Awards Presented Troop 429 Girls With Investiture

Girl Scout Troop 429 of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, conducted a court of awards and investiture on April 13 in the church parish hall. At the highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Curved Bar—highest rank in intermediate scouting—to Crystal Hayden and Marilyn Balmer. Both girls have been in Scouting over five years.

Mrs. Jane Groo, leader, assisted by Mrs. Marguerite Nowell, Mrs. Leah Malinowski, and Deanne Cruling conducted the ceremony.

Invested as Tenderfoot Scouts were Angela and Barbara Brooks, Belinda Ruth, and Vicki Stod. Second Class badges were awarded to Pamela Walpole, Marsha Whitman, and Bonnie Brightaupt. First Class badges were presented to Karen Swanne, Marilyn Balmer, Debbie Root, Barbara Scarborough, Anne Wisniewski, Crystal Hayden, and Mrs. Gail Moore. Also, Sandy Lawter, Betty Lambert, Heather Partridge, Terry Hickey, Diana Frazier, Melinda Hackett, Dottie Worrell, Cathy Anderson, and Joan Beldic.

Mrs. C. J. Bannowsky Wins Duplicate Bridge Tourney

Mrs. C. J. Bannowsky of East-burn Acres won the Third Annual Individual Bridge Tournament held by the Newark Women's Duplicate Bridge Club, with a total score of 375.

Mrs. I. P. Kelsey was runner-up with 352, and third place went to Mrs. Richard Cramer with 300.

Defending champion Mrs. Walter Connell finished fourth with 346. Other high finishers among the 52 players were: Mrs. Richard Moore, 341; Mrs. Howard Weber, 340; Mrs. Paul Cundiff, 339; Mrs. William Daley, 337; Mrs. Henry Wojtanowski, 337, and Mrs. Robert Smith, 322. The tournament was played in two sessions at the Newark Country Club, with Mrs. Walter Taylor, chairman.

Officials From Thailand Meet With Perkins, Dolan

Two high-ranking government officials from Thailand—General Sarnat Vajjavananda and Supul Wongwatana—visited the University of Delaware last Thursday.

General Sarnat, governor of the province of Prachuab and Supul, governor of Sakol Nakorn, are participants in the foreign leader program of the U.S. State Department.

At the University of Delaware, they met with President John A. Perkins and Dr. Paul Dolan, professor of political science.

Their host at the university was Dr. Leroy A. Bennett, chairman of the department of political science.

Speaking of Money...

"An Open Money Secret: ACTION!"

Hello. This is John Buchanan on Speaking of Money. We probe the various ways to make more money. The idea is not to turn us into a bunch of money-grubbing characters, but to spread the idea that money is all-important. But we use of funds - is often directly related to the functioning of life - like a smooth-running household in which there is confidence, assurance, peace of mind - freedom from the kind of family strains which can come from economic pressures.

The secret is summed up in one word - action. To some it will be disappointing, to others it will be encouraging. But I am convinced that the single most important ingredient in personal and family economic well-being - is action.

Sounds simple. But apparently it is not. How many friends do you have who have been talking for two years about looking around for a better job? How many friends do you have who have been talking for a year about buying a small piece of investment property? How many who have discussed going to a school for special training? How many who have discussed with you a series of four or five inventions they have dreamed up... and are planning to exploit... someday? How many who are going to entirely revise their budget?

On the other hand... I'll bet you know a few quiet people who seldom talk about their plans... but quietly take action. Daily. I know a fellow named Ted Hoffman, in charge of the mailroom at a company. He was considered rather plodding by the others in the office. Never went to lunch with the gang. Always brought his lunch, ate it quickly and rushed out on some errand. He was a shy fellow... and people guessed that he went to the park and watched the people.

He recently came out that he spent his lunch hours traveling around the city looking at very small properties which he found advertised in the paper. He had such tiny savings that he had to look at 53 places before he found one for which his small savings would constitute an acceptable down payment.

He finally bought a small abandoned railroad depot near his job. On free time, he painted it, put on shutters and new lighting fixtures, rented it out to a TV repair shop.

He put on flower boxes with petunias. It became so attractive that a beauty shop operator bought it. Ted then resumed his long search of the city for small properties. With his money from the petunia-fied railroad station he made a down payment on an abandoned post office. Again he put shutters on it, and when he finished he rented it to a dance studio and an athletic group day after day. To shorten the story, Ted Hoffman knew nothing of real estate, but he took action. In the purely economic sense, the fellow who only thinks... never. The language only talks... have, never, never, never, only philosophizes... The prize in economic success is never unphilosophical... never take any...

