BIG CROWD TURNS OUT

Patriotic Meeting Last Monday

Judge Gray Speaks and Du Pont Band Gives Concert

An audience that exceeded the seating capacity of the Opera House, greeted Judge Gray and the Post Artillery Band, from Fort Mifflin, last Monday, the occasion of a patriotic rally in Newark. Judge Gray, of Wilmington, presided; Judge George Gray was the speaker of the evening. The band rendered stirring and patriotic airs, in a fashion that stirred the blood of every American. Judge Gray continued his talk to a review of the reasons why America is at present engaged in war, and a privilege it was indeed to hear the eminent jurist and authority on international law present the facts. The speech was interrupted with repeated applause. The speaker said in part: "I have come to be with you tonight, in spite of many reasons personal to myself, because I could not gain my own consent to stay away. These are solemn times. We have lived so long in this happy land enjoying the God-given freedom that has been ours for one hundred thirty odd years, that we may have come to think that these liberties came to us as a circumambient air. But the liberty was won for us by our forefathers. They fought that we might enjoy that which we have enjoyed for more than a century. We are to continue to enjoy them; we must be willing to fight for them."

WEDDINGS AT ST. THOMAS'

Two Members Of The Choir Brides This Week

The wedding of Miss Anna Kirk Sanborn and Mr. Howard Dawson, pastor of Company L, Pioneer Regiment, stationed at Camp Dix, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, at the St. Thomas P. E. Church, Newark, Rev. Walter Haupt, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sanborn, of Newark, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Jester, the former a commission merchant of Wilmington.

The bride wore a becoming coat of dark blue, a white ruff, and a light gray hat. She was attended by Miss Emily Scott of Parkdale. Lieutenant Rumor, acted as best man. Only the choir of St. Thomas Church and members of the immediate families were present.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served to relatives at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jester left for a honeymoon in the mountains of Virginia. Mrs. Jester will continue her work as stenographer at the J. I. Dayett flour mills.

Miss Ida Getty of Newark, and Mr. Frederick Gehrold, member of Company L, Pioneer Regiment, stationed at Camp Dix, New Jersey, were married at Elkton on Friday morning. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a honeymoon at Atlantic City.

Miss Getty is a well-known member of the St. Thomas P. E. choir, and was expected to take a prominent part in the Easter music rendered at that church. Her marriage came as a surprise to her many friends.

THREE VACANCIES IN NEWARK SCHOOLS

Expert Teacher To Be Secured For Eighth Grade

Owing to the illness of one teacher and the resignation of two, Principal Koehler has been compelled to dismiss three grades in the Newark schools this week. A special meeting of the Board of Education was called last night to consider the situation. Through arrangement with the Women's College, Seniors in Education who will graduate in June, will take care of the work in the high school, formerly in the hands of Miss Grace Boyer, resigned. In the sixth grade a substitute from the West Chester Normal School has been supplied to serve during the illness of Miss Elsie Cloud, the regular teacher.

In the eighth grade, however, the situation is serious. Here the children since the resignation of their teacher, Miss Ina Armstrong, a month ago, have been out of school for several weeks, at a period in the term when the work is most intensive. In order to be fair to the pupils, that they may be able to meet the requirements that the prescribed course demands for promotion to the Junior High School next year, the Board has instructed Mr. Koehler to employ a teacher of exceptional ability for this purpose. Mr. Koehler this morning has gotten in touch with such a teacher, an expert, trained at the Johns Hopkins University, for school work, whom he will meet in conference tomorrow. The Board anticipates that affairs will be running smoothly in the near future.

The thirty-fifth annual session of the Grand Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, is being held today in Newark, with Grand Chief Cecil Ewing presiding. In his annual report Mr. Ewing said war conditions naturally are affecting the membership of the order.

PARADE ON SATURDAY

Newark, as all towns throughout the land, is busy this week with plans for a patriotic demonstration, to celebrate the opening of the third Liberty Loan Campaign and the first anniversary of America's entrance into the war. Various organizations of the town, and all patriotic citizens are being urged to participate in the parade which will form on Frazer Field at three o'clock Saturday. In line there will be the cadet battalion of Delaware College, the Cadet band, members of the Liberty Loan Committees, both men and women, the Boy Scouts, Aetna H. H. & L. Co. with band, hundreds of school children under Mr. Koehler, the Red Men's Lodge, Students and faculty of the Women's College, the surgical dressing class in uniform, a delegation from the New Century Club, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and delegations from the various industrial plants in White Clay Creek Hundred. H. Hayward will act as marshal, assisted by Dr. Greenfield, and Messrs. N. N. and E. B. Wright. Colonel Pendleton, and Professors Pailthorp and Foster have been appointed by Dr. Mitchell to aid in arrangements. THE PARADE IS A PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION, on this, the first anniversary of the war. Every citizen should sacrifice his personal plans for the day to fall in line. Bring your American flag, and Come! Everybody out at three p. m.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES BEGIN SUNDAY

Entire Community Invited To Attend Meetings

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the evangelistic campaign of three weeks in the Presbyterian Church. Evangelist Wright, of Ballston, Va., who has just concluded a series of meetings in his own community, will be present and occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning and evening. Services will be held in the church every night with the exception of Saturday. Although the series of meetings are not community meetings in the sense that other churches will share the expenses of the campaign, it is hoped that church members throughout the town will attend the services and co-operate in making the meetings a splendid success.

