PRICE FIVE CENTS

DEFENSE EXHIBIT AT WOLF HALL ON APRIL 5

Telephone Co. To Provide Lecturer And Demonstration

The Diamond State Telephone Co., Civilian Defense and Aircraft Warning officials of this area will combine to sponsor an exhibition for the benefit of spotters, civilian defense volunteers and citizens at the Wolf Hall stage, Monday, April 5.

Present plans call for four demonstrations of about forty minutes each with two in the afternoon and two in the evening. The afternoon demonstrations will be for school children and faculty members with evening exhibits for adult spotters, civilian defense volunteers and citizens. A definite time schedule will be published next week.

The demonstration will provide a vivid description of a simulated air raid showing in minute detail every step taken by the entire civilian defense organization from the moment of the first alarm until the 'all clear' is sounded.

The Diamond State Telephone Company will provide a lecturer and a huge demonstration board. Each movement will be illustrated on the board as the lecturer discusses the individual operation. The board, which will nearly cover the stage, is equipped with appropriate lighting and sound effects and is used progressively throughout the lecture.

The entire scheme of civilian defense and the function of each detail will be vividly portrayed. The audience will actually see and hear aircraft spotters pick up planes, report them to the filter center and see the dissemination to the information center, control center and district warning centers. Then a simulated air raid takes place and the reports of wardens are heard, as well as the dispatching of various civilian defense units.

GARDENERS MEET MARCH 19

E. P. Brasher Will Speak On V-Gardens

The Victory Garden Survey of Newark, made under the direction of Mr. Frank Powell, Chairman for Newark's Victory Garden Committee, has just about been completed. He reports that 80 per cent of the families in Newark are planning to have a Victory Garden this year — many of them report that they will grow a garden this year for the first time.

Since so many people have stated that they would be interested in attending a Garden Program where expert information would be given, Mr. Powell has made arrangements through the County Extension Service for a meeting to be held in the Auditorium in Wolf Hall, on Friday evening, March 19, at 8:00 o'clock. Mr. Eugene P. Brasher, Assistant Professor of Horticulture of the University of Delaware, and a successful vegetable gardener, will be the main speaker.

Everyone present will be given a chance to ask questions and will be given printed garden instructions. They will also be given a suggestive garden plan, if they wish one.

"A" Coupons Cut Half; Ban Lifted

The gasoline ration for "A" bookholders in Eastern States has been cut to approximately 1 1/2 gallons a week effective March 22, but the holder of the coupons can use their gas as they please — the ban on pleasure driving is lifted, effective on that date.

The cut was effected by extending the time in which No. 5 coupons, good March 22, are to be used. The driver must make them last four months, whereas heretofore each coupon period has been two months.

The value of "B," "C" and other supplemental coupons was not affected by the order.

Holders of "A" books who drive to work will be allowed supplemental gasoline under revised regulations to be announced in a few days.

HOLLISTER GUEST AT LIONS CLUB

Relates Many Experiences At Guadalcanal

Technical Sergeant George Hollister, Newark's hero of the Guadalcanal area, was the featured speaker at the weekly dinner meeting of the Newark Lions Club, held in Powell's Restaurant, on Tuesday evening.

Introduced by George M. Haney, program chairman for the evening, Sgt. Hollister related interesting experiences of combat duty, bombing missions and photographic exploits in the Pacific area. His subject, "101 Combats in the Pacific", was vivid and tensely portrayed by the modest lad who likely has seen more actual fighting than any other Newark man in the present conflict.

Sgt. Hollister told of the benefits received from the Red Cross organization and stressed the importance of morale of letter writing, saying that men on overseas duty looked forward to receiving mail more than anything else. His father, Charles Hollister, and William K. Gillespie were also guests at the meeting.

J. D. Coughan outlined plans and distributed names of men in the service to whom Lions will carry on correspondence.

John R. Fader reported $1,200 in War Bonds and $15.00 in Stamps sold at the meeting for a total of $420 in bonds and $121.20 in stamps.

Income Tax Blanks Mailed

The State Tax Department is today mailing out nearly 130,000 Delaware state income tax forms for 1942. Several thousand persons have filed their returns already.

Although wide announcement was made of the extension of the deadline by the Legislature from March 15 to April 30, many persons have called at the office, secured blanks, filled them out, and filed their returns.

Large and small forms are being sent out in the mail today, the former to business houses and the latter to individuals. With the larger forms is included a form for filing the first amount of the first quarter for the withholding 1943 war emergency tax.

James P. Truss, commissioner, said machines have been ordered for use by large cigarette distributors for the cigarette tax which starts June 1. The machines will be used for stamping cartons automatically. Small dealers will apply the cigarette stamp tax by hand.

The J. Allison O'Daniel Unit No. 10, American Legion Auxiliary is conducting another drive to collect phonograph records. The drive which started on March 16 will continue through April 8.

LOCAL MEN OVERSEAS GIVE CHECKS TO DEFENSE

Xmas Gifts Contributed By Sam Heiser And Wm. Fraser

A belated but touching incident was revealed this week when Harry L. Bonham, local chairman of the Civilian Defense Council received one of the most commendable tributes to civilian activities recently exhibited by service men on foreign duty.

