EHINGER ASKS SECURITY FOR CHILDREN TOO

Young And Old Both Require
Social Betterment, Head Of Orphanage Urges

LIONS GREET SPEAKER

Institutions For Dependent Children Reviewed; Big
Advances Made

Outlining the transformation of orphanages from the founding days of child universal child regimentation
to the more pliable character building
institutions of current times, George Ehinger, superintendent of the Elizabeth W. Murphy School for Boys and Girls, Dover, spoke before the weekly
meeting of the Lions Club of Newark
at the Newark Country Club Tuesday
evening.

Mr. Ehinger was accompanied by E. B. Baker, state poultry pathologist and a former professor of bacteriology at the University of Delaware. They were the guests of A.
E. Tomhave, secretary of the Newark
Club Joseph M. McVey, president,
hosted at the dinner meeting.

More than 200,000 children are being cared for in 1,400 institutions
throughout the country, Mr. Ehinger stated in urging social security for the young as well as the old. Children are the future, he pointed out,
and it is up to us to see that their
start is on the right path.

Cites Early Institutions

Institutional care of children had beginning in places that were little better than jails and almshouses.
The condition was permitted to exist
without improvement, he said, until women became indignant, investigated situations and finally formed societies that introduced changes for the better.

Children reared in institutions under the old system were regimented
without understanding and sympathy.
Individuals, when dismissed at early
ages, faced a strange world and suffered numerous handicaps, Mr. Ehinger pointed out.

Modern methods, embracing a cottage system of living that gives par-entless children an idea of family or some life as compared to out-moded
institutions having common eating
and sleeping facilities for large groups only, attempts to determine a child's needs. A study is made of every child and answers to his or her

Auxiliary Makes Plans For Rally At Session Here

Twenty department chairmen, officers and unit president of the American Legion Auxiliary attended the executive meeting held at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Lovett, last Friday afternoon. The business session, at which Mrs. John R. Fader, department head, presided, was preceded by a luncheon with the members of the Newark unit acting as hostesses. This organization attained the highest membership this year.

Preliminary plans for the annual convention of the legion and auxiliary
at Rehoboth on August 20 and 21
were made. Mrs. Grant Garis, of Smyrna, was appointed chairman of the nominating committee, to be assisted by Mrs. K. D. Conrad Lewis, of Newark, Mrs. Calhoun of Georgetown, and Mrs. William N. Cann, of Wilmington.

Committees appointed
Mrs. Fader also appointed Mrs.
Cann, Mrs. George D. Hill, of Dover,
and Mrs. F. Allyn Cooch, of Newark,
to the auditing committee. Mrs.
Coomley, eastern vice-president of the auxiliary, of Vermont, will be the guest speaker at the banquet meeting on the evening of August 20. The pages appointed for the business session of the convention were: Mrs.
Paul Lovett, Misses Mildred Jones,
of Dover and Virginia Dillon, of Wilmington and Mrs. Ewing, of Lewes.

Several juniors of the auxiliary have been selected to stage a fideic pageant
on the second day of the convention.
The final meeting of the department prior to the convention is tentatively planned for sometime in July at the summer home of Mrs. William Cann, Port Herman.

ESSAY WINNER

MISS BEATRICE WELLS

Milton High School student, Miss
Wells has been awarded the title of Delaware champion in the 14th annual meat essay contest sponsored by the National Live Stock and Meat Board.
The title of the winning essay was,
"The Value of Meat in the Diet." Thousands of high school home economics students from all parts of the country participated in the contest.

SERVICE CLUB EXTENDS HELP

Movie Benefit To Be Staged By Lions; Aid To Free Child Swimming

Through the cooperation of Louis
Handloff, owner of the State Theatre,
and Herman Handloff, manager, the Lions Club of Newark will lend added
support to the Newark Swimming Pool Fund by staging a motion picture show benefit within the next three weeks. The idea was worked out by the theatre owner and George Danby last week, when the two men were representing the local club as delegates to the Capitol District convention of Lions International at Salisbury.

Dr. J. S. Gould, chairman of the fund and president of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association, which is sponsoring the swimming pool idea,
gave vent to enthusiastic approval for
the plan last night.

Needs For $400
Bare expenses to operate the pool,
which has been loaned by the University of Delaware, amount to $400. As a means of meeting this sum, Dr.
Gould's special finance committee,
working through organizations only,
has deposited $125.

The Parent-Teacher group contributed $50, while the Lions, Newark
New Century Club and the Newark
Chamber of Commerce donated $25 apiece. Dr. Gould will make a bid for a donation from the Council of Newark at the July meeting Tuesday
evening.

With Boy and Girl Scouts cooperating with other organized workers, it is hoped that the movie benefit will clear expenses for this year and leave
a balance for a similar plan in 1938.

Morning Hours Free
While nothing official has been announced, it is thought that the pool
will be opened without charge to all children in and around Newark during the morning hours. The plan will probably be followed daily, with Sundays excepted. Age restrictions are likely to be established, limiting free
swimming to children between eight and fourteen years old.

Buyers Showing Interest In Percheron Bred Horses

In a period of three months, 692
buyers have sent requests to the Percheron Horse Association at Chicago, asking where they can buy purebred Percherons. Among those who have supplied horses for these buyers is Captain H. Wallace Cook, of Newark, who has lately transferred the stallion Avondale Knight to
S. Hallock duPont at his Milford
Crossroads estate.

Avondale Knight is a grey yearling of distinguished breeding. He is sired by Hesitation Jim 203348 and is out of the mare Middlemarch Vanyit 207172. Prominent in the colt's pedigree is the name of Laet, many times a grand champion and sire of more purple ribbon winners at the Chicago International show than any other sire of the breed. Another noted ancestor of Avondale Knight is imported Carnet, a $40,000 grand champion stallion.

FADER OPINES GOOD RETURNS BY RACE MEET

Speaker Firmly Thinks That
State Will Net Quarter
Million From Horses

DU PONT ESTIMATE LOW

"I firmly think the first racing season will net the State a quarter of a million dollars," said Speaker John R. Fader of the House of Representatives upon leaving Delaware Park
last Saturday.

He added that the anticipated return of only $100,000 annually from horse racing, and Governor McMul-
len's economy plan of a reduced building schedule by the State were primary factors that enabled the General Assembly at the session this year to balance the budget for the next two years.

"Horse racing, the way it is controlled in Delaware, cannot be other than helpful to the taxpayers," Mr.
Fader stated. "Several additional taxes and a probable increase in the real estate levy would have been necessary to balance the budget without the race track revenue."

Return May Increase

Based on the total $13,383,983 bet
in Maryland at three tracks this spring, an average of $352,210 daily
for 38 racing days, Delaware's 25
days of racing should see approximately $8,805,250 pass through the mutuels at the Stanton course.

The State's return of three per cent
would amount to $264,157.50, based on the Maryland average for this year. Something close to an additional $50,000 returned by the tax of twenty cents on all admissions will also accrue at Delaware Park for the State till, it is estimated.

Since opening day last Saturday,
racing has been handicapped by bad
weather and a shortage of horses at Stanton. Additional starters with larger fields can be expected before the end of the week, however, while a turn in the weather is expected to boost attendance.

du Pont Estimate Lower

While many regard Mr. Fader's estimate of the State's return from racing as far too conservative, William duPont, Jr., regarded as the principal financial backer of the Delaware Park venture, stated in a recent interview "it is anticipated that the State might receive an average of $9,000 a day for each day's racing
from all sources, if the track was very successful." According to Mr.
duPont's estimate, the total received by the State would be around $225-000 for the 25-day meet.

School Bond Issue Approved At Resort

Rehoboth Beach taxpayers overwhelmingly approved a $160,000 bond issue for the erection of a high school building there, at a special election
yesterday. Only 16 of the 310 votes cast were opposed to the measure,
with 294 approving.

Fourth of July Offers Challenge To Grange Members, Says State Lecturer

By Robert Yearsley
Lecturer, Delaware State Grange Fourth of July this year should bring to every loyal citizen the recognition that the two greatest needs
of the Republic are Christianity and genuine Americanism. This should challenge every patron to renewed emphasis on the fundamentals of our order. We should rejoice in the fact that the Grange has always required
that its altar should symbolize spiritual values as emphasized in our order. We should receive a patriotic thrill from the recognition given the flag and our fundamentals at every meeting of the Grange. This is not enough, however.

The time has come to be aggressive.
Forces of evil are challenging our spiritual birthright. Christianity
must assert itself with renewed emphasis and the Grange must help make its truths a living force to a world that is confused and losing its way. The Grange must be a light that is not hid, whenever any questions affecting the moral, the Christian and
the spiritual well-being of our citizenship are at stake.

