

WOMEN LEARN FINE POINTS ON FURNITURE

Women Should Be Better Buyers Of Furniture

Women who attended the upholstery classes held this month throughout Kent County should be better buyers of furniture in the future, says Miss Louise Whitcomb, extension home-management specialist for the University of Delaware.

In tearing apart pieces of furniture before reconditioning them, these women, many of them for the first time, have found out the unseen qualities which make an upholstered sofa or chair a good piece of furniture.

In good furniture construction, observes Miss Whitcomb, both the visible and invisible portions of the frame should be of hardwood put together with either dowel or mortise and reinforced with corner blocks. The webbing under the springs should be of closely woven strips tacked close together, and the heavy cords that hold the springs in place should be tied from front to back of the chair, from side to side and diagonally both ways.

The stuffing should be made of hair or moss covered first by a layer of thick white cotton and then a muslin undercover. Loose cushions may be filled with 75 per cent down and 25 per cent feathers or of innerspring construction, a less soft and less expensive method. The down and feather filling should be encased in feather-proof ticking with at least three channels—that is, the filling should be divided with at least three partitions so that it cannot all lump into one side. The outer covering of the chair or sofa should be closely woven and neatly tailored.

Esther Fouracre Wins First Place

Esther Fouracre, Associate Editor of Newark High School's Yellow Jacket Buzz, a member of the Junior Class, and a Junior Journalist for the Wilmington Sunday Star, competed with other Journalists from twenty high schools in writing up her interview with Professor Quizz, in W. L. M. Suda's in Wilmington, November 14. Esther won first place. Her story of the interview was published in the Sunday Star, November 23.

Esther is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Fouracre, of Townsend Road, Newark.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE IN AND FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF NAOMI J. BEDWELL FOR CHANGE OF NAME

TO THE HONORABLE THE JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, IN AND FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY:

The petition of Naomi J. Bedwell, of the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle and State of Delaware, respectfully represents:

That the name of your petitioner is Naomi J. Bedwell that she has been for the last two years, and is now, a bona fide resident of New Castle County and State of Delaware, and that she desires to assume the name of Naomi J. LeHane.

Your petitioner therefore prays that her name be changed as follows: From Naomi J. Bedwell to Naomi J. LeHane, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the State of Delaware, in such cases made and provided.

1948 ACP HANDBOOK COMPLETED

Handbook Lists Practices For Farmers

Delaware's 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program handbook has been approved and will be available to county agricultural conservation committees for use in explaining the 1948 program to farmers of the state, C. E. Ocheltree, State PMA Chairman, announced today.

According to Mr. Ocheltree, the handbook lists the conservation practices which have been approved for the farmers of the state. Specifications for each practice and rates of payment are included.

The handbook, this year has many authors, the chairman explains. It was started back in the spring of 1947 when county committees were asked to check with community committees and farmers in their counties for recommendations for the 1948 program. These recommendations were sent in to the State PMA Committee for review. A technical committee comprised of agricultural specialists of the Experiment Station and Extension Service and representatives of the State Board of Agriculture assisted the State Committee in this review and in making further recommendations.

In Washington representatives of the Agricultural Conservation Programs Branch of PMA met with State PMA committee members and together they checked State recommendations against an approved national outline of practices. The State handbook grew out of this "grass roots" thinking of farmers and their committees from every State in this country. In this way, farmers have had a part in making the handbook a practical guide for 1948 conservation practices.

Newark Hero's Rites To Be At Asbury Park

Memorial services for Sergt. William Homewood Dean, Jr., of Newark, who was killed in action in Germany, Dec 7, 1944, will be held Sunday in Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N. J.

Sergeant Dean's body was returned Sunday from Henri Chapelle Cemetery, Belgium. The Bodine Funeral Home of Asbury Park will be in charge of burial there Monday.

A graduate of Newark High School in 1933, where he was active in all sports, Sergeant Dean first joined the Army in 1934, and served more than four years in the Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, N. J. He reentered the service in September, 1943, and was attached to the 83rd Infantry Division.

