Conover, Bill Harkins and Jane Banks. The hit song was "The Farmer's Daughter," sung by Larry Cooperman, Jack Mealey, George Cavey, Tony Mitchell and Dave Allen.

Commuters Meet; Discuss Activities

The Women Commuters met Monday, March 16, in the Women Commuters' room in the basement of Robinson Hall. Gunvor Thureson announced that the Women's dormitories have invited the commuters to their parties on Saturday night of Women's Weekend. The group greatly appreciated the invitations. Gunvor also gave a report on the Women's Affairs meeting and announced the women candidates for the SGA offices.

The group voted to participate in the Carnival for the benefit of a new Student Union building. They also showed great enthusiasm in working for a commuters' room in this building. The treasurer, Bernadine Patterson, gave several suggestions for raising money for the benefit of the group.

A committee was appointed to compose a letter to be sent in summer to the women commuters of the Class of 1957, informing them of this organized club and its functions. Those on the committees are Margaret Bueche, Irene Klahr, Mary Moore, and Katherine Heverin. Peggy Woerner was appointed chairman of the publicity committee.

It was decided by the group to have a bulletin board on which will be posted the minutes of the previous meeting and clippings from the various newspapers containing news about our fellow commuters.

Plant Development

Another phase of Du Pont production activities offers challenging work for the technical man

E. H. Ten Eyck, Jr., B.S. in Ch.E., Syracuse '43, Ph.D. in Ch.E., Brooklyn Polytech '50, and W. H. Stevens, Jr., B.S. in Ch.E., Yale '50, take recordings on a new nylon unit.

D. S. Warner, B.S. in M.E., Purdue '47, and G. R. Prescott, B.S. in Met. E., Columbia '49, discuss improvements for stainless steel liners in tubes carrying corrosive materials.

In most Du Pont manufacturing plants you'll find two groups of engineers working side by side to make operations more efficient—to reduce costs and improve quality. The specialized work of one group, the production supervisors, has been rather fully discussed in the Digest.

Equally vital is the work of development men—the men responsible for advising management when operational changes should be made for economic or technical reasons.

Engineers from several fields of training are employed in development activities at Du Pont. It seems to have a special appeal for the man who can take on a big problem, analyze its parts, and come up with a thoughtful, reasoned solution.

Individual development studies may begin in a number of different ways. Often they are sparked by the imagination of the engineer himself, who, of course, must be familiar with production costs, activities of competition, and recent or impending technical improvements.

Studies also may be inspired by suggestions of production supervisors or sales personnel, obsolescence of equipment, advances in competitive products, or the presence of unsatisfactory profit margins.

In a single study, the engineer may draw data from laboratories, semi-works and plant-scale experiments, prepare an estimate of profits and investments and consult with numerous specialists on various phases of the problem, both within the Company and outside.

Having collected data from these many sources and perhaps from an independent study of his own, the plant development engineer must then assemble and evaluate the material and prepare a recommendation that is based on sound engineering judgment.

Whether a product or process improves from the standpoint of competition, profit and efficiency depends, in great degree, on the quality of its plant development work. The development engineer's job is a responsible one at Du Pont, and the work of a good man is soon noticed.

We are relieved to see that everything has more or less settled back to normal after a fairly hectic weekend. The climax was Saturday night at the house party. We are thinking seriously of changing our house into a Riviera, what with all the "BJ," roulette, and other assorted contests which have been going on. Everyone on campus is whispering how "Steve" Roberts was hawking the gambling tables. Major consensus: they really know how to dress in Bermuda.

With boxing and wrestling only a week away, conditioning regulations are being strictly enforced. We recommend that "Bert" Runkle establish a Scrounge training table for our aspiring Deer Park gladiators.

Morgan Knapp, K.A. "alumnus," now has a desk job in the asphalt emptying-cleaning department at Chrysler Tank Plant. Morgan is wondering why white collar workers have to report to work at 6 a.m.

Our compliments to E-52 on their fine performance of Bloomer Girl and congratulations to Bobbie Martin for being this spring's May Queen.

Party, party—and the Pike House went wild. Herb Heyl broke into the news this week by virtue of his bringing a date to the party. Then there was Bill Bailey who made out with every one's date but his own—wife, that is.

Could it have been the colored tables and Bob Pillow's musical notes on the piano that livened up the party? Poor Carol Hewitt—she was at the party, but she didn't have a date. Is she still mad at you, Serp?