A letter written by Samuel A. Heiser and William J. Fraser, both stationed at overseas posts, enclosed their two Christmas checks as their personal contribution to the Civilian Defense fund.

This unselfish action is deserving of the most glowing tribute. It clearly exemplifies the thoughts, interest and attitude of Newark men away from home. It definitely proves that though they are sacrificing their all for their country, they still have upper-most in their minds and hearts the welfare and well-being of their own home communities.

The letter, written in February and bearing a San Francisco A.P.O. address, is reproduced herewith:

Dear Mr. Bonham:

We are writing this letter a few moments before going on duty. Here on this island, we have read in the NEWARK POST of your worthy program. To be sure we would also wish to contribute our small sum. Luxuries are few here and we do hope more satisfaction may be derived from our checks that we could have received, if only your fund continues its steady climb throughout the year.

We, like all others away from home, deeply appreciate the thoughtfulness of the people of Newark and the Mayor's Committee.

Sincerely we remain
SAMUEL A. HEISER
WILLIAM J. FRASER.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN NETS MORE THAN $8,000

Supplementary Subscriptions Sought To Aid In Reaching Goal

Dr. John R. Downes, chairman of the Red Cross War Fund campaign reports that a week of intensive work by twenty-eight zone captains and their 140 co-workers reached practically every family in Newark and raised a total of approximately $8,000.

This splendid achievement, however, falls short of the $10,500 quota assigned to Newark and a further effort will be made by the local committee to secure supplementary contributions.

The campaign in Newark this year, Dr. Downes reports, has been efficiently organized by a sub-committee headed by A. W. Perry who with Dr. E. M. Schoenborn, Dr. A. P. Colburn, Miss Edwina Long and others, compiled a card index of every street in town and selected Zone Leaders who in turn named workers for their teams.

Records of the campaign show that the Special Gifts Committee, headed by John K. Johnston, raised approximately $3,000. Individual workers listed below are entitled to recognition for their efforts on the following scale established by national rules: to all who secured gifts amounted to $150 or more, three stars; $100 or more, two stars; $50 or more, one star.

AUTOMOBILE INSPECTION SUSPENDED

Governor Signs Bill Eliminating Annual Inspection

Suspension of official automobile inspections in Delaware until further notice was announced by the State Highway Department's Motor Vehicle Division Monday. The suspension applies to present registrations while inspections will continue to be made for new registrations and for car dealers.

Motorists who desire to extend their present registration for a period of a year will now present their registration card to any inspection lane and pay the fee stamped on the card.

Gov. Walter W. Bacon Monday signed the bill passed by the Legislature granting certain war emergency powers to the highway department. The State Highway Commission approved the bill in January. The ban on tests was made because of the shortage of gasoline and the difficulty of having certain repairs made.

At the Wilmington lane it was explained that the personnel has been so reduced because of many employees entering war work that it is doubtful whether all of the cars in New Castle County eligible for tests by March 31 could be accommodated. The suspension will not mean the laying off of any employees at the office it was said.

The voluntary inspection for motorists will be continued at the lanes. A sum of 25 cents is charged for this. Please turn to page 8

PHOTOSTAT, FARM AND ACCOUNTING JOBS OPEN

Civil Service Waives Written Tests In Favor Of Experience

Men and women who have had 2 to 4 years of technical experience or college study in agriculture are sought for Government work in Washington, D. C. and in other parts of the country. Mr. Kee, Local Secretary for the United States Civil Service Commission announced today. Persons employed in war work of equal skill are requested not to apply.

As Agricultural Aids, they will set up laboratory apparatus, run laboratory tests, do control work, make control studies, surveys, and investigations designed to further the effective utilization of agricultural resources.

Salaries for Aids are from $1,970 to $2,433 a year. These salaries include overtime pay for the present 48-hour week.

The heavy demand in Federal agencies for Photostat and Blueprint Operators has caused the Commission to liberalize the requirements for these jobs. It was also announced. Persons who have had 3 months' appropriate experience or 80 hours' appropriate training may now qualify as operators at a salary of $1,752 a year, including overtime compensation. Positions are in Washington, D. C.

Written tests are not required for these positions as applicants are rated on their training or experience. No age limits are specified. Applications will be accepted in the Commission's Washington office until the needs of the service have been met.

In a move to facilitate requirement of Accounting and Auditing Assistants urgently needed for positions in Washington, D. C., the Commission today revealed that it will no longer be necessary for applicants for these positions to take a written test. They will be rated entirely on the extent and quality of their accounting education or experience. Two years of such experience or training is required. Applications will now be accepted until further notice.

Full information and application forms may be obtained from Mr. Ralph B. Kee at Newark or from first-grade second-class post offices, or from the United States Civil Service Commission in Washington, D. C.

War Manpower Commission restrictions on Federal appointments may be learned from Form 3989 posted in first- and second-class post offices.

OPA Allows Extra Points

Housewives will have 48 ration points on blue stamps lettered D, E, and F in War Ration Book No. 2 for canned goods from March 25 through April 30, the OPA announced today.