Surviving are his wife and daughter, Donna Lee Dean, now living at Toms River, N. J.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Homewood Dean, Sr.; and sisters, Mrs. Raymond M. Benson, Mrs. Albert D. Bradford, and Miss Margaret N. Dean, all of Newark.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Mother and Grandmother, Ora M. Buckingham, who departed her life two years ago, November 26, 1945.
Sadly missed by her children and grandchildren.
Ethel Buckingham Pyle.

WareAbouts

Readers, meet Mr. C. A. M.—a kind and sympathetic friend who is performing in the role of visiting fireman this week and pinch-hitting for us . . . for which we are sincerely grateful. So, if this issue of WareAbouts seems a little better than average, don't become elated for we'll be back in business at the same old stand next week. In the meantime, C. A. M. says:

"Life is a stage" and we all are actors so to speak. It is the code of our theatrical friends that no matter what happens—"The show must go on." That code is also true among newspapermen. The Post and this column belong to the community and "The show must go on."

A few months ago several traffic violations were mentioned in this paper as is somewhat common here in Newark and it was hoped that the situation would be corrected. From comments from several sources not much improvement has been made.

Our police force was unjustly criticized by university students and their friends when the police took charge at the intersection of Main and Chapel Streets—where traffic in the rush hours of morning and afternoon are so heavy—and several violators were fined.

It is now noted that both factory workers and student commuters, by conforming to the rules of proper driving, flow to their respective destinations with the least possible delay . . . and no accidents worth mentioning have occurred.

The attention of our police force is now called to a very dangerous congestion, namely—parking on both sides of East Delaware Avenue between South College and Academy Street. This is particularly bad around 4:30 and 5 P. M., when both factory workers homeward bound and late college classes are over . . . Delaware Avenue is too narrow for parking to be permitted on both sides of the street.

There is another dangerous condition—this applies to our local bicycle riders using the sidewalks—especially at night. They should be required to have lights. Last week one of our citizens was knocked down without warning on a dark street—not seeing the cyclist approaching. Outside of a sore side, where the handle bars struck him, nothing serious occurred. However, it might have been quite serious to an older person.

Never sell Newark short—it is one of the cleanest and finest college towns in the country. There is no rivalry between the college and the townspeople—all seem to be Delaware rooters.

Our Chamber of Commerce and the various service clubs could be more wide awake to Newark's future. Better train service should be sought for if ever our state is to have more than one city (Wilmington) of any size—Newark, being on the main lines of two leading Eastern railroads, is the logical one.

Industrial corporations which are decentralizing their operations have already settled in our midst—others naturally will follow. This all means a great increase in population, more homes to be built and more retail business in our town.

Let's not be unprepared for any change—the wheels of progress will not stop.

DELAWARE'S FARM FRONT

The farm yard is no place to linger when the work to the barn is done on a cold winter night. Going to the house is much safer, however, when a yard light lights the way.

For a yard light, Jack Bell, extension agricultural engineer, advises a 100-watt to 200-watt bulb in a shallow, weather-proof reflector.

If she get all the water she wants, a cow will give 8 to 15 per cent more milk.

Care in handling live poultry is a practical and profitable way of saving feed. Every broiler damaged or lost by careless handling means approximately 12 pounds of feed wasted.

The Sports Post

By Sean N Hurd

For the second straight week the University of Delaware's gridders suffered a heart-breaking set-back as Washington and Lee beat them down with a fourth period touchdown pass into the end-zone which gave the Generals an 18-13 victory. Thus, solely on the basis of wins and losses, the Blue Hens closed out their poorest season since 1939—the year before Bill Murray took over the Blue and Gold coaching reigns.

For posterity, the record books will show in cold, colorless figures that in 1947 Delaware's Hens split even in an eight game card as their 32-game undefeated skein was snapped. But in the memories of the thousands who "stood by" the Hens when disaster struck and Fiddle Dame Fortune faced the other way, there will remain a vision of a good, clean-playing, potent, hard-fighting aggregation which pioneered Delaware into a faster, higher-level of collegiate football.

Take last Saturday's game for example. To Wilmington Park came the Southern Conference's famed "aerial circus," a Washington and Lee team which has tangled with such top-rated teams as Army, Virginia, and William and Mary. Sure they were whipped, sorely—but no one of those touchdowns could shut out the Generals. And after facing such opponents the Delaware engagement must have looked as inviting as a full course chicken dinner on a poultry-less Thursday to "Pappy" Lewis' Lexingtonians.