PRODUCERS IN DELAWARE GET MORE RETURNS

Egg And Chicken Prices Are Higher In State, B. of A.
Report Shows

FEED COSTS INCREASE

Sharp increases in farm egg production in all parts of the country
over production a year ago is reported by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics for May 1, 1937. Coupled with high production, an abnormal rise in the price of feed, which normally shows little change at this time of the year, has placed an additional burden on farm egg producers, the
report shows.

However, Delaware farm egg producers are receiving prices which are higher than the average for the United States as a whole. For instance, on April 15, 1937, Delaware farm produced eggs were averaging 21.3 cents per dozen while the average price for similar eggs for the United States as a whole was 20.1 cents per dozen and Maryland producers were receiving an average of 20.5 cents per dozen.

Chicken Prices Higher

Farm produced chickens likewise,
were bringing 20.3 cents per pound,
average, on April 15, while the average price for the entire country was 15.2 cents per pound and for Maryland was 18.9 cents per pound.

Prices received for eggs were 3.2
cents per dozen higher on April 15
than on the corresponding date last year but were slightly lower than the previous month. A table showing com-

Half-Price Registration Tags May Now Be Secured

Registration tags for motor vehicles
may be secured for one-half the usual
fee beginning July 1, it was announced
by the State Motor Vehicle Department this week. Officials anticipate a rush for the bargain rates as there are many out-of-town car owners now residing in the state, who will discard tags of their former states for those of Delaware.

It was stated there have been more registrations of motor vehicles up to the present than were issued for the entire year of 1936. The number,
practically all of which are for pleasure vehicles, has passed the 50,000
mark.

Trailer registrations show there have been about 900 tags issued for
that type vehicle while the registration tags for commercial vehicles now number about 8,300.

CCC Enrollment Schedule Is Announced This Week

The schedule of enrollment of Delaware boys in the Civilian Conservation Corps was announced Monday by Wentworth H. Deverell, selection supervisor for this state. Under a new act of Congress, Delaware is allotted a quota of 170 boys not necessarily from relief rolls by the U. S. Department of Labor. They must be unemployed and from 17 to 23 years old.

ATTENDING PARLEY

DR. CHARLES M. WHARTON

Former University of Delaware
physical education director, who is in Washington this week to confer with Social Security Board officials. Dr.
Wharton is the newly appointed director for the Delaware Unemployment Compensation Commission. He is also scheduled to confer with the commission members at the national capital
today, on getting the Delaware plan
under way. Commissioners are:
Former State Senator Hervey P. Hall,
chairman; Lawrence Knapp, secretary;
J. Wirt Willis, and Paul Leahy.

RED MEN SHOW DRAWING MANY

Hundreds Attend Annual Fete On Maxwell Lot; Affair May Be Prolonged

The second annual carnival, since the affairs were revived last year by Minnehaha Tribe, No. 23, I. O. R. M., has attracted hundreds of interested
people nightly, since the grand opening last Friday.

The affair is not a travelling carnival, but is under the sole direction
of Newark's Improved Order of Red Men, assisted by Mineola Council, No.
17, Degree of Pocahontas.

Under the leadership of W. V.
Heavellon, chairman of the carnival committee, the affair is scheduled to continue until Saturday evening, when a Plymouth 2-door sedan will be given away to the holder of the lucky ticket.

Many Attractions

Chief among the attractions from the opening night until Tuesday was an animal circus, which featured trained dogs and pigs. Ground prizes,
given away every night, also served
to bring hordes of town and out-of-town carnival lovers to the scene of the Red Men's fete.

A merry-go-round and ferris wheel
on the grounds add to the carnival
spirit while approximately ten booths, gayly decorated, make available to patrons all sorts of entertainment so appealing to the average citizen.

Other members of the committee
giving valuable assistance to the affair are James Scarborough, vice-chairman; Orville Sidwell, secretary;
Albert Lewis, treasurer; Herman
Stradley, assistant treasurer; Frank
H. Balling, vice-chairman of the 1936
carnival, and Preston Dempsey.

Due to unsuitable weather conditions on several of the nights, it is believed that the closing date, Saturday, will be extended into next week.

Outstanding Taxes Lower As Collections Advance

What is believed to be the lowest sum of outstanding taxes ever due the Town of Newark, $2,500, existed on the books at the end of June when bills for the new year were mailed on schedule.

A persistent collection campaign by Treasurer C. Vernon Steele, which was approved by the present Council,
has served to place Newark in an enviable position. Several towns in this vicinity, many of which are smaller than Newark, find it difficult to make collections. Outstanding taxes
in one nearby town amount to more than $20,000.

In 1931, books here indicate that $4,400 was due the town in taxes.
That figure is thought to be the second low collectable balance ever on the town's books.

OFFICERS ARE SELECTED FOR ANOTHER YEAR

County Farmers

ELECTION LAST NIGHT

Soil Saving Allotments Are Discussed; Aerial Photos Planned In County

Permanent officers for 1937 were elected by the directors of the New Castle County Agricultural Conservation Association at a meeting last night in the offices of County Agricultural Agent George M. Worriow.

E. H. Shallcross, Middletown, was elected president; Harris B. McDowell, Jr., Middletown, vice-president;
Mr. Worriow, secretary; and J.
Leslie Ford, Cooch's Bridge, treasurer.

The county committee will consist of Mr. Shallcross, Mr. McDowell and George K. Barr, Marshallton; with Benjamin W. Vinton, St. Georges, as an alternate committeeman, and Walter L. Marker, Clayton, as the other director of the association.

Community Heads Named

The following farmers were elected community committeemen at meetings
held throughout the county last Friday: District 1—Brandywine, Mill Creek, Christiansa and White Clay Creek Hundreds—George K. Ball,
Marshallton, chairman; William P.
Naudain, Marshallton; John L. Holloway, Newark; with W. Levis Phipps, Centreville, alternate.

District 2—New Castle, Red Lion
and Penderac Hundreds—Benjamin
W. Vinton, St. Georges, chairman;
Barton Hopkins, New Castle; William
Appley, Bear; with Albert O. Gray,
Kirkwood, alternate.

District 3—St. Georges Hundred—
E. H. Shallcross, chairman; J. Lawson Crothers, Mt. Pleasant; B. Irvin Armstrong, Middletown; with Hernan Cochran, Middletown, alternate.

Terry Announces Dates For Ninth Auto Inspection

Charles L. Terry, Jr., secretary of state and motor vehicle commissioner,
has set July 15 as the opening date
for the ninth annual motor vehicle inspection campaign. Three lanes, two in Wilmington and one transient crew
in rural New Castle County, Kent and Sussex Counties, will again be operated for the inspection of cars and trucks.

With the scene of the lane in Newark shifted from Orchard Road to Academy Street below Lovett Avenue,
the campaign will start here on July 15 and will be conducted daily from eight o'clock in the morning until six o'clock at night, standard time. The Newark lane will close on July 24.

Makes County Circuit

Opening at Delaware City on July 26, the lane will shift to New Castle
on July 29, closing on August 4. Middletown will be the scene of the inspection from August 5 to 14. Smyrna is on the schedule from August 16 to 25.

Wilmington lanes will be operated at Matson Run Parkway between Tatnall and Washington Streets, and on Bancroft Parkway at Pennsylvania Avenue. The hours of inspection in Wilmington will be from eight o'- clock in the morning until eight o'- clock at night, daylight time, daily.

Commercial vehicles, three or less in number, weighing 3500 pounds or more will be inspected in Wilmington
at 15th and Popular Streets, between nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock at night, daylight time, daily.

While the inspection is conducted without charges during the specified period, no adjustments or repairs at any lanes will be permitted.

Lesson for July 4

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 1:6-14; 2:23-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—Before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.—Isaiah 65:24.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Prayer for Help.
JUNIOR TOPIC—In Need of Help.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Cries Rise to God Today?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God Cares When a People Suffers.

Independence day—and we are to study about a people in bondage! How much that is like life. But, thanks be to God, no one need stay in bondage. The way to liberty is open and free. The Lord Jesus Christ opened it at Calvary's tree and anyone who is still the bond slave of Satan may make this a great and glorious Independence day by now declaring his faith in the deliverer of our souls!

We begin today a series of lessons in the book of Exodus which reveal the high and mighty hand of God working on behalf of his people. Many are the precious spiritual lessons and rich is the practical instruction for daily life to be received in the weeks just ahead. Let us not make the unfortunate mistake of many thoughtless folk who miss the blessing of Bible school attendance because it is a bit warmer than usual.

