Professional Firm Engaged To Survey Need For Hospital

Newark Medical Society Employs Chicago-New York Firm To Prepare Report

The Newark Medical Society has engaged the services of a professional firm of management engineers to conduct an extensive survey of present and potential needs for a hospital to serve Newark and vicinity.

The New York and Chicago firm of Cresap, McCormick and Paget, which has made hospital, educational and industrial surveys of a similar nature in all parts of the United States, has been selected to conduct the survey.

Comprised of all the practicing physicians in Newark, the Newark Medical Society announced recently that it was making arrangements to have a hospital-need survey made. Since then, advice and suggestions have been obtained from American Hospital Association officials and others experienced in matters relating to the construction, maintenance and management of hospitals of varying size and service facilities.

In announcing the arrangement with Cresap, McMormick and Paget, Dr. E. Hughes Nutter, secretary of the organization, said, "The Newark Medical Society desires to render a public service to the people of Newark and of New Castle County in general by retaining the services of a nationally-known, professionaly-competent, unbiased, private company to determine the facts as to the need for a hospital in the Newark area.

Local VFW Marble Shooting Tourney Planned Saturday

Winner To Enter State Meet, May 23, For Shot At National Tournament

From as far away as Ogletown and Iron Hill, from all the backyards and sandlots of Newark, the city's marble shooting elite will gather Saturday morning on the greensward of the Newark School athletic field to match their skill and crown a new city champ.

Knuckles will be laid to the turf promptly at 10 a.m., says William J. Fanning, commander of the Newark Veterans of Foreign Wars post, which is again sponsoring the tournament.

The winner of the day's fray will not only earn the title of Newark agate king he also will represent the city in the state marble shooting tournament to be held here by the VFW on May 23.

Any boy from Newark and vicinity is free to test his skill in the city competition Saturday. "The contestants don't have to live in Newark proper," says Commander Fanning, "just so they live in the surrounding area." That includes even such frontier outposts as Brookside, Lumbrook and Elliott Heights.

On hand to run a critical eye over the contestants will be Newark's top marble celebrity, 14-year-old Johnnie Mueller, who last year not only copped the Newark title but went on to win the state crown, then did himself proud by finishing 12th in the national competition at Portland, Ore.

As defending state champ, Johnnie is automatically entered in the forthcoming state tournament here, so he will not compete in the city matches on Saturday. However, he may be persuaded to flick off a few exhibition shots, says Commander Fanning.

The new Newark champ will get a prize, probably a trophy or medal, from the VFW. He also will get a chance to pit his skill again mighty mite Mueller and other top Delaware marble players in the state tourney on May 23 and, if he wins that, he will go on to represent Delaware in the national trials later in the spring at Akron, O.

Pushmobile Track Near Newark Site Readied For Derby

Earth-Moving Equipment Begins Work On Hallock DuPont-Donated Raceway

Delaware's Pushmobile Derby track, located just across the road from the Louviers Building of the DuPont Company, near Newark, is already taking shape.

George & Lynch, Wilmington contractors, last week sent three pieces of earth-moving equipment to the site and began work.

Over the week-end, J. Henry Topkis, secretary of Pushmobile Track, Inc., non-profit group formed to build the track, accompanied by Edward D. Gebhart, member of the corporation board of trustees and also president of the Delaware Association of Police, and Perry Topkis inspected the site.

The earth-moving machinery has already cut a 30-foot wide lane over most of the 1,800-foot length of the course.

Workmen have not yet started on the fill for some sections where required but with good weather this week, should have the base of the track ready for the placing of forms for the pouring of concrete.

Lower School Tax Cited As Reverse Of Expected Trend

40 To 39 Cent Reduction Effected, Officials State, Despite Expected Increase

Newark Special School District's one-cent tax cut is a bigger saving than it appears to be—because at the time when the district's $624,000 bond issue was approved it was expected that it would lead to a 10-cent tax increase, School Superintendent Wilmer E. Shue said last week.

"We felt we were budgeting very closely," he went on in explaining how the school board arrived at the rate of 39 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the 1954-55 tax.

"It is true that the assessment jumped (from nearly 27 million dollars to about 47 millions) but also our number of teachers will jump from 100 to 125, our bonded debt will jump by $824,000, and every teacher was voted a $100 raise out of local funds," the superintendent said.

Though the new construction bond issue will not be sold until the week of May 10, the first $35,000 repayment of principal is contained in next year's $185,659 local budget. Interest is included for this bond issue and for four previous ones dating back as far as 1942.

Another $35,000 will be paid off on the 1954 bond issue each year for 23 years. One more year at $19,000 will end the payments. All this will come out of the school tax on real estate.

A merit pay increase plan had been proposed, as part of the local amount added to the state teacher salary scale. However, this was set aside for the time being in favor of an across-the board $100 raise. The local increment for teachers who have been in the Newark schools three years or longer goes up from $200 to $300 and the amount for teachers in their first three years goes up from $100 to 3200.

The tax rate, officials explained, is fixed after the board has decided how much it must spend next year. This budgeted amount is divided into the total assessed value of the district as reported by the County Board of Assessment.

Cancer Fund Drive Returns Top $1700 In Newark Crusade

Incomplete returns on the Newark Cancer Crusade reached a total of over $1700 yesterday, and a campaign spokesman said further returns expected this week end may boost Newark's total to $2500.

Volunteers have been hampered in their work, it was said, by the necessity for making as many as three or four "call-backs" in some instances before finding anyone at home. Individuals who have not been contacted for the crusade or who have reason to believe that a worker may have called while they were away, are urged to strike back at man's most cruel and expensive disease. Checks made payable to Cancer and sent to Cancer, Wilmington, will be credited to Newark's account.

Housewives especially are reminded that there has been no business or industrial solicitation in Newark for the Cancer Crusade, since one important aspect of the drive is the leaving of literature in every home for every member of the family to read.

This means that for most people, the only opportunity to contribute is through the volunteer at the door—the coinbox in the public place—or the check in the mail.

Work Begins On $88,000 Lumbrook Sewer Project

Work began Monday on the $88,000 Lumbrook sewer project.

Francis Neide, city engineer, estimated that the work would be completed by the end of August.

The project will connect some 73 homes in the Lumbrook area with the city's sanitary disposal system. The work is being done by Pleasanton & Edgell, Dover contractors.

Mr. Neide also disclosed that the southside collector system was recently placed in service.

When the Circus Came to Town

Acrobats, balancing acts, cyclists, dogs, elephants—you can run right down the alphabet to zebra in listing the attractions of the big traveling tent shows—all came to Newark yesterday with the arrival of Hunt Bros. Circus at the Stafford farm on Ogletown Road. The one-day circus stand for Newark youngsters—and others, too—was sponsored by the Newark Kiwanis Club.

Boomtown Building Continues With 605 Dwellings Scheduled

By FRANK N. MEGARGEE

Newark today is a boom town in mid-boom.

The rate of new home construction, which began to swing up sharply here about two years ago, still shows no signs of slackening off. In fact, it's just moving into high gear.

At least 605 dwelling units, including apartments and homes, are either now under construction here or are planned by developers, Francis Neide, city engineer, disclosed yesterday.

That figure covers only the new home building within the city limits. It doesn't include the continuing expansion at Brookside Park and other outlying developments.

What's more, several new stores and at least one shopping center are planned within the city.

Mr. Neide, who is Newark's most harrassed man of affairs, took time out this week to collect a few figures for the NEWARK POST.

He came up with this startling picture of activity on the home construction front:

(1) Elkart Apartments, 108 family units now under construction on the west side of Elkton Road opposite the Binns development. The Elkart project, a garden type apartment, eventually will comprise 300 dwelling units.

(2) College Park on Elkton Road at the West Park Place intersection, 111 row homes now completed, 55 more about to go up.

(3) Binns development on Elkton Road, 65 single masonry homes now built, 74 more planned.

(4) Silverbrook on South College Avenue extended, 36 single masonry homes now completed, about 31 more planned.

(5- A. G. Cohen apartment project, 80-dwelling units planned for

Schools To Offer Musical Festival In Two Programs

Newark public school music teachers have decided to present the annual spring music festival in two programs this year.

At 8 p.m. tomorrow, the choirs from four buildings of Newark Special School District will give their program in the high school auditorium. At the same hour on May 14, the bands of the various schools will perform.

Choirs from Academy Street, E. Frances Medill, and Brookside Elementary Schools and the junior-senior high school will sing under direction of Miss Margaret Zinda, Mrs. Esther F. Williams, and Mrs. Mary Jane Streepy. All the bands will be directed by Ernest R. Wilder.

Eugene Smith of the high school faculty is in charge of tickets.

Larry Biasotto Back Home After Boys' State Service

Lawrence Biasotto, Newark High School junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Biasotto, 16 Kells Avenue, Newark, is back home after a 3-day term as State Treasurer in the 17th annual Boys State program sponsored by the American Legion in Dover last week.

Larry has been in the public eye before. An all-around athlete he has played high school football, basketball and baseball and is a member of the track team. And he has served a hitch in the American Legion Junior Baseball League outfield.