STIRRING ADDRESS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Martin Tells Of Boys And Girls Club Movement

Theodore T. Martin, in charge of Boys' and Girls' Club work in Delaware, gave a stirring address last Thursday evening at the High School before the Parent-Teacher Association. Mr. Martin explained the various projects of the boys' and girls' club movement, which, though not strictly a war measure promises to accomplish much in relieving the food situation. For every boy and girl in the land to raise enough to feed himself, is the ideal kept before the children.

Mr. Martin has received from the department of agriculture at Washington, 160 pounds of sugar beet seed, to be distributed for planting among gardening clubs in Delaware. The necessity of saving sugar is being presented to the children and this method being suggested of releasing the granulated sugar for shipment to the front. The value of sugar in the soldier's diet is illustrated by the German practise of supplying their men with sugar to carry in their pockets, as a quick energy food. It is said the German soldier averages in his diet a pound a day; the French have only a pound a month.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The local W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday this week, instead of Friday, their regular meeting day, at the home of Mrs. E. K. Butler, Main Street.

PLANS FOR LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Members of the Liberty Loan Committee of White Clay Creek Hundred, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, chairman, met last Wednesday, dividing the town into districts for the sale of bonds in the third Liberty Loan Campaign. The town is divided as follows: N. N. Wright, Chapel Street, east to town limits; A. L. Beals, Chapel Street to Academy, south of Main; George W. Rhodes, Academy Street to College Avenue, south of Main; Daniel Thompson, College Avenue to B. & O.; Eben B. Frazer, B. & O. west to town limits; Fred E. Clark, Prospect Avenue and district north; K. R. Greenfield, charge of student campaign; W. T. Boyce, District—Stanton; Irvin Leach, District—Christiana; Flying Squadron—E. L. Richards, Daniel Thompson, D. C. Rose.

A house to house canvass will be made, by committees named by the chairmen.

WORK ACCOMPLISHED BY RED CROSS

Report Since January First

The following report showing the work accomplished by Red Cross workers in Newark has been compiled by the acting chairman this week:

The Newark Branch of the Red Cross has returned to the Wilmington Red Cross since January 1, 1918, 133 hospital shirts, 18 pairs of pajamas, 18 bed jackets, 18 comfort pillows, 40 pillow cases, 80 bandages, 178 pieces of baby clothing. Of these 48 hospital shirts 18 bed jackets 6 pillows and 16 cases, 30 bandages, and 160 pieces of baby clothes were made in March. This does not include ten pillows sent direct to Camp Dix in January. We have also sent 244 sweaters, 121 scarfs, 88 pairs of socks, 60 helmets, 5 spreads, and 5 pairs of wristers, making a total of 523 pieces of knitting returned. Of these 58 sweaters and six helmets were done at the Women's College. This report is gratifying to the workers and we hope that the work will not fall off with the approach of the busy season as it was never more needed than now. A little circle of good workers formed at Strickersville, has joined us.

Cora V. Thompson, Acting Chairman.

GARDENING CLASS ORGANIZED

Between Sixty And Seventy Enroll

Mr. Martin, State Leader of Boys' and Girls' Club work, accompanied by his assistant, Miss Medill, visited the grammar grades at the Newark school on Tuesday morning, and enrolled between 60 and 70 pupils in gardening work. The lot formerly loaned by the trustees of Delaware College will be used this year for the school garden, and many of the children will have their plots at home.

The class met with a trained agricultural student and Miss Medill this afternoon to plan the work.

A committee from the Parent-Teacher Association will be named to plan methods of financing the work.

NEWARK MEN IN ACCIDENT

Car Turns Turtle On Lancaster Pike

R. T. Jones and Robert Motherall, returning from Wilmington on Thursday, in Mr. Jones' Buick roadster, collided with a Ford car, at the intersection of the road leading from the Kennett to the Lancaster pike. The Ford car which was climbing an incline at a good speed, was practically demolished. Mr. Jones' car turned turtle, throwing both occupants on the bank. Both men were pinned under the car, and their escape without serious injury seems miraculous. Aside from a slight laceration which Mr. Marshall sustained on the head, they were unhurt. The car was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars.

COUNCIL IN SESSION

Prohibits Fireworks During 1918

Names Filed for Approaching Election

Council met in regular session last Monday evening, adjourning after ordering the bills of the month paid, to attend the patriotic meeting in the Opera House. An adjourned meeting was held on Tuesday when matters of routine business were transacted. A resolution was adopted prohibiting the use of fireworks within the limits of town during 1918, as a conservation measure during the war. The secretary reported the names filed as candidates for the election on April 9th. Only one ticket is represented. The names follow: E. B. Frazer, for president; Daniel Thompson, councilman, western district; J. T. Willis, councilman, middle district; R. J. Morrison, councilman, eastern district.

Tax Limitation Removed

The Delaware legislature prior to its adjournment on Friday, passed Senator Hoffecker's bill authorizing the Newark Board of Education to determine the amount that should be raised by taxation for school purposes. C. A. McCae, president of the Board, when questioned concerning the matter this morning stated that the subject would not be taken up until after the school election the last of this month. The retiring member of the Board is O. K. Strahorn, who it is reported, will be a candidate for re-election.

Previous to the adjournment of the session $1000, through the efforts of State Commissioner of Education, A. R. Spaid, was granted the Summer School for Teachers at Delaware College.