Capt. John Collins Hits Two Doubles 3-For-3 Effort; NHS Wins 4-2 Opener

Star pitcher Collins had a perfect afternoon at the plate with a pair of doubles in a three-for-three performance, and second baseman Mike McGlinchey hit a double in hitting two-for-three.

In the home half of the first, Catcher Pete Heuberger reached first base on an error with two men away, and then Collins potted a long double to right field, scoring Newark's first run.

Collins started on Co-Capt. Gene Garrett's single and third baseman Garrett came home with Newark's third run as first baseman Walt Jones came through with a timely hit.

Pitcher Bob Buchanan held the P.A.s scoreless for five innings. A non-scoring game with two runs in the top of the sixth.

Newark scored a final fourth run in the fifth inning when rightfielder Alan Whitman walked, and then answered home on Collins' second double of the afternoon.

Buchanan gave eight hits in hurling Newark's first Blue Hen Conference victory of the season.

"And those are a lot of hits off him," Coach Everett said. "When he's right, Buchanan is hard to hit."

A non-scoring game with Clayton this Friday has been cancelled and the Yellowjackets play at Brandwine next Tuesday in the second BHC test of the new campaign.

Capt. Larry Pratt Break Shot Mark For Flynn's Hens

Captain Larry Pratt set a Delaware record by heaving the 16-lb shot a distance of 40-ft. 7 1/2-in. as Coach Jimmy Flynn's Hens defeated Swarthmore 96-33 in the outdoor season opener, away, last Saturday.

Delaware engages the Johns Hopkins varsity and frosh this Saturday on Frazer Field at 2 p.m.

Saturday's victory was the 24th consecutive dual meet triumph for the Fightin' Blue Hen track and field squad.

Mike Brown, fleet-footed Delaware halfback, broke a Swarthmore record by winning the 220 last Saturday in 21.7.

Pratt, who broke his own record shotput established in a dual meet with Washington College two years ago, also won the discus for Flynn's fieldmen.

Dave Nelson Pleased With Frosh Gridders In Spring Drills For Fightin' Blue Hens

After the first week of spring football drills, it's evident that some Delaware freshmen will be strong candidates for regular spots on the 1963 edition of the Fightin' Blue Hens.

Judgments are made solely on ability to grasp Winged-T fundamentals being reviewed by Coach Dave Nelson and his staff, but there's no denying that Blue Hen coaches are happy with results.

Six new men among the backs are in excellent form.

First, there's Quarterback Tom VanGrofski, 185-lb. Bloomfield, N.J. native. VanGrofski has impressed with his fine speed and moves, and is a running threat as well as an accurate, long passer.

Halfbacks Paul Mueller and Dick Emerson have shown up well.

Mueller, 187-lb. athlete from University Park, Pa., missed much of the 1962 freshman season with a knee injury, but has shown more than adequate mobility in spring drills.

Emerson, 175, is a transfer student from Southern Illinois and a Wilmington resident. Speed is his forte.

The other two bright backfield newcomers are fullbacks Mike McCann, 197, Amityville, L.I., and Tom Lapsinski, 185, Phoenixville, Pa. standouts on last year's freshman team. McCann has used his size and strength to advantage, and Lapsinski has become known for his toughness.

A definite candidate for the first-level spot vacated by graduated letterman, Ron McCoy, and Tom Michaels, is 190-lb. Mike Fay, former Archmere Academy star and a transfer from Notre Dame. Fay is a good, resourceful ball carrier.

Up front, Line Coach Ed Maley faces a number of pleasant problems. There's plenty of beef available, and the combination of aggressive newcomers and proven veterans will make interesting position-jockeying.

Center Art Christenson, 200-pounder from West Englewood, N.J., got off to a good start last week, and seems improved over his freshman performance. And 213-lb. Denny Toddings of Bricktown, N.J., is making an excellent showing as center and linebacker.

Among the new tackles are Jim Freebrey, 230, former Salesianum stalwart; 204-lb. Joe Podgoraki, Dayton, N.J.; and Dave Stewart at 218, Moorestown, N.J.

Best among the frosh guards have been Tom Hirst, 198, from Olean, N. Y.; Ed Anderson, 199, Clark, N. J.; and Bill Neuter, 200, All-Stater from Wilmington. All were starters on Coach Jimmy Flynn's 1962 freshman squad.

At end, 190-lb. Bill Drauding of Travoise, Pa., is challenging Hen letterwinners Ron Bianco, West Frith, Jack Messina and Tom Harrison.