St. Thomas Parish House Ceremonies Scheduled Sunday

Pastor To Officiate At Ground-Breaking For New Youth Center

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new St. Thomas Parish House will be held Sunday morning at 10:15 on the Episcopal church property next to Red Men's Grove on South College Avenue.

The Rev. Theodore Ludlow will officiate at the ceremony with Dr. J. Fenton Dougherty, senior church warden; C. Nield Clark, junior warden; and B. A. Weimer, chairman of the building committee, while the junior choir will sing.

Since the new building will be used largely for youth work, Pastor Ludlow explained, the ground-breaking ceremonies have been scheduled at regular church school time so that the children may participate.

A total of $81,000 was received as the result of a recent local campaign to obtain $75,000 for construction of a parish house. The new building will consist of a large auditorium with seating for 250; five large and two small classrooms; a kitchen; and an office. The auditorium is to be equipped with altar, pulpit and other church furnishings.

Construction is to begin immediately, Rev. Ludlow stated, with the Haddock Construction Company and Alexander H. McDaniel, builders. Victorine and Samuel Homsey, of Wilmington, are the architects.

A completion date of April, 1955 has been estimated.

This year's traditional May Day program given by the women students at the University of Delaware will be held on the Newark campus, Saturday, May 15, at 2:30 p.m.

The performance centers around the theme "Uptown—Downtown."

Miss Beatrice Hartshorn, chairman of physical education for women, is the director and faculty advisor of the program. She is assisted by other members of the physical education department—Miss Mary Ann Waltz, Miss Della Durant, and Miss Ruth Malburg.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Jean Sloman and Ruth Ward. Committees for May Day and their chairmen are as follows:

Marjorie Snyder, costumes; Liz Stafford and Grace Harrison, dance, Ellen Ungerleider, theme coordinator; Carolyn Clift, music; June Williams, properties; Doris Carmichael, program and ushers; Mary Lou Matthes, art and posters; Jane Frederick, business; Lucy Sala, May Pole dance ;and Kay Knighton, publicity.

National 4-H Center

Delaware's 68 Four-H Clubs have a chance to become shareholders in a big project—the National 4-H Club Center near Washington, D.C.

Many local clubs have already contributed to a "Share and Care" program which will help equip the Center for all kinds of 4-H meetings and other educational purposes. Clubs throughout the country are taking part in this campaign. "The quota for Delaware clubs has already been more than half met," discloses Samuel M. Gwinn, state 4-H leader. "If each remaining club gives 10 cents per member we will easily reach our goal."

The 4-H Center, a 12-acre campus and 5 buildings, was formerly the Chevy Chase Junior College. It was purchased in 1951 by the National 4-H Club Foundation, and almost overnight was leased to the U.S. Dept. of Defense for a high priority secret defense project.

The Center will be operated again by the 4-H Foundation, when the Defense work is completed, meanwhile funds are needed to pay off the mortgage, repair and remodel buildings and construct new facilities.

Aetna Ambulance Fund Drive Return Below Expectation

Response To Campaign For Ambulance Service Lags Behind Schedule

Only about 11 per cent of the families in the Newark area responded during the first week of the Community Ambulance Association campaign, an Aetna spokesman disclosed today.

In all of last year the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company's ambulance made 365 runs, averaging exactly one a day. But last month it was called out a record 63 times, or more than twice a day.

Faced with this increased demand for ambulance service, officials of the Aetna company mailed appeals a week ago to 4,400 families. They were offered family membership in the ambulance association for $3, entitling all members of the family to free ambulance service for a year.

There were some 600 replies by yesterday, only about half as many as in the first week of the last similar drive, two years ago.

George M. Neighbors, chairman of the ambulance association and president of the fire compny, expressed concern today at the apparent disinterest in the financial needs of an ambulance service.

Ambulance fees are not covered by any hospitalization insurance policy, contrary to common belief, Mr. Neighbors pointed out.

He cited the situation in nearby Elkton, Md., where the volunteer fire company's ambulance charge is a flat 25 cents per mile. The rate to be charged for Aetna's service to non-members has not been fixed yet, but the fund campaign letters warned:

"If you do not hold a membership card in this community ambulance association and need the service of the same, we will have to place a service charge on each call made. As in previous years, ambulance service will be available in case of accident emergency or for a family unable to pay. Those families who join this association help themselves, provide for the financial stability of this organization, and enable those less fortunate to share in its facilities."

Mr. Neighbors also pointed out that every run made by the Aetna ambulance is with a volunteer driver. Many of the volunters are owners of businesses in Newark. Others are night shift workers who make themselves available during the day.

Half the calls occur between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m., he added.

So far only one response to the industrial phase of the ambulance has been reported.

2nd Polio Vaccine Shots Administered To Second Graders

Dr. Gliwa, Local Health Officer, Urges All Three Inoculations For Pupils

The second inoculations of polio vaccine for second grade students in all New Castle County schools began Monday with special arrangements announced for those youngsters who are not in class on the date scheduled for the injection.

Dr. Edward F. Gliwa, county public health officer at Newark has urged parents to make sure their children receive all three of the necessary inoculations. Only those youngsters who complete them can receive the huped-for benefits of the vaccine.

As a convenience for those pupils not in school on the day appointed for the second injection, two make-up clinics have been scheduled.

Children who miss the second inoculation date may receive the vaccine at the New Castle County health office at 47½ East Main Street, Newark, on Monday, May 10, between 3:30 p.m. and 4 p.m.

The same service will be available on the same dates at the Wilmington health office, 901 West Eighth Street, between 7 and 7:30 p.m. Parents must bring their children to these clinics.

Dr. Gliwa stressed that "in the event the second injection is missed it must be made up within a period of four days, or else that particular child will not be able to complete the polio vaccination series."

Central Welfare Committee Adds Members-at-Large

A. L. Dollins Appointed With R. S. Smith; Board Post To J. H. Thompson

At the recent meeting of the executive board of the Newark Central Welfare Committee George M. Haney, chairman, announced the appointment of A. L. Dollins, and Robert S. Smith as members-at-larke.

James H. Thompson, president of the Newark Recreation Association, will also become a member of the board.

Mr. Dollins, a local businessman, is currently president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Smith, a newcomer to the community, lives at 10 Kress Road, Brookside and is active in the Brookside Civic Association.

The board also voted to contribute to the Newark ambulance fund, and to buy a "lot in the Recreation Association play and picnic area. These contributions were made possible by the support given to the local Thrift Shop, which is operated under the Welfare Committee's auspices.

They represent a substantial portion of the proceeds from the shop, above that already used for emergency welfare work in the community.

Board Of Health To Hold Cancer Clinic On Tuesday

The State Board of Health will conduct a cancer detection clinic at the Student Health Center, Tuesday, May 11, from 10 to 12 noon and from 1 to 3 p.m., at the corner of Delaware and South College Avenues.

This cancer detection service is offered women 25 years of age and older who may phone Newark 3861 for appointments.

Council Settles City Solicitor Dispute; Sinclair Re-elected

David P. Buckson Withdraws Candidacy For Solicitor; Ordinance Providing Pension Plan For City Employees Receives First Reading; Financial Problems Tackled

The expected wrangle over the selection of a city solicitor failed to develop at Tuesday night's City Council meeting, and the lawmakers moved with ease and dispatch to tackle more pressing municipal problems, including the establishment of a city pension plan and the facing up to some hard facts about city finances.

At two previous meetings, the Councilmen, setting a record for procedural confusion, elected two different city solicitors, and Tuesday night's meeting was billed as a show-down fight over which would get the job.

But the issue dissolved into airy nothingness when, after a minimum of discussion, John P. Sinclair was sworn in as city solicitor for another year's term.

This action came after it was revealed that David P. Buckson, Middletown attorney who was first elected to the solicitor's post, had withdrawn his name as a candidate.

The entire question took up only about 15 minutes at the start of Tuesday's meeting. First the minutes of the April 20 meeting, when Mr. Buckson was elected solicitor, were approved. Then the minutes of the April 21 meeting, when Mr. Sinclair was elected to the same office, also were approved with Councilman William Coverdale dissenting.

Next Mayor Johnson reported that he had consulted with a number of local attorneys on the matter, as he had been directed to do by Council, but had gotten little satisfaction. The lawyers all told him, he said, that their opinions would be pointless since they were not binding on Council.

No Seeker

In his letter, Mr. Buckson said he had not sought the solicitor's post but, after being approached by certain council members, had agreed to take it if Council desired.

"In view of the most recent developments," he wrote, "I am no longer willing to participate and request the elimination of my name from future discussion of the matter."

Mr. Buckson, in his letter, also volunteered the advice that "in the interest of harmony and good government a city solicitor be selected acceptable to all members of City Council." This, he wrote, would result in a "unified Council."

Pensions for city employees, long a subject of study, took a big step toward reality when the Council gave the first reading to an ordinance that would create a city pension plan.

Final Reading

The ordinance, which is slated for its final reading and passage at the May 18 meeting, provides for pension benefits at age 65 for qualified employees. To be eligible to join the plan, an employee must be 30 years old and have five years continuous service on the city staff. Eleven employees would be eligible at the start.