Revision Of Assessment Under Way

Final revision of the assessment books has been started by the members of the New Castle County Board of Assessment, and they will be presented to the Levy Court on May 1. The court will then fix the tax rate for the next year. It is expected that the assessment for 1918-19 will total $130,000,000. The total assessed valuation for 1917-1918 was $89,922,208. It was hoped by the assessors that the 1918-1919 assessment would be $50,000,000 more than the 1917-1918 assessment, but the excess is likely to be but $40,000,000.

The county tax rate at present is 95 cents on the $100 in Wilmington and $1.35, including 40 cents road tax in the rural part of the county. For the next fiscal year the tax rate, if reduced in proportion to the increase of assessment, should be 65 cents on the $100 in Wilmington, and $1.05, including 40 cents road tax, in the rural part of the county.

FREDERICK ELECTED TO STATE SENATE

Democrat Succeeds Deceased Republican

Following an exceedingly quiet election in the Third Senatorial District of New Castle county, yesterday, held for the purpose of selecting a successor to Thomas S. Webb, deceased, John Frederick, the Democratic nominee, was elected by a majority of 49 over his Republican opponent, James Ball. The deceased Senator was also a Republican.

Mr. Frederick's majority in Christiana hundred was 12, in Brandywine hundred, 37. Four years ago, he was defeated for the same office by a plurality of 72 votes.

The result of the election came as a general surprise to the majority of people, who had put it down as a foregone conclusion that the Republican candidate would have easy sailing, and as a result, little campaigning was done, this being a Republican district.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS "ADOPT" SOLDIER

Interesting Letter From Hero in Belgium

Aklyu Hapi Campfire girls, following the suggestion of their central council have adopted a Belgian soldier, whose leisure hours they brighten by letters and "packages from home."

This morning I received your reply to my appeal, and I feel very much indebted to you for your kind offer of help and sympathy, which I am only too pleased to accept.

In introduction I will say that I was born at Antwerp, a nice town, since 1914 occupied by the enemy. I am 5 feet 8 inches tall, have brown hair, blue eyes, and fair complexion.

How will you feel, you who turn a deaf ear to this appeal, when some day you read in your newspaper a long casualty list, with the information that hundreds of our men have been slain by the brutal Hun because horses and mules were lacking to bring ammunition to the front when most needed.

Perhaps you will wonder how I come to be acquainted with your language, but that is easy enough to explain. I learned English after my father, who has been a pilot, and for certain reasons of his own talked English with me when I was young.

Are there Indians in your state? And are they as wild as I used to read in my books? I hope not, and wish you would tell me all about it in your next letter.

Are there Indians in your state? And are they as wild as I used to read in my books? I hope not, and wish you would tell me all about it in your next letter.

The date of this event will probably be either April 6 or 8, the day and hour are to be announced later, and pictures of it will be taken for the event to be reproduced in our newspapers.

that he may some day come to visit his new friends in America. In closing he says, "It will soon be spring, thank God. In two days I will be off for duty again."

AN APPEAL TO DELAWARE

Help Care For The War Horses

Delaware has always risen to every occasion and emergency. She over subscribed her quota for the two Liberty Loans, and went over the top at the drives for the "Red Cross," "Y. M. C. A." and "K. of C."

Our Secretary of War, Mr. Baker, has asked the American Humane Society to care for the war horses, mules and dogs, and under the name of the "Red Star Animal Relief," it is working for the war animals, just as the "Red Cross" is caring for the soldiers.

Horses and mules are a vital necessity in bringing in supplies of food and ammunition, for the auto cannot go where the horse can, this has been demonstrated abroad. The animals whose assistance is so necessary, must be saved. Money is needed to establish hospitals in France where the wounded can be treated and sent back to the front to do their humble part in defeating the enemy.

It is the patriotic duty of every true American to help this organization, for it means not only the humane relief for wounded and suffering animals, but will be the direct means of saving our boys in the trenches.

Give, I beg of you, and generously. Large sums of money are needed. Other states have answered the call of the "Red Star," do not let our Delaware be behindhand in this splendid and patriotic work.

Contributions can be sent to me at my home address or in care of the Delaware S. P. C. A., Public Building, Wilmington, Delaware. Pauline H. Rogers, 9 Strand, New Castle, Delaware.

GOVERNOR TOWNSEND TO BUY FIRST BOND

At Request Of Women's Liberty Loan Committee

Governor Townsend has acquiesced in the request of the publicity committee of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee to purchase the first Liberty Bond in this State, standing on the steps of the State House at Dover. How significant the time, the place and the incident will be we all know; the thought of it takes us back, back to the very beginning of this State and country; back to the time when Delaware troops marched forth from Dover Green with its historic State House as background; back to the ratification of our federal constitution, with Delaware's proud distinction of being the first; back to dark and trying times of the Civil War; back to many things we hold dear, and are defending today.

The following statistics dealing with the effect of the war on the birth rate in Hungary were read to the Hungarian Chamber of Deputies:

"Before the war 765,000 children a year were born in Hungary. In the first year of the war, 1914, the number of births was reduced by 18,000; in 1915 only 491,000 children were born—that is, 284,000 less than in time of peace. In 1916 the number of births was 333,000—a reduction of 432,000. In 1917 the births amounted to 327,000—that is, the reduction was 438,000. Therefore our losses (in Hungary alone) behind the front reach the number of 1,172,866 individuals. "Whereas in time of peace infant mortality, for a period of seven years, was 34 per cent, in 1915 the production was increased to 48 per cent and in 1916 to 50 per cent."

What Happens When We Try It

Oh, say, can you sing from the start to the end, What so proudly you stand for, when orchestras play it; When the whole congregation in voices that blend,

Strike up the grand hymn, and then torture and slay it? How they bellow and shout, when they're first starting out, But "the dawn's early light," finds them floundering about.