Roy Rylander's Netmen Face PMC In Home Stand

Coach Roy Rylander's Delaware tennis team faces PMC at home this Saturday at 2 p.m. on the Frazer Field courts.

The Hen netmen defeated St. Joe's 6-3 in the season opener, and walloped Drexel 8-1 here at home last Saturday.

Sundra's 2-Hitter Gives Hens Split In Bison Openers

Coach Harold Raymond's Fightin' Blue Hens split with Bucknell in a double-header last Saturday at Frazer Field to open the Middle Atlantic Conference season. The Hens lost 1-10 in 10-innings with the first game, but belted the Bisons 5-0 in the nightcap.

Delaware plays away at LaSalle this Saturday at 2 p.m., and the Hens meet St. Joseph's at home on Frazer Field next Monday at 4 p.m.

Sophomore Star Terry Arnold loomed Bucknell to five hits in a tough 10-innings' toil, as on eight occasions, Hen hitters were unable to deliver with men in scoring position.

Steve Sundra, son of a former Yankee pitching ace, fared a two-hitter for Delaware's win in the second game.

Sundra is slated to start against LaSalle on Saturday.

Potential home runs by Luke Lachman, former Yellowjacket star, and by Arnold in the first game, resulted in a pair of flyouts as Bucknell gardeners reeled deep for some sensational snaring.

Helmer Johnson Cops Class A Title In Billiards Play

Helmer Johnson won the Class A Billiards Tournament conducted by Charles "Bunny" Walter, with a 10-1 record.

John Baranowski copped second place with a 9-2 performance.

Walt Martin and Mike Cairns shared third place with 8-3 records, while Don Lahman finished fourth with 7-1.

Neil Beckett and Paul Smith tied for fifth with 5-6 histories; Andy Clemente had a 4-7 record; Ron George and Don McClear were 3-8; Ray Work was 2-9; and Jim White finished with a 1-10 slate.

Mrs. Ruth Waggaman Tops NCC Ladies Day Golf Play

Mrs. Ruth Waggaman won the 18-hole handicap Ladies Day golf tournament last Tuesday at the Newark Country Club with a net 74.

Mrs. Mary McDowell and Mrs. Dixie Stephens tied for second place with 78.

Mrs. Jean Sweeney is chairman of the woman's golf committee.

Matthews, McDermitt Tie For Medal Honors At NCC

Art Matthews and Paul McDermitt tied 74 to share medal honors in qualifying rounds for the Classes-of-Eight Golf Tournament at the Newark Country Club last Sunday.

Matthews faces Doug McMillin, and McDermitt faces former club champion Dick Bauer in first round matches.

WISNEWSKI'S GOLFERS Coach Whiz Wins Wisniewski's Delaware Golf Team Plays Away At Villanova This Friday

Coach Whiz Wisniewski's Delaware golf team plays away at Villanova this Friday, and engages the Swarthmore and PMC golfers next Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. on the Louviers course.

Joe Brothers Sets BHC Record With Shot As Ciesinski's Trackmen Defeat Redskins

Co-captain for Coach Ray Ciesinski's Yellowjacket track and field squad, Joe Brothers set a Blue Hen Conference outdoor record last Tuesday, tossing the 12-lb. shot 32-ft. 7 1/2-in. at the Newark High School varsity walloped Concord 74-43 at Woodcrest.

Brothers, state high school champion shotputter, also won the discus for the Yellowjackets with a heave of 130-3.

Yellowjacket Co-Capt. Jon Owens, state champion in the 300, won this event for Newark in 2:05.4, followed by teammate Bruce Jones for second place laurels.

Other first place winners for the Yellowjackets were John Shopland with a pole vault of 10-3; Norris Saunders, who stepped the 440 in 54.4; Mike Walker, who sped over the 100 yd. low hurdles in 23.2; and Lee Hackney, who tossed the javelin 165-5.

Conrad's sprinting star Eric Anderson won three events—the 100, 220, and broad jump. Anderson ran the 100 in 10.1.

Other pointmakers for Ciesinski's Yellowjackets were Walker and Mike Ganoos, second and third in the 120-yd. high hurdles; Jim Word and Steve Childers, two-third in the 100; and Chris Ward, second in the pole vault.

Ray Ciesinski's squad faces DeLaWare away at 3:30 this afternoon; travels to New Jersey for the Bridgton Relays this Saturday; and the Yellowjackets entertain the Red Devils of Wilmington High at 3:30 p.m. Monday on the Newark High School field.

Ralph Cimko and Saunders took second and third places in the 230 with Word and Leon Pannell.