The pension plan would be administered by a pension trust committee and a trustee. The latter would be the Wilmington Trust Company. The plan would be handled through the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Students Briefed By FBI; Marines, Navy On Schedule

Newark High School juniors and seniors will get advice from Uncle Sam's recruiters next month. Both boys and girls attended briefings by an FBI representative yesterday and will be interviewed by a Navy and Marine Corps recruiter at 8:45 on May 19, and by an Army and Air Force recruiter at 10:25 a.m. May 21. A National Guard representative was scheduled to appear last week, but was unable to. Mrs. Dorothy Markert, arranging the series, hopes to have him appear later.

Six Newark students took part in tests given in Hullihen Hall sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

They were Robert Gore, Robert Sharp, and Rose Marie LePera, from first-year Spanish, and Reed Kinloch, Jan Otto, and Norwood Bonney, from the second-year class. Awards are a $100 scholarship and medals.

Bargain Hunters Invade City For Newark Spring Carnival

By FRANK N. MEGARGEE

All roads led to Newark yesterday when 37 merchants joined to stage a "Spring Bargain Carnival," a one day city-wide sale with the stores open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Shoppers, who trekked in from all the surrounding areas, treated themselves to 12 full hours of bargain hunting. The news of the big sale had been spread abroad well in advance by 15,000 copies of the Newark Shopping News, mailed by the Chamber of Commerce to all nearby communities.

The price-cutting festival was a follow-up on the now legendary St. Patrick's Day sale when Newark merchants went crazy mad for a day and pulled the rug from under prices.

Yesterday a dollar looked big in Newark again, and even the Five and Ten was selling things for five and ten cents.

The sale happily coincided with the grand opening of Oscar Trivit's new appliance store at 180 East Main Street, and Oscar, who made local folklore on St. Patrick's Day when he sold a $289 dishwasher for $22.50, was up to his old merchandising tricks again.

He gave things away this time. Visitors received free salt and pepper shakers, flower vases and salad bowl sets. The store, brightly festooned for the occasion, seethed with mock housework as demonstrators pushed vacuum cleaners, toasted break in pop-up Sunbeams, tuned TV sets. In one corner, Oscar even had a man putting kitchen tile on a wall ust to show how simple it is to apply the stuff.

In addition to the gifts and bargains, prizes were awarded following a drawing in the evening. The winners hauled of such loot as: a formica dinette set, table lamp, and waffle iron.

The city sale was sponsored by the retail merchants section of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Diehl pointed out that it would be more economical to amortize the cost of these improvements through a bond issue than to pay for them with bank loans as has been the practice in the immediate past. The latter policy, he said, has led to deficit financing.

County Figures

Mr. Diehl also proposed that the city use the new county assessment figures as the basis of the forthcoming city assessment. But Councilman Coverdale, pointing out that the county figures have been jumped considerably, objected to this. Mr. Diehl said that the city's tax rate could be cut to offset the valuation increase. He contended the county's new assessment would provide an equitable basis for the tax levy.

Council agreed to acquire the new county figures "for reference," the decision as to whether they will be taken over in toto for the city levy was left in doubt.

Mr. Diehl's fiscal discussion was touched off by an appeal from the Aetna Hose Hook and Ladder Company for an increase in its annual Council appropriation from $1500 to $5,000.

Brookside Reflections

Cub Pack 252 took a trip to the Franklin Institute on Saturday, May 1, with 17 boys making the journey.

The group left the Brookside School at 9:30 a.m., drove to Philadelphia in four cars, ate their box lunches and arrived at the institute at noon.

First on the schedule was a visit to the very large locomotive where the boys were allowed to climb aboard and see how the engine was operated. Next came a conducted tour through the Sun Oil Company's display which was the real purpose of the trip and summarized the month's study of oil.

Next, a trip over to the airplanes and then on to the planatarium, where after looking at a few more exhibits and a trip to the souvenir counter they left for home. All in all, it was a most successful day.

Parents who attended the tour were Mrs. Mark Case, Charles Zeney, George Moroz, Robert Wisor and Bernard Jenson.

Carol Ann McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McGuire, Kollman Dr., celebrated her sixth birthday April 24. Her guests were Dean Nelson, Davey Harrington, Cheryl Rae Morgan, Susan Brackin, Jimmy Todd, Dickie Rhodes, Bucky Titus, Donna Lynn Galbraith, David Robinson and Richard McGuire.

On our "Cherub List" this week are a son for Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bland, April 30th at the Wilmington General Hospital.

A daughter for Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Howard, Jr., May 2nd at the Delaware Hospital.

A daughter for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson, May 2nd at the Delaware Hospital.

A daughter for Mr. and Mrs. William C. Macon, May 3rd, at the Delaware Hospital.

Judy and Jimmy Pocalyko are home with the measles.

Butchy and Janet Koria are recuperating from the mumps.

Mrs. Milford Brown gave a luncheon and baby shower for Mrs. Joseph Zappo, Jr.

Some of the ladies around the Carlin Lane area have decided to play Bingo rather than bridge. On Monday evening Mrs. Arthur J. Peters entertained the group.

The pension fund would be financed with the net revenue from city parking meters.

Councilman Samuel Diehl, the town committee head, treated his colleagues to a lengthy discussion of town fiscal problems, the highlight of which was a proposal that the Council hold a referendum to obtain authority for a bond issue to finance much needed capital improvements.

City Improvements

He listed the improvements as: purchase of rights of way for the extension of Delaware Avenue; (2) extensive improvements to the water system, costing upwards of $40,000; (3) acquisition of additional well sites; (4) streets and utilities for new schools; (5) major street repairs; (6) erection of new power lines and rebuilding of certain existing ones; (7) purchase of a street sweeper and sprinkler; (8) acquisition of power lines from the Delaware Power and Light Company; (9) sewer and water lines for Elliott Heights; (10) rebuilding West Park Place roadway; (11) paying off demand bank loans borrow-increase and pointed to the fact that Council appropriations in other towns were much higher than $1500. The firemen also revealed that they may soon have to enlarge their present quarters or build another firehouse.

Mr. Diehl said he would give careful study to the firemen's request in working up the annual budget.

Police Proposals

Councilman John R. Downes, police commissioner, listed a number of proposals being discussed by his department.

He said the following would be submitted later as formal recommendations to Council: (1) a survey to find out where 24-hour parking is most commonly practice and follow this up by an ordinance permitting authorities to tow away cars parked over that time; (2) stepped up enforcement of an existing city law requiring the muzzling and registration of dogs running at large; (3) the hiring of three more full-time patrolmen, the purchase of another patrol car and the replacement of the present one with a new car (4) salary adjustments upward.

Council also approved two zoning law amendments, the first changing from 'School' to RD the block bounded by Haines Street, Academy Street, Lovett Avenue; the second, which aroused considerable discussion, changing from RS to business a nearly two acre triangular parcel bounded by Capitol Trail, McKees Lane and the B&O railroad.

Two nearby property owners, Alonzo Messick and Ralph Williams, objected to the latter rezoning, but Council approved the measure by a 4-2 vote with Councilmen Harry Maclary and Mr. Coverdale opposing.

Boggs Proclaims Mother's Day Sunday Observance For State

Governor J. Caleb Boggs has called on "all children regardless of age" to set aside Sunday, May 9, as a day of tribute to their mothers, and he urged that "this occasion be one of reunion, or at least a day of contact by any possible means, so that mothers everywhere will know that their sacrifices, love and devotion are remembered by those to whom they have given the very breath of life."

Pointing out that a mother's work is never done as she "patiently tends to the ills of her brood; provides for religious and moral guidance and offers compassion in moments of darkness that befall her loved ones," Governor Boggs urges that Mother's day was a fitting time for special remembrance.

The proclamation in part follows:

WHEREAS, it has become an annual custom in much of the civilized world to set aside the Second Sunday in May as a day of tribute to all mothers; and

WHEREAS, we should never lose sight of the contributions which mothers make daily in bringing new citizens into the world; in nurturing them through childhood and imparting to them the knowledge, wisdom and training which are so vital in the building of character as they mature to manhood and womanhood; and

THEREFORE, I, J. CALEB BOGGS, Governor of the State of Delaware, do hereby set aside Sunday, May 9, 1954, as tract between South Academy Street and South College Avenue just north of the Pennsylvania Railroad. No work has been started on this yet, although a lay-out of the project has been approved by City Council.

Mr. Neide also disclosed that a shopping center is planned for a site on the east side of Elkton Road just south of Barksdale Road. The property, formerly a portion of the Brown farm, has been purchased by David Gallo, 208 Orchard Road, who intends to develop a retail center, Mr. Neide said. It will include three or four stores and, possibly, a chain food outlet.

At the eastern edge of the city, an A. & P. store is planned for erection on Bernard Lagowitz's property along Ogletown Road, adjoining the Leak property.

Mr. Neide announced that the former Kadow tract has been sold to an unidentified agent, possibly for home development. The land is located west of Orchard Road and South of West Park Place near the Phillip's Packing plant.

Outside the city limits, a 120-home project is proposed by Dover Builders, Inc., for land along Capitol Trail east of the Medill elementary school.

thanks...
TO ALL
OUR GAS CUSTOMERS

THANKS to your very excellent cooperation . . . the work of converting customers' gas appliances for the use of straight natural gas progressed much more rapidly than had been anticipated. As a result of this progress, straight natural gas is now being supplied to all of our gas customers.