The family of Jacob—or, as the Bible calls them, "the children of Israel"—prospered in Egypt particularly as long as Joseph and the rulers who remembered him were alive. But they soon learned one of life's bitter lessons, namely, that—

I. Prosperity Often Brings Opposition (1:6-11).

The Hebrews were a peaceful, law-abiding people. They were God's chosen people and as he blessed them they prospered, and thus innocently they brought upon themselves the hatred of the suspicious Egyptians.

Prosperity is never an unmixed blessing. We as a nation know that to be true. Not only does it lead to a certain softening of the sinews, but all too often it results in a weakening of the moral fiber, which makes man easy prey to the attack of the enemy of our souls.

The Egyptians made plans which appealed to their brilliant leaders as politic and wise, but they reckoned without God, and the burdens and afflictions they placed on the Israelites only served to bring further blessing.

II. Adversity May Bring Blessing (vv. 12-14).

The people of Israel did not know it and undoubtedly did not appreciate the fact that the bitterness of their bondage was a blessing in disguise. Note that—

1. It kept them separate as a people. Affliction often serves to keep God's people separated from the world.

2. It disciplined them and prepared them for the hardships of their wilderness journey. We too do well to remember that "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth," and that if we are properly "exercised" thereby our sorrows may yield rich fruit in our lives.

3. It threw them back upon God. Many are the saints of God who have found that the fiery trial, the burden so hard to understand or some affliction of their body has caused them to bring their burden to the Lord. We have traveled far on the road of faith when we have reached the place where we learn that "Man's extremity is God's opportunity."

They had only one place to turn. They were hemmed in on every side but, as ever, they found that the way up no man can close. They called on their God.

III. Prayer Always Brings God's Answer (2:23-25).

Does God really know when his people suffer? Does he really care? Yes, he does. "They cried," and "God heard" and "remembered." That's all we need to know. The groanings of his people had already stirred God's gracious and tender heart. But he waited to hear their cry before he answered. Such is the law of prayer. May we not forget it. Far too often we turn to everyone and everything else, and finally, in desperation, to God. Why not turn to him first?

As we opened this lesson with an appeal for all who knew not Christ as Saviour to make this the day of their Declaration of Independence, so we close by appealing to all God's children to let him make their ears as sensitive as his to the cry of the oppressed, that this national holiday may find every Christian citizen tender in heart and liberal in deed toward the oppressed.

Conduct Through Life

I will govern my life, and my thoughts, as if the whole world were to see the one, and to read the other; for what does it signify, to make anything a secret to my neighbor, when to God (who is the searcher of our hearts) all our privacies are open?

Submissive Will
The will can only be made submissive by frequent self-denials, which must keep in subjection its sallies and inclinations.

STANTON

By Miss Emma S. Maclary

Stanton, June 30.—Many residents of this section have opened their homes to employees at the Delaware Park Race Track who are boarding and rooming in this section. Improved business conditions have been evidenced here, and merchants are planning to keep their establishments open in the evenings to accommodate this trade.

Friendship Lodge No. 4, Shepherds of Bethlehem held its annual election of officers last Tuesday evening, and will install the incoming officers at their meeting on July 13.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Stanton M. E. Church plans to conduct a series of suppers during the summer months. This plan is being carried out to provide necessary funds for church expenses. The first supper was held on Thursday evening by Mrs. Calvin Talley's group. The chairmen of the various groups will conduct suppers, and dates will be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin T. Boulden and family of Wilmington have moved to their new home at Stanton Heights, which has just been completed. Several new homes have been erected in this section recently.

Quality Rubber at Lower Cost! • More Efficient Manufacturing! • Lower Distribution Costs!

THESE SAVINGS PASSED ON TO YOU IN THE FORM OF EXTRA VALUES AT NO EXTRA COST!

IN PLANNING your Fourth of July trip, plan now for the SAFETY of yourself and family by replacing your smooth, worn tire with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires! Firestone makes great saving by controlling rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, by more efficient manufacturing methods; by selling in such large volume that distribution costs are lower. These savings are passed on to you in the form of extra values.

EIGHT EXTRA POUNDS OF RUBBER to every 100 pounds of cord. Extra value AT NO EXTRA COST.

PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS, because Gum-Dipping, that famous patented Firestone Process, makes these tires run up to 28 degrees cooler. By this process, every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated and coated with pure, liquid rubber, counteracting internal friction and heat that ordinarily destroy tire life. Extra safety AT NO EXTRA COST.

PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES, because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped Cords. Extra tire strength AT NO EXTRA COST.

PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING, because the tread is scientifically designed to prevent this danger. Extra safeguard AT NO EXTRA COST.

GROUND PRIZES GIVEN

By Mildred Gebhart
Hockessin, June 30—The firemen's carnival held on the lot adjoining the Hockessin Fire Company building, closed on Saturday evening, after four successful evenings. Large crowds from Hockessin and the surrounding towns attended.

Four grand prizes were given, receiving them are as follows: refrigerator, H. Victor Taylor, of Kennett Square, Pa.; breakfast suit, John W. of Yorklyn; set of tires, James F. of Yorklyn; diamond ring, J. A. Lloyd, of Yorklyn.

As a ground prize each evening, four radios were given.

Entertained At Luncheon

Mrs. Clarence G. Collins entertained sixteen members of the Hockessin Community Club at her home at a luncheon on Tuesday, June 22. Plans were made for a picnic to be held at McVaugh's Lake on July 13. Mrs. Reginald Jackson will be in charge of arrangements. Among those present at the luncheon were: Mesdames Phillip Garrett, Reginald Jackson, Charles Haverback, Howard Cox, Harry B. McVaugh, Elizabeth Little, Eugene Vernon, William Cook, Ernest Crossan, Edward Holloran, John C. Mitchell, Patrick Murphy, Leslie Woodward, Margaret Chandler, and Miss Helen Thompson.

Sunday School Picnic

Plans are being made by the members of the Hockessin M. E. Sunday school and the Young Peoples Group for a lawn festival to be held on the church lawn on July 10.

The annual picnic for the Hockessin Sunday school will be held at Murphy each at Charlestown, Md., on Thursday, July 15.

Miss Martha Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Mitchell, left on Thursday for a try to Back Log Camp in the Adirondack Mountains, where she will be a Counselor this year.

Miss Gertrude E. Mitchell, who has been to Havana, Cuba, on a trip, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osborne were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marker of Dover. Mr. and Mrs. George Thouron, of Landenberg, Pa., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son. Mr. and Mrs. Thouron were residents of Hockessin last year.

Master John and Edward Stoops, of Yorklyn, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Fred Gebhart.

Miss Elsie Keidel, of Philadelphia, was a week-end guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keidel.

Conference Held

The first quarterly conference for the members of the Hockessin-Cedars church was held in the M. E. Church on Friday evening, June 18. Rev. Walter Gunby, district superintendent, presided at the meeting.

The supper held in the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening was well attended. It was sponsored by the Ladies Aid Society of the Hockessin M. E. Church.

Mrs. Charles Woodward and daughters, Doris, Ann, and Marian, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hitchens of Little Baltimore.

Mrs. Fred Osborne of Yorklyn, was a visitor at the home of Miss Mildred Gebhart on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Irene Nichols Boyer is convalescing after an operation, in the St. Francis Hospital, Wilmington. Her condition is very much improved.

Mr. Frank E. Hitchens spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mullins of their country home, "Lakewood" near Little Baltimore.

Plans Made For 1938

Next year the reunion will be again held at the home of Mrs. Katherine McGovern. The following committee was appointed to arrange for the affair next year: Mrs. Katherine McGovern, Henry Roser, Frank Roser, and Fred Roser.

After the meeting refreshments were served, and a musical program followed, presented by the Dolan Brothers and Jean and Buddy McGovern.

Mrs. Frank E. Hitchens and son, Paul E. Hitchens, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hitchens of Bethlehem, Pa. On Saturday they attended the wedding of William Hitchens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hitchens, and Miss Dorothy Cox of New York City, which was held in the West Presbyterian Church, Bethlehem.

A diet rich in vitamin A is said to effect a successful treatment of kidney and bladder stones.

THIS WEEK—150 YEARS AGO

The Story of the Constitutional Convention of 1787

BY RAYMOND PITCAIRN

THE AMERICAN SPIRIT
Just 150 years ago this week—on June 25, 1787—was spoken what modern historians recognize as one of the earliest and clearest statements ever made on "the Spirit of Americanism."

