

At Lebrary. Saturday Morn.
Darling, I am just scribbling ^{these} lines to you so that I can say I wrote you the first letter on my brand new writing table.

The long looked for writing table
- made of heavy oak - which look the business, at last have arrived, and this is the first time I have sat down to mine. This note christens it.

May all the work I do at it, be as much a work of love as this. I will write you tonight & tomorrow. Meanwhile with deep love, I am yours