Don and Jeanette Shannon, Bill and Mouse Thompson, and Berl and Betty Crompton showed up Saturday to lend some of that alumni support.

Congratulations are in order to the new officers who were installed Tuesday night. They are George Palmer, president; Frank Serpico, vice president; and Pete Petrucci, treasurer. Jim Cowan received a rousing vote of confidence when he was elected to the post of house manager.

Question — Where did Serp lose his voice?
And then there's Dan Cupid Palmer who has been acting as unofficial chauffeur for a certain couple.

Phi Kappa Tau

Congratulations to new brothers Martin Burns, Jim Gobbs, Jim Glick, Bob Horne, John Fernandez, John Siczka, and Joe Zappo. What local judicial official extended formal greetings to the new brothers after their celebration? That trumpet had hot notes for 2 a.m.

Several of the brothers and their dates journeyed to Cedar Inn Saturday night. Among those seen were John Fernandez and Lois West, Dan Strecker and Jo Chandler, and Wayne Kirklon and Peggy Brenner.

Congratulations are also in order for our new officers: Bill Shaw, president; Jack Beatty, vice-president; Dan Strecker, secretary; and Bob Spencer, treasurer. Let's carry on the swell job our retiring officers have accomplished.

Now that bowling is in full swing Jack Beatty, John McLaughlin, Ron Watson, Dick Harper, and pledge John Martin are rolling for Phi Tau.

Which Phi Tau is expectantly waiting for a letter from northern Pennsylvania???

Sigma Phi Epsilon

T.V.-viewers the world over were thrilled last Thursday afternoon by the appearance of pledges Don Williamson, Eddie Riggin, Tom Moore, Ted Hobbs, and Howie Simkins on WFIL'S BANDSTAND. Riggin and Williamson entered the dance contest and Miss Karen Chandler of "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me" song fame, serenaded Eddie, ending with a kiss. We hear by way of the vine, that a certain girl named June was apprehended by the local constabulary the same afternoon. The charge... heaving a brick through a T.V. showroom window on Main Street. Hooper says, "These boys are a sensation and will go far." Philadelphia hoods say, "Dig those Squares."

Thanks to Lorraine Robinson, the murals on the Panther Room walls were redone this past week. Connoisseurs will appreciate the beautiful Jungle Venus being displayed for the first time.

Saturday night saw an odd assortment of half dressed people streaming toward the island paradise of the Sig-Ep House. It seems that a ship went down to the bottom and the survivors made it ashore, tattered, but alive. On hand to greet the happy crowd was King of the Cannibals, Bill Peterson and date Betty Phillips. All the costumes were fabulous with the pledge class in leg-makeup, the dates in sarongs, and the actives in the mood. The turnout was tremendous and it looks like the Shipwreck Party is going to be a yearly affair. Dave Racine, voice and guitar took talent honors for the evening.

Alpha Tau Omega

Epsilon Rho welcomed many alumni back last Sunday for our annual Founder's Day celebration. Among the familiar faces seen were Jack Symonds, Roland Mills, Clark MacWright, Bill Bauerband, Hank Hammond, Charlie Wollaston, and Roy Soukeys. We were happy to see such a good turnout on such a rainy day.

The principal speaker was Brother Victor R. Jones of the Baltimore Alumni Association. All the brothers benefited greatly from his inspirational speech. Brother G. Morris Whiteside was presented with a Golden Circle certificate, symbolic of fifty years as an Alpha Tau.

We were happy to welcome again Dr. J. Fenton Dougherty and Dean John Hocutt and thank them again for attending and helping to round out a wonderful day.

Special thanks go to the Delaware Alumni Association and to the seniors headed by Brother Jim Cranston who made all the arrangements for the celebration. We also want to thank all of the pledges for donning white jackets and serving as waiters.

Alpha Epsilon Pi

Last weekend the men from Delaware journeyed to the south for their annual regional conclave. The host chapters were Maryland and George Washington. With the exception of the fact that we lost the basketball tournament by one point, everyone concerned had a good time including Hank (aggravated) Bertuch and Al (I need this) Jacobs.

The high spot of the weekend was the dance Saturday night at the Hotel Willard. The room was fabulous and even though most of the Apes thought they had to walk a mile after parking their cars, there was much dancing going on. Some of the happy couples were Harry Moskowitz and Nancy, Carl Goldenberg and Ruth Kaplan, plus Dick Okonow and Charlotte Metzger.