The blue stamps now in use (A, B and C), will be good until March 31. This provides one week of overlap at the end of March in which stamps for either period will be valid, but OPA urged consumers to budget their 48 ration points for April.

"Pre-validating ration stamps is done primarily to allow consumers to make the best possible use of any ration stamps of small denominations they may have left in their books at the end of the month," OPA said. "Allowing the use of the following month's stamps before the previous month's expire makes it possible for consumers to spend 'left over' stamps for items of higher point values."

Bay Meadows Will Seek Extension of 25 Days

Extension of the Bay Meadows racing season for 25 days beyond its scheduled closing March 25, will be sought by operators of the track in an appeal to the California Horse Racing Board. Conditions agreed upon by horsemen if the additional 25 days is granted include the following purse schedule: When races are listed for horses of a claiming price of $2,100 or more, the purse will be $1,000 or better; when the claiming price is less than $2,100 and over $1,300 the purse will be $800; when the claiming price is $1,300 or less, the purse will be $700.

LIME OFTEN ESSENTIAL

Relatively few vegetables produce good crops on acid or sour soils. Whether or not a garden site needs an application of lime depends upon a number of factors — such as the texture of the soil, and to a limited extent, upon the cropping system and the method of fertilization being followed.

If, however, the garden area has not had an application of lime in the past three years, garden specialists at the University of Delaware recommend that an application of lime be made.

For most conditions they say an application of 40 pounds per 1000 square feet of garden area will be sufficient.

Lime, as well as correcting the acid condition of the soil, also benefits the soil by "unlocking plant nutrients and making them available to the plants, supplying calcium and magnesium — two essential elements in plant growth, improving the texture of heavy soils, and creating conditions in the soil favorable to the growth of beneficial bacteria which make plant nutrients available.

The best time to apply lime is after plowing or spading. For most effective results it is necessary that the lime be worked well into the soil.

Plenty of Canning Supplies Assured

The WPB has assured American housewives plenty of metal closures, rubber jar rings and glass containers for the 5,200,000,000 jars of food expected to be canned this year.

In an amendment to an earlier order, the WPB removed all quota restrictions on the manufacture of certain types of metal lids used to seal jars of home canned food.

A new type of metal closure is now on the market, the WPB explained. It is a three-piece unit—a glass lid, a rubber ring, and a metal screw band to hold the lid in place during processing. After the food has been processed and cooled, the metal band may be removed.

War Service Awards

Certificates For Delaware Farmers

Fighting units of the Delaware Farm front — farm families — are to be presented Certificates of Farm War Service, Clarence E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware United States Department of Agriculture War Board, announced today.

This recognition will go to those farm families which adopt a 1943 farm plan promising increased production of war crops and demanding, in the execution of the plan, hard work, ingenuity in overcoming obstacles and the same fighting spirit the American armed forces are displaying on the battle fronts.

The certificate is .11 to 14 inches and certifies that the families receiving them are "enlisted in all-out farm war production." It will be signed by Claude R. Wickard, United States Secretary of Agriculture, and by the chairman of the County USDA War Board. The awards will be made shortly after the completion of the farm plan enrollment this month.

"This certificate," explains Secretary Wickard, "is a simple word of appreciation and encouragement from the nation to those patriotic and fighting farm families upon whom the nation will depend to a considerable measure for victory in this war."

Newark, Delaware, Thursday, March 18, 1943

RED CROSS WAR FUND

The town of Newark always responds generously to every worthy cause. During the past week, under the leadership of Dr. J. R. Downes, chairman of the War Fund Committee, more than one hundred of our public-spirited citizens have been busy calling on more than two thousand families in Newark and vicinity soliciting subscriptions for the Red Cross War Fund. Their success has been most commendable but the total contributions secured, nearly $8,000, is still short of the $10,500 assigned to Newark as its quota.

The War Fund Committee believes that many persons who contributed did not realize that the amount that must be raised is so much more than that collected last year. This increase will be necessary to take care of the three or four million American boys who have been sent, or will be sent this year, to foreign lands in all parts of the world. The committee is therefore planning to send a card to every subscriber to the fund to ask all who feel they can increase their contributions to do so, either in cash or by pledge for payment at a later date this year.

All to whom these cards are sent, as well as any who may not have contributed to this supremely important cause, are urged to respond.

Everyone who has a son, a brother, or a friend in the Armed Forces will want to do his part to see the Red Cross fully equipped for its work of comfort and mercy for all of 'our boys over there'.

THE RISING FLOOD

It will take the utmost effort from all of the people to save this country from total inflation and collapse. The spectacle of endless wrangling over adoption of a pay-as-you-go tax plan certainly adds no strength to that effort. A plan of such a nature will inevitably be put in force for the simple reason that it is the only way that the government will be able to collect the heavy taxes now being levied, and to be increased in the future. To put it bluntly, we have a choice between a pay-as-you-go plan and chaos. Huge assessments against earnings already spent will result in a mass of tax delinquents which could easily threaten the stability of government itself.

