Presbyterians Vote to Call Pastor

Rev. James H. Rendal Unanimous Choice

On Receipt of Informal Notice, Asks for Early Conference with Church Officials

At a congregational meeting held last night at the Presbyterian Church, by unanimous vote it was decided to issue a call to Reverend James H. Rendal, of Kennett Square, to assume the pastorate of the church left vacant by the death of Dr. Wm. J. Rowan. Rev. David A. Reed of White Clay Creek Church acted as moderator at last night's meeting and read the rules of the church covering the mode of procedure in such cases. Various members of the congregation spoke on behalf of the candidate and by rising vote a unanimous decision was reached.

Mr. Rendal was notified informally last night and expressed a desire to have a conference with the church authorities. Following this conference, the matter will probably be put into the hands of the New Castle Presbytery, which body will issue the formal call after a meeting which it is thought will be speedily called.

Mr. Rendal expressed last night a desire to have his father, now located at Lincoln University, fill the pulpit here at an early date. The elder Mr. Rendal will probably preach here next Sunday. In the event of his inability to do so, a member of the faculty of Lincoln University will officiate.

Reverend J. H. Rendal preached here in the early fall and made a very favorable impression. A young man of pleasing personality, in the opinion of the congregation, he embodies all of the characteristics desirable for success in the pastorate of the local church.

MINNEHAHA BAND TO HOLD "POW-WOW" BAZAAR

The members of Minnehaha Band and their numerous friends are making preparations for a Bazaar to be held in the Armory on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, December 9, 10 and 11.

They will have the usual bazaar features and in addition will have dancing every evening. The proceeds of the affair will be used for the purchase of new instruments.

LOCAL CONTRACTOR WORKS ON KENT COUNTY ROADS

Contractor F. W. Lovett, of Newark, who built Smyrna's tarvia streets, has been engaged to repair the roads between Smyrna town limits and Duck Green and Smyrna and the concrete road at Wright's garage. He started hauling stone on Monday but the rain soon stopped the work. These sections of roads have been in a bad state of repair for a year or more.

MEMBER OF REHABILITATION DIVISION MARRIES

Friends of James Alexander, until recently a student in the Rehabilitation Division at Delaware College, received word on Saturday of his marriage on that date at Elkton, to Miss Mary Hunter, of Philadelphia.

ACTIVITIES AMONG CHURCH WORKERS

The Sewing Circle of St. John's Church cleared $72 at the bake held in Breyer's store last Saturday.

The ladies at Head of Christiana Church will hold tomorrow evening, the first Thanksgiving supper in several years. This was formerly an annual event, discontinued during the war years.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church have formed committees and are making arrangements for the annual poultry supper to be held in the lecture room of the church on Thursday, December 2. Cake, candy, and fancy articles will also be on sale.

W. H. M. S. HEARS INTERESTING CONVENTION REPORTS

Delegates Bring Back Helpful and Inspirational Suggestions

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. R. T. Jones on Friday afternoon. A victrola selection, "Adeste Fideles" was the first number on the program.

Devotions were led by Mrs. George Ferguson, who read selections from Luke 14.

Interesting and entertaining reports of the W. H. M. S. convention held at Mt. Salem Church recently, were given by the delegates, Mrs. T. T. Martin, Mrs. F. A. Cooch, and Mrs. Howard Williams. Much that was helpful and inspiring to the local organization was brought home by these delegates.

Following these reports, the regular business meeting was held and a delightful social hour enjoyed during which the hostesses served refreshments.

LAST MINUTE CALL FOR RED CROSS SUPPORT

Campaign Closes Tomorrow; Hope for Generous Backing

Have you enrolled as a member of the Red Cross? If not then see some of the local workers this evening or tomorrow, which is the last day of the campaign. Perhaps for some reason, absence from home when the call was made; lack of response to the solicitor's ring, and her inability to return may have resulted in your being missed. Your State desires this year to retain the proud record of previous years. Don't let your failure to enroll prevent her from attaining the desired 100 per cent. Act on that good impulse right away. Let every citizen wear a Red Cross membership button, every household display a membership flag. As an exchange puts it:

"This State did wonderfully well during the war. There was no activity in which the star of Delaware did not shine brightly. In many respects Delaware led the procession.

"The schools are doing their part in this new Red Cross campaign. From almost every school in the State come reports of large membership. Industrial establishments also are leaping to the front. The people are being reached through various organizations. But there are a large number of the "detached," and they should take a little trouble. If the solicitors do not find them, let these persons find the solicitors.

"It costs so little to renew membership in the Red Cross, it costs so little to become a member if you are not one, that there should be very few laggards.

"Every one knows that the Red Cross does a great humanitarian work. It operates in times of peace as well as during the war. There is need for it all the year round.

"Every dollar given, which entitles to membership, is spent for a good purpose. The Red Cross, of course, must have money, large amounts of it, if this organization is not to be crippled. A dollar is a small sum, but in the aggregate the large membership produces a great sum.

"Especially should the claims of the Red Cross be considered at this season of the year when Christmas and the era of peace and good will approaches. You can enjoy your Thanksgiving day, your Christmas holidays in a better frame of mind if you have the satisfaction of knowing that you are a member of the Red Cross.

"The Red Cross fights the many varied scourges of humanity. And your dollar is the ammunition with which the fight is carried on. There must be an abundance of ammunition if the Red Cross is to win its battles."

Let Us Give Thanks

PROCLAMATION
STATE OF DELAWARE, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Thanksgiving is an American Institution. It represents the spirit of the home—and upon such is America founded. Around other days cluster the thoughts and memories of some deed or event. Thanksgiving glows with the ideals of the fireside. All nationalities, all creeds, all schools of thought, political or social, acknowledge with appreciation the idea that inspired this day.

Stressed with events, that challenged all we most loved, our Nation, conceived and founded on home, still lives. The strength of our ideals, our achievements, human and continuous, still prevail against evil thoughts and malicious powers. Law and order are supreme, and rights of liberty under them are enjoyed.

During the year our State has been blessed with peace and prosperity. Our efforts in daily labors have yielded ample rewards. Our opportunities to assist our fellow man have challenged our better selves.

To this and for these, according to custom, so richly inherited, and by proclamation of the President, I, John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor of the State of Delaware, do designate

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER THE TWENTY-FIFTH AS THANKSGIVING DAY

and call upon the people of Delaware to lay aside the complexities of the day and to gather once again around the fireside and shrines of worship and render true and sincere celebration of this day.

And in our prayers of Thanksgiving for the blessings of our heritage and day, may we more truly resolve to give more of ourselves, of our thought, our time, our energy and our wealth to the welfare of our State. May we, too, render more unselfishly those civic duties that worthy citizenship expects. For by public service do we render most truly our personal Thanksgiving.

JOHN G. TOWNSEND, Jr.

By the Governor:
EVERETT C. JOHNSON,
Secretary of State.

SMYRNA CLUB GIVES THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Delegation from Neighboring Town Delights Newark Audience

One of the red letter events of the New Century Club year occurred yesterday, Reciprocity Day with Smyrna. A large delegation of club women from the neighboring town, comprising in all about 30, participated in the presentation of a unique Thanksgiving program as follows:

Reading, "November," Mrs. Spruance.

Paper, "The Pilgrims' Voyage to America," Mrs. Ferguson.

Tableau, "A Portrait of Miles Standish."

"The Early Settlers," Mrs. Hervey P. Hall.

"The Boys and Girls of the Netherlands," Mrs. Postles.

Tableau, "A Scene in Holland," introducing Dutch dances, songs and customs.

Paper, "How Thanksgiving Became a National Holiday," Mrs. Jones.

"How Our Colonial Grandparents Kept Warm," Mrs. Smithers.

Tableau, "A Scene in America."

At the conclusion of this number all present joined in the singing of America, following which a social hour with the visiting club women was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the Hospitality Committee under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Short, Club hostess.

The next meeting will be in charge of the Committee on Education, Mrs. C. O. Houghton, chairman.

Newark Grange to Hold Meeting Soon

Newark Grange will hold the first meeting of the year next Tuesday evening in the chapel room at Old College Hall. An interesting program followed by the serving of refreshments is promised by those in charge of arrangements for the affair.

The local grange is composed of local farmers, those interested in farm problems, and students at Delaware College, particularly those taking the agricultural courses. The grange in previous years has conducted a series of very successful meetings during the winter. The plans for this year indicate a repetition of past successes in carrying on this winter's work.

We Thank Thee, Lord

"For all thy ministries—
For morning mist and gently falling dew;
For summer rains, for winter ice and snow;
For whispering wind and purifying storm;
For the reft clouds that show the tender blue;
For the forked flash and long tumultuous roll;
For mighty rains that wash the dim earth clean;
For the sweet promise of the seven-fold bow;
For the soft sunshine and the still, calm night;
For dimpled laughter of soft summer seas;
For latticed splendor of the sea-borne moon;
For gleaming sands and granite-fronted cliffs;
For flying spume and waves that whip the skies;
For rushing gale and the great, glad calm;
For Might so mighty and for Love so true,
With equal mind,

We thank thee, Lord!"

—John Oxenham.

BOYS AND GIRLS ORGANIZE FOR CLUB WORK

Both Students and Parents in Adjacent Communities Active

That boys and girls in the vicinity are interested in club work and that their parents are giving hearty cooperation and support is evident from the reports submitted. In the community immediately adjoining Newark there are 30 clubs with a total membership of about 300.

T. T. Martin, State Club Leader, and Miss Agnes Medill, County Leader, have been meeting with the pupils and with the parents, and have been conducting an intensive campaign during the past month. They have been well received in every community and are optimistic concerning the result of such cooperation as has been manifest. Many communities have been organized and others are contemplating organization. Centerville will organize tomorrow evening.

