A Happy New Year

SANTA CLAUS BRINGS $250,000 TO UNIVERSITY

Rodney Sharp Makes Gift Of Quarter Of Million For Building Of New Auditorium

HONORS DR. MITCHELL

Quarter of a million dollars as a present is how Santa Claus treated the University of Delaware.

Mr. Sharp's announcement of his $250,000 gift was made several days ago and came as a surprise to all but a few persons.

The present plans call for breaking ground for the building in March, and it is hoped to have it in shape for the opening of the cornerstone during commencement week in June.

It will be an auditorium in the strictest sense of the term, something the University never has had before.

The style of architecture selected is colonial, to make it in keeping with other new buildings on the campus.

The auditorium will have a seating capacity of about 1250 as against 400 of the present so-called auditorium of Mitchell Hall.

The new building will include a main floor and a large transverse gallery and two smaller side galleries.

It will be impossible to use the auditorium for dancing and other such purposes, because the floors will be laid on a slant in the most approved method of theatre construction.

Another important thing that is being worked out by experts is the matter of acoustics. Every expedient that is known to engineers will be applied toward making the acoustic properties of Mr. Sharp's gift as perfect as possible.

It is not the purpose to do away with the present auditorium in Wolf Hall. That will be kept for the small and less important art and other functions of the University.

The sad news came to Newark to-day of the death of Herman G. Dimmick, of Washington, D. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Dimmick, of Passaic, Pa.

MERCHANT'S YELLS SCARE OFF NEGROES WHO TRY TO HOLD HIM UP

Robert Motherall Strikes Assailant Who Places Gun to His Side and Tells Him to "Shove 'Em Up"; Attempt to Rob Storekeeper Early Christmas Eve; Police Arrest Two Who are Held for Grand Jury, One of Them Alleged to Have Confessed

With a revolver placed at his side, accompanied by the command to "shove 'em up," Robert Motherall, Main street merchant, did the unexpected when two negroes attempted to hold him up in his store early Christmas Eve and consequently frightened them off before they accomplished their apparent purpose of robbing him.

Mr. Motherall instead of putting his hands up as commanded, suddenly shoved the big negro with the gun, causing him to lose his balance when he went up against a counter. In the meantime Mr. Motherall started yelling "murder, police," and ran for the door leading to the street.

The negro also ran for the door and grabbed Mr. Motherall around the neck, scratching his chin with his finger nails. The merchant, however, had gotten the door partly open and as his screams had attracted the attention of persons on the street the two negroes implicated ran out the door and made their escape for a time.

Howard was arrested shortly after the attack on Mr. Motherall, while Cuff was found late Christmas night by Officer Keeley and Wideman at his home near Unionville, Pa., and was brought back by them to this town.

CHRISTMAS AT DELAWARE COLONY

Christmas at Delaware Colony was a happy occasion for all of the one hundred and thirty eight boys and girls there.

The Sussex County Christian Endeavor Societies visited the Colony on Wednesday afternoon and brought a treat for all the children and held religious services in all the cottages.

NEW CENTURY CLUB TO POSTPONE PARTY

Owing to the prevalence of grippe and other sickness, the executive board of the Newark New Century Club deem it advisable to omit the New Year's Eve party.

Instead of putting up his hands as commanded Mr. Motherall suddenly shoved the negro away from him.

The two officers were at the store within a few minutes after the attempted hold-up and took up the chase. In a short time they found Howard hiding in the Hollingsworth lumber and coal yard, which is on the opposite side of the railroad tracks from the Gregg property.

Howard denied any knowledge of the hold-up, but Mr. Motherall positively identified him as the man who pulled the gun on him.

Cuff, who is Howard's brother-in-law, according to the officers, confessed and told the entire story before Magistrate Thompson of the attempted hold-up.

"PAMBO." W. C. D. PRESS CLUB QUARTERLY

The Press Club of Women's College has justified its name and very existence by the publication of the first number of a quarterly magazine.