It came from Charles Pinckney, youthful delegate from South Carolina, in the course of an eloquent appeal to the Federal Convention, meeting that summer in historic Independence Hall, Philadelphia, to write our Constitution.

Pinckney spoke before a formal session of the Convention while it had under consideration various proposals for a National Legislature—a topic on which the large states and the small were in frequent disagreement. In the course of debate, the distinctive systems of governments in both the ancient and modern world had been cited at length. Finally Pinckney arose.

"We must," he admonished the delegates, "suit our Government to the people it is to direct."

Then contrasting the American nation with established governments abroad, he pointed out that "we have unwisely considered ourselves as the inhabitants of an old, instead of a new, country."

"The people of the United States," said Pinckney in part, "are perhaps the most singular of any we are acquainted with. Among them there are fewer distinctions of fortune, and less of rank, than among the inhabitants of any other nation. Every freeman has a right to the same protection and security."

"Hence, arises a greater equality than is to be found among the people of any other country; and an equality which is more likely to continue."

"The whole community will enjoy, in the fullest sense, that kind of political liberty which consists in the power . . . of arriving at the public offices, or at least of having votes in the nomination of those who fill them."

"The people of this country are not only very different from the inhabitants of any state we are acquainted with in the modern world, but I assert that their situation is distinct from either the people of Greece or Rome, or of any states we are acquainted with among the ancients.

"Our true situation appears to me to be this—a new extensive country, containing within itself the materials for forming a government capable of extending to its citizens all the blessings of civil and religious liberty—capable of making them happy at home."

"For a people thus circumstanced are we, then, to form a government; and the question is, what sort of government is best suited to them?"

"All that we have to do is to distribute the powers of government in such a manner, and for such limited periods, as, while it gives a proper degree of permanency to the magistracy, will reserve to the people the right of election they will not or ought not frequently to part with."

Pinckney, however, was not the only delegate to express, that week, a point of view which recognized fundamental characteristics of the new Constitution and the new nation were to assume.

On motion of Oliver Ellsworth, of Connecticut, the words "Government of the United States," were substituted for the words "National Government," in resolutions before the Convention. This, explained Ellsworth, would retain for the new nation and its Constitution, "the proper title."

During that week, too, the system of Checks and Balances—now so characteristic a feature of our government—was urged, as a guard against the possibility "that those charged with the public happiness might betray their trust."

"An obvious precaution against this danger," insisted James Madison, of Virginia, "would be to divide the trust between different bodies of men who might watch and check each other."

Next week: "The Critical Moment."

Charles Pinckney

September Pageant To Be Staged At du Pont Estate

Longwood Gardens, the private estate of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre S. duPont, near Kennett Square, will be the scene of a pageant commemorating the 20th anniversary of the landing of the Chandler family in America. The affair will be staged on September 4 and 6.

Billed as a dramatic spectacle entitled, "The Light Bearers," the pageant is the work of Albert George Weidensaul, a member of the English department of the Upper Darby, Pa., schools, in collaboration with Herschel E. Shortidge, Sr., Upper Darby real estate operator.

Three Newark Scouts At Big National Jamboree

William Simons, William Edmanson and Happy Argo, members of Newark Troop No. 55, B. S. of A., are attending the national jamboree of Boy Scouts being held in Washington. The encampment opened on June 26 and will continue until July 10.

Simons has been named patrol leader and Edmanson assistant of Wilmington Provisional Troop No. 12, while Argo is listed with Wilmington Provisional Troop No. 13.

STRAWS in the Wind

SUMMER brings its own beauty problems! How many times do you start out freshly and immaculately made up, and yourself a short time later with shiny nose and lipstick half gone? You're miles from your own dressing table, so what do you do? Patch up your makeup as best you can with any odd assortment of cosmetics you happen to have in your handbag.

But here's a way to solve this problem in a twinkling. Simply store away your regular full-sized makeup and get two or three of those complete little matching kits that contain powder, rouge, lipstick and eye-makeup in miniature sizes. Keep one on your dressing table, one in the pocket of your car, the contents of another in your handbag. You'll never again be caught unawares, victim of wind and sun. So you can be particularly chic, and sure your makeup really matches your personality. These clever cosmetics are keyed to the color of your eyes!

Work Continued On Church Building As Male Members Aid

By Miss Emma S. Maclary
Newport, June 30—Work on the addition to the Newport M. E. Church is progressing. Reed Ewing of Cornwall, Pa., contractor in charge of the job, has completed the wall in the boiler room, and has been assisted by local men interested in the project. The local men, under the leadership of Arthur G. Craig, chairman of the building committee, and the Rev. J. C. McCoy, pastor, meet in the evenings to assist with work, in an effort to keep the expenditure at a minimum. The men are now engaged in the laying of the floor. The annex will cost approximately $12,000, providing Sunday School quarters, social hall, etc.

Farmers in this section who have completed cutting their wheat report a large crop of straw, with a yield per acre of grain perhaps slightly below that of last year.

Meeting And Social Held

The Ladies Aid Society of the Newport M. E. Church held its monthly business meeting and social this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Varrell. Plans were made for the cafeteria supper to be held Wednesday evening. Mrs. George L. Bidde, chairman of the ways and means committee, is in charge. During the social hour, William Whebee entertained with vocal selections, and the Misses Mary Spicer and Thelma Green entertained with a piano duet. Miss Green also entertained with a piano solo. An amateur hour was conducted by Miss Sarah Benson, and volunteer performers furnished further entertainment.

The Newport M. E. Church will discontinue its evening service during July and August.

The Newport Woman's Club enjoyed its annual picnic this week at Ball's Run. The board of directors of the club held a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. A. M. Munn, Virginia Apartments, Newport, on Wednesday, at which time a contract was awarded for new Venetian blinds in the club house. Various groups, comprising members of the club are arranging benefit affairs to provide funds for the new curtains.

Playground To Open

This summer, the playground formerly conducted at Newport by the Newport Woman's Club, will be operated as a community project. The lot on which the playground was operated has been given to the Newport M. E. Church by the Johnson family, for their church building program, and the church plans to continue the playground on a portion of the lot. Mr. Craig has asked for volunteer directors to continue the playground work, and the Women's Club has contributed all of its equipment for the continuance of the playground activity here.

The condition of Raymond Johnson of Newport, an employe of the Reading Railroad, who was crushed and seriously injured while on duty August of last year is now considered critical. Mr. Johnson has been a patient in the Wilmington General Hospital since he was injured. Early this week his condition grew worse as the result of an infection, and his family was called to his bedside. Since Mr. Johnson has been in the hospital, his wife died very suddenly, just about three months ago. There are two children, Betty, aged 12 years, and Kenneth, 6 years, who are now with the grandmother, Mrs. Mary Johnson of Newport.

Mrs. Harvey E. Gregg who has been confined to her home for the past week by illness, is slightly improved.

On Sunday Mrs. Ella Maclary of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Maclary and Mrs. Edith Jenkins of Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Donovan of Townsend, and Bobby and Charlotte Maclary of Newport, motored to Chester, Pa., to attend the birthday dinner given in honor of Mr. George MacNamee.

Newark Police Equipped With Latest Traffic Aid

Introduced by police in Chicago this month, a recently developed traffic torch being manufactured by the Continental Diamond Fibre Company was placed in use by local police this week.

Made of "dialphone," the torch is a transparent fibrous material such as is used in radio dials. About ten inches long it is attached to an ordinary flashlight and gives off a deep red glow that is visible for 500 feet.

JULY 1, 1937

For A Happy Holiday

The "Glorious Fourth" can be just as glorious as we choose to make it. This year the long week-end created by the holiday will intensify the hazards which the Fourth always produces. The watchword should be, "Take care!"

Independence Day celebrates the independence of a nation. The coming week-end will demonstrate vividly the modern interdependence of people. Great streams of traffic pouring over the highways will show how essential are mutual regard and courtesy among drivers. Fireworks will demonstrate it too. A "firecracker thrown by another" is, according to the National Conservation Bureau, the greatest single cause of the tremendous number of fireworks accidents every Fourth of July. At the beaches and lakes, imprudent swimmers will again remind us that human life must be risked to save the life of a drowning person.

Reasonable care divides a happy holiday from the tragedies which mar it. Reasonable care will insure you, your family, and the other fellow against mishap. For instance:

If you drive—see that your car is in good mechanical condition. Check tires, lights, brakes, steering mechanism, windshield wiper, rear-view mirror, horn. Drive skilfully, at a reasonable speed. Observe the rules and courtesies of the road.

If you must use fireworks—give yourself plenty of space. Keep away from children and animals and buildings. Throw firecrackers away from people and inflammable materials, not at them. Never hold an exploding firecracker, nor set them off under a bottle or can. Cauterize the smallest wound immediately—tetanus poisoning works fast and kills.

