

AIR MAIL

1891

Washington.-

Truman announced Ambassador Messersmith has completed his mission in Argentina and will return to the United States.

President called news conference and said that Messersmith had not resigned. He pointed out Ambassador went to Argentina with specific understanding he would return once his mission is completed.

Truman said mission now accomplished. Under questioning he told reporters that Ambassador sent Argentina to get United States and Argentine Republics on friendly terms and that this has now been done.