The adjacent community clubs and their membership is as follows:

McClellandville, 7.
Salem, 6.
Glasgow, 5.
Newport, 92.
Stanton, 22.
Welsh Tract, 8.
Christiana, white 18; colored 24.

PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS MEET

Hear Reports, Consider Progressive Measures, and Appoint Committees

At a meeting of the Workers' Conference of Presbyterian Sunday School officers and teachers held at the home of Miss Yearley on East Main Street, last Thursday evening, Miss Leta Waters presented an interesting report of the County Sunday School Convention held recently. Plans were made for the organization of Missionary, Temperance and Teacher-training departments.

The following social committee was appointed with Geoffrey Houghland as chairman: Edith Lewis, Anna Smith, Mrs. Howard Preston, Mrs. Lella Richardson, Daniel Krapf, Miss Yearley, Ira Steel; and the following program committee, with Miss Jennie Smith as chairman: Naomi Street, Mrs. Howard Preston, Edna Chambers, George Griffin.

Several substitute teachers were also appointed.

OBITUARY

George W. Simmons

George W. Simmons aged 76 years, died suddenly at the home of his son, Dr. H. B. Simmons at Chestertown, Md., last Saturday.

Funeral services were held at the home of his son yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The body was brought to Newark and Hiram Lodge A. F. and A. M. of this town, of which he was a member, had charge of the funeral services here at 2.30. Interment was made at the M. E. cemetery. His wife, one daughter, Miss Ida, one son, named above, and a sister survive.

Mr. Simmons was formerly a resident of Newark. He has been living recently at Denton, Md. He was looking after the practice of his son during the latter's absence when he was stricken by death.

Mrs. Maggie Giles

Mrs. Maggie Giles, aged 42 years, a respectable colored woman, died yesterday after a lingering illness with dropsy. Several months ago she was taken to the hospital for treatment. No permanent aid could be given and she was brought home recently.

The funeral services will be held on Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the church and interment made in the nearby cemetery. She leaves a husband and two children, a son and a daughter.

Annual Thanksgiving Dinner a Big Success

More than 400 Enjoy Feast at Old Delaware

H. Rodney Sharp Invites Guests to Farewell Dinner December 20

A worthy successor of last year's notable affair, and worthy of the traditions of Old Delaware was the second annual Students' Thanksgiving dinner held at Old College last night. Representatives of the Board of Trustees, invited guests, resident alumni and students by every manifestation of appreciation and of thankfulness, set the seal of approval upon this custom inaugurated by Business Administrator Arthur G. Wilkinson last year.

No pains were spared to make the dinner a success. The dining tables were attractively decorated in autumn colors and King Turkey was everywhere evident. Occupying a position of honor on the speakers' table, a grinning Jack o' Lantern twinkled and beamed on the happy banqueters.

Orange colored baskets of nuts and candy constituted the favors; attractive menu cards in sepia supplemented the decorative scheme and told of the joys to come. Grapefruit cocktail, turkey, Southern style, raisin dressing; duchess potatoes, Sussex corn, candied sweets, Waldorf salad, wafers, coffee, ice cream, cake, coffee, nuts and candy constituted the menu. Speedy, efficient service was rendered by the student-waiters, and enlivening music furnished by the college orchestra.

At the conclusion of the dinner "smokes" to suit the individual taste were passed and in the friendly haze of the smoky cloud, the evening's entertainment was given.

H. B. Alexander, '21, president of the Student Council, presided and in well chosen phrases announced the numbers. Following piano solos by Miss Irene Wilkinson, several guests and faculty members were called upon for impromptu speeches.

A. G. Wilkinson told how it felt to eat dinner at The Commons; George Carter lauded the spirit of the college and of its students and brought a message from his son, F. Bayard Carter, now at Oxford University, who presided on a similar occasion last year. H. Rodney Sharp received an ovation from the students. He expressed his love and loyalty to Old Delaware and his appreciation of the interest manifested by the committee of the Trustees on which he serves. He announced that his place on that committee will be taken during his absence on a world tour by H. P. du Pont.

Harry P. Cannon, in a happy manner referred to his recent appointment as trustee and lauded the loyal spirit of the students in support of their team last Saturday.

Rev. Frank Herson urged a spirit of thankfulness for the opportunities enjoyed by college men and pledged his interest and aid.

Dean E. L. Smith spoke of the indomitable spirit of the college men, the spirit that never admits defeat.

Dr. C. F. Miller led the students in college songs, with the Alma Mater as the closing number.

Just before adjournment, H. Rodney Sharp extended an invitation to all present to participate in a farewell dinner which he will give at The Commons on Monday evening, December 20. Shortly after that time Mr. Sharp will leave for a trip around the world which will take approximately two years. This announcement was greeted with cheers. A locomotive yell with three "Sharps" was given by the assembled company.

IVY CASTLE TO NOMINATE OFFICERS

Ivy Castle, K. G. E., at a meeting next Saturday evening will nominate officers for the ensuing year. A large attendance is therefore expected.

WOMAN'S THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

The Delaware League of Women Voters is in receipt of the following proclamation issued by the National Woman Suffrage Association:

Three hundred years ago in November, 1620, the Pilgrim Fathers founded what they called a free nation. The following year they proclaimed a day of Thanksgiving because their plans had come safe to port after many storms.

The political freedom the Pilgrims sought did not come to women until 300 years later. Now the women of America have, after a long voyage and many storms, arrived at their port of freedom.

Their Day of Thanksgiving is therefore due.

For this reason the National American Woman Suffrage Association, the direct heir of the long line of brave women, who, in the persons of Abigail Adams, Lucretia Mott, Susan B. Anthony, Lucy Stone, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Anna Howard Shaw and thousands more, never paused in their work for liberty, now urges that the women of the United States use Thanksgiving Day as a day for the especial expression of their gratitude for the blessings of political emancipation.

We, the members of the Executive Board of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, offer our own thanks; first to Almighty God who has led the unflinching efforts of three generations to this hour; second, to the noble company of men in the fifteen full suffrage states, who have in the last fifty years braved opposition at the polls in order to enfranchise the women of their several states.

We thank again the 65th and 66th Congresses of the United States which stood staunch against fierce opposition and finally brought the barque of liberty to port. We thank the President of the United States for his unprecedented act in personally bringing the Amendment before Congress. We thank those states which cleared the way for the amendment by prompt ratification. We thank the Governors who called special sessions, the hundreds of legislators who responded to these calls, who endured journeys, resisted opposition, repudiated bribery, defeated corruption, for the sake of justice to the women of the country.

We thank all the political parties for their final acceptance of the principle that just government rests upon the consent of the governed. We thank the minor parties for their adoption of this principle before the major parties had awakened to its application. But we also thank the two major parties which have since 1915 increasingly accepted woman suffrage as a political issue to be maintained, and who furthered the cause of ratification in spite of reactionary elements in their midst.

Finally, we give thanks that in spite of all obstacles the women of the United States on November 2nd were invested with full political liberty. With new self-respect and new hope for the future, millions of them went to the polls and participated in the great presidential election. Reverently they dedicate themselves to the service of their country that "government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

For The Homemaker's Eye

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

A water made of gum arabic is often used to give body to lace which has lost its pristine freshness; this is the way it is prepared: Wash a quarter of a pound of gum arabic in cold water to remove dust and wood fiber, then add two pints of boiling water. Put it in a warm place and stir frequently with a wooden spoon until the gum melts, then strain through a piece of muslin and bottle; it is then ready for use. An average proportion to use is one tablespoonful of gum-water to one cupful of water. Gum-water is used for fine laces, silks and flannel waists, also sometimes for dark blue and black satens, and art work sewn in colored silk. It is finer in quality than starch and does not produce a harsh appearance on the fibers of silk and fine laces. Soak the lace in the gum-water for half an hour, then squeeze it out and proceed in the same manner as for other starching. The lace is now ready to be wrapped around a large bottle which has been covered with thick white muslin. Place the bottle in the sun until the lace is perfectly dry.

Common salt and water make a capital gargle for a sore throat, and this lotion also relieves tired eyes.

Add a pinch of carbonate of soda to fruit when stewing. This takes away the tartness and less sugar is required.

A pinch of salt placed on the tongue and washed down with a cup of hot strong tea is an excellent cure for a sick headache.

When scrubbing linoleum add a little paraffin to the water. It takes out dirt and grease and gives linoleum a beautiful polish.

Wash tea leaves before you use them to sprinkle over a carpet. If used just as they come from the teapot they are likely to stain anything with a light ground.

To keep bread fresh soak a small new sponge in cold water, place it in a saucer and stand the saucer in the breadpan. The bread will remain moist for several days.

Always keep a small bottle of iodine in the emergency closet. Paint it into cuts and bruises; it is an excellent antiseptic and hastens healing. Also good for insect bites. For enlarged joints paint every night; it relieves the inflammation in three or four nights.

THE UNHAPPY FACULTY OF "STIRRING THINGS UP"

"Yes, she's a bright girl, an excellent stenographer and she gets through more work than any one I have ever had in my employ, but, she has an unhappy faculty for keeping every one around stirred up. She has a sharp tongue and she doesn't hesitate to use it. While she was here, every other day or so one of the girls would have a crying spell. Something Miss A—had said had hurt her feelings. One good worker left us just as our annual rush was beginning because of an unkind remark Miss A—made to her. Even on days when nothing happened you could feel the tenseness as soon as you stepped into the office. It was like working over a volcano. And when at length she left us and a worker, much her inferior, took her place, it seemed as if the dove of peace had come back to the office."