The Generals took off as though answering a four-alarm fire—and drenched Delaware with a display of power which netted them a 12-0 halftime lead. But they hadn't quenched the flame—and after the intermission the Blue Hens blazed to a white heat. To the accompaniment of the frantic screams and cheers of the faithful, the Newark flock roared to two T. D.'s, and a single conversion gave the Hens an early final quarter 13-12 edge. Then the Generals returned to the attack and breached the Delaware aerial defenses for the winning counter.

But even in defeat Hen rosters sounded off proudly. And for years to come they'll remember and praise the spirited, fighting Blue Hens of '47 who scored 161 points to the 113 of their eight opponents. And they'll remember, too, that no opponent, not even such well-rated teams as Maryland, Muhlenberg, and Washington and Lee, could keep the Hens from scoring two or more touchdowns in each contest.

GRID GRITS. Again that time of the year has arrived when old rivals meet in annual games seeped in many years of tradition, with the result being an unusual batch of upsets. As examples we have these results from some of last Saturday's "do-or-die" clashes: Haverford surprised a strongly favored Swarthmore and walked off with a 13-0 win; Kentucky, which has bumped some of the big ones, fell 13-6 before a Tennessee team which has had several tumbles this season; Indiana retained possession of the Old Oaken Bucket for another year by defeating its intra-state rival, Purdue, 16-14; a favored Missouri team which had walloped Duke a week previous, fell 20-13 before a Kansas onslaught, and underrated Northwestern came from behind twice before forging to a clear-cut 28-13 win over neighboring Illinois. As a result of a 41-12 win over L. S. U., Alabama received and accepted a bid to the Sugar Bowl. The Crimson Tide has come along fast since it suffered early season defeats by Tulane and Vanderbilt and has now annexed six straight contests. Both opponents for the Rose Bowl are now known as the result of Southern California's 6-0 defeat of U. C. L. A. before 102,000 fans. Michigan, by winning the Big Nine title, had already won its way to the Tournament of Roses clash on New Year's Day. Surprising as it may seem, once-mighty Stanford is among the nation's victoryless elevens, having dropped all nine games this year. Last Saturday it looked like the string would be broken as Stanford led California 18-14 with only three minutes to go. But it wasn't in the cards, as California scored on a pass play covering 80 yards for a touchdown and a 21-18 victory margin. This year even Pittsburgh, always a jinx team to Penn State, could not keep the Nittany Lions from their first perfect season since 1912. State's 29-0 thumping of Pitt gave veteran Bob Higgins his first undefeated and untied team in 27 years of coaching. Outstanding in West Virginia's 21-0 win over Temple was 230 lb. Walt Malyk who did his foot-balling at Delaware in 1942. The Vine-land (N. J.) husky personally accounted for two of the Mountaineers' T. D.'s against the Owls. One of the weeks' biggest up-sets was Maryland's 20-6 victory over the Commodores of Vanderbilt who earlier in the season had trimmed Sugar Bowl-bound Alabama. No surprise to Delaware football fans who saw him at College Park on October 3 was Lu Bambino, who registered two of the Terrapins touchdowns and tossed a 30-yard pass for the other.

THIS WEEK'S PREDICTION. By reason of having 24 correct and 10 wrong (1 tie) last week-end we came out with a batting average of .708. Therefore, for the last time this season we're offering the services of our by no means crystal-clear crystal ball by saying that it will be: (On Thanksgiving Day) Arkansas over Tulsa; Gettysburg over Albright; Muhlenberg over

WASHINGTON AND LEE TOPS DELAWARE IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE BEFORE 7,500 FANS

Saturday's Game Marked The Final Appearance For Seven Of The Delaware Gridders; Fourth Setback Of 1947 Season

The Hens for a few short minutes in the last quarter had their adherents bubbling over with excitement, as they took a 13-12 lead, but their joy was short-lived, as Bell, aided by Mike Boyda and Hank Martrianni took care of this condition in a hurry.

It all finally ended, when Bell, a lefthanded passer, whipped the ball into the end zone from the four-yard line, and although there were three or four Hens in the pack, Jimmy Carpenter stretched his six foot frame into the air and even though the ball bobbed up and down it finally settled into Carpenter's arms for the score.

