Whereas, the current name of the college of Human Services, Education and Public Policy is cumbersome, not typical of college names at other universities, and not well understood beyond the campus, and

Whereas, the College Council and a full meeting of the College faculty and staff voted to support the change of the College name, and

Whereas, the change in name is also supported by the Interim Dean and the Provost, be it therefore

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate recommends the title College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy be changed to College of Education and Public Policy.