The young woman described is not an exceptional case. There are innumerable competent workers who are handicapped by their inability to get along with others. Wherever they go, friction and strife result. The atmosphere about them is always electrically charged. The girl who is ambitious to be successful in the business world should remember that in addition to ability and training, she will find tact, poise and kindness essential. The people who cannot work harmoniously with others are not likely to get very far.

LAUGH IT OFF

If the weather looks like rain
Laugh it off.
When you feel you must complain,
Laugh it off.
Do not sit and nurse your fears,
Waste no time in useless tears,
Put your faith in smiles and cheers
Laugh it off.

If men say you're looking ill,
Laugh it off.
Should they recommend a pill,
Laugh it off.
Doctors, druggists and disease
Want to do just as they please,
Often you can save the fees,
Laugh it off.

If life seems to go dead wrong,
Laugh it off.
Drown your sorrow in a song,
Laugh it off.
Do your work with smiling face,
Look ahead and keep the pace,
Be a winner in the race,
Laugh it off.
—Kansas City Star.

LET ALL REJOICE!

To us it certainly seems as though the Pilgrims had little to be thankful for. If the settlers in Plymouth could "sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving" in 1621, what, pray, ought we to do in this year of our Lord? Think of the blessings which we enjoy as the commonplaces of the day, of which the Pilgrims never even dreamed! A vast territory mastered, surveyed and thickly settled—abundant treasures of farm, mine, forest and mill poured out for human uses—numerable inventions harnessed to the service of human efficiency and comfort—a great republic "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal"—free political, educational and religious institutions, hitherto unknown and unparalleled, successfully established—a higher grade of material well being, a wider diffusion of culture, a nobler ideal of happiness, a finer conception of democracy, achieved for all the people, than the world has ever seen before! It is true, of course, that not all ills have been suppressed, nor all blessings won. But because we have not yet achieved everything is no reason why we should not be glad that we have achieved much! Because we have not yet won the goal of life is no reason why we should not rejoice that we have advanced! The world today is better than it ever has been before. Men have less suffering, greater happiness and nobler opportunity than in any epoch past. Humanity is still fighting the same persistent ills and seeking the same illusive goods, but in new fields and on higher levels. The goal still lies far ahead, but behind is a long road of miseries conquered and battles won.

PUTTING IT POLITELY

"Did you say my head was 'solid ivory'?" "No, indeed, I never use such language." "What did you say, then?" "I merely remarked that you carried more osseous matter above your shoulders than any other man I had ever met." "Oh, that's different."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

PEOPLE ALWAYS WILLING TO PAY FOR TURKEY

New York spends about $3,000,000 on its Thanksgiving dinner, with turkey as its chief feature. The dealers say if it cost a dollar per pound they would sell just about as many. Turkey on Thanksgiving is traditional in America, and the farmer knows it. He fattens his best birds and saves them for this day. Without realizing it the farmer thus corners the market until the price gets high enough. Then he sells. But the people will have their turkey and this year the dealers expect a greater demand than ever, although they are selecting smaller birds in order to meet it.

The great part of the Eastern cities' turkey supply comes from the Middle West—Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. Maryland and Kentucky send large consignments. This year "turkey specials" are being run from St. Louis. A year ago one of these trains brought 32,000 birds for the New York market.

Vast numbers of turkeys are raised in Missouri and Texas. The product of the latter state, where the birds feed on sage and sunflower seeds, is highly regarded. According to reports, however, the output of both of these sections has been effectively cornered this year.

JOYS TO COME

The pudding bubbled in the pot,
The turkey in the oven
Puffed up so high; the pumpkin pie
Cried out, "Hey, stop your shovin'!"

The taters in the saucepan
Danced a jig against the lid.
Cranberries popped and skipped and hopped
And sauced the rest—they did.

The kitchen tins were all agog,

The kettles all a-humming;
No wonder—boy and girl alive!
Thanksgiving dinner's coming!

NEXT DOOR NEIGHBORS AND TELEPHONE RATES

THE TELEPHONE has come to be a part of our life—so completely so, that we never give it a thought!

The call for the doctor which may save a life; the call in time of fire; the call which may save a valuable horse; the call which saves extra trips to the city when a machine breaks down in harvest time;—these are the emergency uses, but they're not the things that count most in the real day-in-and-day-out service value of the telephone.

The Telephone makes next door neighbors of us all.

There was a time when the isolation of the average farm dweller made farm life far different from what it is today.

Nowadays the man on the farm keeps in touch with markets and market conditions. He knows the best time to market his crops.

The development of a system which accomplishes these things has been the aim and object of this Company for years.

Large sums of money have been invested in the system.

Some telephones are located farther in the country than others. The greater the distance from the central office, the greater the investment and the greater the cost of keeping the service in tip top condition.

Not since 1908 has this Company paid one cent of return to those who put up the money for the building of the plant.

Is that safe and sound business?

Where will the new money come from to continue the growth, improvement and expansion if we do not pay a fair return to those who have already invested their money in the business?

The new rates have been equitably worked out. They will do no more than assure the future of the service.

Isn't that what we all want?

FIFTEEN WOMEN NOW LICENSED TO PREACH IN M. E. CHURCH

Right Was Granted at General Conference Last May

Fifteen women have been licensed as preachers in the Methodist Episcopal church since this right was granted last May by the General Conference of the church. The first woman preacher to be licensed in the Methodist Episcopal church under this ruling was Miss D. Willia Caffrey of Wentachee, Wash. She came from a family of preachers and at the age of nine wanted to preach. She had been acting as associate pastor of the First Methodist Church at Wentachee. Her pastor who was at the General Conference telegraphed word of its decision, and she was licensed as a local preacher within two hours.

The same evening Miss Winifred Williard was licensed by the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Denver. At the time she was 2000 miles away in the east, but the enterprising Denverites called a meeting as soon as they heard the news and took action.

The first woman licensed in New England was Mrs. Kate Morrison Cooper. For the past three years she had been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Portsmouth, R. I. She was licensed June 10.

Ten days later Miss Mabella H. Whitney was licensed at Pittsfield, Vt. She was a supply pastor and previously had served as pastor of a Congregational church in Maine. Ten days after that Miss Capitola B. Lochner was licensed by the Proctorsville, Vt., M. E. Church, and in a week another Vermont woman, Miss Ella H. Wagner, a public school teacher, was licensed at Nulton.

TEN REASONS WHY BUSINESS OUTLOOK IS GOOD

Ten reasons why the business outlook in the United States is favorable and why business men should assume a more optimistic attitude are given by Roger W. Babson, famous statistician. Here they are:

"First, the working people in this country are in possession of the great majority of bonds issued by the United States Government during the war. This is a very favorable sign, for it shows that the great mass of people are in sound financial condition.

"Second, that as a result of the coming of national prohibition two and one-half billion dollars previously wasted in this industry yearly is now available for business projects that are more useful and more likely to promote the welfare of all people.

"Third, that in spite of the widespread opinion to the contrary, the Federal Reserve Banking System has been an important factor in stabilizing financial conditions in this country.

"Fourth, that advertising is now an influential means of moulding public opinion. This profession has now reached such an advanced and scientific stage in its development that it is a logical means by which the people of the country can be convinced that contrary to their present opinion business is really on a firm basis and that there is no cause for the present depression.

"Fifth, that the argument that the falling off of our foreign trade will prove ruinous is ill-founded, for such trade only constitutes 5 per cent of the total. What little stoppage there is now in this field, therefore, is of little or no consequence and will have no noticeable effect on the general business outlook.

"Sixth, that recently the standardization of manufacturing processes has been increasing with such amazing rapidity that there has been a considerable reduction in the cost of commodities. This is a permanent influence of no mean importance and should not be slighted in any consideration of the future of industries in general.

"Seventh, that all statistics gathered recently offer overwhelming proof that seasonal fluctuations in production in this country are rapidly decreasing. This will prove to be very beneficial, as it will tend to make the demands for labor more constant.

"Eighth, that taxation will be radically reduced in the near future.

"Ninth, that rapid progress is being made in industrial education with the result that the men employed in industrial plants are much better trained for their tasks and are performing them with far greater efficiency. The trade schools that are now established in all sections of the country are accomplishing wonders in this way.

"Tenth, that the United States as a result of the war is now a creditor nation instead of a debtor nation, and, therefore, is in a very powerful position in the business world."

CHARRING DOES NOT STOP DECAY OF FENCE POSTS

The old theory that charring the butts of fence posts and telephone poles preserved the wood has been disproved by a series of tests recently conducted by the Forest Products Laboratory of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, on fences with charred and untreated posts of varied species. The charred posts proved in these tests to be even less durable than the untreated ones.

Theoretically, an area of charred wood around a post should prevent decay, because charcoal does not decay or encourage the growth of fungi. But the charred area around a post is not usually a solid covering. It is checked through in many places. If posts are seasoned before they are charred, the charring does not reach to the bottom of the season checks which are always present. If green unchecked posts are charred, checks will open through the charred part as the wood seasons. In either case the uncharred center of the post is exposed to fungus infection and will decay as rapidly as untreated wood.

Charring deep enough to resist decay would undoubtedly weaken a post of ordinary size.

EXPLAINS PHONE RATE INCREASE

"Base Charge" Only on Subscribers Within 3-Mile Exchange Limit

NO DISCRIMINATION UNDER NEW PLAN

Speculation as to the increased rates for telephone service in Delaware, outside of Wilmington, which will be put into effect on December 1, was set at rest to-day by E. P. Barde, general manager of the Diamond State Telephone Company.

