Fair Housing Plan Revisions Scheduled For May 13, Action

Council Defers Action On Proposed Ordinance In 7-0 Vote Before Overflow Audience; Councilman Mayer Warns Of Expedience With "Pressure-Packed Meeting"

"I would find it impossible to vote for a bill if it was not as good as it should be," Mayor Norma B. Handloff said last Monday night after 15 persons in a standing-room-only audience had spoken in favor of proposed fair housing legislation. And Councilman Arthur P. Mayer added that he would "rather see it go to the solicitor for revision... for a good piece of legislation."

Re-elected BS4 President

Councilman David H. Doehler, who introduced the ordinance to prohibit discrimination in housing, proposed "that this bill be sent to the solicitor for his recommendations on including changes" with council to consider revised legislation at the 7:30 meeting in May. And revision of the proposed fair housing law for May 13, 1968, was approved in a 7-0 vote of the members of Newark City Council last Monday night.

Esy Passage Two Ordinances were approved unanimously and without debate prior to discussion of a fair housing law for Newark—ordinances establishing a municipal position title of Accountant I, and setting the annual salary of the secretary-treasurer at $9,600.

Mayor Handloff, announcing "ground rules" for audience participation in discussion of the fair housing proposal, stated that this was to be a "hearing, not a debate or argument," and that speakers were to address council with remarks limited to five minutes.

Geraldine Wyatt Reports College Recruiting Rise

College recruiting activity, after a slow start this year, is back at the record high of last season — a least at the bachelor's level.

The College Placement Council's second salary survey report for 1967-68 shows that a recent flurry of activity has not only recouped any deficit in volume, but placed this year's figures for bachelor's candidates about two per cent ahead of the totals at this point a year ago.

This announcement was made by Mrs. Geraldine M. Wyatt, director of placement at the University of Delaware.

Directors Of DP&L Elect 2 As VP's; McKenna To Retire

Last Friday, directors of Delmarva Power & Light Co. elected Charles G. Minich, Jr., to the newly-created position of vice-president of gas operations, effective April 1, and named Edward F. Spear to succeed Thomas W. McKenna, who retires April 1, as vice-president of sales and public relations on the same date.

Minich, a native of Wilmington, graduated from the University of Delaware in 1933 with a BS in electrical engineering. He joined DP&L as a clerk in the gas department, and was successively cabinet electrician, engineer, plant engineer at the gas plant; assistant and then superintendent of gas distribution, before being named manager of gas operations in 1957.

Spear was born in Cumberland, Md., served in the Army during World War II and graduated from Drexel Institute of Technology in 1947 with a BS in electrical engineering. He joined DP&L immediately as a junior power sales engineer. McKenna graduated from Stevens Institute of Technology with a degree in mechanical engineering, and worked in Boston before joining the DP&L sales department in 1950.

He was commercial sales manager for 19 years before he was elected vice-president last April upon the retirement of Fred B. Leslie. He is a member of the State Board of Corrections and received the Vocational Award in 1966 for his work with the Correctional Council of Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenna reside in Newark.

White Clay Creek Reservoir Hearing Delayed For Study

A public hearing on the proposed White Clay Creek dam and reservoir project is not ready to be scheduled, according to New Castle County Executive William J. Conner.

New Castle County planners held a meeting recently and engineers from the two counties will meet later, Conner said.

Further meetings are scheduled also with the Delaware River Basin Commission and the Delaware Water and Air Resources Commission to review plans for the project. Conner said "regulatory agencies and professionals" are being given the chance to look over the plans and "crank their ideas in before we seek public approval."

Valdes Of Panama Visits At Schools Under Carvel Plan

Alfredo Valdes, teacher of history, geography, and religion at the Panama American Institute in Panama, is visiting the Newark special school district for six weeks as part of the Panama-Delaware exchange program established by former Gov. Elbert N. Carvel.

Since its inception, the mutual cooperation project has provided opportunities for Delawareans to visit Panama during their school vacation periods, and for Panamanians to return visits during their school vacation periods now in progress.

