GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the S.G.A. is to further the activities of student life, promote widespread interest in student activities, and to assume the responsibilities of self-government delegated to us by the faculty in the interest of the university.

At the time of installation last May, the new government members began to familiarize themselves with their respective offices before adjourning for the summer vacation. In the summer, preparation was made with the Dean of Students' Office to receive and orient the incoming freshmen during Freshman Week. Immediately after Freshman Week, they set about the task of forming the various S.G.A. committees and preparing for the year's social events.

A major item of business in October was establishing and reviewing campus organization budgets. After critical analysis, equitable amounts of money were apportioned to the organizations' needs, with the largest amounts going to the "Review" and the "Blue Hen." All in all, nearly $30,000 was budgeted.

When not attending the Sophomore Court, the freshman as well as the upperclassmen had an opportunity to relax at the Harvest Hop with music furnished by George Madden and His Orchestra. The surplus proceeds from this dance enabled the S.G.A. to offer the students a nationally-known orchestra, The Commanders, at the Christmas Dance.

In the middle of October, the elections committee began Freshman Election procedure for the early November elections.

One of the main objectives of the 1955-56 S.G.A. was to make a constitutional revision providing for more equitable representation of the student body. With the presentation of a report by the elections committee to the S.G.A. after the Thanksgiving Holiday, the discussion of revision commenced.

Concluding the first semester, the S.G.A. also participated in the Parents' Day and Religious Emphasis Week programs.

For the second semester, one of our busiest endeavors was the Campus Chest Drive whose co-chairmen were Thomas Thomas and Ronald Nagle.

Also in the second semester we requested of the faculty and administration that second semester seniors be exempt from final exams if they met certain requirements.