In order to extend to our customers, immediately upon the full introduction of straight natural gas, the benefit of modest reductions offered through new rates for natural gas, the Public Service Commission of Delaware authorized advancing the effective date of these new rates from July 1, 1954 to May 1, 1954. Approximately $165,000 would have been saved by gas customers had these new rates for natural gas been in effect during 1953

In addition to reducing costs . . . this supply of straight natural gas eliminates the necessity of our applying for an increase in gas rates of more than $700,000 annually, which otherwise would have been necessary to provide a fair return on the gas property.

The delivery of straight natural gas to the Wilmington area with the resulting benefits to gas customers, is the culmination of several years of effort to obtain approval of Federal authorities necessary for delivery of such gas, during which time we were actively and ably supported by the Delaware Public Service Commission.

Again we express our appreciation and thanks to all gas customers for their cooperation. If any further adjustments on your gas appliances are necessary, please call Shriver Gas Conversions, Inc.—8-3548

Clean-up, paint-up, plant-up and fix-up! There, we have official sanction for it! There will be an intensive state-wide drive from May 3 to May 17.

Judging by appearances, most home-owners in this area take great pride in keeping their property clean and free from fire hazards. Those two or three days at home last week while expecting the gas adjusters helped out, too.

What really concerns us is the lack of regard for the appearance of public thoroughfares. Crews are constantly cleaning up papers and cans carelessly thrown from passing cars. What can be done about those public enemies who under cover of night deliberately unload trash on the side of Polly Drummond Road, for instance, where highway crews do not operate?

In conjunction with the clean-up campaign we are glad to announce that Rose Hill Park residents will meet this Saturday, May 8 at 10 a.m., to clean up the point and to make arrangements for mowing it during the summer.

Historic old Red Mill House, home of Mr. and Mrs. David Eastburn on Red Mill Road—one of the most attractive land marks in this whole area—was again the center of interest for many visitors last Sunday, under the auspices of the Cooch's Bridge Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Eastburn was assisted by the following chairmen:-Mrs. Warren C. Lamborn, exhibits; Mrs. R. W. Heim, hostesses; Miss Anna Frazer, refreshments; Mrs. G. S. Skinner, publicity.

Miss Dora Biedling and Miss Virginia Fellows of Media, Pa. were week-end guests of Miss Biedling's aunt, Mrs. Alfred Deck, Sr., Old Capitol Trail.

Mrs. Peter Furness, Kirkwood Highway, has been confined at Wilmington General Hospital since Friday, April 23. It is hoped that she may be able to return home by the time this paper goes to print.

Stephen Timko, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Timko, Delaplane Manor, is recuperating from a tonsil operation.

We regret to report that Francis E. B. McCann, Kirkwood Highway, has been seriously ill for some time and is now confined at home.

Medill Elementary School

Everyone seems to have successfully weathered the initial round of polio shots. Now that the second graders have been initiated they will know all about what to expect for the second round-up on Friday of this week.

The E. Frances Medill School choir will participate in the special spring festival of music. The program will be held in the Newark High School auditorium on Friday at 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Mary Jane Streepy.

Roseville Park Branch Library

The Roseville Park Branch Library is located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond, Laurel Ave. and is open to the public on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to noon.

White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church

The Rev. Bishop attended a meeting of the Newark Ministerial Association at the University of Delaware last Friday for the purpose of planning with university leaders a Religious Emphasis Week to be held at the university in the fall.

Members of the Junior-Hi Department were in charge of the opening worship in the school last Sunday, under the direction of Mrs. David Anderson, Jr. Reports were made on the Westminster Fellowship rally held last Sunday at Red Clay Creek Church.

"Eddy" Springer told how Westminster Fellowship is organized, paralleling the organization of the Presbyterian church, locally and nationally.

Carl Butterworth gave highlights from the evening address by the Rev. Donald C. Wilson, associate pastor of Westminster Church, Wilmington. Frank Butterworth gave his impressions of the importance of the rally.

It was announced that the school plans to make it possible for a number of young people to attend the Westminster Fellowship summer camps for Junior Hi's to be held for three one-week periods at West Nottingham Academy, beginning the last week in June. A Senior-Hi conference will be held at Wilson College. Since a limited number of registrations can be accepted it is important for those who wish to attend to notify the church school superintendent as soon as possible.

Members of Mrs. Bishop's class voted last Sunday to contribute $25 toward the needs of the kitchen.

At the April meeting of the Improvement Society held last week it was voted on recommendation of the church committee to have the brickwork on two sides and on the north end of the church repointed. It is expected that work will soon be started.

Elmer Gallaher, Pusey McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Chalmers and Howard Bradley comprise the Committee.

The work of redecorating several room at the Manse will be started this week. This is under the supervision of the Manse committee:- Mrs. Atwood Johnston, Mrs. Nathaniel Richards, Clifford Lynam. Mrs. James Bishop. The White Clay Fellowship is assisting with this project.

It was announced last week that the trustees are making plans to have the Manse connected with the city water main. The trustees are also installing new window cords and taking care of some replastering at the Manse.

The board of trustees has issued a call for a congregational meeting to be held next Sunday immediately following church service.

Next Sunday in the 11 a.m. service there will be a Mother's Day message on "Two Mothers." As this is the beginning of National Family Week, families are urged to worship together for the occasion.

The memorial flowers on the altar table Sunday will be presented by Mrs. Eloise Peach Garrison of Baltimore in memory of her father, William P. Peach.

The May meeting of the session will be held at church on Wednesday, May 12, at 8 p.m. Reports will be made on the conference on Christian Education held at Elsmere Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Elders Willard Johnston and Frank Butterworth and the Rev. Bishop attended.

Church Family Night — members and friends are reminded of the covered dish supper and program on Tuesday, May 11, at 6:30.

Chicken Salad Supper

The annual chicken salad and ham supper sponsored by the White Clay Fellowship will be held on Saturday, May 22, from 4 to 7 p.m. Tickets are available from any member of the group. There will be a cake table and a variety table.

Delaware Park To Offer Free Bus Service In Parking Lots

The latest in a series of extensive projects at Delaware Park for the 1954 meeting, May 29 through July 5, was revealed today in an announcement by President Donald P. Ross. It concerns expansion and improvement of the track's valet parking facilities and a new instituted free bus service deemed necessary within the spacious confines of the Stanton plant—one of the world's largest turf establishments covering approximately 700 acres.

The announcement follows closely upon recent releases telling about the creation of a new easterly entrance linked directly with main highways to the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Turnpikes, and Delaware Memorial Bridge—with construction of two new bridges, demolition of a third, and building of roads all part of a near-million dollar undertaking on which work began after the track's record-breaking 1953 race meeting.

Even before new parking space was added to the area in the rear of the paddock this year, the plant contained the largest parking area this side of the Rockies. For this purpose, there are now 80 acres to comfortably handle more than 12,000 cars.

Because of the spaciousness of the track's two biggest parking lots, the management of Delaware Park is providing free bus service within these two lots. There are four in all. The expansion of valet parking facilities will also apply to the newly-created area added to the huge lot behind the paddock.

Motorists driving into the track by any of the three multiple-lane entrances, including the newest and largest easterly one, will find valet parking and free bus service available. General parkers will be transported by bus to the same point where those who pay an additional fee for valet parking may have their cars removed by an attendant and returned later for the trip home.

As in the past, a general parking fee will be in effect as a means of eliminating tipping. Also continuing is free wrecking car and flat tire service, with fire proection included. The non-tipping rule is strictly enforced at Delaware Park. Patrons are asked not to offer tips as attendants are subject to discharge if a tip is accepted.

Cooch's Bridge and Glasgow

Mildred Ludwig, Correspondent
Phone: Newark 8-8496

A fine time was had last Saturday night by 14 members of the Allied Youth Club of Newark High School on their hayride up Route 896 north of town. However, when the group arrived at Hopkin's Bridge on Creek Road about 11 p.m. for a hot-dog roast, the fixings for the feast were complete except for hot dogs!

After the slow hungry ride back to town, the group wound up at the home of Alice Amoroso on Salem Church Road, where the lost dogs were located in the refrigerator. Chaperones Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peoples remarked that the same thing had happened to them in their younger days.

Members of the Newark Angler's club of Sunset Lake will miss that ardent angler "Jim" Hicks who passed away this week Mr. Hicks was the father of Mrs. P. G. Rich of Old Glasgow Road.

Pastor Benjamin Crane of Salem, N.J. will dedicate the Pilgrim Gospel Tabernacle this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. The Cranes' 3-mos. old daughter will be dedicated to the church in the same ceremony. Rev. Newton Chase of Mechanic's City, Penna., will preside and deliver the message. Special music and singing will follow sacred guitar renditions by Rev. W. E. Barnard, also of Salem.

The Salem 4-H club meets tonight at 7:30 in the Sunday School room of Salem M. E. Church.

Swiss Holiday

Mrs. Jeanne McLaughlin of Christiana sails from New York tomorrow for a lengthy holiday in Switzerland. Mrs. McLaughlin, a native Swiss, will be accompanied by her two sisters, residents of Philadelphia. The Christiana Church choir gave Mrs. McLaughlin a surprise farewell party Tuesday evening.

