March 11, 1950.

Dear Dannie:

I am sending you herewith a copy of a letter which I have written to Rongé, together with a copy of a very inadequate personal appreciation. I am not going to try to tell you all that I think and feel in this connection. What I have written is feeble and inadequate and I should like to write in the English of which you are such a master and to make it really express what I think and feel. Unfortunately I am simply snowed under over this weekend, so I have done the best that I could in the brief time that is available and I wanted to get this off to Rongé over the weekend.

Marion joins me in love and good wishes to you all.

Cordially and faithfully yours,

D. N. Heineman, Esquire,