If you go swimming—swim in safe and protected places. Beware of strong tides and currents. Know your limits as a swimmer. Wait two hours after eating. Avoid shallow places.

Pennsylvania's New Law Is Sensible

A new Pennsylvania law requires dimming of headlights when a motor vehicle proceeding in the opposite direction comes within range. That the law is being enforced is indicated by the number of arrests made and fines levied, even upon out-of-state motorists.

Delaware motorists, driving at night in Pennsylvania, should remember to dim their lights when an oncoming car is approximately 500 feet away. If, by chance, the car is not equipped with a dimming switch or multiple beam headlight bulbs, it should not be operated in Pennsylvania at night.

While no similar law is known to exist in Delaware, and if it does, there is certainly no sign of its being enforced. Pennsylvania's step is a good one, however, and it is to be hoped that people there, as well as Delawareans and motorists from other neighboring states, will acquire the habit of dimming their headlights and extend the welcome practice beyond the borders of the Keystone State.

Common courtesy should make the practice universal, without any law enforcement. Since a law has been enacted in Pennsylvania, however, we hope it aids in eliminating both a troublesome nuisance and a constant hazard for more polite night drivers.

For Your Own Protection

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Charles L. Terry, Jr., is urging every motor car owner to make a preliminary visit to his repairman before submitting his car for inspection in the safety lanes which open July 15 and continue until August 31.

Mr. Terry states that eight out of ten cars were rejected in 1935. A year ago only five cars in ten were rejected. He feels this decrease in rejection was due to the car owners in 1936 making a trip to their repairmen previous to visiting the safety lanes, and making this visit sufficient time to give the repairmen an opportunity to do a thorough job.

Three simple suggestions for making the inspection quick and thorough are advanced by Commissioner Terry. He urges: A preliminary visit to a repairman, giving him ample time to make any repairs. That the motor and serial numbers be cleaned and made readable before entering the inspection lanes. That the 1936-37 stickers be removed from the windshield before entering the lanes.

Rejections are the source of 90 per cent of the complaints made about the inspection of motor cars, yet the motorist, if he practices simple caution, can reduce all inconvenience to a minimum.

Man cannot live by legislation alone. Hope lies in personal integrity and in men who matter volunteering to lead the way.

Most women are tyrants at heart, they only want somebody to boss. Some men, hobos at heart, refuse to bow to that female trait and remain bachelors.

George Eastman, after ripe experience, made this cynical comment on life: "To seek friendship is commendable; to find it is fortunate; but to be in need of it is weakness."

Some subscribers have expressed the opinion that THE NEWARK POST ought to mind its own business. On the other hand, however, those same subscribers would stop reading the paper if it did nothing better than mind its own business—and so would you.

Fight Pictures

"Ladies and Gentlemen, the main bout of the evening, 15 rounds of boxing for the heavyweight championship of the world. Introducing, in this corner, the Champen of the world, James Braddock and in this corner, the challenger, Joe Louis." Then come the cheers and the boos, this is what you will hear when the Official Fight Pictures flash across the screen at the State Theatre on Friday and Saturday. Herman Handoff, manager of the popular picture house has gone to a great expense to bring the patrons of his theatre these fight pictures. All the interesting events that appeared will be shown in slow motion. You will see everything that happened in the fight which gave to the world a new Champion, Joe Louis.

State Theatre Briefs Friday and Saturday

In the motion-picture world, the milestones upon the road of production progress are often marked by outstanding sets, looming in the history of the movies just as triumphal arches mark the paths of conquerors in the history of mankind. The most triumphal of these, the largest set ever built for any movie, is that of "Cafe Metropole" starring Loretta Young, Tyrone Power and Adolphe Menjou. Darryl F. Zanuck, vice-president in charge of production of 20th Century-Fox, planned this film as one of the costliest and elaborate pictures of the year. Miss Young and Power carrying the romantic young-love story of an American heiress and an American boy "broke" in Paris. Menjou suavely guides the course of events at his Cafe Metropole, and Gregory Ratoff (who also wrote the original story), Charles Winninger and Helen Westley featured in the cast.

Monday and Tuesday

Two great stars, Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck achieve their true greatness together in "This is My Affair". That they should do so is not exactly surprising to the producers of the picture, the world is talking about, have cast as co-stars the screen's most talked-about, real-life sweethearts, regarded in Hollywood as the film colony's Number One off-screen romance. In this picture both Taylor and Miss Stanwyck find the most important story either one has ever had, a dramatic account of a love supremely courageous and unshamed, endangering the nation's highest places of gambling life itself for a higher stake. Victor MacLaglen heads the supporting cast with other well known stars taking parts in the film. This picture not only provides Robert Taylor with a truly Taylor-made role, allowing Barbara Stanwyck to match his greatness with a fire and power given full scope for the first time, but gives them their supreme opportunity to do the things together, to be together and to act together.

Wednesday and Thursday

The "inside story" of the billion dollar slot machine racket as it operates in a big city, is laid bare in "King of the Gamblers", a daring and thrilling motion picture story with Claire Trevor and Lloyd Nolan in the leading roles. Written by Tiffany Thayer, noted writer of crime and racket stories, "King of the Gamblers" parallels with striking adherence to recent newspaper headlines, the circumstances which led several Eastern cities to smash the racket and to consign the crooked machines to the ocean bottom. After you see this picture you will agree the late P. T. Barnum was right when he said, "one is born every minute".

4-H Club Is Organized By Group At Ogleton

Members of the 4-H Club in Ogleton and vicinity met for the first time on Wednesday, June 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford for the purpose of organizing.

Those who enrolled were: Elizabeth Ann Outten, Margaret Lynam, Dorothy Reed, Naomi Voit, Florence Ford, Dorothy Wright, Hilda Reed, Doris Levering, Bessie Tyndal, Josephine Szymanski, Marion Geesaman, Ara Outten, Betty Ford, Louise Campbell, John Moody, Elwood

Moody and Betty Geesaman.

Miss Laura B. Rutherford, county 4-H club leader, introduced Miss Louise Steele who will take over the leadership of the organization, and after distributing year books to those present, explaining the aims, ideals and duties of a 4-H organization. Election of officers will take place at a meeting to be held July 15.

TOO LATE

Two mercenary friends met unexpectedly. Said one, "Remember the girl with the rich mother you introduced me to some time ago?"

"Yes," said one.

"Well, I've just married her."

Shaking his head sadly, the other replied, "Too late. I've just married her mother."

Other children able to pay a small amount for the privilege, along with adults, will be given special hours during which the pool will be open for their recreation.

Ralph O'Connell, teacher at Newark High School and a former athletic star at the University of Delaware, who is in charge of the pool, announced a change in swimming hours for adults last night.

O'Connell's original schedule called for opening the pool on Tuesday and Thursday nights. He has decided, however, to keep it open three nights a week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday—for adults, instead of Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Members of the Lions' boys and girls committee are T. A. Baker, chairman; Paul D. Lovett and John Phillips. Special committee members consist of Mr. Danby, Leonard Fossett, C. Emerson Johnson and Wayne C Brewer, president-elect.

Officers Are Selected For Another Year

tary of Agriculture to aid in the administration of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act and is responsible for all the problems of administration as they pertain to New Castle County.

At the meeting, the county committee reviewed the work sheets submitted by farmers from the various districts, and studied probable adjustments which will be made in order that the benefits derived from the program may be more equitable.

Another problem taken up at the meeting was the procedure to be followed for the determination of performance, preparation of report of performance, and application for payment due individual farmers.

In order that compliance work may be more efficiently carried out this year, New Castle County has been selected by H. R. Tolley, administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, as one county in the East Central Region to be surveyed by aerial photography. The entire county will be photographed and all of the acreage of the agricultural land will be accurately determined for each farm. Following the assembling of the aerial photographs local supervisors will check the performance on each farm participating in the program, and a complete picture of the farming enterprise as it applies to the 1937 crop year will be reported.

Acres List Needed

In determining compliance it will be necessary to ascertain the number of acres on each farm devoted to soil depleting, soil conserving, and central crop land classification. Supervisors will also ascertain the soil building practices that have been carried on by the farmer during the 1937 crop year so that an application may be made for the correct amount of benefit payment that each individual farmer is entitled to. This work will in all probability, be started by August 15th, and each farmer who is participating in the program may be carried out as efficiently and promptly as possible.

Farmers desiring more definite data concerning the program should contact any of the above officers of the association or the community committeemen in the district in which their farm is located.