The present rural line rate, or what is known as the multi-party rate, is $1.80 flat for all exchanges, except Wilmington and Holly Oak. This rate would be raised, under the proposed plans, to $2.25, as a basic rate for all exchanges except Wilmington, Holly Oak, Delmar, Sharptown, Sebyville and Whitesville. For the last four places named, the base rate will be $2. The Wilmington and Holly Oak rate will be $3, providing sanction is given by the Public Utilities Commission, which has control of the rates within the city.

The base rate applies to all subscribers within two miles of the base rate area. The base rate area comprises the corporate limits of the city or town in which the telephone exchange is located, or a radius of one mile where the corporate limits of a city or town do not extend that far.

This practically means in the case of all exchanges outside of Wilmington that the multi-party subscribers located within three miles of the central base rate office will pay the base rate only. Those located beyond the three mile radius will pay an additional charge of 25 cents a month for each two miles.

There are two reasons for such changes, Mr. Barde said. First, the company has always charged mileage beyond the base rate for each quarter mile or fraction for individual, two-party and four-party subscribers. A four-party subscriber located two miles from the base rate pays 20 cents a month for each quarter mile or $1.00 a month in addition to the base rate. This constitutes more or less of a discrimination, which the company is desirous of correcting.

The second reason is that the expense of maintaining communication for subscribers at a distance from the central office increases naturally in accordance with the distance, both for maintenance and as investment by the company. Furthermore, the subscriber at a distance from the central office, it is held, gets service of much greater value than the subscriber in the central community.

In support of the increase in rates, Mr. Barde pointed to the fact that there had been no reward in the form of dividends to the stockholders of the Diamond State Telephone Company for the past twelve years. "In short," he said, "the owners of the system who provide the service have had nothing. The new rates," he continued, "will provide a return, and at a fair rate only, on the money they have invested in the business."

It is the hope of the telephone company officials that decision will be reached by the Public Utilities Commission in time to make a uniform increase in rates both in Wilmington and outside, on December 1. The commission has set November 19 for a hearing on the application of the company for the proposed increase within the city—Wilmington Evening Journal.

REPUBLICANS TO REDUCE NUMBER OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

In the coming short session of Congress Republicans say they expect to take legislative steps to eliminate more than 40,000 government employes at Washington, now employed under the Civil Service, thereby saving in annual expense from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. This is exclusive of the Civil Service employes elsewhere than in Washington, whose number also will be reduced, but in legislation other than that controlling the situation in the National Capital.

Representative Wm. R. Wood, of Indiana, chairman of the Sub-Appropriations Committee that prepares the legislative, executive and judicial bills, declared that the cut by Congress will equal the reduction last session. "We reduced the number last time by 41,000," he said, "and I believe we can get rid of as many more this winter."

Cuts will be made in every department of the Government. Wood thinks the Internal Revenue Bureau, under which the Volstead act is enforced, will be about the only division of the Government where no decrease can be made. The prohibition authorities will scarcely be able, at that, to get the number of men they want. "It would take a force as big as the standing army," Wood declared.

His sub-committee begins work next Monday. From the hearings will be developed the employes to be dropped. Conferences will be held with Chairman Lehlbach, of the Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, in preparing the new measure. The proposed changes will become effective July 1, 1921.

We once saw a little card tacked up before the eyes of a busy man. He could see it every time he raised his eyes from his desk. On it he had written: "Get your pleasure out of your work or you will never know what pleasure is." That attitude will help us to get the right Thanksgiving spirit into our hearts. Let's forget that we have pictured happiness in terms of idleness and sloth. It's just the other way. This Thanksgiving day will be a good time to get the new angle of vision.—Farmers' Guide.

DOWN STATE RED CROSS DOES GOOD WORK

Members Active in Sewing for Suffering Children

Down State branches of the Red Cross have been very active in the work of making baby layettes, material for which was distributed several weeks ago. Several of the branches have won honor and credit through the promptness with which they have completed their allotments.

It is only through the activities of these branches and the work they do that the Red Cross is able to continue its good charity. All branches which have not completed their work are urged to do so at once and send the goods to headquarters immediately. Officers of the Red Cross say that this is important. Among the down State branches that were the first to complete their allotment were St. Georges, 48 garments; Bridgeville, 120 garments; Frankford, 20 garments; West Presbyterian Church of Wilmington was the first branch to send in any finished articles.

Among the active branches of the State are Bridgeville, Delmar, Delaware City, Frankford, Hanover, Laurel, Middletown, Milford, Midway, New Castle, St. Georges, and Smyrna.

The branches in Wilmington are West Presbyterian Church, Hanover Presbyterian Church, Harrison Street M. E. Church, First and Central Presbyterian Church and Deaconess Home.

The Willing to Work branches are Dover, Deaconess Home, Hagley Community House, Brandywine Springs and Camden-Wyoming.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Out of the more than 3,000,000 Ford cars now in use, about sixty percent have been sold to farmers. Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much of comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living. A family car without an equal in low cost of operation and maintenance. We solicit your order for one now because the demand is large and continually increasing.

MAKING MONEY

Some men make their money in business—some in stocks—some by toil—some saving of their daily wages. But we submit to you the unquestioned fact that more men have achieved a comfortable competence through the ownership of property—houses and land which bring in a fixed income—than in any other way.

A word to the wise is enough. Watch your neighbors gradually rise in the world and then ascertain how they are doing it. In nine cases out of ten you will find they have purchased their home or farm—often on easy terms—while their less enterprising neighbor is still paying rent.

A word to the wise is sufficient. If you have not yet started on a place of your own do not delay. Get full particulars about some of the following properties.

STRONG PROGRAM FOR HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETING

Addresses Tuesday Evening to be of Special Interest

All indications are that there will be a very big fruit show in the du Pont Hotel, Wilmington, next week at the meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society. The program is a strong one and of unusual interest. On Tuesday evening the addresses will be of special interest to the people of city and country alike. There will be a very entertaining talk by Mr. Edward J. Cattell, City Statistician, of Philadelphia; a lantern slide lecture on Landscape Gardening, by Mrs. Frances V. Kite; an address by Governor Townsend and other interesting talks.

Visitors can reserve rooms for $3.50 at the du Pont Hotel. Mr. William T. Budd, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will look after all visitors who are not able to get rooms at the du Pont, and see that they are well housed and well fed.

COUNTY BOARD TO HOLD REFERENDUM

In order to finance the building of new schoolhouses in this county, the County Board of Education is planning to have a referendum vote of all school tax payers in rural New Castle county outside of special districts on the question of issuing bonds for the erection of new schools. The question will be placed before the voters shortly after the first of the year. It is proposed to raise a fund of $1,000,000 by a bond issue for new schools. The plans of the schools to be erected at Middletown and Ashley call for structures costing $360,000 each.

COLLEGE TRUSTEES HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The Board of Trustees of Delaware College met yesterday morning at 10:30 in Old College with a large attendance. This was the first meeting with the new president, Dr. Walter Hüllihen, and was given over entirely to routine matters.

Eleven faculty appointments made at Delaware College since the last meeting, and two at the Women's College, were confirmed. Two other appointments, those of Miss Catherine Woods as Home Demonstration Agent - at Large, and that of Miss Mary E. Rich as Field Secretary in Education were also confirmed. The reports of the officers, showing the present condition and pointing out the needs of the colleges, were read.

More room for the various departments was asked by President Hüllihen, whose report contained a brief sketch of the work and activities of the colleges since the last meeting and recommendations to produce increased efficiency in all departments. Stabilization of faculty, commendation of the spirit of the student body and of their self-government standards, announcement of the gift of temporary dormitories to the Women's College by the Delaware School Auxiliary Association; the establishment of a chair of Philosophy; additional instructors in English, history, modern languages; the need of the immediate erection of Kent and New Castle Halls at Women's College; a $20,000 appropriation for the Experiment Farm and Station were some of the matters discussed in the President's report.

Reports were also made by the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, H. Rodney Sharp, chairman; Committee on Agriculture, S. H. Derby, chairman; and the Committee on Women's College, Chancellor Charles M. Curtis, chairman.

The rule, hitherto disregarded of automatically dropping from the Board of Trustees any member absent from three meetings without sufficient excuse, will according to decision made yesterday, be hereafter enforced.

MUCH INTEREST DISPLAYED IN CHILD WELFARE CONFERENCE

Interesting Program Arranged for Meeting December 3rd and 4th

It is most evident that people are taking much interest in the child welfare conference to take place in Dover, December 3rd and 4th. The general public is cordially invited to attend the meetings. Various organizations, doing any kind of work for children, or that are interested in such work are asked to send large representations. Indications are that the general public, churches and organizations will support the conferences by good attendance. Meetings have been arranged with a view to train schedules, so that people all over the State may easily attend meetings.

Speakers representing Delaware agencies will comment on the findings in the child welfare study made by some fifty local committees through the summer. They will also tell of many phases of child welfare work in progress in the State and discuss legislative proposals. The study made by the local committees was a noteworthy one, showing great interest and hard work. Local arrangements for the conference are being handled by a child welfare committee that has given much assistance the past year to the child health center in Dover. The chairman of the committee is Mrs. J. P. Saulsbury. Other members are Mrs. Benjamin F. Thompson, Mrs. C. B. Hope, Mrs. C. C. Fulton, Mrs. John Hutton, Mrs. Walter A. Powell and Mrs. Harry Richardson. The Delaware Public Health Association and the League for Women Voters have called business meetings to precede the afternoon meeting of the child welfare conference on December 3rd. These organizations are specially urged to plan to stay on in Dover for the child welfare conference as matters will be discussed that will be of special interest to them.

COUNTY CONFERENCES TO BE HELD SOON

Suggested Changes in Organization and Administration of School Laws Discussed

Three county conferences on matters educational have been called by the Citizens' Committee, recently appointed by the hold-over senators of Delaware. These conferences will be held at the county seat of each county—Wilmington, Dover and Georgetown, on Tuesday, November 30, at 10:00 a. m.