The Sunday School Workers conference of Christiana M.E. Church will meet Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Church. The Salem Church social met Wednesday evening. Over 100 persons attended the women's fashion show staged by the two church Helpers clubs last Saturday night. Bewigged male models paraded in many costumes but the bathing "beauties" drew the most applause. The club has expressed a willingness to present a benefit for any organization desiring this hilarious show.

Mrs. Yvonne Wollaston of the Glasgow Road is convalescing at home following minor surgery at the Wilmington General Hospital.

The Town and Country Home Demonstration club meets next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Wm. E. Morgan, Jr., on the Glasgow Road.

Ten-week old Donald W. McElwee of Glasgow has been ill with virus pneumonia in the Wilmington General Hospital.

The Pencader 4-H club plans a bus trip to Valley Forge this Saturday.

Vacation Bible Schol at Ott's Chapel is scheduled from June 14 thru the 25th, with sessions from 9:30 a.m. until noon. Leaders this year will be Mrs. Gunnar Nelson, pre-school group; Mrs. Tunis Foltz, primary; Mrs. Wm. Farr and Mrs. Edward Crowe, junior class; and Mrs. Stephen Williams, the young people's group.

Girl Scout Troop 156 of Ogletown hiked to Camp Minquil Saturday for a cookout. The girls planted dafodil bulbs donated to the troop by Mrs. Agnes Hall. The troop recently held an afternoon tea party for their mothers at the home of Mrs. Gustave Steimal, leader.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from the Bible

For in Thee, O Lord, do I hope; Thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.—(Psalm 38, 15.)

All of our worldly hopes—for health, happiness, or whatever—will be in vain unless we place all of our hope in the Lord, and have unfailing faith in His love; unless we have faith that He hears our prayers, and that all things are possible if we only believe.

HONOR THY MOTHER

by Gladys J. Peterson, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

"Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee" (Exodus (20:12).

A woman who loved her mother very much conceived the idea of a Mother's Day in 1905. Her own mother had just died, and the idea took such hold on her that after a time she gave up her job, an important one with an insurance company, in order to devote her entire time to spreading the idea of a national Mother's Day.

This woman was Anna Jarvis, who chose the second Sunday in May, when the grass was green and the carnations were blooming, for this observance. Thinking of the bed of white carnations outside her childhood home, she chose white carnations as the appropriate flower for Mother's Day.

In 1908, on the second Sunday in May, Miss Jarvis held a Mother's Day memorial service in the same little town in which her mother had lived. After that, she proceeded to lay her plan before the nation. She traveled and made speeches. She wrote to papers and magazines. She wrote letters to congressmen and other important people . . . even to the presidents of the United States. In 1912, President Theodore Roosevelt answered her letters and said that he liked the idea. Later on, President Taft did the same. But it was not until 1914 that a bill was passed making the second Sunday in May national Mother's Day. After President Wilson had signed the bill, he gave Miss Jarvis the pen with which he had signed it.

Today Mother's Day is celebrated in many different countries. In America we remember our mothers on this day with gifts and special thoughts of love. It is proper and fitting that we should honor our mothers not only on this day, but all year around for what they have done for us.

God's love for His children has no better symbol than the unfailing care which a true mother expresses in her devotion to her child.

NEWARK IN REVIEW

Twenty-five Years Ago

School Board Election

Two candidates are bidding for one vacancy on the local Board of Education, with R. S. Gallaher opposing Mrs. F. A. Wheeless in Saturday's election. Mr. Gallaher has served 19 years on the Newark Board of Education, and is a candidate for reelection, while Mrs. Wheeless is a candidate for the first time.

H. Harrison Gray, president of the local school board has announced members of the election board for Saturday as Harvey Hoffecker, judge; Orlando K. Strahorn and Charles Colmery, assistant judges.

The Newark Board of Education is composed of three elected members and the school superintendent. Mr. Gray and Edward L. Richards are the elected holdovers.

Mare Lost in Blaze

"Slipper," a fine saddle mare belonging to Miss Lilly Willis, was burned to death in a fire that consumed a barn owned by A. B. Foote on the Lincoln Highway, half a mile east of Newark. An automobile belonging to J. M. Barnes and a quantity of hay and feed were also lost in the blaze.

The Aetna firemen were summoned, but the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be done to check it in the absence of an adequate water supply. The blaze is believed to have been caused by children building a nearby bonfire.

New Movie Theater

The new State Theater, built by Louis Handloff at a cost in excess of $100,000, will open Tuesday night, May 7, with appropriate ceremonies and introductory speeches by Mayor Collins, Dr. Claude L. Benner, and other prominent local residents. A special program of talking pictures and organ music has been arranged for the opening.

The new theater is supplied with the latest screen and projection equipment as well as a Vitaphone for talking and sound movies. Music will be provided by a $10,000 organ played by Miss Dolores Arizas, Baltimore organist and musical arranger.

Car Abandoned In Creek

State Police have not as yet located the driver of the Lincoln sedan found abandoned in White Clay Creek at the bridge near Clarkingbolds on the Lincoln Highway just east of Newark. The car, apparently traveling at a high rate of speed, did not negotiate the turn approaching the bridge and crashed through a wire fence, tore down several saplings, and plunged off the bank into the creek.

The windshield was shattered; there was blood on the car interior; and the license plates had been stripped from the machine.

An unidentified man representing himself as a prohibition agent from Washington, phoned a Wilmington garage and ordered the car towed in. State Police are holding the vehicle in an attempt to trace ownership through the engine number.

Washington Meeting

Warren A. Singles, representative of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, attended sessions of the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in Washington last week.

New Store Opening

George Jackson, who for the past 10 years has been connected with the H. B. Wright Company, has leased a store in the Opera House Building and will open a hardware business on May 11. The new store will be known as Jackson's Hardware Store and will carry complete lines of hardware, sporting goods, house furnishings, auto tires and accessories.

Sports

Two triples by Max Glasser turned the tide for the University of Delaware on Saturday as the Hens won a 4-2 game over visiting St. Joseph's on Frazer Field. Each of Glasser's smashes drove in a run and Glasser crossed the plate himself for the other two runs as a big dose of bad news for St. Joe's.

Crossgrove started for Delaware—was charged with the two St. Joseph's runs in the first—and Coach Rothrock sent in Hall as an able replacement who pitched shut out ball.

Delaware's line-up consisted of Shallady, 2b; Jaquette, 1b; Hill, 3b; Snowberger, rf; Glasser, c; Roman ss; Taylor cf; Steele, lf; Crossgrove and Hall, p.

In a bid for the DIAA pennant, Newark High School was stopped on three hits by Middletown High's Rawley as the Middletowners turned back the Yellowjackets 8-5 despite a flock of Middletown errors.

For Newark the line-up was Edmanson, ss; Cole, c; V. Mayer, lf; Crewe, 1b; McDowell, cf; Barrow, 3b; F. Mayer, rf; Wilson, 2b; and Whiteman, p. Whiteman was nicked for two doubles and eight singles as he worked the entire game.

The Newark Country Club golf season officially opens Saturday with the qualifying round in the Classes of Eight tourney. The greens are all in excellent condition for opening day and the fairways have been cut and rolled.

Dr. W. Owen Sypherd was toastmaster at the annual club get-together dinner Saturday night at Old College.

Social

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brunner and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John Whittemore of Baltimore were among the wek end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cullen.

Miss Charlotte Hossinger, Mrs. Henry Clay Reed and Miss Anne Bjornsen visited friends in Philadelphia last week end.

Mrs. Walter Hullihen has been the guest of her daughter, Miss Louise Hullihen at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Mrs. C. O. Houghton entertained Mrs. Charles L. Penny, Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. Alfred Eastman, Mrs. Wm. E. Holton, Mrs. Charles McCue, Mrs. Charles Owens, Mrs. Raymond Heim, Miss Elsie Wright, Mrs. J. P. Cann, and Mrs. Joseph Hossinger with supper and bridge at her home on Saturday.

Dean and Mrs. George Dutton will entertain the Saturday Evening Bridge Club at dinner at the Blue Hen Tea Room.

Miscellany

The All-talking picture "Interference" with Clive Brook, Elinor Brent, and Wm. Powell, along with a two reel talking act featuring Eddie Cantor was scheduled for the State Theater's opening performance.

A bankrupt sale was being held at Buckingham's General Store; the B&O Railroad was advertising a round trip excursion from Newark to Cleveland, Ohio, for $10; and a classified ad read "Found, large bay horse. Owner can have same by paying keep."

Bd. Of Directors Plans For Annual League Assembly

League of Women Voters To Select Local Project, Elect Officers, May 26

The Board of Directors of the Newark League of Women Voters will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Samuel Handloff, 333 S. College Avenue, to plan the annual meeting set for May 26.

Principal speaker at the May 26 meeting will be Dr. Herbert Dorn, of the University of Delaware, widely-recognized authority on world economic affairs, who will discuss various aspects of foreign trade. With the National League of Women Voters stand on "Trade, Not Aid" as a springboard, Dr. Dorn will present a digest of the pros and cons on this highly controversial subject. All interested League members and interested members of the general public are urged to attend and present their questions.