Tax Department Checks Delinquent Merchants

State Tax Department officials are preparing to make a check-up on all delinquents, with midnight last night the deadline for obtaining state licenses for merchants, manufacturers, hucksters, peddlers and occupational trades.

The law requires a penalty of five per cent be applied to the fee of all those who failed to pay the fee by midnight last night. Tax officials estimate there are over 3,000 persons who had failed to pay the license fees, including individuals, partnerships, and corporations. There are between 10,000 and 11,000 who come under the license requirements.

A survey was started this morning to determine those who are delinquent and where penalties are to be assessed.

Kent County Agent To Present Radio Address

Miss Louise R. Whitecomb, Kent County home demonstration agent with headquarters in Dover, and Mrs. Ed. Richter, Viola, will be heard over a nation-wide broadcast on the National Home Demonstration hour to be broadcast from Washington on July 7, starting at 12.30 o'clock.

The title of the dialogue to be broadcast by the Delaware women is, "The Extension Program in Foods and Nutrition in Action." Miss Whitecomb and Mrs. Richter are to discuss the nutrition and health program in Kent County, which was planned by the State Board of Health, the State Board of Education, and the Agricultural and Home Economics Extension Department of the University of Delaware.

Well, it takes two to start an argument in this world — and somehow they always manage to get together.

ROAMIN' WITH RUTLEDGE

Nickle Nurseries

With ringside seats selling at $25 and up for a championship fight, we could admire anyone with sufficient ingenuity to "crash" the gate. Such a feat requires plenty of what it takes. For anyone to elude the army of Pinkertons by way of slipping into Delaware Park at a net saving of $1.65 for an afternoon, we can also muster a bit of admiration. That, too, requires a measure of cleverness.

"THE ROAMER"

For the growing group of nickel nurseries who regularly attend twilight baseball games at Continental Field without coughing up the requested dime, however, we are not permitted to print terms vile enough in which to greet them. Of all the low, cheap, no good heels in the world, a tight-fisted lush who would ease himself into a ball game without kicking in a mere dime is about the worst example of American sportsmanship that exists.

Fully 150 people saw a recent tilt at Continental Field, yet the gross collection for the night amounted to $1.60, which is a new low for even Newark's tight, but heckling public.

Unable to continue with a paid umpire, the Twilight League has found it necessary to ask volunteers to handle its games until, if ever, collections are big enough to meet expenses. And you can mark it down in your book now that the fans who'll show no mercy in riding the volunteer umpires will be the most steadfast in refusing to pay for a better arbiter.

R-W-R

Delaware Park Opens

Delaware Park presented its inaugural program of horse racing Saturday, and it became immediately evident that the plant is not prepared to adequately care for big crowds. Changes can be made and possibly will be, but as it now stands, crowds such as that which inundated the place on Saturday will suffer many inconveniences.

The chief complaint registered so far concerns the grandstand "lawn," where the tiered elevations are too high above the track for spectators in the rear of the crowd to see finishes. Engineers designed the "lawn" at an elevation high enough for patrons to get a good look at all turns and the back stretch, but the plan is useless when fans are unable to see the termination of a tight duel down the stretch.

R-W-R

Horse Hairs

That ex-Governor Buck practices conservatism, as well as preaching it as an anti-New Dealer, was indicated by his frequent appearances at the $2 show windows Saturday. Another conservative better is Dr. Clyde Montague Cox, a Virginia Democrat, (maybe a Carter Glass follower), who "risks" an occasional two-buck bet on an outstanding favorite to show. Doc's system has proven costly so far, however. . . . One Newark sportsman has been endeavoring to find out why they run the horse Daily Double in two races every day. . . . State Police nourish a secret desire to slash Superintendent C. C. Reynolds' throat for his (reported) instructions to track officials to admit no one on a badge except big shots with gold shields. . . . James Elmer Morrison of the Newark police added to the traffic jam at Five Points Saturday by running out of gasoline, when everyone was hurrying into Wilmington after the races.

R-W-R

Started Here

Jim Fitzsimmons, famous trainer of Granville, an outstanding 3-year-old in 1936, and Omaha, winner of the Derby, Preakness and Belmont in 1935, received his start in the racing game in Newark. The late Dr. Bayard Murray, retired Philadelphia police surgeon, who died at McLaglin's Mill in 1934, hired Fitzsimmons as a jockey many years ago. Dr. Murray had a string of horses in training at the Smith farm, adjoining Linden Hall, at the time.

CAREY TOP SEEDED IN TOURNAMENT

Anderson And Stewart To Battle For Local Golf Crown Sunday

POST MATCHES OPEN DESPITE DAMP WEATHER

First Round Contests Nearly Completed; Wheelless, Seeded Two, In Quarter Finals

MOORE STAGES UPSET

Leo Laskaris Trounced 6-1, 7-5; Reese-Gaffney Cop In Girls' Contests

By Ace Seeds

Despite over-hanging skies which threatened to wash out the opening matches of the second annual Newark Post tennis tourney, the yearly classic weighed anchor and pushed off to an auspicious beginning Sunday on the University of Delaware courts.

Carey Top Seeded

Lew Carey, Blue Hen ace favored to cop the affair, was seeded number one by the tournament committee on Saturday while Chauncey Wheelless, former Delaware captain, Steve Bartosheski, current college star and Ned McCully, former town champion, were seeded in the next three posts, respectively.

Given a bye in the opening round, Carey will face W. E. Moore, Sr., who created the only upset of the initial encounters by downing Leo Laskaris in unexpected fashion, 6-1 7-5. In the second set, Moore was forced to overcome a 5-2 lead which the younger player had built up.

Wheelless advanced to the quarter-final round by virtue of an easy 6-0, 6-1 conquest over George Mix who had forced Jim Hutchinson to bow before his superior stroking in the first match. Mix took the measure of Hutchinson to the tune of 6-1, 6-3, but found the former Blue Hen leader a little too much to handle.

Two Matches Rained Out

A single member of the Laskaris quartet, Tom, pushed his way through to the second round via an easy 6-4, 6-2 victory over Bill Fletcher. George and Chris Laskaris, slated to meet in the first round, were unable to play because of bad weather during the afternoon. The Harry Williamson-Bob Hancock encounter was also rained out. These two matches will be played this week.

Dr. C. R. Kase also scored an easy triumph in an opener by washing Dave Cronhardt off the courts to a 6-3, 6-1 tune.

Ten racquet wielders, advanced to the second round by virtue of byes, included Carey, Jack Sinclair, Lee Rice, Doc Nichols, Ned McCully, Wheelless, Bob Medl, Marshall McCully, El Miller and Steve Bartosheski.

Second round matches in the upper bracket will see Moore opposing Carey; Sinclair meeting the winner of the Hancock-Williamson fray; Rice matching strokes with Tom Laskaris and Nichols pitting his resources against Ned McCully.

In the lower section, Medl will meet the winner of the Laskaris brothers' contest. The emergence of the Medl match will oppose Wheelless in the quarter finals. Other second round contest pit Dr. Kase against Marshall McCully and Miller with Bartosheski.

Seven In Ladies' Tourney

When the fog of uncertainty had cleared away, seven entries were listed to play in the first ladies' round robin tournament which also made its debut on Sunday.

Undeclared in two starts, Miss Mary Lou (Reds) Gaffney gained undisputed possession of first position in the ladies round robin tourney by copping a well-played match from Mrs. Connie Goodwin 6-2, 6-4 and downing Mrs. Elizabeth Reese to a 6-1, 6-2 tune. Mrs. Reese had previously copped a 6-4, 6-1 verdict from Mrs. Louise Goddin.

After dropping the first set of her tilt, Miss Ann Chalmers came back to annex the next two frames by scores of 7-5 and 6-4 to defeat Mrs. Carol Ball in the only extra-set match of the tournament thus far. A strong service and powerful drive enabled Miss Chalmers to take the contest.

Mrs. Goodwin defeated Mrs. Marjorie Squire 6-3, 6-3 on Tuesday to

Captured Title In Ladies Bowling Circuit

Grabbing first place early in the campaign, the Condifco team of the Ladies Bowling League defended its position to take the circuit's first championship. Newark Twilight League Plans For Second Half; Several Changes Made Players lists were presented and plans made for the second half of the 1937 schedule at a special meeting of the Newark Twilight League Monday night. The session was held in the offices of the Continental Diamond Fibre Company.

Representatives included: Ellis P. Cullen, Continental; LeRoy C. Hill, Sr., J. Allison O'Daniel Post, American Legion; Charles E. Moore, National Vulcanized Fibre Company; George F. Jackson and W. Harry Dawson, Jackson's Hardware Store. C. H. Rutledge, president of the circuit, officiated. Junior Legion will replace the Newark Cardinals in the second portion of the race.