A policy of too little and too late with regard to tax measures would be just as fatal as a lack of battle equipment on the war front. We are spending hundreds of billions of dollars in a matter of months. No ordinary mortal can conceive of such a sum. But it is clear that with every passing day the problems of financing the war grow greater. While the "experts" wrangle over small leaks in the Ruml plan, the debt flood rises.

A pay-as-you-go tax should be passed without delay. Taxation must be put on a pay-as-you-earn basis levied against current income. Until that is done, the full effort of all the people cannot be drawn upon to pay for the war, for many will never pay otherwise.

AGED HEALTH IMPORTANT

For many years the age structure of the population of this country has been changing and today elderly people comprise approximately 6.8 per cent of the population. In Delaware, as in other states health for mothers and children is constantly being urged. It is also important, says the State Board of Health, that older folk, men and women over 60, consider their health if the state as a whole is to function efficiently in wartime. For them, too, periodic physical check-ups are important. They, too, need a balanced diet with plenty of fruits, vegetables and liquids. These older people also need sufficient sleep and exercise in keeping with their general physical condition.

Too often older folk feel that they, because of their age, do not need to follow the health rules that they speak of so easily to their grandchildren. Caring for NEEDLESS illness among older people takes valuable time away from the war effort. Grandma's cold can spread to the other members of the family just as easily as do the "sniffles" of the children, if she is not careful. Grandpa can help to keep himself in good health, as well as being a fine example to the youngsters, when he eats his green vegetables.

Many illnesses of older folk are, of course, unavoidable, but the State Board of Health suggests that these men and women past 60 can make a real contribution to the war effort just by "keeping as well as they know how" and thus saving the time of over-worked doctors and of their families who have to nurse them.

TABOO BEING LIFTED?

Administrator Brown indicates that he will lift some of the restrictions against automobile driving. If he does, it will not mean that the gas tank will get much more gasoline, but the owner of the car will feel free to use his own judgment as to how to use his "A" or "B" car. The American people have shown a lot of patience and forbearance concerning the restrictions forced upon them by Leon Henderson.

Several million people who have been scratching the bottom of the barrel to pay the first installment on their income tax have taken their first lesson in the arithmetic of war costs. It was Chief Justice John Marshall who observed a century and a quarter ago: "The power to tax involved the power to destroy."

Since April, 1939, Clarence L. Friend, an amateur astronomer of Escondido, Calif., has discovered three new comets, all confirmed by Harvard Observatory, which has just announced the third. The second comet discovered by Mr. Friend has been named for him.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION

By W. W. Reid

To draw together young men of the armed forces who desire to take an open stand as Christians and to share together in Christian activities, is the objective of the newly-formed "Service Men's Christian League". The organization is sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches, the International Council of Religious Education, the General Commission of Army and Navy Chaplains, and the World's Christian Endeavor Union. The League, headed by the Rev. Ivan M. Gould, endeavors to help service men maintain their church affiliations and to prepare for post-war service in their churches and communities.

"There must be no bitterness in the reconstructed world," said Madame Chiang Kai-shek at the testimony mass meeting in Madison Square Garden, New York City, on March 2. "No matter what we have undergone and suffered, we must try to forgive those who injured us and remember only the lesson gained thereby. The teachings of Christ radiates ideas for the elevation of souls and intellectual capacities far above the common passions of hate and degradation. He taught us to help our less fortunate fellow-beings, to work and strive for their betterment without ever deceiving ourselves and others by pretending that tragedy and ugliness do not exist. He taught us to hate the evil in men, but not men themselves."

"The churches must create the spiritual atmosphere conducive to the establishment of a just and durable peace," according to Dr. Walter Van Kirk of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ. "To do this we must combat the spirit of hatred both for the prosecution of the war and for the attainment of a better world after the war. The churches must proclaim the gospel of international cooperation as a means of winning the peace. Christian people of this nation must resist any attempt by the Congress to return to the practice of political, economic or moral isolation after the war. Isolation is not Christian. This fact should be highlighted in our churches."

From China come interesting stories of inter-faith and international fellowship proving us all "brothers beneath the skin". For three years Protestant and Roman Catholics have been cooperating in relief work in Canton; when the city was occupied by the Japanese, M. S. Fourquet loaned relief funds to Protestant churches in distress. In Chungking, West China, on Christmas Day last, American and British church funds provided dinners for the families of Danish, German, Finnish, and Norwegian "orphaned" missionaries and their Chinese colleagues. Elsewhere Protestants and Catholics have united in caring for the needs of Jewish refugees from Europe now in China.

Hundreds of thousands of boys and girls are constantly moving with their families as their parents go into war production in every part of America, according to the International Council of Religious Education. The Council reports that in one war-housing project in California there are 1,700 school children and 4,300 pre-school children; that in one Maryland trailer camp more than one thousand families live more than fifteen miles from hospitals; that "door-key" children and those locked in trailers are found in every state. "Mothers of young children can do great harm by leaving them away from the security of family love all day; the government officials and children's church leaders are urging mothers to stay home and care for the children," says the Council, which also urges churches to organize their facilities to serve these children and their families.