League members will be asked to choose a local project at the annual meeting for concentrated study and action during the coming year. Officers will be elected and the nominating committee, headed by Mrs. A. G. Jackson, has announced the following slate of candidates for terms of two years:

For second vice-president: Mrs. John A. Munroe; For treasurer: Mrs. John W. McClendon; For directors: Mrs. Robert F. Jackson, Mrs. Howard Greene, and Mrs. E. Wakefield Smith; For nominating committee: Mrs. Robert Webber, Mrs. Gorham Lane, and Mrs. T. L. Skripps.

Nominations may also be made from the floor.

Due to the recent resignations of Miss Ella Mae and Mrs. H. W. Maclary as president and director respectively, as required by the national league's non-partisan policy, the nominating committee has also presented the following names to be voted on for the remaining year of these terms of office:

For president: Mrs. Samuel Handloff; and for director, Mrs. Jerry Nelson. Nominations for these offices will also be accepted from the floor.

Spring Clean Up Program Planned To Promote Safety

Alarmed by the spread of springtime accidents in rural areas, county farm safety committees in Delaware have announced May 3 to 17 as "Spring Clean-Up Time" in the Diamond State.

The committees report that springtime is the most dangerous time of the year in rural Delaware. According to a recent survey, most of the accidents are falls around the house and barn.

The danger lies in boxes and trash on steps and stairways--plus objects left lying around where people stumble over them. Falls in the home injured more people than any other single cause of accidents.

The accident survey was made by 150 reporters in 55 communities. Final results of the study were compiled by Miss Louise Whitcomb, Extension home management specialist at the University of Delaware.

Miss Whitcomb is now working with safety committee members on a state-wide "Stop Falls" campaign. Each committee member has material to use in cleanup projects. Local 4-H and home demonstration clubs will be encouraged to hold special meetings on spring clean-up during May 3 to 17.

Cleaning up around the farm and home will also prevent fires, Miss Whitcomb adds. This means removal of old newspapers, clothing, rags, mattresses and other material from attics, closets, and basements. The machine shop and the work bench should be cleaned up—including disposal of shavings, oily rags, and old paints and oils.

"All these things increase the danger of falls and fire," she points out.

Summer Peaches Aided By Winter Cover Plantings

U. of D. Agricultural Exp. Station Publishes Results Of Peach Study

Peach trees grow best when treated to a vigorous winter cover crop. That is the conclusion from a 10-year study of southern Delaware peach orchards, made by the University's Agricultural Experiment Station.

The most satisfactory winter cover crop was a mixture of 70 pounds of rye and 30 pounds of vetch. Sowed September 1 and disced under in mid-May, this treatment encouraged good tree growth. It also reduced competition for moisture and nutrients — important during the growing season.

Halehaven was the peach variety used in the research, carried on at the Agricultural Substation in Georgetown. Twelve different treatments on 384 trees with various combinations of winter and summer cover crops all indicated that a tree will grow better with some cover than with constant clean cultivation.

Results also showed that the soil should be well fertilized before sowing a cover crop. In this case, 300 pounds of a 2½-10-10 fertilizer were applied each year to the area sown to rye-vetch.

In general, the treatments that gave the best tree growth the first five years also resulted in the largest trees at the end of the experiment. These trees also produced the most fruit.

Complete details of the peach tree study are available in Experiment Station Circular 28, Better Peach Trees With Cover Crops. Single copies are available from the Mailing Room, Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware.

Social Security Checks For 11,000 In Delaware Expedited By Reporting

The Wilmington office of the Social Security Administration makes hundreds of changes in its records each month, in order to keep old-age and survivors insurance checks in the right amount flowing regularly to Delaware beneficiaries.

"The changes in these records are necessary for a number of reasons," Myron Milbouer, manager of the office located at 813 West Street, said today. "Beneficiaries who move must report their new addresses, so that future checks will reach them at the new locations without delay. Again, when beneficiaries die, a record must be made to terminate their benefits. Also, a change in the family situation may require an adjustment, as when a widow remarries or a mother under 65 no longer has a minor child in her care. Each of these situations must be reported and our records noted to reflect the change," Mr. Milbouer stated.

Changes in the records are also necessary wherever a beneficiary earns more than $75 a month in a job covered by social security, or a self-employed beneficiary has net earnings averaging more than $75 a month. Under the provisions of the Social Security law, benefit payments will be suspended for as long as the beneficiary continues in such employment. When he stops, however, another report must be made so that his benefit checks may be resumed.

The successful operation of this vast social insurance program depends in a large part on the active cooperation of beneficiaries and their proper understanding of their obligations under the program. Without the prompt reporting of these events, it would be almost impossible to make changes currently.

"With more than 11,000 beneficiaries in Delaware receiving checks each month, it is gratifying to note," Mr. Milbouer said, "that, in general, reports are promptly made whenever they are required. This fact emphasizes the spirit of honesty and responsibility that prevails in our State."

Mt. Pleasant Nips Newark 7-5 As Jackets Tie Score In 6th

Dick Beldyk's 6th Inning Double Scores Hiddleston, McDowell With Tieing Runs; Jim Edmanson Strikes Out Seven In First Start As John Hits 2nd Inning Triple

Newark Dick Beldyk's two run double in the last half of the sixth sent Bill Hiddleston and Lum Thorp enthusiastically home with the third and fourth runs to tie up the Mt. Pleasant contest on Tuesday afternoon. But this new lease on life was short-lived and the Green Knights from up Bellefonte way scored three times in the final seventh for a 7-5 victory. Jim Edmanson, making his first mound start for Newark, struck out seven men—an average of one per inning.

"It was a tough one to lose," Coach Charlie Griffith grinned ruefully, "But the boys played good baseball and they were hitting the ball well. Those four hits don't tell the whole story, although Simpson pitched a great game for Mt. Pleasant.

"Several of our line drives and long flies to the outfield could have been real trouble for Mt. Pleasant if their men had not been in perfect position," he added.

Rightfielder John Edmanson's second inning triple, with Third Baseman Beldyk's double in the sixth accounted for Newark's extra base activity with the wood, while Bob Conway in centerfield and Thorp in left, rounded out the total of four hits with individual singles.

Even Up

After Mt. Pleasant scored one run in the top of the first frame, the Yellowjackets evened things up with a run of their own in their first turn at the plate when Conway led off to beat out a bunt; Schaffer sacrificed, advancing Bobby to second; and Schaffer came on to score on Hiddleston's long poke to deep center.

With Jim Edmanson serving them up from the hill, the Yellowjackets set the Knights back scoreless in the second while the Griffmen added another run in their half inning.

Rightfielder John Edmanson smashed a fast pitch for a triple and scored on Second Baseman Jack McDowell's ricocheting rifleshot to the Knights' third baseman. The play at home was late, the run scored, and all hands were safe.

Knights Lead

After a scoreless third inning, the Green Knights crossed the plate twice in the fourth for a one run lead and when they added the fourth run in the top of the sixth the show appeared to be about over.

But in the last of the sixth, Hiddleston drew a base on balls, stole second, and Thorp singled. In the play for Hiddleston at third, Thorp advanced to second base. And then Beldyk, waiting in the wings for his turn on the stage, drove a double deep into the Mt. Pleasant outfield zone, scoring both baserunners to tie the score at 4-4.

Three Mt. Pleasant runs in the seventh defeated the Yellowjackets, although Newark tallied their fifth and final run in that last inning when pinch-hitter Slack drew a pass, stole second base, and came roaring home on a wild pitch.

Stopped in all four contests—by Claymont, Elkton, Wilmington High, and now Mt. Pleasant—Newark is scheduled to meet the Conrad Redskins in a home stand this afternoon, to be followed by an at-home game with P. S. duPont next Tuesday.

Last Friday's return go with Claymont, at Newark, was cancelled because of the local senior class trip to Washington.

Dusting 'Em Off

E. A. RAUGHLEY

The "One Hit Club" got new members this year when Robin Roberts and Virgil (Fire) Trucks each threw a one hitter. And on Sunday a guy by the name of Johnson threw a two-hitter at the A's which for a long time looked like a one hit job. A pitcher has to have a lot of luck as well as a lot on the ball to get this close to a no hit game. They were hitting Johnson hard but all of the line drives were going right to one of the fielders.

Back Home

This week will see the invading teams return to their own part of the country and start playing among themselves, while waiting for the return visits of their late hosts. Right now the Chicago White Sox are about the hottest ball club in any league. They had real good pitching while East and for 38 innings they did not allow an enemy player to dent home plate. The A's broke that spell in the second game of Sunday's double header.

But don't forget that for the past two or three years—since Richards became manager—this team is hot in the Spring and then a little later on in the schedule they run out of gas and some other team plays in the World Series. So don't get excited over the present front running of the Sox.

Over in the senior wheel Brooklyn has not been running over the opposition as scheduled. And the Milwaukee Braves seem to be running in reverse. Wonder how long those crowds will come out to see them if they go on losing as they have recently. When the Phils swept the three game series, the Braves lost six out of the last seven. Maybe they could use those three pitchers they traded away.