Senior Valdes earned his bachelor of arts degree in sociology from the University of Montana, and is a graduate of a Methodist seminary in Costa Rica. He is an associate minister in a Panama City church.

In Newark, Valdes has been visiting Spanish classes to converse with students in language of mutual interest.

The Panamanian visitor reports that questions most often asked him about his country include the relationship of the United States to Panama; problems of the Panama Canal; and Panamanian views about America's racial problems and American involvement in Vietnam.

Senior Valdes reports that he has been amazed at the depth of the questions and at the understanding and grasp students have of international problems.

The teacher is living with various families in the Newark district during his stay in the country.

These families include Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Schneck (Schneck is principal of the Jennie E. Smith Elementary School); Dr. and Mrs. John E. Allen (Allen is assistant superintendent of the Newark school district); and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bohning (Bohning is supervisor of foreign languages for Newark schools).

Fashions, Weather Show Signs Of Spring At Peggy Cronin Alden's Shop In Newark

In fittings with Peggy Cronin Alden's spring fashions for the Saturday show to be presented this Saturday for the Women's Civic Club of Elkton, at the North East Yacht Club, spring was evident with daffodils and hyacinths pushing their way through the ivy in the window box outside of her Peggy Cronin Fashions shop on Newark's East Main Street yesterday morning.

"Models really like the new, pretty, romantic and feminine look," Mrs. Alden said of the new spring fashions.

"There's an interesting freedom in fashions — the right to wear whatever you want to wear. Nothing is to be taken too seriously these days in the fashion field."

rather, it is what amuses that makes fashions go," she continued.

"That's why," they called our spring show Fun Fashions. Colors are exciting; waistlines here, there, everywhere — or not at all.

"Lengths range from the mini (14-in. above the knee), the midi, knee or mid-calf, called the 'midi,' or the ankle with the nomenclature 'maxi,' with longer lengths for after-dark informals for the Seventeen teen-age group," Mrs. Alden added.

But for all, she predicts a lady-like length "for those who wish to look lady-like" between the mini and the midi for daytime.

"For suits," Mrs. Alden continued, "there'll be a mixed-up separate-look, with hip little pleated skirts and longer jackets, as well as the short, short jacket with the dandy skirt."

"And it's fun to be in this mixed-up fashion business!" Peggy Cronin Alden concluded convincingly.

For summer, Peggy Cronin Alden thinks there'll be a battle between the bright, gay, and comfortable shift, and the very short, full-skirted dress with shiny patent-leather belt.

Francis Hoffman Wed To Richard Pozzuto

Miss Frances Hoffman and Richard Pozzuto were married March 23, in the Unitarian Fellowship Church, Newark.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Newark Country Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hoffman of Newark.

Mr. Pozzuto is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Pozzuto of Bangor, Pa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an emerald gown with fitted bodice and full skirt forming a short train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Best man was Lawrence Pelegrino of Philadelphia. Ushers were Benjamin Lowenstein, and John Hoffman, brother of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to New York City the couple will reside in Hialeah, N. Y. where both are students at Cornell University.

Iron Hill Road Accident Cause Skull Fracture

A Newark man was listed in serious condition at Delaware Division last Monday as the result of a one-car accident on Iron Hill Road, state police reported.

Robert Inman, 29, of 33 Thompson Circle, suffered a skull fracture when the car in which Inman was a passenger struck a tree Saturday morning about a half-mile north of Old Baltimore Pike.

The driver of the car, William Cunningham, 39, of near Iron Hill, was admitted to the same hospital with multiple injuries. His condition was reported fair.

City Council

Brown said that the "Negro has a thing going for him that no other ethnic group does. Unfortunately, we can't change our skin color."

Mayor Harshoff spoke in defense of "our bi-racial committee" with "they are not seeking glory."

Hugh F. Gallagher, Jr., said that his and other local real estate firms operated under the Greater Wilmington Board of Realtors code of ethics and that they "have been successful to have homes listed on open occupancy basis."

James Neal urged adoption of the fair housing proposal with "basically the ordinance is sound," and cited it as "not legislating morality, but legislating against discrimination."