There is something new in the feminine movement in Africa. The Rev. Ira E. Gillet, secretary of the Methodist Church in Mozambique, Portuguese East Africa, reports that two African women have been elected to the committee's membership—the first in the history of the mission and the first church recognition ever given women in that territory. They are Sra. Jeana Guambo and Sra. Amelia Matsimbi, Christian women trained in Methodist schools in Mozambique.

State Ranks Third In Fat Salvaging

Delaware is now third among the United States in its kitchen fats collection program, Lieut.-Col. Ralph G. Rust of the salvage office, said yesterday, although it has achieved only 50.7 per cent of its quota of 30,500 pounds a month.

Florida is leading in collection, with a percentage of 77.8 of its quota, followed by South Dakota, with 72.5 per cent. Delaware's fat collection in January totaled 15,449 pounds.

Importance of the need for waste fats, stressed through the women's clubs here, has achieved a regular increase in the amounts collected. Colonel Rust pointed out. On August, 1942, only 4,724 pounds were received. Pounds collected in the succeeding months are as follows: September, 8,748; October, 10,210; November, 13,217; December, 13,099.

Amended Conservation Order Aids Farmers

Conservation order restricting agricultural construction to projects costing less than $1000 per year unless by permission of WPB has been amended to relieve farmers under special circumstances. State U. S. D. A. War Boards may issue immediate emergency approval where construction is necessary to avert threatened loss of farm products, provided a PD-200 application is filed in usual way within two weeks; that is, state boards may authorize to go ahead if construction cannot be anticipated far enough ahead to secure regular WPB approval (about loss of products).

Good Thing

"Join the Army and see a telephone," suggests the New York Sun in a story about an Oklahoma farm boy. The lad joined the Army Air Force as a mechanic. In the recruiting office, he used a telephone for the first time in his life.

"I just never lived around a telephone," he explained, "but it seems like a good thing if you can understand it!"

Certainly the Army seems to think so. To supply its demands for telephones, radio-telephones, wires and other communications equipment, the factories of the Bell System are running 24 hours a day. Practically all the telephone equipment now being made is going to war. So please keep your calls to the minimum and be brief on the calls you must make. Help keep the lines clear for America's important war messages! The Diamond State Telephone Company.

WITHIN REACH

"I've been trying for seven years to teach Sammy to hang up his clothes, but he still leaves some of them around on chairs!"

Mary Denton moved about her living room in an embarrassed manner gathering up her son's coat, cap and mittens as she spoke. "I suppose I should call him down here and have him take care of them," she continued, "but I hate to nag him all the time, and I do not like to mention his shortcomings to him in the presence of guests."

"You are right about that," I agreed. "Sammy is a fine lad," added Ellen Marshall.

We had come to our friend's home that afternoon to attend a committee meeting. While we were talking, Mary opened a closet door to hang up her son's clothing. I noticed that all of the hooks in the closet were high. Not one of them was within reach of a seven-year-old's short arms.

"Does Sammy always keep his clothes in that closet?" I inquired.

"Yes, that's where we all keep our outdoor things," Mary answered. "Of course he has a closet in his own room."

"Doesn't he have to stand on tiptoe to reach the clothes hooks?" I asked. Mary turned back to the closet with some astonishment. She lifted her hand to the height of the hooks and measured the distance to the floor with her eyes. "Why, Lucia!" she exclaimed. "These hooks are pretty high for a small boy! I've never thought about that. Do you suppose that could be the reason he hates to put his things away?"

"That could easily be the reason," I replied. "I might not have noticed your closet if I had not stopped at Nancy Harter's yesterday. Her little daughter, Joan, was showing me a new sweater her mother had knitted for her. When she took it out of the closet to show me, I noticed that several hooks were placed so low that a six-year-old girl could easily reach them."

"The fittings in Sammy's closet are adjusted to his height," Mary said. "It hadn't occurred to his father or to me that he needed a corner of his own in the family clothes closet. We'll fix it up for him right away."

A few weeks later I met Mary Denton on the street.

"You ought to see how Sammy takes care of his clothes now, Lucia!" she exclaimed. "Since his father placed some low hooks in the closet for him, he actually likes to hang up his things! I'm grateful to you for your suggestion."

"We've learned to put things within reach of the children in their room at the library where I work," I replied. "We have low book shelves, little chairs and tables and low files for the card catalogue. Even the pictures are hung lower than they would be for adults."

"The children are always comfortable in your room at the library," my friends declared. "I think most parents pro-

Congratulations are extended this week to Lieut. William K. Richardson, who is observing his 24th birthday "Somewhere in North Africa". We are told that this is Bill's first birthday away from home. Now, Bill, grab yourself a nice big German tank for a present and then you can ship it back to Newark and we will have it stuffed and mounted and placed on the College Campus until you come back.

A certain young man who is spending a lot of time at the Newark Fire House has told his folks that he is an ambulance duty into the wee hours of the night. Someone suggested that he pack his clothes and move in on one of those nice cots they have.