Being somewhat deficient in his knowledge of Browning, due to a deplorable lack of enthusiasm for much of his poetry, the writer can only assume that the title of the magazine, "Pambo," is well chosen and highly significant.

The title and motto on a handsome cover excite interest in the contents. These we have read with great satisfaction.

The poems and the narratives are all excellent and give promise of still better productions from the various writers.

Altogether, "Pambo" pleases us and this first number should prove a stimulus to the Press Club to produce an even better second number, thus preserving the "sunrise aim."

ASK BIDS AGAIN FOR POST OFFICE

Postmaster William H. Evans has received notification from the U. S. Treasury Department that bids are to be opened at Washington on January 21, at 3 o'clock, for the proposed new post office for Newark.

This will make the third time that bids have been opened for the proposed building, all of the previous estimates having been rejected because of being more than was available for the work.

Some days ago it was reported that $25,000 additional for the building had been provided in the new treasury department bill, recently passed by Congress, but Mr. Evans has received no notification that any additional amount has been provided.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubert, Kathryn and Floyd Hubert were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hastings, at their home in Wilmington.

YULETIDE SPIRIT IS MANIFESTED

Trees Decorated With Electric Lights On Many Local Lawns

Never in the history of Newark has there been more of the Yuletide spirit displayed generally than during the present Christmas season.

On Christmas Eve the usual exercises were held on Academy lawn, where the illuminated community tree is located.

The attendance at these exercises was the one disappointment of the Yuletide season locally. It was much smaller than we expected, but this was probably due to the fact that in many instances families are busy at that time on Christmas Eve at their homes and found it impossible to attend the exercises.

In all the local churches special services featured both Christmas Day and the Sunday previous to Christmas. At St. John's Catholic Church a crib, to represent the first Christmas at Bethlehem, was a feature and attracted considerable attention.

In another creditable way Christmas was observed locally in a more elaborate way than ever before, and that was in the number of decorated and illuminated trees on lawns.

Some of those having decorated lawn trees were H. Warner McNeal, J. P. Wright, E. B. Wright, H. L. Bonham, J. K. Johnston, Mrs. D. C. Rose, Armand Durant, Prof. G. L. Schuster, Dr. R. E. Price and others.

$1,050,000 FOR BOYS' SCHOOL

Buildings To Be Erected Near Middletown With Money Given By A. Felix duPont

A. Felix du Pont, a vice-president of the du Pont Company and a vestryman of St. John's Episcopal Church, Wilmington, has announced a gift of $1,050,000, for a boarding school for boys, to be located near Middletown.

Mr. du Pont paid $50,000 for the farm, about $500,000 will be used to erect building and $500,000 as an endowment. This next to the gift of Pierre S. du Pont, to the University of Delaware, and the gift of former Senator T. Coleman du Pont, for the du Pont boulevard, is the largest gift ever made by a Delawarean for any charitable, educational or civic purpose in the history of the state.

The farm where the school is to be located comprises 350 acres. It lies between Noxentown and Silver Lakes and is a half mile from the du Pont Highway.

The Delaware Church School Association will be incorporated by Allen Henry, Walter J. Laird and the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Delaware.

The school will be constructed and endowed by Mr. du Pont according to an announcement made by the charter committee.

More than a year ago Mr. A. Felix du Pont made known to a few friends his desire to build and endow a church boarding school for boys in the Diocese of Delaware.

READ PAPERS AT SCIENCE SESSIONS

Members of U. Of D. Faculty Attend Educational Meetings In Various Cities

Fifteen members of the faculty of the University of Delaware are attending annual sessions of various scientific and educational associations in different parts of the country and in Canada during the Christmas holidays.

Dr. H. L. Dozier, research entomologist, will read a paper before the American Society of Economic Entomologists on "Further results with fish soil as an adhesive in spray materials."

Professor George L. Schuster, agronomist, will read a paper on "Methods of research in pasture investigations," at a meeting of the American Society of Agronomists, to be held in New York this week.

