Early Payment of Town Taxes is Recommended

All Town taxes for the year 1944 are now due and payable, a spokesman for the Newark Town Council said yesterday in urging local property owners to pay their taxes without further delay and avoid the five percent penalty which will be invoked on and after December 31.

The discount period on town taxes already has expired so there is no point in delay which may mean an additional assessment, or penalty, in cases where payments is not made before the first of the year.

WAR FUND CAMPAIGN IS SHORT OF QUOTA

Second Workers Report Finds Only $3,000 In Contributions

With the United War Fund campaign entering into the third week, contributions from the people of Newark are far below expectations of the committee in charge of the campaign.

Last Thursday night, the second meeting for the various team captains to make their report found that $2,500 had been subscribed bringing the total to date up to $3,000. To reach the goal of $10,000 which has been set for the Newark area, in the remaining days of the campaign, it will require an all-out effort on the part of all workers and a generous response from the people contacted.

96 per cent of the persons contacted by the volunteer workers are in full accord with the campaign and its purpose, it was stated by William K. Gillespie, general chairman in charge of the drive, but, from the amount contributed by the individuals it seems that the public fails to realize that they are being called upon for financial support by the various agencies included in the War Fund only once a year.

Mr. Gillespie states that the $10,000 goal set for our community is a challenge that should be met if we are to carry our heads high. If we fail in doing our part we won't feel so good when the reports come in from other communities.

The University of Delaware War Fund Campaign team is headed by Charles E. Grubb as chairman, assisted by Miss Edwina Long, Dr. Charles N. Lanier, Prof. George L. Baker, Prof. Howard K. Preston, Prof. Edward M. Schoenborn, Coach William D. Murray, William D. Lewis, Prof. John H. Powell and Horace B. McKay.

Mr. Gillespie stated that "We Can't All Fight—We Won't All Suffer—But, we can ALL serve in this Delaware War Fund Campaign by giving all we can afford."

What Farmers Want When They Borrow

LOW COST

HERE'S the sensible way to look at loan cost. You borrow to make a profit. The cost of the loan is meaningless unless you consider how successful the farm operation for which you borrowed turned out. Promptness in getting the money, freedom from red tape, absence of special fees and charges, no stock purchase required, helpful service and cooperation right down the line — those are the factors that make bank credit cheapest in the long run. Try it yourself and see.

The wedding of Miss Caroline Walther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walther of Bear, and Mr. Harlan Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, and of Mr. and Mrs. James Neal of Red Lion was solemnized on Saturday evening, October 14, at 7:30 o'clock in the Red Lion Methodist Church, with the Rev. D. J. Moore officiating.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father had Mrs. Elizabeth Lovett, her sister, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Ann Getchell of Wilmington and Miss May Walter, sister of the bride.

Mr. Arthur Neal of Minquadale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Frank Reed and Mr. Wesley Lynam.

A reception followed the ceremony in the social hall of the church.

On a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Neal will be at home at Bear.

The Pearl Stanley of Bear recently showed the bride with a show.

MISS FRAZER TO BE HOSTESS TO ALUMNAE

The fall meeting of the Newark Chapter Womens College Alumnae Association will be held at the home of Miss Anna Frazer, 196 West Main Street, on Tuesday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Louis A. Stearns will show slides taken while in the Asiatic Theatre of War.

Mrs. Gladys Cooch and Miss Anna Frazer will be the co-hostesses of the evening.

The gold braid boys of the Army and Navy got a break this week from Uncle Sam's income tax collector.

The Internal Revenue Bureau ruled that braid, lace, shoulder marks, chin straps and other doodads are a legitimate business expense" and thus deductable on tax returns.

It represents quite an item.

Take an admiral, for instance. He dolls up in about 75 bucks worth of gold braid every time he gets up in the morning unless he's at battle station aboard a carrier or slogging around on jungle beaches. He may have as many as eight or 10 uniforms.