As part of my job at the Newark Post I have to write that column "25 Years Ago"—"In Review". To write this column it is necessary that I take the paper dated 25 years ago and read it thoroughly and pick out that part that I feel will be of the most interest. In going over these old papers I find that nearly the same conditions exist now in World War No. 2 as then existed in World War No. 1. There was a shortage of fuel, a shortage of sugar, a shortage of butter, and many other things.

The only difference I can see between the conditions that existed then and now is that now there are a lot of Dictators telling us what we can have and what we can do. Twenty-five years ago when coal was short, we just did without it until we could get an order delivered. Now there are a lot of politicians who are setting up a lot of needless and conflicting departments which all take money from the government which could be used to better advantage if it was diverted to the manufacture of planes, tanks, and munitions.

A certain, fine-looking girl at the Newark High School is sporting a diamond ring.

It has been stated that a member of the Wolf Hall staff has recently purchased a scooter bike. Being a frugal soul this man was bewailing the fact that a D sticker and coupon called for a gallon and a half of gasoline and the tank on his bike would only hold a gallon. The OPA ruling does not allow anyone to put the extra gasoline in a can.

Another test air raid is scheduled for Friday morning. Well that is just duckie. All the air raid wardens and auxiliary police and others connected with the civilian defense setup will again be given a chance to find out how good they are.

The recent ruling by the high school principals of New Castle County discontinuing spring sports is a fine thing. This ruling has done a lot to create sport interest at the school. Inter-class teams have been organized for both the boys and girls and students who would never have had a chance to play are now participating in sports.

The 12A and the 10th grade teams are tied for first place in the boys group. The 12B and 11th grade teams are tied for second place and the 9th grade is holding down the third place position. Jack Powell is feeling real good. He was high scorer for the senior class yesterday when they played the 11th grade and Bobby Eissner was real good on the losing team.

Miss Vogel the girls' gym teacher and Roland Jackson, the instructor for the boys are doing a fine job at the Newark School.

It has been stated that the girls will play female members of the faculty next week. Now that will be good. If the faculty members dig in their trunks for those antiquated gym suits that they wore when they played soccer last fall everyone should get a big kick out of witnessing the game. The soccer game last fall looked more like a masquerade than anything else, only they did not wear masks.

The dance staged last Saturday night was a huge success and the soldier boys who came over for the affair stated that they enjoyed themselves here more than anywhere they had been. It is trusted that the Newark Community Service Center will stage more of these dances.

The Red Men had the largest crowd they ever had last Tuesday evening at their regular weekly dance.

It is stated that the boys at the Home Drug Store are going to hold a dance at the Newark Country Club next Saturday night.

ALL-STAR BOWLERS DEFEAT CONT.-FIBRE

Bowlsby Team Drops Two Out Of Three To Adams' All-Stars

Morris Adams' All-Star bowling team defeated Art Bowlsby's Continental Fibre Company team two of three games last week, despite the fact that Morris Adams fell down in the second game and only accounted for 137 pins.

Art Bowlsby, captain of the Continental team felt that his group could defeat any team in this area and issued a challenge for all comers. The All-Stars took up the challenge and the match was on.

Howard Wallace led the scoring for the All-Stars with 207, 185 and 192 for a total of 584. Paul Whiteman was the high individual scorer with 210, 223 and 177 for 610 pins. Charles Eissner was off his stride in the first game but came back in the second game to roll the highest number of pins for any one game.

Adams in explaining his poor showing said that there was no sense in his exerting himself as long as he had such a good team to back him up. It was stated that Captain Art Bowlsby did not linger very long after the game.

ATHLETICS ARRIVE IN WILMINGTON MONDAY

Spring Practice To Start At Wilmington Park Next Week

With a couple of sunny days this week, Wilmington Park's baseball field will be in fine shape for the vanguard of the Philadelphia Athletics when the players report Monday for the first spring training drills. Assistant Manager Earle Mack reported yesterday after inspecting the field and clubhouse facilities.

Mack was surprised at the condition of the diamond and outfield, and declared that the Thirtieth Street layout is far better than Shibe Park at this stage. Likewise, he was pleased on his first visit to the clubhouse, and termed it ample for the approximately 33 men who will hang their uniforms there before the A's roster is complete. It was the first time he had seen Wilmington Park in the daylight.

Before returning to Philadelphia, the son of Manager Connie Mack completed arrangements for the training session. Bob Carpenter, president of the Blue Rocks, Eddie Glennon, the Rock's business manager, and Bill Brennan, manager of the park, were on hand, as were Harry O'Donnell, scout, and Jimmy Flood of the A's organization.

The club's equipment will arrive tomorrow, and Coach Earle Brucker will arrive on Saturday, with Manager Mack and the batterymen due to arrive at the Hotel duPont headquarters of the team on Sunday.

Monday at noon has been set for the first workout and the fans will be welcome at the drills. Admission receipts will go to the Red Cross.

The rest of the team will arrive by the middle of next week, and Mack hopes that by Sunday the 28th it will be possible to play an intra-squad exhibition.