Tabling Negro Rights

Leland D. Smucker said that "need has been made evident," and that delay in passage of fair housing regulations would be "tabling rights of Negro people and other minority groups."

Daniel Nelson said that "passage would have important psychological effect," and might result in "passage of a bill that would cover the entire state." William Sanford reported that a church commission in social concerns "supports the bill as presented to council."

Threatening Letter

Councilman William M. Coverdale reported receipt of a letter urging adoption of fair housing legislation, fair housing otherwise is obtained "without doubt by force," according to the writer's threat.

Consideration of a revised municipal ordinance was delayed until a special meeting scheduled for next Monday night, with a 4-3 vote for adjournment at 10:30 p.m. last Monday.

Earlier in the meeting, council awarded contracts to Newark-Calmont division of Washington Corp. for a year's supply of cold water meters, and to United Electric Co., Wilmington, for transformers and conductors.

And council unanimously adopted a resolution for demolition of three garages at 28 West Cleveland Avenue and dwellings at 52 and 44 Ray and Corbit Streets, with enforcement of the minimum housing code.

COURAGEOUS COUNCIL

With eloquent spokesmen in an overflow audience favoring immediate passage of proposed fair housing legislation last Monday night, Mayor Norma Handloff and Newark's six councilmen displayed real courage and integrity in unanimously rejecting an adaptation of West Chester's ordinance with their belief that the city will best be served by more careful consideration.

Public pressure at Monday's meeting would have swayed less courageous elected representatives of the people, and the atmosphere fairly crackled with the high voltage of civil rights.

Much progress has been made with the fair housing problem in Newark, but those who suffer from any discrimination have good reason to be impatient. However, peremptory reform can be catastrophic, and reformers were in good voice at Monday's meeting.

We believe that any fair housing problem in Newark will be solved by competent, conscientious council consideration, and commend Mayor Handloff and our councilmen for demonstrating admirable courage in upholding their convictions against powerful public pressure.

Mike Dutton Graduates

In Navy Basic Training
Seaman Apprentice Michael R. Dutton, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dutton of 515 Nottingham Road, Newark, graduated recently from nine weeks of basic training at the Great Lakes (Ill.) Naval Training Center.

In transition from civilian life to naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers; studied seamanship, survival techniques, military drill, and other subjects.
He has been assigned to atomic submarine duty with the Navy.

State Chairman Endorses Local Fair Housing Bill

Newark's proposed open-housing ordinance is "entirely suitable for a community like Newark," according to a letter received from the State Human Relations Commission's chairman.
Dr. Henry N. Herndon wrote that the proposal is "well drawn" and that he "would like to see it passed."
Herndon said the letter was sent in response to questions asked by Mayor Norma B. Handloff, and gives his opinions after consulting the commission staff.

Motor Club President

Edwin F. Koester

Ex-Chief Engineer Elected President Of State AAA Club

Retired in 1957 as chief engineer of the City of Wilmington, Edwin F. Koester was elected president of the Delaware Motor Club AAA at its annual meeting last Monday in the Hotel DuPont.

Koester, a director of the club since 1956, succeeds Charles H. Galt, Jr., vice-president, Kent County; Dr. Asher B. Carey, vice-president, Sussex County; William H. Frederick, treasurer; William R. Stevens, assistant treasurer; and William P. Markland, secretary.

Directors reelected to three-year terms are J. James Ashton, Ralph T. Grier, Koester, John LaMothe, and John N. McDowell.

Koester served the City of Wilmington for 41 years. He was named assistant engineer in 1916; traffic engineer in 1933; and chief engineer in 1948.

3-Story Building To Be Constructed At Est. $300,000

Medical Developers, Inc. To Lease Office Space; Summer Completion Slated
Construction is scheduled to begin next month on the third office building announced for central Newark in recent months.

Completion is expected by late summer.
The three-story building to be erected in the 300 block East Main Street adjacent to the Newark Medical Building, will be known as the Newark Professional Building.

Estimated construction costs is $300,000.

The building offering 15,000 sq. ft. of rental space, will be constructed and owned by Medical Developers, Inc., which is also leasing the space.