"Tis the Star Spangled Banner," they're trying to sing, But they don't know the words of the precious old thing.

Hark, "the twilight's last gleaming," has some of them stopped, But the valiant survivors press forward serenely, To "the raparts we watched," where some others are dropped,

And the loss of the leaders is manifest keenly. Then "the rocket's red glare," gives the bravest a scare, And there's few left to face, "bombs burst in air."

'Tis a thin line of heroes than manage to save The last of the verse and "the home of the brave." (Read at the New Century Club by Mrs. H. L. Bonham.)

Back of the Firing Line

Every war activity in the entire Nation is linked with the Capital—and each with every other—by the toll and long distance lines of the Bell System.

Thousands of miles of special wire systems have been provided for the exclusive use of the Government. Right of way is given to Government business over all commercial lines, and the War and Navy Departments lack no facility for keeping in constant touch with every phase of the Nation's great task.

The men on the firing line are looking to us here at home to back them up with every ounce of force. The men and women of the Bell System are pledged to count no undertaking too great in this great emergency.

Regarding Clothes

Thousands of men have a secret philosophy about the character of clothes they want

They know that power is largely a matter of consciousness, and that a man must win his own approval before he can command the approval of others.

If, for any reason—negligence, a false sense of economy, or a lack of good judgment—a man clothes himself in garments that misrepresent his taste, or feeling, or knowledge of relative qualities, he knows that he loses some of the power by which men achieve success.

It is for men who appreciate this secret philosophy of good clothes that we build the garments we sell.

From the quality of the woolsens to the tensile strength of the thread used in sewing there is no detail that escapes our scrutiny.

Every imaginable improvement we have gained thru years of cumulative effort is embodied in our specifications.

In providing for the clothing requirements of men of every age we specialize on each type or class, and carry it to the utmost degree of intelligent development.

The Boy who wears Snellenburg Clothes

Boys of today are more particular about their clothes than were the boys of years past. And they have a reason to be. When we were boys there was very little change in the styles, that is for we boys. Our parents bought a suit for us and it differed from the old one only in color and newness. The style was practically the same. What did a boy know about style? Why, the very idea was ridiculous—but not so today. Boys study the styles and they demand it. New and authentic are the styles portrayed in of 7000 feet of startling motion pictures, taken by the new Prizma process, which reproduces all of the natural colors and tints of every object photographed. These pictures will effectively show the vast resources of the 590,000 square miles of our own wealthiest territory, its fertile fields, its vast coal and mineral resources and its wonderful and awe-inspiring rugged scenery. The pictures of the vast glacier in that section are really wonderful and the Doctor on his tour not only takes you close to the vast masses of frozen rivers but underneath them, showing their wonderful beauties in ice-caves radiant and opalescent with reflected light, but also shows the formation of ice-burys as they break away from the glaciers and crash into the inland seas. A perilous journey through the White Horse Rapids, made on a raft, is sufficiently realistic to make the audience feel as if they were on the trip. Dr. Sugden, who is a natural and easy talker, fully describes all of the points visited and gives much information that will be appreciated by prospective tourists or those who want to find out all about America's richest possession. It will be an entertainment that will be especially pleasing to all the classes of theatre-goers and seekers for intellectual treats.

BIG CROWDS TURN OUT

"It is necessary that a free democracy, in which no man, no Congress itself, can declare measures unless there is evidence that the people desire them should come together as we have come tonight to look each other in the face, and stand steadfast in defense of those things which are dearer than life. To ask ourselves why we are at war? What are the issues to be decided? Have we purged our souls so that we may stand before God and say, 'I have done my best.'"

"We know that our past history has been a glorious one. We know that the United States has stood as a beacon light of Freedom, Justice, Good Will and Peace throughout the years. It has been our dream that she might become the exemplar of international justice, of good will, throughout all the earth. We have been inspired by no arrogant wish for territory; no desire to interfere with other people. We wanted rather to show that a great people could live and pursue the paths of peace and human government, without any military arrogance or Kaiser to interfere with the conduct of free American citizenship.

"I have often referred to the Declaration of Independence, at the beginning of our national life, that great document founded upon a decent respect for the opinion of mankind, a principle which led our forefathers to state plainly and clearly to the world their reasons for severing all relations with the mother country. I ask you to recall this great document, and compare it with the methods of Germany in the present war. Did Germany state clearly to all the world her reasons for unloosing the gates of hell? We know that she did not; that she cared nothing for the opinion of mankind; but bowed to the will of an autocratic governor and the ambition of a great military caste. We know that the world war has resolved itself into a conflict representing the ideals of a free democracy on the one hand, and the slavish doctrine of a war-lusting autocracy and a militant aristocracy on the other. We know that it was all brought about by the deliberate design and management of an autocratic government."

Judge Gray at this point took up the causes of the war, which he explained, in the light of his knowledge of international law, with a simplicity of manner, that put the facts within the range of a child.

The meeting opened with music by the band, the stirring strains of the Marseillaise, the strain which even that day had doubtless inspired French regiments to that valor which foretells victory, immediately preceding the speaking. Following Judge Gray's address the boys in khaki sang, without instrumental accompaniment, "The Soldiers Farewell," and a regimental song, "The Coast Artillery." Instrumental numbers followed, the program closing with the "Star Spangled Banner."

The meeting was arranged by a committee on patriotic meetings, appointed in each state by the national government.

