

Ours is a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people," or it is not.

If it is, then women must be admitted to the vote, for they are people.

If it is not, our theory of free government is a delusion. In that case, what reason can men give for their right to vote? There is none.

"You can fool all the people part of the time; you can fool part of the people all of the time; but you can't fool all of the people all of the time," said Abraham Lincoln. New York will discover in 1915 how many people are still fooled by bogey objections to Woman Suffrage.