Before we forget, congratulations go to Harvey Porter, Joe Glick, and Larry Cooperman along with the rest of the E-52 players for an excellent production of "Bloomer Girl." Also hats off to Ted Zutz for two fourth places in the Eastern Collegiate Swimming Tourney at N. Y. U. this Saturday.

Sigma Nu

The boys have been watching too many movies where the heroes throw their glasses against the fireplace. Or, at least Lorretta though they did. Don Willenborg celebrated his birthday with the help of an expensive gift saxophone. It was clearly demonstrated that under the proper influences, Don Dahlen will make a good troupe leader for the Junior musical next year.

Congratulations to Charles Presnell with his 1st in the low board in the Eastern's last week.

Heard around the ag school, "... wonder when our car expense checks will come thru?" Must be the only school in the country that requires for matriculation.

NOTICE
Dr. Thomas J. Wertenbaker will give a lecture at 10 a.m. Thursday, March 26, in 220 Huklihen Hall entitled "Archaeology in American History." All interested members of the faculty, graduate and undergraduate bodies are cordially invited to attend Dr. Wertenbaker's lecture.

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!
Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.
Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.
So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...
Be Happy-GO LUCKY!
All round our ivy-covered halls You'll hear the students say, "For real deep-down enjoyment, Get Lucky Strike today!"
Al Cavalari Michigan State College
COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!
Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
From coast to coast in campus votes, We've found what students like— For cleaner, fresher, smoother taste, They go for Lucky Strike!

SHOCKING!

It was rain, rain, rain, that stole my love from me . . . and that comes from a fish in his own private puddle on south campus. His habitat was sweetly refreshed on Sunday night after being shrunk to a few muddy drops on Saturday. No need to fear for him though, for with that excellent drainage system down there he is sure to survive until the next slight sprinkle . . . "Boy-oh-boy, did I catch a fish. It was tremendous. Why, it was t-h-a-t long. I never saw such a fish!" . . . "I believe you."

An optimist is the non-smoking husband who thinks his wife has given up cigarettes because he finds cigar butts around the house.

A thought for today: Girls with a weak line should never go fishing.

In a kick it's distance, in a cigar it's taste, and in a rumble seat it's impossible.

"Does your husband still find you entertaining after a year's marriage?"

"Not if I can help it."

Men are most peculiar. A man who hadn't kissed his wife in five years shot a man who did.

An old maid, shocked at the language of some ditch-diggers working near her home, complained to their foreman. The foreman promised to inquire into the matter, and called one of the men over.

"What's all this about profane talk?" he demanded.

"Why, boss," replied Joe, the ditch-digger, "It's nothing at all. Me and Butch was working there, side by side, and I accidentally let my pick slip and hit him in the head. Butch looked at me and said, 'Now really, Joseph, in the future you must handle that implement with more caution.'" reservation to the Office of the Dean of Students before August 1, 1953.

Each student will receive instructions through campus mail regarding the procedure to be followed. The annual room drawing will be held for women students in April, but the deposit should be made with the Business Office as indicated in the notices which are being mailed. The form for men students will provide for the choice of rooms and roommates.

Stores and that his expenses be paid by the SGA. The motion was seconded and passed. Tom Fannon was appointed as the representative.

Social:

A suggestion was brought up in the committee meeting that activities be held for the Independents during the time that the fraternity weekends are being held.

A discussion was held with Coach Nelson concerning the location of the school dances. It was decided that some of the smaller dances could be held in the Women's Gymnasium.

The May Day Dance will be semi-formal. A motion was made, seconded, and passed that, if possible, Louie Prima be contracted for $1250, and that the charge for tickets be $3.00 a piece.

A motion was made, seconded and passed that the meeting be adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Chesterfield is Best for YOU!

WHEN you are asked to try a cigarette you want to know, and you ought to know, what that cigarette has meant to people who smoke it all the time.

For a full year now, a medical specialist has given a group of Chesterfield smokers thorough examinations every two months. He reports:

no adverse effects to their nose, throat or sinuses from smoking Chesterfields.

More and more men and women all over the country are finding out every day that Chesterfield is best for them.

Enjoy your Smoking!

Try Much Milder Chesterfield with its extraordinarily good taste.