MEN LEAVE FOR CAMP DIX

Forty-nine Entrain To Join National Army

The rural New Castle County Exemption Board with headquarters at Purnell Hall, Newark, sent forty-nine registrants to Camp Dix last Monday. The men left the Pennsylvania station, Newark, at 9:28 o'clock. In order to make up the quota of forty-nine it was necessary for the board to send most of the alternates who had been instructed to report with the principal registrants. What The Farm Bureau Means While several States have county agents in every county, to Iowa belongs the distinction of being the first State to organize a farm bureau in each county, according to information reaching the United States Department of Agriculture.

The farm bureau is a voluntary local organization of farmers for cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Agricultural Colleges in extension work. It outlines and carries out a definite program of agricultural improvements. Essentially it is a chamber of agriculture, corresponding in many of its functions with the city chamber of commerce. It has been developed as the answer to the need of the county agent for an effective organization to extend the extension work effectively over the county.

One of the important features of farm bureaus, especially at the present time, is to assist county agents in federating agricultural forces for the national defense.

New York has nearly completed its list of farm bureaus and a number of other States are not far behind.

Kent County, Delaware, is the first county in whose Farm Bureau both men and women are included. New Castle County is now organizing a Farm Bureau. May Sussex soon have her Farm Bureau and then we can be classed as the first state to have in every county a Farm Bureau in which men and women are cooperating.

PRIZES OFFERED TO STUDENTS

Why I Should Buy A Liberty Bond, Subject Of Competition

A. Rae duBell, an alumnus of Delaware College, Class of 1912, addressed students in Chapel on Thursday morning, to announce a series of prizes offered for the best essays by students of either the Men's or the Women's College, on the subject, "Why I Should Buy a Liberty Bond."

Mr. duBell announced "My subject is not 'Patriotism' but 'Optimism.'" He pictured clearly the tremendous responsibility that rests upon the United States, declaring, "It is up to the United States to finance the war, to provide men for the war, and to provide boats to transport them in."

"Upon first thought," Mr. duBell said, "it would seem, with the great drive now on, that we have cause for discouragement. The allies after nearly four years of fighting seem to have nothing to show for their efforts. They are losing men, losing ships on an enormous scale, and the Germans are confronting them with a wonderful gun with a range of seventy-six miles. But upon reflection we find these things can be taken quite as optimistically as pessimistically. What the Germans are accomplishing represents the result of forty years work. The allied armies in four years have perfected some wonderful inventions; they too have accomplished some wonderful results.

"I am here today to urge upon every one of you to help in the coming Liberty Loan campaign. You may not be able to buy bonds, but you can talk bonds, and think bonds; everywhere and to everyone."

Mr. duBell explained the plan of the prize essay contest. Prizes of $20, $15, and $10, will be awarded to the students submitting the best papers of not less than 300 words, nor more than 500 words in length. They must be in the hands of the Committee, at Purnell Hall not later than one o'clock on April 9th. The judges who will award the prizes are: E. V. Vaughn, G. S. Counts, Fred E. Clark, K. R. Greenfield, G. E. Dutton, F. S. Moore, and W. O. Sypherd.

Agricultural Interests And The State Fair

At no time in the history of our State has Agriculture been such a prominent factor. The present session of the Legislature will pass upon a number of bills which have education as their fundamental principle. With the removal of the Delaware State Fair at Wilmington to the new site near Elsmere comes the opportunity to create a new Fine Arts building in which to show the handiwork of the women of the state, the various food missions services and the products of the farms. Another important feature of this building would be the possibility of having a large exhibition of things of historical interest to the people of the State. This building could be erected for twenty thousand or thirty thousand dollars and should be done by a commission appointed for the purpose. It seems fitting at this time to urge this matter upon the members of the Legislature and thus add one more important feature to the tremendous educational campaign which has been so steadfastly waged in this State within the recent year.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented. A menu consisting of consommé, potato salad, coffee, cocoa, cake, olives, and nuts, was served. About sixty were present.

"ing" at the Opera House there was displayed a very unpatriotic attitude on the part of numerous towns-people.

The writer was brought to a halt in front of the Public School Building, by the strains of our National Anthem, issuing from the Opera House. While standing with bared head during the playing of the selection he saw at least twenty-five people leaving the building. At least six of these were Delaware College men wearing the uniform of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

There can be no possible excuse to offer for this flagrant display of disrespect for our National Anthem and the Emblem which it represents. Especially can there be none offered for the action of our embryo officers whose military

"An act relating to the maintenance of the public safety and the vital enterprises within the State during the war period, and for that purpose creating the State Council of Defense and defining its powers and prescribing the duties under this act of persons resident within the State during the said period, and fixing penalties for the non-observance of the provisions of this act.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

Section 1. In order to provide effective means of defense and preserving order within the State, and to insure the maximum output of agricultural and industrial products and the maintenance of vital enterprises during the period of the war in which the United States is now engaged, a Council of Defense for this State is hereby established, which shall be known as "The State Council of Defense," which shall consist of the Governor and six or more suitable persons, not to exceed fifteen, residents of this State, who shall be appointed by the Governor.

"Section 2. The State Council of Defense shall continue in existence throughout the duration of the present war, and for six months after the said war shall be terminated by treaties duly ratified by the Senate of the United States, at which time the said council shall be dissolved by proclamation of the Governor. All vacancies occurring in the said council shall be filled by the Governor.