The Cards keep winning those close ones and maybe Stanky has put together a club that could give the front runners a lot of trouble.

Phils Go West

The Phils took off for the West after taking those three shutouts by the Giants. Some rumors had it that first thing Hamey would do would be to fire O'Neill and bring in some Yankee.

In Cubland the Phils ran into the elements and sat around the hotel for a couple of days just looking at the rain. Then they moved over to Milwaukee and did an about face. With their Big Three—Roberts, Simmons and Dickson—who did a grand job of pitching, they got around to a winning streak. Moving on to Cincy they took a game last Sunday but it was held up by rain and they had to use three pitchers before getting the win.

Any More Starters

So Manager O'Neill still has his problem of finding two starting pitchers among the rest of his staff. Maybe Jim Konstanty could be the man, or it could be Miller. But one thing is for certain, and that is the team won't get into the Series on three pitchers. The hitting has improved but it still has to be more consistent to get those ducks home. If the club as a whole played like Hamner, the flag would be waving at Connie Mack Stadium right now.

I see that Morgan has finally moved in to take over the spot at short but they still need a rightfielder who hits a little more consistently than Clarke. And Wyrostek who sometimes plays right is just a little bit over the hill which doesn't help the situation.

And the manager has to decide by May 15 just who is to be kept and who is to be sent out for a little more seasoning. The deadline for making trades is getting closer all of the time, so if any deals are to be made they must be cooked up pretty soon.

The A's Come Through

With those amazing A's of Eddie Joost, the Detroit series of two games was washed out in that spell of wet weather and then Jimmy Dykes brought his Orioles to town for a go at his old team. Well, the first thing he saw was a new rookie sensation by the name of Trice who beat him easily. Then on last Saturday afternoon a real duel took place with Kellner getting the win. And once more Dykes saw a rookie in action when Finigan drove in the winning run.

Then the Go-Go Sox came to town. A split of a double header left them just where they started but a couple of fine games were given the fans. In the first game it was all Sox with Pitcher Johnson throwing buckshot as the A's got two hits and a whitewashing.

But in the second game they win in the ninth on Elmer Valo's first hit of the season.

One thing about this club put together by the Macks is that they are liable to break out anywhere in the lineup and break up the ball game. Renna, at present, is leading in runs driven in with big Gus not far behind. But the break is the way the rookies are coming through and playing like vets. And the fans have been coming out to see the team play which is a big help—both to the cash box and to team morale.

New Track Marks Feature Delaware Spring Sport Bill

Reybold Mile, Butcher's Shot; Frosh Davidson's Broad Jump-880 New Tops

Record - smashing performances by Delaware trackmen are highlighting the spring sports season at the University's Frazer Field.

Already four records have been eclipsed, two by varsity and two by freshman performers. Most brilliant of these achievements was a 4:18.6 mile run by Captain Bill Reybold, which shattered a mark of 4:28 posted by Verne Booth in 1921. In addition to breaking the Delaware record, Reybold's time was also the best ever recorded on the Johns Hopkins University athletic field where the meet was held.

Weight man Steve Butcher is the second varsity athlete to contribute a new mark this season and turned the trick with a shot put toss of 45 feet, seven inches in the opening meet of the year against Swarthmore. Butcher also broke his own record at the Baltimore Relays on April 24 with a throw of 45 feet. Earlier this season, he broke the indoor mark in a Carpenter Field House practice meet with a toss of 46 feet, 1 3/4 inches.

Frank Davidson, a sensational freshman prospect from Wilmington, holds two new marks for yearling competition. His first was established on April 17 against Bainbridge Naval Prep when he leaped 20 feet, 2½ inches, bettering by two inches a record set by Bill McWilliams in 1950. He posted a new 880 standard of 2:03.1 on April 27 as the Delaware frosh defeated Johns Hopkins' freshmen. The previous mark, 2:04.8, was set by Tom McKenna in 1949.

Rapsis, M'Dermott Win Classes Of 8 Tourney 2d Round

Stan Rapsis defeated Sank Richards 2 and 1, while Paul McDermott stopped Doyle McSpadden 3 and 2 in second round, first flight play for the Classes of Eight Tournament at the Newark Country Club last week end.

In the second flight, Wallace Williams defeated Jim Tyler 1-up in 20 holes; and Ray Ott stopped Chauncey Dean, 2 and 1.

Tom Skripps eliminated Merle Lieblick 1-up in the third flight; and George Batchelor defeated Harry Williamson 1-up, while fourth flighters Ben Frye turned back Tom Lovett 1-up and Harry McDonald defeated Jack Sheldon 1-up.

George Mitchell beat Charles Biggiot 5 and 4; Jack Hare stopped Hugh Gallagher, 5 and 3; Ernie Jones defeated Paul Hadad 1-up and Irv Wegert nipped Lawson Gilbert 2 and 1.

Newark's Suburban League team walloped Hercules 43½ to 10½.

Cold weather halted Ladies Day activities on Tuesday.

Charlie Hanson Sweeps 150-Lap Sunday Feature

Charles Hansen, 32-year-old leadfooter of Whiteford, Md. made a clean sweep in the 150-lap late model stock car race at Mason-Dixon Speedway, five miles south of Oxford, Pa., on Route 1, Sunday afternoon when he won the time trial and the feature in a 26-car field.

Hanson, who has been driving for some 16 years, grabbed the lead in the feature on the first lap and held it to the finish of the 116 laps when officials called the race due to hazardous conditions on the track—the result of a stalled vehicle on the fourth turn.

Delaware Defeated By Ursinus, 2-1 In Saturday Test

Hens Stopped After Winning 4-Straight; Dispose Of PMC, 5-2

After taking four games in order, Delaware's diamond edition of the Fightin' Blue Hens was stopped Saturday in a 2-1, 7-hit performance against the visiting Bruins of Ursinus on Frazer Field.

The afternoon resulted in a straight-eighth win for Ursinus and left Delaware with an even break in 14 outings.

The Hens scored in the fourth when catcher Bob Trivits tripled and came home on Dallas Green's single shot, and Coach Bob Siemen's squad remained on top until the top of the seventh.

In the seventh, Ursinus tied the game when Don Allebach walked, advanced to third on an error and scored on catcher Arlin Lapp's drive through the infield.

When the Hens failed to score after the lucky stretch, the Bruins checked in with the winning run when young Art Ehlers, son of the Baltimore Orioles' general manager, singled to drive in Bill Burger.

Delaware rallied in the last of the ninth when first baseman Andy Wagner waited out pitcher Ehlers for a free walk; co-captain Frank Serpico sacrificed; and shortstop Lou Romagnoli singled.

But with one away, Ehlers curved one into pinchhitter Gary Buckwalter for a fatal double play.

The Hens outhit the Bruins, 7-5 as Green limited the visitors to their five safeties in 8-1/3 innings. Green struck out five, Jim Kimmel, one; and Ehlers fanned ten.

At Chester last week, Delaware defeated PMC by a score of 5-2 as Ed Morrow tossed a 7-hitter at the Cadets.

PMC scored two runs in the first inning to ride a 2-run lead until the fourth when Delaware tied the score. The Hens added the winning run in the fifth and then checked in with two for insurance—one in the eighth and another in the ninth.

After yesterday's trip to Swarthmore, Delaware played Franklin & Marshall in a home stand this afternoon; travels to Haverford on Saturday; and the Hens face Monday and Wednesday tests with Washington College away, and Rutgers, at home.

Kimmel Tops Hen Hitters, Hurlers With 2-0 & .400

Redfield, Wagner Tied With 10 Hits For .270; Annonio's 7 RBI's Top

Statistics for the first 11 Delaware games reveal that Buddy Kimmel leads the team in both pitching and batting. He has a 2-0 record and leads in innings pitched, 33 2/3, and earned run average, 2.40. In 15 trips to the plate, he has collected six hits for an even .400 average, has scored four runs, and batted in another.

Among the regulars, outfielder Tom Redfield and first baseman Andy Wagner lead in hits with ten each. Both are hitting .270.

Co-captain Bill Annonio leads the team in RBI's with 7, and center fielder Jimmy Zaiser is tops in the stolen base department with six.

Defensively, Wagner is turning in a remarkable job at first, having handled 104 chances with only one error. Shortstop Lou Romagnoli has made only four miscues in 49 plays for a similarly creditable showing.

Delaware's outstanding efforts of the season include a 1-0 decision over Michigan's National Intercollegiate Champions and a 3-0 victory over previously unbeaten Drexel.

Middleweight Bout To Feature Boxers With Kayo Punches

Chico Varona To Meet "KO" Lausse; Each Has 32 Knockout Records

Chico Varona, Cuban welterweight champion, moves up to meet middleweight Eduardo Lausse of Argentina in a scheduled 10-round bout in tomorrow night's Cavalcade of Sports feature at St. Nick's Arena. Starting at 10 p.m. the NBC television and ABC radio microphones will be set up to provide nationwide coverage.

Varona started his pro boxing career in 1945 and has scored 32 of his 51 victories via the kayo route. During the past year, seven of his 11 victims failed to go the distance including Sixto Gonzales, who passed the welter title on to Chico in the third round of their championship go. Varona intends to use this match to improve his rating as the eighth ranking contender for world honors.