According to the corporation, about half the building is leased on the basis of plans by architect Thomas Walters of Wilmington. The remaining space is expected to be leased when the building is ready for opening.

The medical section of the building will provide facilities for radiology, pathology, and pharmacy services, and ramps or street level entrances will facilitate entry of patients who can't walk.

The corporation is offering space to attorneys, accountants, architects, insurance companies, and banks, and such service businesses as barber and beauty shops.

McCann Realty Co. is assisting Medical Developers with the leasing.

Five Instructors In English Dept. To Quit University

Administration Of ROTC Incident Cited By Four As Factors In Departure

Five University of Delaware English instructors have announced they will leave the university this June.

Two of them cited the administration's handling of ROTC protests last fall as major factors in their departures.

Two others said their decisions to leave were made before the incident, but that otherwise the incident would have prompted their departure.

A university spokesman said that the loss of five from the 40-member department was not an uncommon turnover, and that "there is no significant or unusual faculty turnover of any kind" at the university.

The spokesman said that more than 100 new staff and faculty personnel came to the university in the fall and that the university expects to lose some faculty members each year.

Dr. Irving Ribner, an Elizabethan scholar who has been at the university since 1964 is going to the State University of New York, Stony Brook, L. I., as a full professor.

Also going to the Stony Brook campus is Dr. Thomas I. Kranidas, associate professor at the university for two years.

The others leaving are Dr. Roger H. Sundell, Dr. Stephen C. Moore and Dr. Richard A. Yoder, all assistant professors.

Last Oct. 12, a group of students disrupted a Reserve Officer Training Corps drill to protest the compulsory program at more than six weeks of student and faculty protests that led to the suspension and later readmission of more than 20 students.

On Dec. 4, three faculty members who signed a "symphony confession" to participation in the walk-on were relieved of their advisory duties by the board of trustees. And, at the same time, a letter cautioning all faculty members about engaging in disruptive practices was issued.

On Jan. 16th the university changed its policy and made ROTC voluntary beginning next September. It is now compulsory for two years.

Moore, now assistant to the head of the department, has been at the University of Delaware since 1963. He is going to the University of California.

In his fourth year at Delaware, Sundell said he has an offer at the University of Wisconsin.

Yoder said he decided to leave before the Dec. 4 letter but this would have precipitated his leaving anyhow. He said his wife, Dr. Isabel Yoder, a member of the house staff at the Delaware Division, received an offer of a better appointment in Boston so he is going to look for a high school job there.

If you're paying more than a dollar a month for your checking account, check out at the bank where "people make the difference..."

MINI-CHARGE CHECKING ACCOUNTS

Delaware Trust Company has two ways to save you money on your checking account: mini-balance requirements and mini-service charges. For example:

REGULAR CHECKING ACCOUNT SERVICE at Delaware Trust is free when your monthly balance averages $200. In no case will service charges exceed a dollar a month. Many other banks require balances of $300 or more and even charge higher fees.

Now if you're someone who needs only a small account balance, you'll find that DELAWARE TRUST TIRIFTCHECKS were specially designed for you. Their checks cost just 10¢ each when you use them — with no minimum balance requirement and no monthly service charge.

If you're paying more money for less service, we suggest you find out more about mini-charge checking accounts at the bank where "people make the difference..."

Your telephone manager in Wilmington

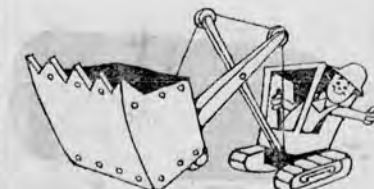

BOUND and DETERMINED

How would you summon aid if a Bonnie-and-Clyde type left you tied hand and foot? A service station operator in this dilemma used his tongue to dial for help. And a woman theater manager managed to dial with her nose. The odds are heavily against your ever having to resort to extremes like these, but the incidents do point up how important your telephone can be in an emergency. Or, for that matter, your nose.

KEEP US POSTED—Planning to move? Tell us where early... even though you know only the approximate date. If we have your new address, we're a giant step along the way toward making certain you'll have the phone service you need. And when teenage daughters are involved, this is particularly important. Because as everyone who has one knows—teenage daughters and their telephones are as easily separated as Lisa and a blanket. Bless 'em all.