"Section 3. The powers and duties of the said council during its existence and until it shall be dissolved shall be:

2. To encourage the production of all things necessary for the supplying of the National Army and the civilian population, the maintenance of agriculture and all industries and enterprises essential to the interests of the State and nation throughout the war, and until the said council shall be dissolved as aforesaid.

"3. To co-operate and assist the Council of National Defense in the execution of its duties.

"4. To co-operate with councils of defense and similar agencies in other States insofar as co-operation is in harmony with the Council of National Defense.

"5. To promote within the State of Delaware such plants of national defense as are mutually agreed upon between it and the Council of National Defense.

"6. To adopt, or if it shall see fit, to cause to be taken, a census and inventory of the resources of the State in men and materials, to make investigation and report to the Governor the location and capacity of railroads, automobiles and all other means of transportation and conveyance within the State so as to determine their availability for military purposes of the State, and to render possible the expeditions mobilization and concentration of State troops and supplies at points of defense and military advantage.

"7. To give information to producers of materials as to supplies needed by such military forces.

"8. And in general to take such steps as may be, in the opinion of said council, necessary or advisable for the public defense and security; for the protection of routes of communication; for the public care and assistance of individuals and classes upon whom the hardships of war would fall most heavily; for the development of those resources of the State from which will be derived the supplies of food and other commodities upon which the conduct of war makes a special drain; and such other measures as may be necessary to meet the exigencies of all situations occasioned by war, if not in conflict with any rule promulgated by the National Council of Defense.

"9. To appoint an advisory council within the State and such committees and local councils as it shall have such powers as the said council determine subject to be terminated at the discretion of the council.

"Section 4. It shall be the duty of every male resident of this State between the ages of eighteen and fifty-five years, who shall not be in the national army or a public officer, to be employed in a useful or lawful occupation during the said period, and every such person who shall not be so employed shall be subject to be assigned by the said council to such employment as the said council shall from time to time determine and at such compensation to be paid by the employer as the said council and employer shall agree to be reasonable and proper, provided, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to persons temporarily unemployed by reason of differences with employers, not to bona fide students during the school term, nor to persons fitting themselves to engage in trade or industrial pursuits.

"Section 5. Any resident of this State who shall refuse to obey or shall fail to comply with any order of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court, provided that all prosecutions under the provisions of this act shall be in the nature of an appeal, in which any matters which could have been urged by the defendant against the issuance of said order by the State Council of Defense may be used as a defense in said prosecution, the right of a waiver of hearing and to bail being preserved in all cases, and all such prosecutions shall be handled expeditiously by the prosecuting officers and the court.

"Section 6. The said council shall have the power to subpoena witnesses and require their testimony, compel the production of account books and files and all documents relative to any investigation or matter which may be under consideration by it.

"Section 7. It shall be the duty of every public officer in this State, excepting the members of the General Assembly and of the judiciary, whenever directed by the said council to execute any of its orders for the preservation of the peace or the carrying out of any of the objects of this act.

"Section 8. The said council shall employ such agents, assistants and clerical force as it shall find necessary or expedient.

"Section 9. The members of the said council shall serve without pay, and their expense while serving shall be paid by warrants drawn on the State Treasurer, when accompanied by proper vouchers specifying the expenditures, and countersigned by the Governor.

"Section 10. The said council is hereby authorized and empowered to draw upon the State Treasurer warrants, when accompanied by proper vouchers specifying the expenditures, countersigned by the Governor for such amounts as shall be necessary to effect the objects of this act, which warrants shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of any unappropriated moneys in the Treasury, provided that no outlay of money by the said council or its agencies shall be made or contracted for until approved by the Governor."

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT

Governor Townsend received the following letter, relative to national defense organization in this State, from President Woodrow Wilson:

"Gov. John G. Townsend,
Chairman,
State Council of Defense,
Dover, Delaware.

"Dear Mr. Chairman:
"Your State, in extending its national defense organization by the creation of community councils, is, in my opinion, making an advance of vital significance. It will, I believe, result, when thoroughly carried out, in welding the nation together as no nation of great size has ever been welded before. It will build up from the bottom an understanding and sympathy and unity of purpose and effort which will no doubt have an immediate and decisive effect upon our great undertaking. You will find it, I think, not so much a new task as a unification of existing efforts, a fusion of energies now too much scattered and at times somewhat confused into one harmonious and effective power.

"It is only by extending your organization to small communities that every citizen of the State can be reached and touched with the inspiration of the common cause. The schoolhouse has been suggested as an apt though not essential center for your local council. It symbolizes one of the first fruits of such an organization, namely, the spreading of the realization of the great truth that it is each one of us as an individual citizen upon whom rests the ultimate responsibility. Through this great new organization we will express with added emphasis our will to win and our confidence in the utter righteousness of our purpose.

"Sincerely yours,
"Woodrow Wilson."

Of this number, 132 were reported as killed in action and 237 died or were lost at sea. The total number wounded in action was 404. Thirty-five men have been reported as missing; 28 of them are said to have been captured. Casualties in the Navy and Marine Corps from April 6 to December 31, 1917, include 5 naval officers and 139 enlisted men, killed or died from wounds. No officers were reported as wounded in action, but 10 enlisted men were so reported.

Government now operates 260,000 miles of railway, employing 1,000,600 men and representing investment of $17,500,000,000.

Bonds, certificates of indebtedness, war-savings certificates, and thrift stamps issued by the Treasury up to March 12 totaled $8,560,802,052.96.

Naval communication service operates all radio service; 5,000 youths are studying radiotelegraphy at two naval schools.