MISSIONARY TEA TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24

by

J. H. (Sureshot) Rumer

Anything appearing in this column is purely the opinion of the writer and does not express the views or policy of the paper. Any exceptions should be taken up with the writer.

Two weeks ago the paper went out without this column and there were some who missed this crazy chatter and there were those who were glad to see that the column was missing.

The reason we left the column out was that there was so much other news that was more important.

It is understood that the government has lifted restrictions on Zoot Suits. Those folks in Washington are making a terrible stab for the votes of a certain class. For my part anyone who would wear one of those MONKEY suits IS A MONKEY.

A short article in the Morning News yesterday said that "Our Freedom is in peril because too many people are working for TIME and a HALF instead of for victory. That is about right. Then there are those who tell us how patriotic they are. With a full pocket-book they can let on that is what they are working for. They don't care what happens as long as they are making the money.

That Little Admiral, Ott Gribble, was home on leave this week-end and when asked what he was doing home, he stated that a certain great lady was also home over the week-end.

Well, both political parties are slinging that mud around about each other. But regardless of what is said the Democrats will still vote for that ticket and the Republicans will still vote for the Grand Old Party. There just don't seem to be anything new. What we really need is a new party. We need a candidate who will deliver us out of the hands of the racketer. We need a candidate who will see that there is a good 5-cent cigar on the market.

We used to hear a lot about the full dinner pail. Now, all they talk about is POST-WAR! Nuts, they should talk about winning the war—or, are they going to let our boys on the other side be political footballs and wait to see just who does win before they end the scrap. This war could have been won long ago if it were not for those who are making so much money out of it.

I was talking to a Newark boy Monday night who is serving as Seaman First Class in the U. S. Navy. His ship is laid up for repairs at one of the Navy yards and he was telling me about the workmen who are sent aboard the ship. He said that they are lazy and spend most of their time sitting around waiting for quitting time. He said that one of them was having a fit because he was only making $2.18 per hour and the workman said that for that little ? ? ? money he was not going to kill himself.

At $2.18 pe rhour the workman receives about $350 for a month's work??? The sailor receives $54 for a month's work. The workman making $350 a month works (MAYBE) 40 hours a week. The sailor is on duty 168 hours a week. There is no justice in this war. Naturally the workman has to make more money—He has to pay tribute to a UNION RACKETEER.

BIG TRACK WINNERS WILL RUN AT ROSE TREE MEET ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21

Pavot, Champion Two-Year-Old Winner Of Eight Straight Races Will Parade Between 2nd and 3rd Races; Winnings For Year Total $180,000

More big track winners will run in the Rose Tree Races on Saturday at Media, Pa., than ever before in a hunt race meeting in this district. Five races are on the card, The Foxcatcher Plate two mile steeplechase and the Ormead Cup handicap two mile and a half steeplechase will see many horses direct from the New York and Baltimore tracks.

Corky, the Cinderella steeplechaser, who has never run at the big tracks but who has knocked off many big track winners at local hunt races the past five years will oppose many of the more noted horses.

Corkey has won the Ormead Cup twice and will give a good account of himself on Saturday as he is in prime condition. He will be watched with special interest as a victory for him will win his owner J. G. Leiper, Jr., permanent possession of the trophy.

Among the horses entered for the Saturday races are such horses as Rollo, Eremon, Stiegel 2nd, Pat Ganado, Fay Cottage, Parma, St. Patrick's Day, Tioga and many other famous horses.

Walter Jeffords, Pavot, will give a real fillup to the occasion. Pavot is recognized as one of the greatest two-year-olds of the past twenty years and his appearance will be of the greatest interest to the very large crowd that will attend.

The fact that he is by Case Ace of Coquilicot by Man O' War lends additional interest for horsemen in general are always interested in getting a glimpse of any Man O' War colts or fillies. He will be paraded between the 2nd and 3rd races so that all may see this great horse who made history this year.

Post time for the first race is 2:30 P. M. The races will take place rain or shine.

