Dear Dannie:

With reference to recent correspondence concerning J.S. I send you herewith a telegram from him I received last night in acknowledgement of my letter to him of June 3 of which you have a copy. As I understand Black is still in Europe and has obviously asked Knapp in the World Bank to keep him informed of developments, I am sending you herewith a copy of a letter which I have written to Knapp which is self explanatory.

Although I had made all my plans to leave here Sunday morning by air, it is quite obvious I will not be able to do so and it may be the middle of next week before I get away. There is no use in leaving until everything is signed and sealed and I will keep you informed. We still have no idea as to the outcome and while I am hopeful, I am not sure of anything.

Hoping this finds you and the family well and looking forward to seeing you,

Cordially and faithfully yours,

P.S. Marion is now in Wellesley Hills with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Mustard, at 18 Whiting Road, and she will I think join me in New York when I arrive there.