"KO" Lausse of Buenos Aires joined the professional ranks in 1948. A recent decision over Jesse Turner gives Lausse an over-all total of 46 wins in which 32 of his opponents took the full count. "KO" is determined to keep his string of 14 straight victories intact and feels a victory over Varona will place him among the contenders for the middleweight crown.

Jimmy Powers, Don Dunphy and Win Elliot will describe the actions of two boys who pack enough dynamite in both fists to end the bout with one blow.

H. R. (Tubby) Raymond Named Backfield Coach At Delaware

Former Michigan Quarterback, Central League Pro To Resign Maine U. Coaching Duties For New Assignment; New Coach To Move Here During Summer

The appointment of Harold R. Raymond as the new field coach at the University of Delaware was announced Friday by head football coach and athletic director M. Nelson. Raymond will succeed Gene Stauber who resigned recently to accept a similar coaching position at Idaho.

Raymond is the third member of Delaware's coaching staff to have graduated from Michigan. He is a native of Flint, Mich., and attended Northern High School, where he captained the football team and also played baseball. He later served in the air corps and was discharged before enrolling at the University of Michigan, from which he graduated in 1950. While there, he played varsity quarterback for the football team and captained the basketball team.

Backfield Boss

Harold R. Raymond

Following his graduation, Raymond became head football coach at University High School in Ann Arbor, Mich., and played baseball with sons of professional baseball player Minakegon in the Detroit area. During the past three years he served as line coach, head football coach, and chief scout for the Maine, where Nelson formerly coached. Raymond is 29, married and the father of a boy and a girl.

In announcing his appointment, Nelson emphasized that Raymond "is more than a good football coach. He is a student of the game, an experienced scout, and a man well qualified for instruction in coaching in several sports."

During Raymond's association with Maine Black Bear football teams have twice won or shared the Yankee Conference championship, twice took the state championship, and Head Coach Harold Westerbeck describes his departure as a "great loss to the University of Maine." Raymond was also highly recommended by his Michigan teammates Fritz Crisler and Benny Oosterbaan.

The newly appointed coach is a stranger to members of the Delaware athletic staff, having been a teammate of End Coach Milt Bruminiewski at Michigan, a close friend of Line Coach Mike Lucci, Nelson, and a baseball associate of Coach Bob Siemen. He is expected to set up residence in Newark during the summer and will be on hand when football practice starts Sept. 1.

A coffee hour will be held in Smyth Hall the evening of May 14 immediately following the University Drama group production of "Angel Street" to be attended by members of the University of Delaware Alumnae Association as part of their reunion program for May 14 and 15.

Earlier that day, members of the Association will be conducted on a tour of 20 outstanding rooms of Winterthur Museum and the Azalea Gardens owned by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis duPont. The groups also plan to have dinner in the College Inn.

Arrangements have been made for alumnae to stay overnight in the women's dormitories on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 13, 14 and 15 which will facilitate their taking part in all the reunion events scheduled. Besides having undergraduate classes open to alumnae and alumni on Saturday morning, May 15, there will also be tours of the campus conducted by students.

Alumnae attending the executive council meeting at 10:00 a.m. May 15 will discuss past activities of the association and make future plans. At this time the alumnae elected as president, corresponding secretary, and member-at-large on the joint executive committee will be announced as well as the recipients of the 11 alumnae association scholarships offered for one year.

Chairmen of reunion classes will also present their class reunion gifts to the university at this time.

Senior of the Week

Rae Porter, a senior, was born in Newark, Delaware on July 26, 1936. She is 5 feet, 4 inches tall and tops the scales at 120. In the future Rae hopes to become a typist and rear a family, but her real ambition is to own an English car. Her spare time is spent working at Shep's and "messing around". Play Festival

Delaware's 12th Play Festival, sponsored by the University of Delaware, was held April 1 and 2, at Mitchell Hall. Thirty-six Newark students attended portions of the program.

The purpose of the festival is to interest and educate students in acting. This year 14 high schools and six community theaters participated in the plays.

The plays did not exceed 40 minutes and were presented with simple drapes, screens, set pieces, levels, lights and stage properties.

The Kent County Theater Guild with their play "The Maker of Dreams" was the winner in competition with the community theaters. This theater guild will have its name entered upon the Community Theater Plaque and shall gain possession of this plaque for one year.

HISTORICAL REVIEWS OF THE NEWARK AREA

by

Ethel M. Hill

To find a house with a 1683 date stone in the gable peak was a thrill and I wondered whether this being the year after William Penn settled his Quakers in lower Pennsylvania and upper Delaware, it could have been built by one of them or by the Swedes or the Dutch who have been here since the early 1620's.

The stone house has been added to a log cabin but, strange to say, I cannot find anything about it. No one seems to know anything of its history. When I was a child it was called the Negerdank place. It is on the Pike Creek road just where a side road turns east to Limestone road.

I spoke of the Pike Creek road as belonging to the past. As one turns left at Cochran's Store and gas station just a short distance on the left side of the road, is seen a beautiful old house which at one time is believed to have been built and owned by Carl Christopher Springer who was a moving spirit in the building of Old Swedes Church. Springer's memory has been commemorated by the placing of a tablet over his grave which is in the Old Swedes Church in Wilmington.

Grist Mill

Just back of this house until recently was the foundation of an old grist-mill. Up that same road, on the farm of Isaac Steele, may be seen the foundations of an old grist mill and what was nearly as important in early times—an old cider mill. In those days every farm had a good apple orchard, and the making of cider, provided the vinegar which was so necessary in pickle-making and preserving as not anything of that nature could be bought then at the grocer's.

Every farm house had a large cellar. To go down cellar was to see barrels of cider-vinegar, salt pork, salt beef, firkins of lard, jars of honey—or rather stone crocks—as then there were no glass jars.

In Wilmington there was a clay works that made stone jars, crocks and apple butter jars, with the maker's name "Hare" on every piece, sometimes in blue.

Dried Apples

On the woodshed roof could be seen great trays of apples, pared and sliced—laid out in the sun, covered with a piece of cheese cloth, to dry. And from them in the winter could be made delicious apple sauce, apple pies and—do you remember —"apple flarendines?"

And do you remember the huge copper kettle which held as much as a barrel, which would be set up in the orchard over a stone fire place, constructed to hold it and the apple butter stirrer with a handle eight feet long, and which the small boy or girl had to keep busy stirring so that the apple butter would not stick and scorch.

And the neighbors came early in the morning—each bringing their own paring knife—and sat in the shade of the apple trees, paring apples to be dumped into that huge copper kettle and every so often a bucket of cider was added. And then every piece of neighborhood news received due attention.

Apple butter making, husking parties, barn dances—before the day of the automobile—furnished the reasons for neighborhood associations, not to mention thrashing day, when neighbors gathered to help with the dinner.

Farther on up Pike Creek—when I was a child in driving to Wilmington—we passed the foundations of what had been Taylor's Woolen Mills, then the center of a thriving community.

Some few old buildings remain but all trace has been lost of their owners.

Mrs. Maxwell Dies Suddenly At Home; Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the R. T. Jones Funeral Home with interment at Head of Christiana Cemetery. Friends are invited to visit the funeral home tonight after 7:30.

Mrs. Maxwell, 70, the former Lillian Morris of West Liberty, Md., and widow of James Hamilton Maxwell, is survived by two sons—Paul M., of Newark and Joseph R., of Philadelphia; three grandchildren and one brother, Huey Morris of Newark.

She was a member of the Newark Methodist Church and a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Hospital Survey

"Only on the basis of such factual information," Dr. Nutter continued, "can a practical, business-like decision on this subject be made.

"The report to be submitted to us will be made available to the Delaware State Board of Health," it was said. "Thus eliminating the expenditure of public funds for a similar up-to-date survey."

It was stated that the survey will begin the latter part of May and is to be completed within about two months.

The firm engaged for this project will analyze Newark's population trends; determine the scope and adequacy of hospital services and facilities already available, analyze and evaluate the present and anticipated demands on existing hospitals serving the area; assess Newark's requirements in relation to the facts developed; and then determine and recommend how those requirements can best be met.

It was emphasized by the spokesman for Newark's physicians that no funds are being solicited by the Newark Medical Society and none will be accepted.

The Medical Society has previously stated, and today re-affirmed, that it does not now take any position on the proposal that there be a hospital in the Newark area and will not do so until it receives, studies and evaluates the report to be prepared and submitted by Cresap, McCormick and Paget.

Snow White Cast Touring State Children's Theaters

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," the seventh annual childrens' theatre production by the University of Delaware's E-52 Players, will tour the state this week and also visit Easton, Md.

The show has already had two performances in Mitchell Hall on the university campus and two in the Playhouse, Wilmington, under the auspices of the Alumnae Association. On May 15, it will be presented in the Roosevelt High School Theatre, Washington, D.C.

Every year it is the custom of the E-52 Players to ask the children in their audiences to request what plays they would like to see, and in the past six years, "Snow White" has received more requests than any other play.

THE HARD WAY

"Without capital, there would still be some production, but it would be what we could get with our bare hands. And our consumption would be limited to the meager fruits of bare-handed toil."—Harley L. Lutz, Princeton University.