BEEKEEPING NEWS MAKES APPEARANCE

The first monthly issue of the Delaware Beekeeping News has just been prepared and distributed to beekeepers throughout the State by Harvey L. Chada, assistant extension entomologist of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Mr. Chada was recently appointed to this position to succeed John M. Amos, who resigned March 1 to accept a position as specialist in apiculture at Pennsylvania State College.

In the news, Mr. Chada advises beekeepers to check their colonies now to see that bees have plenty of food to last until nectar is secreted by the honey plants and explains how they may be fed artificially if the supply is low.

Colonies of bees found dead should be sealed immediately so that stores remaining in the hive will not be robbed out by other bees. Determine the cause of death—if the colony has died as the result of American foul brood, the combs should be destroyed immediately. If the beekeeper is in doubt, Mr. Chada will examine a portion of the comb for him.

Keepers who intend to use package bees should order them at once, stating when they want the orders to arrive. Many more people are going into beekeeping, and delay in ordering may mean late arrival or failure to get bees at all. Bees should be obtained by late March or early April.

Anyone desiring to receive this monthly letter may do so by writing Mr. Chada.

Stanton, March 18th — Miss Lora Little, Principal of the Stanton School, announces War Stamps and Bonds purchased this week at the school totaled $180.60.

The Rev. F. O. Baynard, pastor of the Stanton Methodist Church, announces that the guest speaker Sunday morning at 10:45 was Miss Anita Bailey, Missionary to Indo-China, who is in this country on furlough. Miss Bailey also addressed the Sunday School session at 12 to 1, and displayed articles secured from the countries where she has traveled in the Missionary Fields, M.Y.F. at 7 P.M. Evening worship at 7:30, with the Rev. Baynard speaking on "A Prayer for Pardon."

On Monday evening, there was a meeting in the basement of the Stanton Methodist Church in an attempt to reorganize the Stanton Boy Scout Troop. Men of the community interested in the welfare of the boys are assisting with this project, and lending their assistance.

On Friday evening, Prayer Service of the Stanton Methodist Church will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Abbott.

During the Lenten season, The Rev. E. Kenneth Albaugh will conduct a series of meetings at the St. James P. E. Church, Newport every Wednesday evening, speaking on "Sacraments of the Church." Rev. Alex Boyer will conduct a series of meetings every Wednesday evening in the St. Barnabas P. E. Church, Marshallton, on "Elements of Worship."

Edward Murray, a prominent farmer of near Milltown, died Friday morning in the Wilmington General Hospital, following a week's illness. He had suffered from Ulcers of the stomach and blood transfusions had been given. He was a member of the St. James P. E. Church at Stanton. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Murray and one daughter, Miss Edna Murray.

Mrs. Claude White and Miss Ruth Argo have gone to South Carolina to visit Private Claude White, stationed at Camp Croft. They will be away about three weeks.

Chief Petty Officer, Raymond Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson of Stanton who is serving in the U. S. Navy, and has been stationed at Honolulu, has now been transferred to Philadelphia, and visited here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan of Stanton have received word of the safe arrival of their son, Corp. Albert Morgan in North Africa.

Conference table manners of Mr. Churchill, while models for most, will no doubt prove offensive to Hitler and stooge.

Sly Reynard, Rommel, would probably trade all his iron crosses for the rental of a few thousand fox holes for the duration.

Edward Flynn got his name withdrawn before debate started on it. We know another Flynn who wishes he had.

Trains that get the "breaks"

Troop Trains. Because a million troops a month must be moved—and, in addition, the arms and ammunition they need.

Food Trains. Because food for our fighting men—for our allies—and for our "home front" is vital to victory.

Coal Trains. Because coal is the nation's greatest single source of heat, light, power—we can't win the war without it.

Oil Trains. Because they must replace tankers, to serve homes, cars, factories—and to quicken overseas oil shipments.

Once great passenger trains had the right-of-way. And they will again! But right now there is a war to be won. So trains vital to the war effort get priority. And we don't think there is a single American who would have it otherwise. In fact, evidence of that grows daily. If their train is late, business men take it as something that can't be helped. They know why.

And so with any travel inconvenience that may be encountered. Demand for equipment is now so great that on arriving at terminals cars must be put right back into service, so you may find them not quite so spic and span as we would like. Housekeeping facilities are adequate but there's not always time. But Americans are taking all this like good soldiers. For they know this is a war of movement, and that movement begins right here—in America.

SERVICE DANCE A SUCCESS

Soldiers From Air Base Are Guests

Seventy-nine members of the Ferry Command at the New Castle County Air Base at Hares Corner were guests of the Newark Community Service Center at a dance held in the Newark Country Club Saturday evening.

Originally planned for the girl defense workers residing in Newark, the committee in charge of the Service Center invited the soldiers and when the girls were late arriving and there were more men than girls, a call was sent to Dean Marjorie S. Golder at the Women's College for girls to dance with the boys. Dean Golder summoned twenty-six girls in the dormitories and two army trucks were sent to the women's college to transport the girls to the dance.

Later in the evening a large crowd arrived and every one is reported to have had a fine time. Corp. Sidney Giroux, one of the soldiers from the Ferry Command, who was formerly a trumpet player with Horace Heidt's orchestra, played several trumpet selections.