It was a bitterly contested battle with tempers flaring up at several points during the game. Particularly in the second half when the Hens began tackling and charging with a viciousness that was not marked in their first half play. At one time the game appeared to be getting out of bounds as the players put forth all efforts to win.

In suffering their fourth defeat of the season the Hens confined their bit of offensive action to those few short moments at the end of the third quarter and the start of the final period, when Nine Stalloni made both his touchdowns. In the first half the Hens seemed to be mystified by the Generals. From the opening Delaware kickoff, the visitors advanced the ball from their 39 to a touchdown, with out the Hens obtaining possession of the ball. The Generals peeled off four first downs on this drive with Bell finally logging the ball over from the 1.

The second W. and L. score came in the second quarter with Stalloni ripped for interfering with a pass receiver and the Generals took over on the Hens' 36—from there in three first downs were racked up and another touchdown.

In the second half the Hens ran roughshod over on the Generals and Paris slipped a pass to Mettenet for 28 yards and in four times and finally from the one-yard line Stalloni scored, and in a few minutes later Delaware recovered a fumble on the Generals' 30 and went on to score. Saturday's game marked the final appearance for seven of the Delaware Gridders as Jack Messick, Walt Marusa, Fred Sposito, Jim Buchanan, Doc Doherty, Joe Coady, and Tony Storti.

DELAWARE FROSH BOW TO TEMPLE

Pass In Final Period Wins For Owls

Fullback Jack Smith's 14-yard touchdown pass to George McCracken in the final period enabled Temple University freshman football team to gain a 13 to 6 triumph over the University of Delaware Frosh on Frazer Field.

The Owls got off to a 6 to 0 lead in the first period, taking the opening kickoff and moving straight downfield for a touchdown. When Smith, Dick Young and Chester Yanus doing most of the lugging, the Owls moved to Delaware's three-yard line and Young punched over for the score. Young's drop-kick for the extra point was wide.

Delaware came back in the second period to knot the count on a drive that started with Ned King's interception of a forward pass on the Temple 45. King then hit End Johnny Lingo with a pass on the 24 and Lingo raced to the one-yard line before he was stopped.

King failed to score in two cracks at the heavy Temple line, but Frankie Guthridge went over on a reverse for the touchdown.

Both teams battled on even terms until Smith tossed his game-winning pass. An opening period touchdown and a 41-yard gallop by King was nullified when Delaware was detected off-sides.

YELLOW PACKETS INVADES CONRAD FOR THANKSGIVING DAY GAME; KICK-OFF 10 A. M.

Newark In Full Strength To Wind Up Season And Lose Thirteen Players, Two Backs And Eleven Linemen

Among holiday morning clashes the Newark Yellow Jackets will invade Conrad for a game listed to get underway at 10 A. M. Newark has been victorious in five of eight games played this season with Conrad having won five of seven tilts. Both teams will be in full strength for their last clash of the season. Last year Newark beat the Redskins for their only win of the season by a score of 13 to 0. With Conrad out for revenge Newark will have to put up a stiff defense in order to win this contest.

Coach Matt has his boys geared up in high spirits and ready for anything that comes their way.

Upon completing their last game of the season Coach Matt will lose thirteen players of his team. Two backs: Julian Wallace and Dick Davis. Men lost on the line will be Tony Cosetti, Joe McCormick, Joe Brown, Ronald Ewing, Bill Anderson, Steve Barczewski, Donald Tyler, Bob Gray, Richard Ware, and Donald Knauss.

Even though thirteen good men are lost to the Newark eleven next year the locals will have just as good a season as they did this year.

NEWARK A. C. WON SUNDAY

Happy Valley Here This Sunday

The Newark A. C. added one more team to their list Sunday defeating the Deepwater Semi Pros, 19-7.

Deepwater had a lighter team, but well coached and this weight advantage by Newark began to tell mid-way the second quarter and Deepwater was outclassed from there on. Newark's blocking was off, and Coach Martin will steer this factor in practice this week.

This Sunday they meet Happy Valley, their real test because this team has been undefeated, more experienced, and a much heavier team. Newark is pointing to this game as Happy Valley is already champions of the Senior Division having defeated Adams A. C., 7-2 last Sunday. Newark eleven has never tackled a team that operates from a T formation which the Happy Valley team uses.