The conferences will be composed of members of the Citizens' Committee who live within the county, members of the boards of education of the special school districts within the bounds of the county and the local trustees of the county school districts.

The purpose of the conferences is to discuss suggested changes in the present organization and administration of the Delaware school system. Various suggestions have been made and the committee wishes to discuss them frankly with the citizens who are now the elected representatives of the people in charge of the schools in the various districts of the State.

The topics to be discussed at the conferences will be determined by the conferences themselves after they are called to order, but the Citizens' Committee has suggested that the discussion shall include various topics related to the present organization and administration of our school system, consolidation of schools and the transportation of children, school costs and school taxes.

The meetings will be held in the State House at Dover, in the Court Room at Georgetown, and in the High School auditorium at Wilmington.

SCHOOL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED DEC. 5-12

Ministers, Teachers, Community Organizations to Cooperate

In accordance with a suggestion offered by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, the State educational authorities with the approval of Governor Townsend have designated December 5-12 as School Week. In a letter to the ministers of the churches, asking for their cooperation, the following specific aims and suggestions are set forth:

"It is suggested that not only the schools but the churches, Parent - Teacher Associations, women's clubs, men's clubs, granges, and all other civic organizations should conduct a program some time during the week which would focus public attention on education and develop public sentiment in favor of better schools. Some of the following specific aims could be in such program:

1. To secure regular school attendance.
2. To insure satisfactory health conditions in schools.
3. To provide adequately trained teachers.
4. To make possible a high school education for every child.
5. To convince the public of the worth of education.
6. To obtain adequate financial support for schools.

"It is suggested that the ministers in carrying out their part of the program use one or more of their church services for emphasizing the importance of education. If any minister finds that he cannot devote any part of his services to education on December 5, the following Sunday, December 12, will do just as well. The ministers, especially, are appealed to from the fact that the home, the church, and the school must stand together against those influences which, for the purpose of saving a dollar, would rob the child of his rights to a good education in our public schools.

"The suggestion is made that ministers call upon the superintendents of schools, principals, teachers, and high school pupils to assist by delivering four-minute speeches on some educational topic of local interest at one of the church services on December 5th.

"If the ministers are willing to observe an Educational Sunday annually, the Department of Education will gladly assist the ministers another year by preparing and educational bulletin containing much valuable material.

"Many problems of a social, economic or industrial nature must be settled in the near future. The church and school can render needed assistance."

Teachers are urged to cooperate with the ministers and to carry out specific programs on December 10. Parent - Teacher Associations and granges are asked to assist.

The value of education is urged in a suggestive outline which gives the situation in a nutshell as follows:

Education is the Nation's Bulwark Because:

1. It is a financial investment that yields the highest dividends.
2. It results in safe and sane citizenship.
3. It increases the ability and desire to serve others.
4. It adds to the appreciation and happiness of life.
5. It multiplies the chances of success in life.

Education Fits for Service

With no schooling the child has only one chance in 150,000 of rendering distinguished service.

With elementary schooling, the child has four times the chance of the one without it.

With high school education, he has 87 times the chance.

With a college education, he has 800 times the chance.

Less than one per cent of Americans are college graduates, yet this one per cent has furnished:

- 55 per cent of our Presidents.
- 54 per cent of our Vice Presidents.
- 47 per cent of our Speakers of the House.
- 36 per cent of our members of Congress.
- 61 per cent of our Secretaries of State.
- 67 per cent of our Attorneys-General.
- 69 per cent of our Judges of the Supreme Court.

Over 50 per cent of the distinguished people of the United States.

At the present time the President, Vice President, Speaker of the House, all but two members of the Cabinet, 69 out of 96 Senators, 305 out of 435 Representatives and all of the Justices of the Supreme Court are college trained men.

GIVE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR DAUGHTER

A delightful birthday party was tendered Miss Jane Miller by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, last Saturday afternoon, in honor of her fourteenth birthday. The young folk enjoyed lively games and a very entertaining social hour. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served.

The guests were Misses Dorothy Armstrong, Rebecca Cann, Agnes Frazer, Dorothy Hayes, Violet Rowan, Louise Hüllihen, Frances Hüllihen, Helen Gregg, Helen Bernard, Agnes Miller, Messrs. Jack Cann, Malcolm Armstrong and William Hayes, Miss Audrey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, and Mrs. Agnes E. Miller.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Holds Dance in Old College

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity held an enjoyable informal dance in Old College last Saturday evening. Many of the Alumni of the Chapter stayed over after the Dickinson game and were present at the dance.

The color scheme of the decorations was gold and brown. Shocks of corn, pumpkins and lanterns were placed in the window alcoves and upon the landings in the main foyer.

The patronesses were Mrs. Walter Hüllihen, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. George L. Townsend, Mrs. G. E. Dutton, Miss G. Drake, and Mrs. Harold E. Tiffany.

WHAT LOVE IS

Love is the filling from one's own Another's cup.
Love is the daily laying down
And taking up.
A choosing of the stony path
Through each new day
That other feet may tread at ease
The smoother way.

Love is not blind, but looks ahead
Through other eyes
And asks not: "Must I give?" but
"May I sacrifice?"
Love hides its grief that other hearts
And lips may sing.

And burdened walks that other lives
May, buoyant, wing.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON

A regional conference for educational matters will be held in Baltimore on December 15, according to a bulletin issued by the Department of the Interior.

The region comprises Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

These regional conferences are the outcome of the national citizens' conference of education, held in Washington in the early part of this year. To these conferences there have been invited state governors, mayors of cities, members of chambers of commerce, Rotary Clubs, boards of trade, women's organizations, patriotic and civic associations, members of state boards of education, county and city superintendents of public instruction, editors and others interested in the improvement of schools and the promotion of education.

Important things to be emphasized in the coming educational campaigns are set forth in a letter written by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, in response to inquiries. Dr. Claxton said:

"The close relationship between education and wealth-producing power must be clearly shown, so that the people may understand that this expenditure for education will not constitute a burden rather than an investment through which they may be better able to bear the other burdens of taxation.

"The normal school graduates of last spring are only sufficient to supply about 20 per cent. of the teachers needed to fill the vacancies in the elementary schools this fall," said Dr. Claxton. "We are spending between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 for the support of normal schools. We must spend at least $75,000,000. California is somewhat better supplied with normal schools than other states. Yet a very large portion of the young teachers of California are not normal school graduates, nor have they had equal preparation elsewhere."

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT ARRIVES
Miss Catherine Wood, of Claremont, New Hampshire, recently appointed Home Demonstration Agent-at-Large for the State, arrived in Newark yesterday. She will have her headquarters at Wolf Hall.

The Quickening of the Public Conscience

As the public conscience becomes more sensitive certain business or industrial principles once accepted are being discarded.

Business procedure which a generation ago at the worst was regarded as sharp business practice is punishable today by justifiable heavy fines, and even prison sentences. This is not because business men have grown worse, but because the world has grown better and the public conscience has become quickened.

A similar interesting situation is arising with regard to the attitude of the consuming public in relation to the demands of labor, particularly as applied to the production of the necessities of life. This is evincing itself in the wide-spread demand for the open shop.

Five years ago the concern that stood out for the open shop faced severe criticism. The right of labor to collective bargaining under all circumstances was scarcely to be denied, even by any noncombatant private citizen. Today, because labor has repeatedly refused to adhere to the bargain it has made in its collective capacity, the consuming public is weary of paying the bills caused by the irresponsibility of labor to keep its agreements, and is clamoring for the open shop. This, again, is due to a quickening of the public conscience.—Mining Congress Journal.

Social Notes

The dance complimentary to Miss Elizabeth Wright given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wright at the New Century Club, was attended by about 75 couples, including many out-of-town guests. Music was furnished by Jacobs' orchestra.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Wright to receive were the guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. S. J. Wright, and Miss Margaret Smith, of Salisbury, Md.

The reception tendered Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hullen at the Women's College on Friday evening was a delightful affair. A number of Wilmingtonians were present. An informal program followed the reception. Miss Dora Wilcox sang several selections; Miss M. E. Rohr told Southern stories; and Miss Frances Worthington, a talented student, played violin solos.

Mrs. George L. Townsend entertained one of the Bridge Clubs last night; Mrs. J. Pearce Cann is entertaining the other today.

FRIENDS GIVE VARIETY SHOWER FOR YOUNG BRIDE

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey, nee Miss Edna Chalmers, was the honoree of a variety shower arranged by a number of her girl friends and held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church last Friday evening.

The room was tastefully decorated; pink and white constituting the color scheme. On a large table in the center were piled gifts with appropriate legends, grave and gay, which the young bride was required to read. After this ceremony games were played and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

GUILD HOLDS SUCCESSFUL MASQUERADE SOCIAL

The guild of St. Thomas' Church held a very successful and highly enjoyable masquerade and box social in the Parish House last Saturday evening. The affair had been postponed from the previous Tuesday evening on account of the storm. Many out-of-town guests and a large number from Newark and vicinity were present.

William S. Armstrong auctioned off the boxes with his usual witty quips and jests. The proceeds from this source and from the sale of candy, cake, and punch amounted to $59.60.

Music for the dancing was furnished by Minnehaha Band and by J. Stewart Pryor, a talented pianist who lives near Head of Christiansa.

The sum realized from this affair will be used for the purchase of new books.

Wedding

Proud - Wright

In the Newark Methodist Episcopal Church last Saturday evening at 6.30, Miss Elizabeth Kelly Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wright, and Benjamin Franklin Proud, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Proud, of Manchester, New Hampshire, were married by Reverend Frank Herson, pastor of the church.