With four postponed games, all involving the Jackson team, current leader, yet to be played, it is likely that the first-half winner will not be determined until after the start of the second half next Wednesday.

Continental and Jackson's will tangle in a postponed scrap at Continental Field Friday night at 6:30, while Jackson's and National will meet Tuesday night, July 6, at Continental Field in the first of three postponed games between the two teams.

Holding a lead of one and one-half games over Continental, Jackson's can clinch the first-half bunting by winning two contests. In the event the leaders cop two straight victories, the two remaining postponed games with National will be cancelled.

Should Continental gain the nod Friday night it will be necessary for Jackson's to take two out of three from Charlie Moore's aroused National forces.

Umpire Is Dropped

Due to the failure of patrons to pay even a thin dime to view the games, it has become necessary for the circuit to dispense with the services of Norm Foster and Horsey Reynolds, umpires from the defunct Bi-State League, who have been handling the twilight affairs.

Large crowds have marked several first-half engagements, but collections have never been up to anything like an average for the attendance.

In an effort to start games promptly at 6:30, batting practice, unless taken early, was ordered dispensed with.

Planning for a post-season series of five games to determine the champion for the year, should different teams win each half, the directors decided to make it necessary for a player to have participated in at least four contests during the regular season in order to be eligible for the playoffs.

Team rosters are as follow:

Jackson's Hardware Store
Eddie Morgan, Paul Hawthorne, George Cook, Bill Deaver, Deenie Herstine, Earl McCord, Joe Cooney, Marvin Lucas, Bud Lloyd, Ferris Wharton, Steve Hubis, Roy Hill, Ray Beers, Neal Smythe, Huck Morrison and Vic Willis. Two players yet to be named.

Continental-Diamond Fibre Company
Charlie (Tink) Cole, John Edman, Jack Daly, Reggie Conway, Bill Barrow, Paul Whiteman, Bayard Perry, Jackie Myers, Harold Hickman, Howard Cage, Walter Brown, Robert Ewing, Wilbur Butts, Willard Crowe, Bob Egnor, Bill Fitzgerald, (Continued on Page 7)

Manager Hill Is Drilling Legion Squad For Tests

Losing such stars as Ewing, Butts, Mills, Warrington, Morrison, Morgan, and Doordan of the 1936 team that finished in the runner-up position for the Delaware championship, Manager LeRoy Hill is forced to rebuild his squad to represent the J. Allison O'Daniel Post in the annual American Legion tests for state and regional honors.

Since taking command of the "Little Legionnaires" in 1934, Hill has turned out state champions on two occasions and lost out last year for the first time to a classy Wilmington combination representing Delaware Post, No. 1. Any boy under 17 years old, or who has reached his seventeenth birthday since March 31 this year, is eligible for membership.

Some "Veterans" Return

While the 1937 aggregation is only in the formative stages, Hill has indicated that he will rely a great deal on seven "veterans," who are hold-overs from previous campaigns.

Included in the group of players eligible from last season are the Brooks brothers, Melvin and Norman, who hail from Glasgow; Albert Kee, William Hancock and Bob Plinick, of Newark High School; and Steve and Dick Burke, Cranston Heights.

New members of the squad include the following: a third Brooks, Henry; LeRoy Morris, Jr., Morton Gregg, Edgar Allison, William Smith, John Price and Sam Bayne, the latter a hurler from New Castle.

As a test for his charges before they swing into action as an entry in the Newark Twilight League on Wednesday night of next week, Hill will match his squad against an aggregation of former Legion players at Continental Field tonight.

Jackets Play Moorestown Team As July 4 Feature

After making a fruitless jaunt to Townsend last Sunday, when the club there failed to show up for a scheduled game, Cleaver Potts' Newark Yellowjackets will engage the Moorestown, N. J., team at Continental Field Sunday afternoon.

Following the July 4 engagement, the same teams will cross bats at Moorestown Monday.

Antarctica is held valueless.

"Longball" Anderson Defeats Defending Champion In Semi-Final Test

JULIAN MEETS MASTER

C. O. Houghton Meets Jeffers For Second-Sixteen Title Here Saturday

An all-Newark tournament finale, the first in several years, will be played Sunday over the Newark Country Club course with George F. (Longball) Anderson and R. B. Stewart, Jr., in the feature roles. The low medal score over 36 holes will decide the club championship for the season.

The current tournament saw the defeat of both B. Franklin (Sankey) Richards and H. A. (The) Turner, Jr., Wilmington stars who have had a strangle hold on the title for the last several seasons.

Stewart, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stewart, Sr., of 323 S. College Avenue, lowered Richards' colors in a quarter-finals match two weeks ago, while Anderson, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Anderson, reside opposite the local course at 309 W. Main Street, created a major upset in downing Turner, 2 and 1, in the semi-finals last Saturday.

Won Wilmington Title

Winner of the recent invitation tournament, when he literally burned up the course at the Wilmington Country Club, Turner was expected to breeze to his second straight title here.

Anderson played great golf to sink the vaunted Wilmingtonian, however, and came off with a well-earned triumph. In his semi-final clash with J. A. Julian, Wilmington, Stewart finished on the right end of a 3-and-2 score Saturday.

The 36-hole final match will get under way at nine o'clock Sunday morning with 18 holes scheduled before the luncheon recess. Al Gietner, pro in charge of the tournament, announced this week.

C. O. Houghton will match strokes with Charles H. Jeffers, Jr., of Elkton, for the second-sixteen crown as (Continued on Page 7)

FLASHES

By BILL FLETCHER

SLATED TO OPPOSE W. E. Moore, Sr., in the second round of THE POST (tennis title), Lew Carey, tourney favorite should have little trouble in wending his way to the final round.

Leo Laskaris, however, felt the sting of Mr. Moore's racquet in the first round and although latter isn't given much chance of coming through, the match should be an interesting one.

Spotting Leo, not only thirty years, but also an inactive past five years as far as tennis is concerned, Mr. Moore provided the only upset of the opening round when he trounced the champion of the Laskaris clan in an impressive manner.

Generally rated as the best of the Laskaris quartet, although Brother Charles makes things pretty hot, Leo looked lightly on his opener as an easy meal. It was not to be, however, and Leo found himself masticating an indigestible morsel to his surprise.

After throwing up the first course, Leo (that's Leo), evidently engaged by an acute case of stomachache, set his fangs into the second course with renewed energy, with digestive juices going full blast, Lickie his chops, as the number two serving was pleasingly pleasantly his palate, he found himself once again on the verge of "tossin' his cookies."

Mr. Moore turned on the ever-widening Lion (that's still Leo), scowled him over, skinned him, dusted up the courts with his hide and placed the rug in his living room.

SECOND SEEDED in the tourney, Chaucery Wheelless showed his heels to George Mix in easy fashion. Mix, although boasting of some excellent hits, proved too erratic to make any showing whatsoever against the former Blue Hen captain.

Wheelless, playing consistently, forced Mix into errors which proved his undoing.

WE SUBMIT a vote of thanks to those who are cooperating in the making of this annual affair, namely Mrs. Betty Johnston, Ned McCully and W. E. Moore, Sr., for use of nets, and George Mix for aiding with the manual labor.

FEMININE INTEREST in tennis skyrocketed when three more than the one announced last week, announced their intentions of participating in the girls' singles tournament.

Getting into the swing of things, the ladies broke the ice on Sunday with two matches that weren't half as hot as the one which should be plenty of sizzling contests ere the round robin winds up.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reese, endowed with hard driving forehead, was able to take the measure of Mrs. Louise Goodwin who displayed a good court game and should be in the running when the final tabulations are made.

Displaying good form at the base-line, Mary Lou (Reds) Gaffney showed Mrs. Connie Goodwin in a hard fought match and the results of the two matches played showed without doubt that the competition is slated to be close and tough.

Should this aroused interest continue and blossom out again next year a little bloomer, it is very possible that a regulation elimination tournament can be developed and a trophy similar to that awarded to the male champion placed into competition.

MISCELLANEOUS—For the past month, two or three gentlemen have attempted to borrow this strip for the purpose of waging war against a gentleman whom they accuse of not only knowing too much, but "telling more than is healthy for him."

Postal Heads To Launch Drive On 'Fake' Operators

Postmaster General James A. Farley announced recently that the Postal Inspection Service has launched a nation-wide drive against the operators of "fake" mutual benefit life protection organizations which have been conducting their fraudulent schemes through the mails. Complaints reaching the Post Office Department indicate that there are approximately one hundred such fraudulent enterprises now being operated in various sections of the country, which are costing the American public hundreds of thousands of dollars annually.