Medical officers number 1,675 are members of the Medical Department of the Navy. Navy maintains 12,000 hospital beds and 5, 000 are being added.

Of 63,203 candidates for officers' commissions at two officers' training camps 44,578 were successful; a third series is now in progress with 18,000 attendance.

During the year the latest type of naval 16-inch gun was completed for our new battleships; it throws a projectile weighing 2,100 pounds.

When war was declared, 123 naval vessels were building or authorized, and contracts have been placed since that time for 949 vessels.

Before the war a total of $1,500,000 had been appropriated for air service. Congress has made $691,000,000 available for aircraft production in first year of war.

Over 20 large companies are manufacturing airplanes, 15 are producing engines, and more than 400 are producing spare parts, accessories, and supplies.

Naval training camps have a capacity of 102,000 in summer, 94,000 men in winter.

In 16 cantonments 650,000,000 feet of lumber were used.

Paymaster General of the Navy drew checks for more than $30,000,000 in one day—February 23—for munitions; total advertised purchases for the Navy for 1915 were $19,000,000.

FARM LABOR TO BE SUPPLIED

Campaign For Volunteer Workers To Be Organized

A conference of unusual importance to the farmers of Delaware was held on Friday afternoon in the parlors of Governor Townsend, at the State House, at which the Governor; Charles Warner, representing the United States Public Service Reserve; A. C. Benkhart, representing the United States Employment Service; J. N. Armstrong, representing the United States Boys' Working Reserve; M. O. Pence, representing the Agricultural Extension Department of Delaware College, and members of the State Board of Agriculture, were present. The United States Government through its representatives of the above named branches of employment service in this State, assures the farmers of Delaware that labor will be supplied to them this year even through the busy harvest season.

The purpose of the meeting was to co-ordinate all of the forces of the Federal Government and of the State in supplying the demand for farm labor. Mr. Benkhart is engaged in finding available labor in any part of the United States and of turning it over wherever there is a demand for it in Delaware. Mr. Warner is charged with enrolling all available labor within the State for the periods when it is most needed. For example, if manufacturing establishments can spare any of their men at any time for a week or more or through any vacation period, these men are asked to enroll for service on the farm during that period or for so much of it as they are willing to give to farm labor. Mr. Armstrong is charged with enrolling boys between the ages of 16 and 24 years, especially appealing to the schools and colleges of the State.

The extension department of Delaware College has made a survey of the State to determine how much labor will be required on the farms during the season, and at what times there will be the greatest demands for such labor. The problem is to see that all who are enrolled from any of the sources named are brought into touch with the farmers who are needing help at a time that they need it. The opinion of all present was that through all these sources the needed supply of farm labor can be furnished. The United States Department of Labor has repeatedly stated that there is a man for every job, and that if these men can be found and placed in contact with the job all the necessary work can be done in the essential industries on the farm. The ship-yards, with the exception of a few skilled laborers, are now amply supplied with all the men to speed up to the utmost limit. A campaign will be made to secure volunteers of Delaware men being in towns to go out to the farm for one or more days in the week. This will be presented to them as a patriotic duty. Every community is asked to take care of its own labor demand as far as possible from the local supply.

General A. R. Benson, president of the State Board of Agriculture, stated that landlords in different parts of the State are re-adjusting their relations to the tenant, some of them by purchasing more than one-half of the fertilizers and seed and others giving more than the usual share of the crops. This is done because the tenant is required to furnish all the labor necessary in producing the crops and wages are much higher this year than ever before, thus bringing an unusual burden upon the tenant, while no additional cost has been placed on the land owner, except the increased cost of seeds and fertilizers.

As a patriotic duty it was thought that landlords everywhere would be willing to readjust these matters so that the tenant shall receive a fair share of the results of his labor on the farm.

Mr. Warner, Mr. Benkhart, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Pence and the three members of the State Board of Agriculture organized as a permanent committee, and will hold regular meetings and will eventually become a sub-committee of the new State Council of Defense.

INTERNED SHIPS ON HIGH SEAS

American Efficiency Demonstrated

Acting on orders from the German Government, the officers and crews of the German ships interned in American waters inflicted such damage upon the machinery of the vessels as they deemed absolutely certain to keep the ships out of service for two years. By that time the Germans thought the war would be over.

But American efficiency and American invention effected the necessary repairs in from six to eight months and at a cost of $273,000; the Germans had figured the cost of repairs at $2,600,000 and the necessary time 24 months.

All of these ships, except one that has been sunk, are now bearing American commerce on the sea or transporting American soldiers to Europe. The Navy department figures that the use of these ships between the time the ships were actually repaired and the time the Germans estimated they could be repaired will be worth $240,000,000 to the Government at the present rate of tonnage.

The Vaterland, one of these interned ships and the largest ship afloat, is now in the United States service renamed the Leviathan. Americans are able to operate this ship at a higher rate of speed than the Germans were able to do and do this with 200 tons of coal less a day. The Leviathan has one American captain in place of five German captains of the Vaterland, and one American chief engineer instead of a chief engineer and five assistants that German efficiency required.

EUROPE NEEDS FOOD

Food Administration Declares It Is Absolute Sin to Waste Food—Food Has Become Sacred.

Europe is still sending an insistent call for more food. We must send it if the war is to go on efficiently. If we cut it all we cannot ship it, and the food administration has already tried to picture how much that wheat is needed by people who will starve if they do not get it, the food administration states.