THE MAN OF THE HOUSE—Though it's true that most credit for telephonitis usually goes to teenagers and their mothers, Dad should not be ignored. It's estimated that the typical businessman spends some 9,000 hours on the phone—the equivalent of a full year—during his career. That's using your phone for all it's worth.

HEY, MR. CONSTRUCTION MAN—please look before you dig big. Because if you don't, a lot of us... your friends and neighbors... may be in for big trouble. There could be a phone cable directly beneath where you're getting ready to bury that shovel, a cable vital to the community. Hospitals, fire departments, things like that. It happens. So if you're in doubt about the location of underground circuits, call our Repair Service. They'll tell you quickly what areas to avoid—and then you can plant your shovel without raising Cain.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

As a voter in District 3 of the City of Newark at the up and coming elections, I am getting a little bit confused as to the park project that Mr. Fassnacht is talking about.
This letter is really directed to Mr. Fassnacht in regard to his experience on the Planning Commission and his work for adequate parkland. It is my understanding that the total capital budget for the city for parkland is $25,000, and the 3rd district was allocated $70,000 for parkland development. This specific allocation was for just one park and I believe it is on Phillips Avenue. This $70,000 represents only 74 per cent of a total expenditure. Where is the balance, or 92.6 per cent going?
I realize that there are six districts in the city and that District 3 is receiving 74 per cent. Does this mean that the 92.6 per cent left is to be divided with the remaining five districts?
Is this to be considered adequate parkland for one of the largest districts in the area, and is this Mr. Fassnacht's idea of working for adequate parkland?

50 Extension Courses Scheduled This Summer

Fifty summer extension courses have been scheduled by the University of Delaware at five locations in the state, with 24 courses at Newark.

Brochures listing courses and providing registration information can be obtained by writing to the Extension Division, 70 Anselst Avenue, Newark.

Social Security Offices Offer Extra Insurance

The Social Security office in Wilmington will remain open to the public until 9 p.m. next Monday, District Manager Myron Milbourn said, to give people 65 or older a last-minute opportunity to sign up for the voluntary doctor bill insurance under Medicare.

The open enrollment period for older people who missed their first chance to enroll ends April 1.

Milbourn pointed out that people who have passed 65 and who do not register for supplementary medical insurance by April 1, will have to wait another year.

OLDER WORKERS

Dr. Hector J. LeMaire, executive director for the Delaware Commission for the Aging in Smyrna, has announced that discrimination in employment against any person 40 to 65 years old, solely because of age, is forbidden by federal law.

Tom Palmer Pitches First Five Innings As Coach Bob Hannah's Hens Lose Opener

Newark's right-hander Tom Palmer pitched the first five innings of Delaware's season opener last Monday, as Syracuse stopped Coach Bob Hannah's Hens 9-4 on the local field. Bob Fischer is slated to pitch at Monmouth this afternoon, and Hannah's Hens face Philadelphia Textile here at home on Saturday at 2 p.m. Before taking their spring trip south.

Delaware is slated to play Davidson next Monday, meeting North Carolina State twice, Lynchburg Catholic University, and Georgetown on successive days through Saturday, April 6.

"We're a stranger team man-for-man than we were last season," said Hannah, "and I'm confident we're going to prove it." Last year's team won 10-9.

Only two of the Syracuse eight runs were earned.

"Well, this was the first game and we have a lot of sophomores

(four) who started," said Hannah. "It's a situation conducive to errors, but they'll all settle down before too long."

Two errors came in the first inning, by second baseman Dave Yalza and coupled with two hits and a pair of walks off Palmer, led to four Syracuse runs before a man was out.

"Throw out that first inning and we didn't do badly at all," Hannah said.

Hannah used three pitchers in all and all seniors. Palmer went the first five innings, Gene Waldman the next three and Tom Fischer the ninth. Nine escaped unscathed.

Syracuse used only right-hander Greg Lowe, who went the full nine innings.

