Recommendation from the Committee on Undergraduate Studies (Tomas Leitch, Chair) with the concurrence of the Coordinating Committee on Education (Charles Boncelet, Chair) and the Executive Committee (Karen Stein, Chair) for the creation of a new Foreign Languages and Literatures Minor in Chinese (Attachment)

Whereas the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures has been offering courses in Chinese language and literature, taught by a tenure-track Assistant Professor; and

Whereas enrollments in Chinese language, literature, and culture continue to grow, and student interest increases every semester; and

Whereas the number of courses, staffing, student interest, and other resources are now available to add a minor in Chinese to the Foreign Languages & Literatures Department's curriculum, and that the requirements for this minor are consistent with those already available in other French, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian, Spanish, and Ancient Greek & Roman Studies; and

Whereas Chinese faculty in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures contribute to the University's presence in China through co-sponsorship of a Winter Session with the East Asian Studies Program; be it therefore

Resolved that a Minor in Chinese shall be established

2. Whereas the Alfred Lerner College of Business and Economics has a well established MBA program, and

Whereas the University Faculty Senate has recently approved the establishment of a Masters in Science degree in Organizational Effectiveness, Development and Change in the Department of Business Administration, and

Whereas the proposed Dual Degree MBA/MS in program will provide an enhanced educational opportunity for interested students, and

Whereas the delivery of such a program does not require any additions of courses or resources beyond those already approved for the separate degrees, be it therefore

Resolved that a MBA/MS dual degree program in Organizational Effectiveness, Development and Change be established in the Alfred Lerner College of Business & Economics on a provisional basis subject to review after five years.

3. Recommendation from the Committee on Graduate Studies (Norm Wagner, Chair) with the concurrence of the Coordinating Committee on Education (Charles Boncelet, Chair) and the Executive Committee (Karen Stein, Chair) New M.S. in Wildlife Ecology – (Attachment) (Attachment)

Whereas the interest in Wildlife Ecology within the Entomology and Wildlife Ecology M.S. program has experienced growing demand, and

Whereas establishment of a M.S. program in Wildlife Ecology would allow students interested in this area to further focus their studies and to identify their expertise more clearly for the purposes of employment and post-graduate study, and

Whereas establishment of such a program does not require the addition of any new courses or library resources, be it therefore

Resolved that a M.S. program in Wildlife Ecology be established in the department of Entomology and Wildlife Ecology. on a provisional basis subject to review after five years