The bride was attired in an exquisite gown of duchess satin, with train. Her veil of tulle, was arranged in Dutch cap effect, caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, white sweet peas, and sweetheart roses.

Her only attendant, Miss Margaret Smith, of Salisbury, Md., wore a gown of rose Georgette threaded with silver. She carried a bouquet of Killarney roses, yellow snapdragons, and purple pansies. This was tied with peach ribbon veiled with violet tulle. The groom was attended by J. M. Leonard, of New York City. The ushers were Harry Farrell, of Washington, D. C.; Henry Colbach and Herbert Finnegan, of Pottstown, Pa., and Norris N. Wright, a brother of the bride.

Previous to the ceremony a musical program, lasting one-half hour, was rendered. Miss Elizabeth McNeal presided at the organ and played a number of instrumental selections including "Hearts and Flowers," "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Traumere," "Tales from Hoffman," "The Belles of St. Mary's."

Miss Mary Houston and Mrs. S. N. Tammany sang two duets, "Beauty's Eyes," and "Whispering Hope." Mrs. Tammany also sang "O Promise Me." At the conclusion of the marriage ceremony Miss Houston sang "O Perfect Love."

The church was effectively decorated in green and white. Pine trees of graduated sizes stood from the walls, along the chancel rail to the centre where green foliage and white flowers were banked in graceful effect to screen the musicians and to form a background for the bridal party.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the New Century Club at the conclusion of which the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Atlantic City. The bride's traveling gown was of old blue duvetyne with hat to match. They will spend Thanksgiving in Newark and will shortly thereafter take up their residence in Tarrytown, N. Y., where the groom is head of the Department of Physical Education at Hackley School.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Butterfield of Concord, New Hampshire; Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Proud, Misses Betty and Dorothy Proud of Orange, N. J.; Miss Josephine Hawthorne, Pottstown, Pa.; Dr. James Scott, L. du Hadway, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. W. Goldey, Mr. Frank Goldey, Mrs. W. J. McAvoy, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. "OWED TO A PUMPKIN PIE"

A pumpkin pie is a luscious thing 'Twould tickle Lucullus' palate. What bard would not of its excellence sing? And who wouldn't give it a ballot? It is succulent gold and sunshine "mixed"— A dish for the gods when properly "fixed"— A wedge of it, please, and I'll split my face! Now hand me another—I'll run you a race!— Hates off to the pumpkin pie!

A yellow globe in a field of maize, Some milk from the cows that low O; An egg or two that the speckled hen lays, And snow-white flour for the dough O; A pinch of this and a trifle of that— You never can tell what the cook is at— I wish that I knew how the trick is done; I don't—but I know that under the sun There's naught beats a pumpkin pie!

I'm glad that I live in the world to the west— Don't tell me of Greece and its glory; I want none of Arcady, Isles of the Blest, And other spots famous in story! The fruits of the South and the fruits of the East Could never, no, never, produce such a feast As that which we eat 'neath Ohio skies When the pumpkin is yellow and right for pies— Our glorious pumpkin pie! —Cleveland Plaindealer.

FARM BUREAU TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING TUESDAY

Will Discuss Advisability of Joining American Federation

"The Farm Bureau is now stronger and is in a better position to serve the agricultural interests of the county than at any time since its organization," said Frank Yearsley, President of the New Castle County Farm Bureau when discussing the coming annual meeting, which will be held at Wilmington, Tuesday, November 30, beginning at 11.30 o'clock. Every state in the union, with the exception of six, of which Delaware is one, is now a member of the American Federation of Farm Bureaus. This great organization has raised funds and has appointed committees comprising the best brains of the country to investigate and recommend amendments for the following pertinent problems; the marketing of grain, the marketing of dairy products and the market for canned goods. Already an effective organization has been perfected in several states governing the sale of livestock from which the farmers are reaping results. The question whether Delaware will become a member of this organization and receive the prestige and influence of a national agricultural association with a membership reaching from coast to coast, in solving her problems, will be one of the pertinent subjects before this meeting.

The New Castle County Farm Bureau in a period of three years has evolved from an organization of 350 individual members to one of 600 families or approximately 1800 members. The Farm Bureau is built on the needs of the individual farmers and its purpose is to serve the individual farmer through the influence of its organization. The Farm Bureau is an organization "of the people, by the people and for the people."

EVERY NATION HAS SOME FORM OF THANKSGIVING

Fundamental Principle a Custom from Time Immemorial

Thanksgiving day is made up from parts of celebrations of that day by other peoples. The time is taken from one, the feast from another, and the gathering together of the people from still another. Long before the white race came to this country the Indians held a festival day during this season of the year. They had a great feast of roasted deer and bear, boiled corn and stewed pumpkin, and the women and warriors partook of it on equality. The feast was kept up far into the night, and was followed by a dance of the braves, keeping time to the songs sung by the dusky maids of the forests.

Thanksgiving also owes something to the religious rites of ancient nations. The oldest of these is the Jewish feast of the tabernacles, with its magnificent festivities. The festival occurred annually, at the end of the harvest season, and continued for eight days. Sometimes it was held as early as the 25th of September, but never later than the 20th of October. It was the feast of the "ingathering" of the harvest of all the fruits, the corn, the wine, and the oil. The labors of the field were then over for the year, and the feast was an occasion of joyousness and gladness to the people. At this season the nation assembled in Jerusalem, where they lived in booths for seven days. Impressive ceremonies and processions took place each day, and at night the court of the temple was illuminated by lamps and flambeaux. At the end of seven day's joy the booths were dismantled and the people celebrated an eighth day of solemn rest.

The glory of the great Hebrew festival has long since passed away, but the fundamental principle—that everyone should rejoice in the fruits of the harvest, together with the whole people of the land "before the Lord"—has entered into the harvest observances of Christian lands.

GOVERNOR-ELECT ATTENDS BOARD MEETING

At a meeting of the Delaware State Livestock Sanitary Board, held recently with Governor Townsend at which routine business was transacted, Governor-elect Denney was present. Governor Townsend is inviting Mr. Denney to the meetings of the several boards and commissions of which the Governor of the State is ex-officio member, so that the incoming Governor may become acquainted with the duties and powers of as well as customs of said commissions and boards.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION FOR REGULAR SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Early Thought and Consideration Urged Upon Citizens and Legislators

The complaint is frequently made that little is done in the early days of a legislative session in this State.

The Delmarvia Star is seeking to impress upon its readers the advisability of preparedness on the part of both citizens and legislators for the measures which may be proposed and acted upon at the coming session of the Legislature now less than two months off.

These are divided into major and minor groups as follows:

Important Measures Proposed Better housing plan, especially for Wilmington, with some plan to establish an institution that would advance liberal amounts to home-builders on first mortgages.

Paid Fire Department Adequate Wilmington city representation in State or separate county for Wilmington.

Agricultural betterment, including some plan for keeping the farm owner and his family on the farm.

City charter for Wilmington.

Amendment of incorporation laws, especially a "Blue Sky" Law.

Election law changes that may be necessary because of women voting.

Abolition of fee system for magistrates and constables.

Equitable collection of income tax from all eligible taxpayers in all parts of the State or abolition of the tax entirely.

State and community commissions and organizations. Wilmington public school reconstruction bills.

State or city control of all charitable and corrective institutions with definite aim to have the State take over and conduct Girls' Industrial School as the State has already done with Ferris (boys') Industrial School this being a recommendation of the 1919 Grand Jury.

Abolition of whipping post. Taxation reform.

Establishing an open season for rabbits which the Legislature in special session failed to do for this year.

Merging of Glynrich, Richardson Park, Elmhurst, Ashley, Bellemoor and Boxwood, all suburbs of Wilmington, into one corporate town.

To regulate use of highways by automobiles with reference to glaring headlights and such subjects.

Abolition of "Little Legislature."

Creation of municipal or community pawn shops, carrying out recommendation of Grand Jury of 1919.

Changes in judicial system. Standardization of basket measures.

Change in system of New Castle County government and lesser changes in government of Kent and Sussex as recommended by Chester J. Maxey in his book on County Government.

Change in system of recording of deeds to avoid expensive and annoying "red tape."

Changes in Workmen's Compensation Law, relating to compensation of physicians.

Collection of inheritance tax under existing law.

Metropolitan Planning Commission as proposed by Edward R. Mack, Superintendent of Parks in Wilmington, but too late for action at the 1919 session.

Measures of Less Importance Measures of less consequence that have been suggested are as follows:

Whatever legislation may be needed in connection with Wilmington's new harbor.

State Highway Commission bills.

School law bills.

Levy Court bills, including bridge legislation.

Banking legislation.

State health laws. Child Welfare legislation. Delaware College bills.

Bulkheading at Rehoboth. Anti-tuberculosis measures. Presentation to State House of Stanley Arthurs' portrait of Delaware troops in France, to be placed in State House.

To ban airplane gunning. To give voting privilege to traveling salesmen.

Separate New Castle County prison for women—a recommendation of the Grand Jury of 1919.

Abutting property paying law amendment. Drug law amendment.

Why Not a Woman President?

Where is the mother who is rocking the girl baby who some day may be president of the United States?

Such a prospect is an audacious blow at old timeworn habits of thought, but that does not change the inherent truth of it.

Such a prospect is an audacious blow at old timeworn habits of thought, but that does not change the inherent truth of it.

We used to say that every baby boy born in the United States was a potential President.

"The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world" is an axiom which literally may come true one of these days in a double sense.