"For the least bit of heedlessness on your part in food conservation some one somewhere in the world must suffer privation," an official statement declares. "The food administration has mastered the problem of America's food in such a way that every ounce of food conserved and kept in the currents of trade goes to an empty stomach in Europe."

"It is an absolute sin to waste food. Food has become sacred."

"Food means life; it means somebody's life, and you cannot escape responsibility."

"There is no waste of food among the allied nations."

WAR BREAD COSTLY TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT

Every year the British government pays $200,000,000 toward the cost of that nation's war bread. That is the principal reason why English bread prices are lower today to the consumer than in America. Incidentally the British bread is much poorer than the American.

Great Britain has taken over all home grown grain, bought at an arbitrary price, and all imported wheat bought in markets of the world at prevailing prices. This is turned over to the mills by the government at a price that allows the adulterated war bread loaf of four pounds to sell at 18 cents. The two pound loaf costs 9 cents, and the one pound loaf sells for 5 cents.

In milling, however, 14 per cent more flour is extracted from the wheat than in America. And there is a compulsory adulteration of 20 per cent, and an allowable adulteration of 50 per cent.

Compared with American bread, the British product is only about 65 per cent pure at its best.

In France, under conditions somewhat similar, but with a larger extraction, the four pound loaf sells for 16 cents.

AMERICAN SAVINGS WILL MEASURE WHEAT EXPORTS

"We have already exported the whole of the surplus of the 1917 wheat harvest, over and above the normal demands of our own population. It is necessary, therefore, for the food administration to restrict export of wheat so as to retain in the United States sufficient supplies to carry our own people until the next harvest."

"Therefore all exports of wheat from now forward are limited entirely to volume of saving made by the American people in their consumption of wheat and wheat products."

"We continued wheat shipments for December as far as our situation allowed, but even with all the conservation made we were still unable to load several hundred thousand tons of food stuffs urgently required by the allied nations during the month of December alone."

HERBERT HOOVER.

WHEAT-CORN YEAST BREAD.

Wheat-corn bread is more nutritious than bread baked with wheat flour alone. Thousands of American families today are using this mixed flour bread, and in so doing are enabling America to provide more wheat flour for the allies. Here's a tested recipe for this bread: Take one and a half cups of milk, water or a mixture of the two; one-half cake compressed yeast, one and a half teaspoons salt, one tablespoon sugar, one tablespoon of fat if desired, one cup cornmeal and two cups wheat flour.

Put one and a half cups of water, the cornmeal, salt, sugar and fat (if used) into a double boiler and cook twenty minutes. The water is sufficient only to soften the meal a little. Allow the meal to cool to about the temperature of the room and add the flour and yeast mixed with the rest of the water. Knead thoroughly, make into loaf, place in pan of standard size, allow to rise until nearly fills the pan and bake 45 or 50 minutes. It is hardly practicable to use a greater percentage of cornmeal than this even in emergencies, for bread so made differs very little from baked mush. Less cornmeal can be used and in such a case the general method given above may be followed.

It is possible to make a yeast raised corn bread without first cooking the cornmeal. In this case not more than one cupful of meal should be used to four cupfuls of flour. In other respects the bread is mixed and baked as in the above recipe.

Which Shall It Be?

In 1902 blight destroyed 50,000,000 bushels of potatoes in New York State alone. Last year nearly one-half of Maine's crop was lost by the ravages of disease. What will this year bring forth? No one knows, and for that reason alone every potato grower must take steps to prevent the loss. Years ago, when it cost very little to grow an acre of potatoes, there was little incentive to spray. Men preferred to take a chance—to gamble on the prospect. But no potato grower can do that now. He invests too much money in the seed, fertilizer, and labor necessary to produce a crop, to take any chance on loss which can be prevented. And all the potato troubles, blights, flea and Colorado beetles, can be prevented. Thorough and continued spraying will do it.

You insure your investment in property against fire. Why not insure your investment in potatoes against disease? You are taking a bigger chance each year with the disease than you are with fire.

Which shall it be? A fine crop of sound tubers, or a reeking mass of rotting vines with no prospect but "what might have been."

House Refuses To Condemn Roosevelt

Excitement prevailed at Dover on Friday when an effort was made in the House of Representatives, normally Democratic, to adopt a resolution condemning the speech delivered by Theodore Roosevelt, in Portland, Me., on Thursday, in which he criticized the administration. After much heated debate, action was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 18 to 14. Messrs. Daly and Ellison voting with the Republicans for postponement and three Democratic members were absent.

The result was the unique spectacle of a Democratic House voting to uphold Roosevelt against the Democratic Administration. The resolutions follow:

"Whereas, there is reported in the North American of this date, certain statements alleged to have been made by Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States, which severely criticize the conduct of our National Government in one of the greatest crises in American history:

"And, whereas, it is the sense of this House of Representatives that such utterances can have no other motive than to create dissatisfied and seditious feeling along partisan lines or to advance his personal political interest;

"And, whereas, such outbursts are widely published and commented upon by all disloyal newspapers within our land, as well as being pleasing to enemy publications;

"And, whereas, some of these statements alleged to have been made by the said Theodore Roosevelt come dangerously near to giving encouragement to the enemy,

"Therefore be it resolved, that this House of Representatives does hereby condemn such partisan and malicious attacks at this crucial moment in the Nation's history, and does recommend to the Department of Justice that political attacks by prospective candidates for political office, even though they be from prospective Presidential candidates, if they are determined to be seditious or to be intended to arouse sedition or for the purpose of encouraging the enemy, be treated as if they emanated from malefactors of less than great wealth and prestige."