Music for the dancing was furnished by George Ferry's orchestra from the Triumph Explosives Company at Elkton. Miss Jean Ivins, vocalist, sang several numbers. Several of the dances were stag dances for the girls who were required to ask the boys to dance instead of the boys asking the girls.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hüllihen, Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Mayer, Rev. Eugene Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Almer A. Reiff, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wright, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holton, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Townsend III, Mr. and Mrs. George Boli, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mahanna, Mr. and Mrs. James Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. F. Allyn Cooch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. John James, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Mencher.

Miss Rose Leary was chairman of the dance committee, assisted by Mrs. George Cook, Miss Ruth Sufferin, Miss Ruth Malonowsky, Miss Estelle Bowling, James Greenwood and George Salter.

The soldiers were in command of Sgt. Troy Anders.

Restaurant Rationing Is Under Consideration

An order limiting the number of courses and the size of portions each restaurant in the nation can serve is "very definitely under consideration," an Agriculture Department official stated this week.

But no decision has been reached, he said, adding that the question of whether the order should be voluntary or mandatory remained for determination. It may be a week or more before the order is whipped into final shape, he said.

The problem of effecting a workable order, he said, is intensified by the fact that every type of eating establishment—estimated to number between 400,000 and 500,000—would be affected.

The purpose, he explained, would be to bring the "diner-out" in line with the rationed householder. Studies have shown, he said, that there is a tendency for more and more people to "eat out" and that public eating places have escaped to a large extent the drastic restrictions placed on meals in private homes.

Wheat Marketing Quotas Suspended

Wheat marketing quotas have been suspended by Secretary Wickard. They will not be in effect the rest of this marketing year or next marketing year. Farmers holding wheat from the market because of quota may now feed or sell without penalty. This will make more feed available for record livestock production. Farmers who meet 80 per cent of farm goals for war crops may exceed wheat acreage allotments and still receive AAA wheat payments and loans.

BLIGHT IS THREAT TO POTATOES

Proper Control Measures Urged

Unless careful control measures are carried out in 1943, a disastrous decline in potato production may be expected regardless of expansion in acreage, states S. L. Hopperstead, assistant plant pathologist for the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station.

The serious outbreak of late blight on potatoes last year caused losses of as much as 50 per cent of the crop in some major potato growing areas. The disease was widespread on both vines and tubers. The carry-over is extremely high for a potential outbreak this year.

Reports from various states indicate that losses occurred to growers who had become indifferent in applying control practices because their previous losses had been light.

Mr. Hopperstead says late blight may be controlled by planting disease-free seed and spraying or dusting with a copper fungicide mixture, or by planting resistant varieties.

Spraying or dusting should be started when the plants are six to eight inches tall and the applications repeated at ten-day intervals until harvest. According to Mr. Hopperstead, spraying is usually more effective than dusting. Varieties resistant to the disease are Sebago and No Blight.

Auto Inspection

testing of lights, brakes, steering mechanism and wheel alignment. Many car owners, observing "safety first" precautions, have asked that this test be continued.

Highway commissioners urge that drivers operate their cars with the utmost care, bearing in mind the condition of the vehicles they are driving.

The Jones measure authorizes the department to suspend the application of any statute requiring two number plates to a motor vehicle.

The Motor Vehicle Division's rules for extending auto registration follow: Personal call method: (1) If you desire to extend your registration for a period of a year, take your registration card to any inspection lane and pay the fee stamped on the card.

(2) If you desire to extend your registration for a period of six months, present your registration card to the cashier and pay one-half of the fee stamped on the registration card, plus an additional $1 for the privilege of securing a six-months license.

(3) The cashier will stamp the new expiration date on your registration card and supply new inserts.

Mail method: (1) If you desire to extend your registration for a period of a year, mail your registration card to any Motor Vehicle Office. Include check or money order payable to the Motor Vehicle Division in the amount of registration fee which is stamped on your registration card.

(2) If you desire to extend your registration for a period of six months, mail your registration card to any Motor Vehicle Office. Include check or money order in half the amount of the registration fee which is stamped on your registration card, plus an additional $1 for the privilege of securing a six-months license.

(3) The Motor Vehicle Division will promptly return your registration card properly stamped, together with the new inserts.

If your registration card has been lost or defaced, it will be necessary that you make application to the division for a duplicate card by accompanying same with the fee of 50c before extension of registration can be granted.

More Pork

when hogs are kept on sanitary CONCRETE

A sure way to increase your pork production is to keep pigs on concrete from farrowing to market time. One farmer who does this reports: "My first crop is gone to market by the time the second is farrowed... average weights around 275 pounds at six months... 100 pounds of pork with 300 pounds of feed."

Hog floors are only one of many improvements that will make your farm more efficient and productive. A new barn floor, poultry house, milk house, milk cooling tank, manure pit or watering trough costs little to build with concrete and will last a lifetime.

Concrete farm jobs require a minimum of critical war materials. Many jobs need just a few bags of cement, and some sand and gravel or stone.

Do your own concrete work, or ask your cement dealer for names of concrete contractors. Let us help by sending you "How-to-build" booklets.