INFLUENCE At the end of the day, as you ponder it o'er,

And remember the things you have done, Perhaps you regret you have not proven more

Of a blessing to some needy one; But if from the record of that busy day

It appears you have honestly tried To bring others gladness in unselfish way,

You may feel, after all, satisfied. If a comrade has gained inspiration or cheer

From a happiness-seed you have sown, Or a frightened companion has overcome fear

From a courage you maybe have shown; If a pilgrim has artful temptation withstood

From effects of your teaching or creed, You may be well assured that the record is good,

And your life is a blessing indeed. —Leroy Huron Kelsey.

LEARN AMERICAN CANNERY METHODS All the world before long will be canning American style, if the present rate of progress keeps up. Last year France asked the loan of some canning specialists from the United States Department of Agriculture to teach them the purely American art of home canning.

The results were so gratifying that the same group were asked to return this year to give further instruction. They went, and their work everywhere in France was attended with gratifying results.

The Director General of Agriculture in the little Duchy of Luxemburg, hearing of the method of preserving fruits and vegetables being taught the French, asked if the American canning experts could be lent to Luxemburg when they were through in France.

This was arranged, and the first two weeks in September found the Americans teaching in Luxemburg how to can and dry garden products and how to can meat and fish.

From Luxemburg the demonstrators went to Holland, where at Amsterdam and other places a series of lectures were given.

At the request of the British Department of Agriculture, the canning specialists then went to England and gave demonstrations before the English Institute workers. One group is now in Denmark and another in Egypt. Wherever American canning methods are taught the response and appreciation is most gratifying.

MAKES VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO TOMATO RAISING DATA

Arthur Rounds Gives Itemized Cost of 2-Acre Crop

In the October issue of the Farm Bureau News which appeared last week, is an itemized card of tomato production cost prepared by Arthur W. Rounds of Newark, who this year topped the championship record reached by him last year.

Concerning his achievement the News has the following to say: "Arthur Rounds of Newark, who last year earned the title of champion tomato grower of Delaware, has set a new standard for himself as well as other growers of the state.

"Mr. Rounds has been such a consistent producer of large yields that we feel sure there is more than a mere accident in his being able to grow and deliver from two acres of tomatoes 29½ tons at a contract price of $23 per ton. We are going to give Mr. Rounds' own story and figures and let them speak for themselves.

"His tomato ground was in corn last year in which soy beans had been seeded as a cover crop, at the last cultivation. Sixteen loads of manure were broadcast on the land after which it was plowed and disced thoroughly. Mr. Rounds grows his own plants from his selected Bonnie Best seed, which he saves from the best hills. Mr. Rounds is a believer in feeding his crops liberally. He used this year 1200 pounds of fertilizer per acre of a 2-8 analysis. In setting his plants he is very careful to use stocky plants which he transplants to the field promptly and with as little disturbance to the growth as possible. Has anyone in Delaware a record in tomato production which will equal that of Mr. Rounds?

"Naturally our growers would like to have his figures giving the cost of growing such a crop and the profits from it, if any.

"The following costs are based on two acres of the crop:
 Land rental and taxes.....$ 200.00

Plants, 6000 at $2.00.....	12.00
Plowing.....	10.00
Discing and preparing seed bed.....	10.00
Marking out.....	4.00
Manure, 16 loads at $2.00.....	32.00
Manure to previous crop.....	6.40
Hauling and spreading manure.....	28.00
Phosphate, 2400 pounds 2-8-2.....	46.32
Hauling to field and drilling.....	7.50
Cultivation.....	15.00
Setting plants.....	6.00
Hoeing.....	3.00
Picking, $3.00 per ton.....	88.50
Hauling.....	59.00
Depreciation, baskets.....	10.00
Interest on money invested.....	3.90
Total cost.....	$361.62
29½ tons tomatoes at $23.....	678.50
Profit on 2 acres of tomatoes.....	316.88
Cost per acre.....	180.81
Cost per ton.....	12.26

"Large yields are not to be secured at a low cost of production as the above figures teach. Although the cost of tomato growing per acre is high the crop has responded in such a large yield that the cost per ton is much less than the ordinary four to six ton crop."

"Rejoice in the Lord always," says the Bible. Thanksgiving is a good day to begin this habit.

UNDERSTAN'
 "Now boys," said the school-master to the geography class, "I want you to bear in mind that the affix 'stan' means 'the place of.' Thus we have Afghanistan, the place of Afghans—also Hindustan, the place of Hindus. Can anyone give another example?"
 "Nobody appeared very anxious to do so until little Johnny Snags, the joy of his mother and the terror of cats, said proudly, "Yes, sir, I can. Umbrellastan, the place for umbrellas."—Exchange.

A CHILD'S POLITENESS
 Rector Clarence H. Mackey's little daughter, Catherine, is entitled to a first prize for politeness.
 "I went to see Mrs. Mackey one day on school business," he said, "and as I was taking leave, her little girl, who was playing in the hall, rose politely and opened the door for me.
 "Thank you," I said, "I am sorry to give you so much trouble." "Oh," she answered, "I am only sorry I am not letting you in."

He hated having his photograph taken, but his wife indirectly had forced him to undergo the much-dreaded ordeal. When she saw the photograph she cried out in horror, "Oh, George; you have only one button on your coat!"
 He: "Thank heaven, you've noticed it at last. That's why I had the photograph taken."—Pearson's Weekly.

NEWARK HIGH NOW STATE CHAMPIONS

Administer Decisive Defeat to Sussex County Aspirants

Backed by a considerable group of loyal rooters including many Dickinson "grads" who spent the day here, the Bridgeville High School football team came to Newark last Saturday to compete with the local team for the State championship. Both teams came to the contest with a record of many victories in their respective localities. Early in the season Newark defeated Middletown, the only other contestant in this county. Bridgeville had defeated all eligible contestants in the lower counties. The State championship therefore necessarily lay between these two teams.

A cup will be awarded the Newark team by the Delaware Athletic Association which arranged for the financial feature of Saturday's contest.

The visiting team was out-weighted slightly by the local eleven and decidedly out-played. The dogged perseverance, indomitable energy, and gentlemanly conduct of the game Sussex countians elicited the admiration of their opponents and the spectators to the unequal contest. Two of Bridgeville's best men were out of the game through injuries recently received, it was said. Newark High eleven showed evidence of careful training and diligent practice. They were in prime condition.

The final score stood 61-0 in favor of the local team, making the victory decisive and assuring the State championship to the local eleven.

This was the first annual football game held by the Delaware Interscholastic Athletic Association. It was played on Frazer Field, at Delaware College, and was witnessed by several hundred spectators from all parts of the State. Under the D. I. A. A. it was a strict requirement that every player on any team competing for the title must have had a clean scholastic record for the whole season.

During the first half the lighter Bridgeville team held Newark to two touchdowns, one of which came on straight line plunges and runs; and the other being due to a spectacular run by Armstrong, who rounded the whole Bridgeville team, scoring almost from midfield. In the second half, however, and especially in the last quarter, when Newark made many substitutions, the weight of the local team and the speed of the new players proved too much for the Sussex contingent, and the Newark backfield made first downs in rapid succession. The team work of the local eleven was notable. They shone especially in a beautiful triple pass, which was the play on which they scored their first touchdown.

H. McIlvain and Willey bore the brunt of the Newark offense, and also were the chief ground gainers for Bridgeville. Armstrong, Mayer, Evans and Hayes were all consistent gainers on end runs and off-tackle plays for the Newark team.

The lineup: Newark: Crompton... left end E. McIlvain; Cornog... left tackle... Donovan; Davis... left guard... Collins; Hubert... center... White; Hopkins... right guard... Anderson; Schwartz... right tackle... Willey; A. Mayer... right end... Johnson; Hayes... quarterback H. McIlvain; Armstrong... left halfback... Adams; Evans... right halfback... Messick; J. Mayer... fullback... Jacobs. Touchdowns—J. Mayer 2, Evans 3, Armstrong 2, Hayes 1, Henning 1. Goals from touchdowns—Hayes 4, Armstrong 3. Substitutions—Newark: Henning for Hayes, Walton for Hubert, Stafford for Davis, Clancy for Stafford, P. Cornog for C. Cornog, Manns for Hopkins, Sanborn for A. Mayer; Bridgeville: Curry for E. McIlvain, E. McIlvain for Curry, Brown for Donovan. Referee—Shipley of Delaware; Umpire—Morris of Maryland State. Head Linesman—Hancock of Delaware.

Local Team Has Good Season Although games were lost to Tome and Wilmington, the season has been most successful. In all 224 points were scored, while the team was scored on by only 56 points.

The following are the players who composed this year's squad, with their weights: John Mayer, fullback, 130 lbs.; Victor Armstrong, halfback, 152 lbs.; Earl Evans, halfback, 143 lbs.; Robt. Hayes, quarterback, 126 lbs.; Herbert Henning, quarterback and halfback, 115 lbs.; Capt. Crompton, end, 126 lbs.; Royal Sanborn, end, 137 lbs.; Chas. Cornog, tackle, 146 lbs.; Chas. Hopkins, guard, 182 lbs.; Floyd Hubert, center, 150 lbs.; Wm. Schwartz, tackle and halfback, 151 lbs.; Arthur Mayer, end, 135 lbs.; Daniel Walton, tackle and center, 143 lbs.; Louis Stafford, tackle, 153 lbs.; Clifford Buckingham, end, 112 lbs.; Earl Mote, guard, 145 lbs.; Wm. Clancy, guard, 160 lbs.; Phil Cornog, tackle, 145 lbs.; Clyde Davis, guard and halfback, 150 lbs.

Coach Harry McDonald is well pleased with the result of the season's work. He says, "While a great deal of credit is due those players who have won their letters, yet the boys who stuck through the stiff training period with no chance of getting a letter this year are also deserving of praise. These are the boys who by showing perseverance and loyalty to the team and school are sure to make a place on future teams."