Two Are Sentenced

Added impetus has been given the drive by the eight-year Federal penitentiary sentence meted out to Angus C. Littlejohn of Springfield, Illinois, and the three-year sentence to Charles E. Hill of Lake Charles, Louisiana, both of whom were convicted for using the mails to defraud in connection with these spurious life protection organizations.

People in small towns and rural communities have fallen prey for the promoters of these so-called "not for profit" mutual benefit societies, associations and clubs, which bear such misleading names as "National Aid Society" and "Southern Life Club of Physicians' Guaranty Association," or others well known to the authorities.

STANDARDS OF READING RISE IN GREAT BRITAIN

The better seller of the year in Great Britain has not been a novel, but Col. T. E. Foolish Fire Calls

Members of the Christiana Fire Company are "burned up" over thoughtless Newark residents who fail to use even childish discretion when seeking aid at the time of a blaze.

Some 15 times within the last month Christiana firemen have been brought speeding into Newark in response to calls that should have been made to the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company here. Chief Elmer Ellison of the local force has traced the difficulty to people dialing the wrong telephone number for help.

The Aetna company has two listings, Newark 2911 and 2917, either of which will bring response. Newark 6054 should be dialed only by people in and near Christiana when firemen are needed. Page eight of the Diamond State Telephone Company's directory contains the alphabetical listing by towns of all fire companies in New Castle County.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Courtney Enos and two sons, Richard and Gilbert, of Lewes, have been visiting Mrs. Leonard P. Rhodes.

Mrs. William Hayes and children are spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Hook of Wilmington.

Miss Margaret Veazey, of Wilmington, visited Newark friends over Sunday.

Mrs. McCallan, of Snow Hill, Md., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Holloway.

Miss Helen Jarmon has returned from a visit with relatives at Berlin, Md.

Miss Annie Wilson is visiting Mrs. Margaret Wilson, in Wilmington.

Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Conover, of Jersey City, visited the former's brother, Professor Elisha Conover, last week. Dr. and Mrs. Conover were motoring from their home to Washington, to attend the Medical Convention in session there last week.

Mr. William Todd, of Elk Mills, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson.

Miss Frances McKnight, of Elkton, has been the guest of Miss Bertha Anderson.

Mr. Carroll Nickerson will erect a dwelling in the near future on the Depot road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapman are spending a week in Baltimore.

School commissioners of Welsh Traet School District, No. 54, have appointed Miss Katharine Heiser, of Newark, teacher for the coming year.

T. B. Ferguson has been awarded the contract to remove the several buildings that are on the site of the Joe Frazer Field. The contents of the buildings are being hauled to the college farm.

Fireworks Limitations

Chief of Police William H. Cunningham stated emphatically this week that the town ordinance relating to the sale of fireworks in Newark will be rigidly enforced this year.

The ordinance, adopted May 2, 1923, reads as follows: An ordinance declaring the making, storing, selling, disposing of, firing and exploding fire-crackers, fireworks and pistols within the Town of Newark, to be a public nuisance, except on July 3 and 4 of any year. Violators are subject to a minimum fine of $25 and a maximum penalty of $100.

Due to the fact that Independence Day falls on Sunday, police will permit fireworks displays on Saturday, July 3, and Monday, July 5, only.

Delaware Institution

The Murphy school, headed by Mr. Ehinger, is operated for dependent children from Kent and Sussex Counties. It ranks as one of the model institutions of its kind in the country. In addition to caring for younger children, the Murphy school carries its wards to the conclusion of their training. Two girls are attending the Women's College at the University of Delaware, and another from the school is expected to enter this fall.

Several boys have been entered in colleges, with additional boys going from the school to pursue studies in vocational training of various kinds. "Seeing the child through," is Mr. Ehinger's idea of conducting a school for orphans.

Character building, he said in closing, is best done by the example of the life you lead. Children will follow your example and will develop according to the plan of living you show them in your daily lives.

Feed Costs Leap

That feed prices advanced is shown by the report which states that the cost of feed in a poultry ration, which normally shows little price fluctuation at this time of year, increased from the high level of $1.96 per 100 pounds on March 15, 1937, to $2.14 on April 15. The April 15 feed price was 65 per cent higher than the 10 year average (1910-1914) price for April; 34 per cent higher than the April average for the years 1921-1930, and the highest April average since the War years, 1917-1920.

100 PUPILS ENROLL FOR BIBLE CLASS

Held Under Direction Of The Rev. Green; Assistants Appointed To Aid WILL END ON JULY 9

By Edna A. Dickey

In spite of stormy weather last Monday, approximately 100 children enrolled in the daily vacation Bible School being held at the Christiana-Salem Consolidated School under the direction of the Rev. Richard M. Green, pastor of the Christiana and Salem M. E. Churches. The faculty consists of the following: intermediate department, Rev. R. M. Green, instructor, assisted by Miss Dorothy Durand and Miss Alice Weldin; junior department, Mrs. R. M. Green, assistants, Mrs. Leroy Hawthorne and Mrs. William Reynolds; primary department, Mrs. Ethel Eastburn, assisted by Miss Katherine McMullen and Miss Naomi Veit; beginners department, Mrs. Edna Dickey, assistants, Mrs. Norbert Caswell and Mrs. Oscar Joche. The actual class room work will end on Friday, July 9. Closing exercises will be held in the auditorium of the school on Sunday evening, July 11. Mrs. William Johnson is acting as secretary of the school. The building is in charge of Jesse Dever the school janitor.

The Salem Young People held their annual hot dog roast at Port Herman on Friday evening.

Books Audited

The auditing committee of the Christiana Church met last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Henry Eastburn and audited the books of all church officials. A report will be given by this committee at the meeting of the First Quarterly Conference to be held in Salem M. E. Church on Tuesday evening, July 13. Dr. Gunby, district superintendent, will preside.

At the meeting of the local 4-H Club held last Friday evening in the school, the following program was presented: Report of the Short Course at the University of Delaware by Anna Wegrzynowski; piano solo by Clarke David; humorous reading, Nellie Edwards; vocal solo, Catherine Lebegern; recreation led by Marie Baker. Motion pictures were shown at the close of the program. Anna Amoroso was in charge of the business session.

Miss Catherine McMullen will meet with the cooking class every other Monday from 10 to 12 o'clock. Miss McMullen is taking the place of Miss Sara Murray who was forced to resign as project leader because of her work.

Among the club members who attended the Short Course at the University were: Jay Walker, Irving Hutchison, James McGrath, John Clayville, Anna Stevens and Anna Wegrzynowski.

Takes Teaching Post

Miss Dorothy Markert of Harrington, Delaware, has been appointed to fill the vacancy on the staff of the Christiana-Salem School, caused by the resignation of Miss Rachel Phelps. Miss Markert is a graduate of the Women's College of the University of Delaware and was president of the Student Government Association. She did her practice teaching in the Wilmington High School under the supervision of Miss Lelia Lynam.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawthorne, Miss Iva Eastburn and Mr. John Demmon spent the week-end in Atlantic City.

Mrs. A. Durrell Vincent and daughter, Carol Johanne, of Richardson Park, spent last week with Carol's great-grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Chambers. Mrs. Chambers celebrated her 80th birthday on Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Boggs is spending some time in Chicago.

HORACE GREELEY PREMATURE

Just before 1860, Horace Greeley, visiting the far West, predicted that California, then a state of about one-third million people, would have a population of three millions by 1900. It did not reach that mark until the 1920 census.

HOME RUN IS "LOST"

Judging by his present pace there is little doubt that Dolph Camilli, first sacker of the Phillies, will lead the National League home run hitters this season. Starting three weeks late Camilli already has belted 9 round trippers and now is only 3 behind Alex Kampouris, the Cincinnati Greek who occupies the upper berth. Camilli actually hit 10 but lost one when the records of a forfeited game did not count.

NUGENT, JUNIOR, TRAVELS

Gerald Nugent, Jr., nine-year-old son of the Phils owners, is making his first road trip with the team, accompanied by his daddy. Young Gerry has a new uniform, an exact duplicate of the Phil road gear, and he does it daily to perform his duties as official club mascot.

HURLER GOOD HITTER

"Bucky" Walters easily could march back into a regular infield position with the Phillies if he were not too valuable as a pitcher. In fact any such move would add to the batting strength of the club. Right now "Bucky" is hitting .417—the best average in the National League. Who said pitchers can't hit?