At the Medical Science meetings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science at New York, Professor H. R. Baker, assistant professor of biology, will represent the University of Delaware.

Four members of the faculty will attend Modern Language Association meetings in Toronto, Canada, to be held from December 26 to 29.

Dr. E. B. Crooks, professor of philosophy and social science, will attend the meeting of the Philosophical Society, to be held in Philadelphia, December 27 to 29.

Dr. E. B. Crooks, professor of philosophy and social science, will attend the meeting of the Philosophical Society, to be held in Philadelphia, December 27 to 29.

Dr. E. B. Crooks, professor of philosophy and social science, will attend the meeting of the Philosophical Society, to be held in Philadelphia, December 27 to 29.

BASKETBALL AND DANCE

The boys and girls basketball teams of the local high school will battle with the alumni and alumnae teams in the armory tomorrow night.

Of more interest is the fact that a dance is to follow the basketball games. The dance will be held in the high school.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINED

Teachers of St. Thomas' Episcopal Sunday School entertained the children of the school at the parish house yesterday afternoon.

LEGISLATURE TO MEET AT DOVER ON JANUARY 1

Both Town Of Newark And University Will Ask For Legislation This Session

CHARTER IS NEED

The coming session of the Legislature, to convene at Dover on Tuesday of next week for organization, will be one of the most important in years for both Newark and the University of Delaware.

Charles B. Evans, J. Pearce Cann and George L. Townsend, Jr., compose a special committee appointed by Mayor E. B. Frazer to prepare a new town charter for presentation to the General Assembly.

It is understood that no drastic changes will be made from the present form of town government, but taking into consideration the new territory that came into the town under the extension bill of two years ago, two more districts are to be provided which will give the new sections better representation in Town Council.

The University of Delaware will not only ask the Legislature to make a small increase in the biennial appropriation for maintenance, but will also ask for special appropriations to finish the new engineering building and for two new buildings at the University College.

The present indications are that in the organization of the General Assembly, Senator William A. Simonton, of Wilmington, will be elected president pro-tem of the Senate, and C. W. Messick, of Sussex County, speaker of the House.

Should the Legislature succeed in organizing on Tuesday, January 1, without a deadlock in either house, which would be unusual for a Delaware Legislature during the past quarter of a century, Governor Robinson would deliver his message to the two houses in joint session that afternoon.

C. Douglas Buck, the incoming governor, will be inaugurated on Tuesday, January 15, the constitution providing that the inauguration of the governor shall take place on the third Tuesday in January following the election.

The young people of Ebenezer M. E. Church, having as their leader Prof. Paul Collins, are preparing to render a pageant, "Bethlehem," in the church New Year's Eve, December 31, at 8 o'clock.

TO GIVE PAGEANT

Following the pageant there will be stereopticon views and Watch Night service, conducted by Rev. Collins.

CROOK'S STORE DECORATED

While many of the local stores were attractively decorated for the Christmas holidays, one of the most attractive and elaborately decorated stores was that of the Crook's Company on Main street.

Alec Cobb, choir leader at the Presbyterian Church, is confined to his home with the grip. Due to Mr. Cobb's illness the choir of the Presbyterian Church was unable to render their usual Christmas music.

THE UMBRELLA HAS HAD A STORMY HISTORY

Although the umbrella is known to be as old as some of the sculpture of ancient Egypt, it was not until the middle of the eighteenth century that it became an accessory which might be shamelessly carried by an Englishman.

JUST JUNK!

Yes—just junk! A little corner in one of a thousand cemeteries for broken cars. And what percentage died a natural death? Just figure it out for yourself.

According to the figures of the National Safety Council there were 25,800 automotive fatalities during 1927. There is no good reason to believe this astounding total will be lowered during 1928.

In all of the large towns of Great Britain there are legends of the first courageous citizens who carried umbrellas. In Edinburgh a physician named Spens is said to have been the pioneer.