Both teams were guests of Delaware College in the afternoon when they witnessed the Dickinson-Delaware game.

MILL CREEK FOLK TAKE PREVENTIVE SERUM

Nine Adults Under Treatment After Drinking Milk From "Mad" Cow

According to a story appearing in Friday's issue of one of our exchanges, the Pasteur treatment as a preventive of rabies is being given to nine persons in, and near the boundary of Mill Creek hundred, New Castle county, who drank milk from a cow that afterward died with all symptoms of hydrophobia. Most of the patients are adults. They have shown no indication of developing rabies themselves. Dr. Herbert L. Watson, state bacteriologist at Newark, declines to disclose their names because they do not wish their friends and relatives to worry.

The cases are unusual—in fact, unprecedented, so far as Dr. Watson's observation in Delaware is concerned. They are being watched with interest by medical men aware of the circumstances. Although Dr. Watson knows of no similar instance under his observation to compare these with, he said that he had known of cases of pups developing hydrophobia after nursing from a mother that subsequently developed rabies.

The cow that died under "suspicious circumstances" within ten days also died under circumstances mysterious, inasmuch as there is no certain information concerning when it was bitten, if it was, by a mad dog. The persons who drank the milk will take the Pasteur treatment for the full period of twenty-one days. The serum used was made at the state laboratory at Newark. Each patient gets an injection once a day, administered by one of the state medical agents.

A number of cows in Mill Creek hundred were bitten several weeks ago, and there have been several "mad dog scares" in the country districts recently.

THE OPTIMIST

There was once a man who smiled Because the day was bright, Because he slept at night, Because God gave him sight

To gaze upon his child; Because his little one Could leap and laugh and run, Because the distant sun Smiled on the earth, he smiled.

He smiled because the sky Was high above his head, Because the rose was red, Because the past was dead! He never wondered why The Lord had blundered so That all things have to go The wrong way here, below The over-arching sky.

He toiled, and still was glad Because the air was free, Because he loved, and she That claimed his love and he Shared all the joys they had! Because the grasses grew, Because the sweet winds blew, Because that he could hear And hammer, he was glad.

Because he lived and smiled, And did not look ahead With bitterness or dread, But rightly sought his bed As calmly as a child. And people called him mad For being always glad For such things as he had, And shook their heads and smiled. —Bolton Hall.

GREEN MOUNTAIN POTATOES SHOW BIG YIELD

Demonstration at Hockessin Results in Production of 288 Bushels per Acre

Certified seed potatoes of the Green Mountain type have again shown their capacity for producing increased yields of marketable potatoes in a potato demonstration conducted on the farms of Horace and Frank Dennison of the Hockessin Community, in cooperation with the New Castle County Farm Bureau. One hundred and eighty bushels of these potatoes were planted in Northern New Castle county on four separate farms, and in every case with successful results. Due to the railroad strike last spring shipment of these seed potatoes was delayed so that the potatoes were not planted until the second week in May.

On the farm of Mr. Frank Dennison a part of his five-acre field was weighed, by weighing up the same length of row in three parts of the field, and the yield was found to average 288 bushels per acre.

As compared to home grown seed Mr. Horace Dennison reports that his yield was doubled through the use of certified Green Mountain seed.

The above yield of potatoes was secured with potatoes following potatoes, which of course is not the best rotation. Fertilizer was applied at the rate of 1,000 pounds per acre of a formula as follows: 4% ammonia, 8% phosphoric acid and 4% potash. About 5% of the potatoes had rotted in the ground as a result of rot, which had been caused by blight.—Farm Bureau News.

ENJOYING THE BEAUTY OF THE COMMONPLACE

The average person is quick enough to remark about the red flame of the sunset, but he seldom sees the dove colors and steel blues that lie back of him in the east. He sees the scarlet maple, or an orange stain upon a hillside in October, but he overlooks the silvery sheen of the wind-swept poplar and cloudlike surface of the Indian grass. He is not blind to Niagara or the Alps, but he has an unhappy way of never regarding anything that is not 'big,' and hence he loses a great deal of pleasure in life which comes from discovering and enjoying the so-called commonplace.—John Van Dyke.

Tom Mix "Breaks" His Own Horses

Tom Mix has established a harness factory at Mixville, California. The Fox star makes all the harness for his horses himself. He also is an accomplished saddle maker and finds much pleasure in making harness and saddles for his entire stock.

Mix either buys his hores before they are broken, or raises them himself. He breaks them, makes the harness for them and the perfect-fitting saddles which are absolutely essential, and has them shod in his own blacksmith shop under his personal supervision.

Mix is said to be the only motion picture actor in the world who has this complete establishment. He will be at the Opera House next Monday.

Star's Little Son in Photoplay

It was Mrs. Rogers' wife of the famous lariat throwing comedian, now a Goldwyn star, who first saw the picture possibilities in "Jes' Call Me Jim," the new Goldwyn Picture in which Rogers appears at the Opera House, Friday evening. The story is taken from J. G. Holland's book, "Seven Oaks." It is full of humor and pathos and dramatic situations. One evening Rogers found his wife crying over the book. "Gosh! if it's that good it ought to make a bully picture," he said. Straightway he took the book off to the studio and the result is one of the best pictures in which he has appeared, "Jes' Call Me Jim." Rogers plays the part of a happy-go-lucky trapper who rescues his best friend from the poor house and brings to justice the unscrupulous man who put him there. Jimmy Rogers, 4-year-old son of the star, plays a prominent part in the picture.

Delineator of Western Types Honored by Indians

William S. Hart, Artercraft star and delineator of Western types after years of study of Indian life, has been made a member of the Tipi Order of America. This Order was founded by Indians on the principles of patriotism, belief in the Great Spirit, and promotion of the interests of the American Indian. Mr. Hart received notice of his election to this famous Indian society from Chief ed Fox Skiuhaehu (Blackfoot), Tappanish, Wash., in a letter ending, "Sincerely yours in the Mystery of the Universe." Hart will be here next Wednesday in "Wagontracks," a story of the gold rush days.

BLESSINGS MORE THAN MATERIAL

In other times a Thanksgiving editorial was a motley of statistics and boastfulness. We had grown so many million bushels of grain; our cattle on the thousand hills had increased so many hundredfold; our clearing-house statistics had never been surpassed; our per capita wealth was the greatest in the world; indeed, our thankfulness was lost in the glorification of the gift. We were like the people of whom the Prophet Habakkuk spoke, who had caught much fish in their nets and gathered them in their drags, "therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous." Of gratitude to a Giver, of thankful recognition of forces which we did not create, but without whose co-operation we should have been as nothing, there was less than ought to have been.

All this was due, of course, not so much to human ingratitude as to human thoughtlessness. To Thank is to Think. The farther back we think, the farther back we thank. If our thought ceases with our own contribution to our welfare, our thanks cease with ourselves. If our appraisal stops with our material increase, our thanks become material and insensibly change into boasting. We sacrifice unto our great industries and burn incense unto our skill, and there our homage rests. But in this Thanksgiving day we have such incentive to thought as the world has never seen before, and the blessings which challenge us are such as do not lend themselves to material appraisal. The chief blessings of the day are spiritual; their very names put them a world apart from the things which are quoted on the market or measured in the scales of physical worth. Justice, Righteousness and Peace, these are the exalted values in which we fell our true riches to be, and for these the entire race of men, whether they keep Thanksgiving today or not, are most devoutly thankful.—Exchange.

College Students to Hold "Prom" in Wilmington

At a meeting of the Junior Class on Friday, it was definitely decided that the Junior Prom should be held in the Gold Ballroom of the Hotel du Pont, Wilmington, on the evening of Friday, February 4. This is following out the precedent set last year by the present Senior class of holding this annual affair in Wilmington rather than in Newark, where sufficient floor space cannot be found to accommodate the large demand for tickets. The sale of tickets is to be limited this year to one hundred and fifty, and will be opened to the two upper classes first. The various committees are already hard at work on the preparations and predict a dance which will surpass even that of last year. Details of the arrangements will be announced later.

NEWARK OPERA HOUSE

Program Week Beginning

Thursday, 25th-- Ruth Rowland in the tenth chapter of "Ruth of the Rockies," and a society drama, "The Girl in the Rain," starring Louise Lovely. Story by Barbara Le Marr Deely.

Friday, 26th-- Will Rogers in "Jes' Call Me Jim." The story is taken from J. G. Holland's book "Seven Oaks," and is particularly suited to Mr. Rogers' personality and talent. In it he plays the role of Jim Fenton, a happy-go-lucky hunter and trapper. A good story and a wonderful star in a picture that throbs with thrills and ripples with laughter--a picture in short that will be loved by every audience.

Saturday, 27th-- Eugene O'Brien in "A Fool and His Money," by George Barr McCutcheon. A modern love story in a Medieval setting, ghosts and feudal castles. News, and a two-reel comedy.

Monday, 29th-- Tom Mix in "The Untamed." The amazing tale of three strange pals--a man, a horse and a dog. From the novel by Max Brand. "Leap Year," a Sunshine Comedy in two parts. 40% of the gross proceeds of this entertainment go to the Newark High School Athletic Association.

Tuesday, 30th-- Louise Lovely in "The Little Gray Mouse," from the novel by the same name, and "Slippery Feet," a two-reel comedy.

Wednesday, Dec. 1st-- William S. Hart in "Wagon Tracks." Alone in the desert! One man a coward; one a murderer; one the grim avenger of his brother's death. Another great human drama, stamped with the genius of W. S. Hart. Story by C. Gardner Sullivan.