Delaware scored one in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the last—all earned.

Leftfielder Wayne Evans, one of four senior starters, was the only Hens man with more than one hit, while four of the six sophomores who saw action contributed hits, including a pinch hit single by Dave Klunger.

Evans knocked in the first Hens run with his ground single under the third baseman's glove, scoring sophomore shortstop Jim Robinson, who had doubled.

Two were scored in the fifth on singles by Third Baseman Rick Hale, Rightfielder Glenn Hinton and Klunger, and a double ston.

The final Delaware run came after Evans led off with a double, Centerfielder Dave Cathcart singled, and Evans scored on a double play ball by Hale.

Tri-Hi-Y Tournery Won By Ratykiis; Trojans Defeated

In the finals of the Western Branch YMCA Tri-Hi-Y basketball tournament played last Saturday morning, Ratyki defeated Gamma Phi Beta 21-14.

The champion Ratyki Trojans were led by Phyllis Tucker and Brigitte Vincent with eight and seven points respectively.

Outstanding on defense for Ratyki was Tim Olson.

Gamma Phi Beta lost to Ratyki 18-10 in the consolation game.

The championship was Ratyki's third in four years. Alpha won the title in 1967.

Ratyki gained a berth in the finals of the Tri-Hi-Y tournery by defeating Omega Chi 16-7, and Gamma Phi Beta 20-10 in the consolation games.

The following players were selected to the 1968 Tri-Hi-Y All-Tournament team: Phyllis Tucker, Teddy McMorris and Brigitte Vincent (Ratyki); Debbie Aiken (Alpha); and Kim Osmick and Fran Grost (Gamma Phi Beta).

In Hi-Y action the Newark league champion Trojans were defeated by the Wilmington Trojans for the 1968 Western Branch YMCA basketball crown by a 47-23 score.

Bob Hayes, Jack Smiley, and Dave Dunbar each had a dozen points for the Trojans.

Tom Crowley paced the Trojans with 15 points.

How Heavyweight Weikart 2-2 For NCAA Tournery

University Park Pa — Delaware Heavyweight Marty Weikart, was eliminated from the NCAA Wrestling Championships here Friday night when he was pinned by 225-pound Al Borkowski of Northwest Missouri State in a 1-49.

Earlier, Weikart, a 260-pound sophomore, won an 11-2 decision over Joe Kutniowski of Fairleigh Dickinson in a qualifying bout for the consolation round.

Weikart, who had split a pair of bouts Thursday, closed his tourney bid with a 2-2 record and 22-4 overall.

Delaware's Bob Woerner Wins Three-Mile Event

The Delaware Track and Field Club's second annual March Madness Meet at Conrad High School, Ken Medlin, a 15-year-old Philadelphia schoolboy who represented the Penn Athletic Club, won the six-mile event in 31:31.

Football fanlier instead of to a rockfish connoisseur of blood bank garden huckle.

Well, as a matter of fact, we had — just last Sunday — when Joe Marousek was celebrating his 40th anniversary with his wonderful wife at a surprise party given by his daughter Louise and her husband Arthur Bennett.

"I caught a big carp, several small rock, and a dozen nice white perch fishing off the beach in the Delaware River near Port Penn," Mr. Marousek said.

"Louise fried some of the perch, but after tasting one, I buried the rest of the fish around a tree in the yard. They tasted like an oil refinery," Joe concluded with regret.

"You've probably never heard of the place," Mrs. June Rickerson said of Anna Maria Island where her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Troup Howell Rickerson, reside on the west coast of Florida, as we had lunch last Friday with Howard Johnson's beautiful blonde public relations representative in the Chart Room of South College Avenue.

And June Rickerson, along with Manager Granville H. Smith, had every reason to regret mentioning Anna Maria to a former Floridian who knew the island well in the halcyon days when it was a man inhabited bit of paradise where he experienced some of the finest fishing ever.