DUCKING SEASON OPENED SATURDAY

Federal Stamp Must Be Purchased —Regulations Are Explained

With the ducking season opened in Delaware last Saturday it should be noted by all hunters that a federal duck hunting stamp must be carried with your name signed across the face of the stamp by all duck hunters over 16 years of age.

The daily bag limit on ducks is 10, but hunters may take an additional bag of five mallards, widgeons or pintails, or any combination of these three ducks.

(1) woodduck may be killed daily, but you cannot have more than (1) woodduck in your possession at any time.

The possession limit on ducks is two days' bag (except wooduck).

The daily bag limit on mergansers, American and red-breasted is 25 and the daily bag limit on coot (crow duck) is 25. The possession limit on coot is one days' bag.

The daily bag limit on geese or brant is two of either. The possession is two days' bag.

It is unlawful to bait or shoot over baited water or land.

It is unlawful to use, shoot over, or near live decoys.

It is unlawful to use any gun larger than 10-gauge or a gun holding more than three shells without reloading.

It is unlawful to kill waterfowl with a rifle.

The hunting hours are ONE-HALF HOUR BEFORE SUNRISE TO SUNSET.

U. S. Game Wardens and our State Game Wardens accept the sunrise and sunset time as published in the Morning News and the Journal-Every Evening as official. So consult your local papers for the legal time to start and stop shooting.

The above are but a few of the important federal regulations that govern the hunting of waterfowl, and a sizeable force of federal wardens have been assigned to patrol local marshes.

The waterfowl hunting season does not open in Maryland until Nov. 2.

NEWARK HIGH SCHOOL IS DEFEATED BY WILMINGTON LAST SATURDAY 24 TO 14

Brandon Davis Races 95 Yards For Newark's First Touchdown; Griffin Scores Second Touchdown; Silk And Davis Score Extra Points

Wilmington High School opened the 1944 football season with a 26 to 14 victory over Newark High School in a game on the Alfred I. duPont Field on Saturday afternoon.

The charges of Coach J. Harmer Donalson, held to one touchdown in the first half as the Yellowjackets went scoreless, came through with three more in the final half to clinch the victory.

Wilmington used an aerial attack in which the passing combination of Ed Fahey to Al Spahr either set up or accounted for the scoring. Midway of the first frame Fahey passed from the 30 to Larry O'Toole on the 15 who ran the ball over from that point for the Red Devil's first score.

Newark's defenses tightened in the second period and neither team offered a serious threat to score.

Two more Red Devil touchdowns were registered in the third period, the first coming on a pass by Fahey from the 10 to Spahr in the end zone. A drive from Newark's 35 to the four set the stage for the next score from which point Spahr cut through tackle for another six-pointer.

Spahr receiving another Fahey pass on Newark's 20 raced the remaining distance for the final score. O'Toole bucked the line for both conversions.

Halfback Brandon Davis turned in the thrill of the afternoon when he took Ray Hushabeck's kickoff at the beginning of the second half and raced 95 yards for Newark's first score.

Newark made its second touchdown in the fourth period when a pass from Griffin to Davis put the ball on Wilmington's 4-yard mark from which point Griffin carried over. Silk booted one conversion and a pass Griffin to Davis accounted for the other.

The fine defensive play of Frank Otteni, Homer Lutton and Earl Hartmann featured the Cherry and White victory. VanSant, Griffin and Davis were outstanding for Newark.

THE UNSEEN GUARDIAN OF THE WIRES

The Testboard Man is working day and night in Telephone Central Offices to keep your telephone service working smoothly.
It's amazing what he can do. If there should be any trouble on the lines, special instruments help him locate it within a few yards—even though it is miles away from the testing station.
This saves hours of searching by line crews. That's more important than ever these busy war days.

WHEN CALLING WAR-BUSY CENTERS

Sometimes you may hear the Long Distance operator say—"Please limit your call to 5 minutes." That's to let you know that the lines are crowded.