SOCCER TEAM LOSES 3 TO 1

Dick Travis Scores

Coach Max Kurman's Delaware soccer team wound up its season by dropping a 3 to 1 decision to Gettysburg College. It was the Hens' ninth loss against two wins.

Gettysburg, displaying a fast offense, took a 1 to 0 lead in the first period on Knute Hippensted's short kick. Delaware knotted the count at 1-all on a goal by Dick Travis shortly before the first half ended.

Hippensted booted his second goal of the game in the third frame, while Ted Struhe drove one in during the final minutes of the game.

Scholarships

Lomb Honorary Science Award Medal. The stipend of $500 a year, for three years, may be supplemented by a university loan of a similar sum for the fourth year, where required. The annual stipend is renewable for the second and third years if the record and conduct of the winners are maintained at a level satisfactory to the Scholarship Committee.

Candidates must apply on forms supplied by the university on or before April 10, for entrance in any given year.

NROTC Scholarship is a very worthwhile scholarship for our boys, in the opinion of Dr. Shilling. A mimeographed form giving full information was received by the school earlier in the year.

Any boy, born in Delaware, or whose parents are residents of Delaware, and who is in need of financial assistance in order to attend Harvard College, is eligible for the Harvard Club of Delaware Scholarship.

Selection of a candidate from among the applicants will be made by the scholarship committee of the Harvard Club of Delaware. In making its decision the committee will lay emphasis upon the scholastic record of the candidate and the personal recommendations of his school principle and teachers. Consideration will be given also to the athletic and other activities of the student, both within the school and without.

Students wishing to apply for the Harvard Club of Delaware Scholarship should address their applications to the secretary, Mr. Charles B. Palmer, 2085 DuPont Building, Wilmington 41, Delaware. Letters of application should include a brief synopsis of the applicant's life; a transcript of the subjects studied, and the grades received while in high school, and such other information as may seem pertinent.

Five hundred dollars is available which may or may not be granted, in whole or in part, at the discretion of the committee.

Any students who are interested in a loan for their college career, may contact the Pickett and Hatcher Educational Fund, P. O. Box 1233, Columbus, Georgia.

Seniors who are elected by their classmates as among the 5% of the class most likely to make an important contribution to human progress, are eligible to take the scholarship test for a Pepsi-Cola College Scholarship. Three seniors of Newark High School took the test Friday, November 21, Rita Aulen, Joseph Brown, and Don Martin.

Zeitler's Guernsey Sets High Record

A registered Guernsey cow, starting test as a senior three-year-old, has completed a leading official record of 12231 pounds of milk and 681 pounds of butterfat for her owner, Peter Zeitler, Glasgow, Delaware. Her official name is Sun Set Lady of Shilott and she was milked three times daily for a ten-month period. She was milked 898 times during test. This record places Sun Set Lady in fifth place among the high producing Guernsey cows for this age and class.

The sire of this cow, C. F.'s Prime Minister, has four daughters in the Performance Register of The American Guernsey Cattle Club.

585 Marriage Permits Issued Under New Law

In the four months since the premarital blood test law became effective the Clerk of the Peace's office has issued 585 marriage licenses, it has been disclosed by George Gray Thouron.

Mr. Thouron, who heads the office, said that during October the total number of licenses issued by his office and all magistrates in the county was 205, considerably less than half the average for the month.

Thanksgiving

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,
Humbly, in our faltering way—
Not with the graceful wordly arts,
But simply, deeply, with our hearts—
As little children mindful of
A Father's broad and boundless love.

We thank Thee, Lord, for everything—
The shining miracle of Spring,
Green grass, and cool and kindly rains,
Stars, and soft clouds in silken skeins,
For tall trees, patient and precise,
That point the way to Paradise.

We give Thee thanks for life's rich years
For courage, and for cleansing tears,
For faith that builds us tall and strong,
For laughter, and the gift of song—
And most of all—that we are free
To bring our grateful hearts to Thee.

Dear Lord, we give Thee thanks for youth
For trust and tenderness and truth,
For brotherhood—that we may tread
A peaceful earth, and break the bread
Of friendship with our fellow men;
We give Thee thanks for love.

—Amen.