June pronounced Maria the way we say the last name of the Columbus flagship, while we used to call it "Marla" — like the wind in the song. But either way, the semi-tropical island where its snowy sand beaches are washed by the emerald Gulf of Mexico with its treasure trove of tarpon, kingfish, amberjack, bluefish, grouper, redfish, snook, ladyfish, cobia, and spotted trout, remains marvelously serene and unspoiled since Mr. S. R. Tangle first took a boy there on a fishing trip too many years ago.

It was from Anna Maria that we first saw the gorgeous green Gulf, and it was just off the white beach where we tumbled from a sand dune in the time-honored water that the best fish in a boy's life — a seven pound black grouper — was snatched a red and white plug and nearly snatched a young man and some highly prized tackle over the stern.

From the south end of Anna Maria Island in Long Boat Key Pass, we caught yard-long snook and redfish in the moonlight, while the water burst into a silvered phosphorescent display of fireworks with fish feeding frantically below and on the surface.

Thank you, June Rickerson, for mentioning Anna Maria. And Mr. Millsboro Smith is a patient flatterer, too.

CHS Lettermen Craig, Pilnick, Robertson Report To Coach Isaac Mapp For Tennis

Lettermen Phil Craig, Steve Pilnick and Teddy Robertson are the nucleus for Coach Isaac Mapp's varsity tennis team at Christiana High School — the only letter-winners in a squad of 12 working out with Mapp for the season opener on Friday, April 5, with the Bulldogs at Broadview High School.

The Vikings will play their home matches on their own courts recently constructed at Christiana High School.

Jack Hopper Heads Juniata Wrestling Team Next Season

Jack Hopper of Newark, has been named co-captain of the Juniata College wrestling team for next season.

Coach Bill Herrier cited Hopper as a key factor in the Indians' sixth straight winning season.

Hopper, who wrestled in the 130-pound division, had a 7-2-1 record in dual meet competition last season, and ranked fourth place in the Middle Atlantic Conference Tournament.

To the tournament, he defeated last year's champion, Lycoming's Dave Johnson, in a preliminary round.

Hopper wrestled at Newark and at Christiana High.

Fullback Spangler Lacrosse Captain Of Heineken Hens

Delaware Lacrosse Coach Mickey Heineken expects his team to be improved this year, but the Blue Hens may have trouble duplicating last year's 6-6 record.

"We have better personnel than we had last year," Heineken notes, "but our schedule is very difficult and we are going to need an extraordinary team effort to have a winning season."

Heineken, who has a 29-16 record in four years as the Hens coach, sees a lack of depth as the main obstacle to a successful season.

Capt. John Spangler, starting fullback on the football team for three straight years, is the Hens' only experienced defenseman.

The Hens open their season at home with a Middle Atlantic Conference game against Stevens on April 16.

Jim Flynn Faces Springfield Friday In Track Practice

Delaware's track team will have an outdoor practice meet against Springfield College this Friday at 4 p.m.

Coach Jimmy Flynn's Blue Hens are preparing for their 1968 season which opens April 6 with the American University Relays in Washington.

"We will probably run a lot of relays this Friday, Flynn says. "A practice meet of this sort gives everybody a chance to run under competitive conditions."

Flynn has a dual meet record of 39-1 in his seven years as head track coach.

The Hens have seven dual meets on their schedule and will compete in the West Virginia, Penn. and Quantico relays, and the Middle Atlantic Conference championship meet.

Charlie Pinto, No. 2 Player For Hens With Golf Opener

Delaware Golf Coach Scotty Duncan has selected his lineup for the Blue Hens' opening match at Christiana High School, Sukato, a quarter, half and one-mile, is backed by lettermen Bob Tills, a two-miler; and Jim Todd in the 220 and low hurdles.

Charlie Pinto, 11-4 last year, will be the second man for the Hens in the opener. Pinto, a junior from Newark, and Jim Powell of Wilmington join Riley as the lettermen in the lineup.

Powell, 13-3 last year as a sophomore, will be the No. 3 player for Duncan's team.

The Hens will play American and Georgetown at the Washington County Club, D.C., next Monday; then spend the next three days playing at Virginia Beach.

Our Redeemer Champions Retain Volleyball Title

Last year's champs in the Greater Newark Recreation Association Men's Volleyball League have won it again.

Our Redeemer Lutherans with a 13-3 record finished two games ahead of St. Anthony's but in the last night of action, 11-4 St. Anthony's defeated Our Redeemer in a close contest.

Kingswood finished third with a 9-6 loss, followed by the 8-7 Newark Blues, the 5-12 Independents, and 11-4 Cherokee Woods.

TOP RIDER

Garth Patterson, champion jockey of 1967 at Delaware Park with 60 winners, is expected to be on hand to open defense of his title when the Stanton track begins a 61-day meeting on May 30.

The capstair of South America, world's largest mouse, weighs as much as 100 pounds, measures four feet in length, and stands nearly two feet high at the shoulder.

"We have better personnel than we had last year," Heineken notes, "but our schedule is very difficult and we are going to need an extraordinary team effort to have a winning season."

Heineken, who has a 29-16 record in four years as the Hens coach, sees a lack of depth as the main obstacle to a successful season.

Capt. John Spangler, starting fullback on the football team for three straight years, is the Hens' only experienced defenseman.

The Hens open their season at home with a Middle Atlantic Conference game against Stevens on April 16.

Jim Flynn Faces Springfield Friday In Track Practice

Delaware's track team will have an outdoor practice meet against Springfield College this Friday at 4 p.m.

Coach Jimmy Flynn's Blue Hens are preparing for their 1968 season which opens April 6 with the American University Relays in Washington.

"We will probably run a lot of relays this Friday, Flynn says. "A practice meet of this sort gives everybody a chance to run under competitive conditions."

Flynn has a dual meet record of 39-1 in his seven years as head track coach.

The Hens have seven dual meets on their schedule and will compete in the West Virginia, Penn. and Quantico relays, and the Middle Atlantic Conference championship meet.

Charlie Pinto, No. 2 Player For Hens With Golf Opener

Delaware Golf Coach Scotty Duncan has selected his lineup for the Blue Hens' opening match at Christiana High School, Sukato, a quarter, half and one-mile, is backed by lettermen Bob Tills, a two-miler; and Jim Todd in the 220 and low hurdles.

Charlie Pinto, 11-4 last year, will be the second man for the Hens in the opener. Pinto, a junior from Newark, and Jim Powell of Wilmington join Riley as the lettermen in the lineup.

Powell, 13-3 last year as a sophomore, will be the No. 3 player for Duncan's team.

The Hens will play American and Georgetown at the Washington County Club, D.C., next Monday; then spend the next three days playing at Virginia Beach.

Our Redeemer Champions Retain Volleyball Title

Last year's champs in the Greater Newark Recreation Association Men's Volleyball League have won it again.

Our Redeemer Lutherans with a 13-3 record finished two games ahead of St. Anthony's but in the last night of action, 11-4 St. Anthony's defeated Our Redeemer in a close contest.

Kingswood finished third with a 9-6 loss, followed by the 8-7 Newark Blues, the 5-12 Independents, and 11-4 Cherokee Woods.

TOP RIDER

Garth Patterson, champion jockey of 1967 at Delaware Park with 60 winners, is expected to be on hand to open defense of his title when the Stanton track begins a 61-day meeting on May 30.

The capstair of South America, world's largest mouse, weighs as much as 100 pounds, measures four feet in length, and stands nearly two feet high at the shoulder.

Capt. Pete Sukalo Heads Track Vikings With Three Lettermen For Jim DiStefano

One of three returning lettermen, Pete Sukalo has been elected captain of Coach Jim DiStefano's Viking track and field squad at Christiana High School, Sukato, a quarter, half and one-mile, is backed by lettermen Bob Tills, a two-miler; and Jim Todd in the 220 and low hurdles.

The Vikings open the season at Conrad High School on April 22.

Roy Rylander's Neimen Lose Rochester Opener

The University of Rochester won two of three doubles matches in edge Delaware 5-4 at Frazer Field last Monday in the first tennis outing for both teams.

Dave Darrak and Dennis Harbette were double winners for Coach Roy Rylander's Blue Hens, each winning his singles match before combining for Delaware's only win in doubles competition.
