

EDUCATION WEEK IS OBSERVED

Red Cross Work Is Discussed

Newport, Nov. 19 — "National Education Week" was observed at the Krebs School during the week and a number of parents of the local children visited the school sessions. On Friday morning at the Krebs School assembly, the guest speaker was Miss McVaughn of the American Red Cross, who spoke to the children on the "Work of the Junior Red Cross". The Newport Krebs School Junior Red Cross Branch met on Thursday afternoon and continued its work of knitting sweaters. The boys are also making toys out of wood.

The Krebs School P-T. A. will hold its monthly business session Thursday evening. Mrs. Raymond Grubb, chairman of the program committee, has secured Miss Sarah Sturgis of the Delaware Industrial School for Girls of Claymont. Children of the school will furnish a portion of the program.

Nelson Cannon who was named chairman of the committee to endeavor to organize a cub pack of Boy Scouts at the Krebs School under the sponsorship of the Krebs P-T. A., met with the interested parents on Monday evening.

Pupils of the Krebs School seventh grade, under the direction of Miss Belle Chambers, teacher, are experimenting with carbon dioxide. This group is also making booklets on transportation, music notebooks and are preparing reports on various composers of music.

Sixth grade pupils of the Krebs School, under the direction of Miss Edith Patterson, teacher, are preparing map booklets of the various countries in Europe.

Mrs. Ruby Porter, teacher of the first grade at the Krebs School, has been absent for a few days due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Dickerson of Seaford. During her absence, Mrs. S. Fink, of Wilmington, has been substituting for Mrs. Porter.

Ruth Steele, Marshallton, inspects canned peaches. For her canning and gardening skill, Ruth has been awarded a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress and International Livestock Exposition at Chicago, November 29 to December 6. She will join eight other Delaware 4-H'ers for the Chicago visit.

skin test doses. It was isolated and purified by physico-chemical methods and was found to have a molecular weight of 27,000.

Dr. McDonald reported on the treatment, between May 1940 and July 1941, of ninety cases of severe infections and wounds, with a germicide isolated from a soil bacteria. This bacterial germicide was found to be particularly effective against staphylococci and streptococci, and proved to be of great value in treating infected wounds which did not respond to any other forms of treatment.

Radioactive phosphorus produced by the Biochemical Research Foundation cyclotron was used for the treatment of leukemia, a heretofore fatal disease of the blood. This investigation has been in progress for three years, during which time the technique has been much improved. There are a number of leukemia patients at present undergoing this treatment by means of injection of radio-active substances with very satisfactory results.

Other illustrations of equipment were shown in regard to the set-up for studying pneumococcus infection, fat metabolism, enzyme studies, chemotherapeutic experiments and many other phases of medical research.

ABW CLASS STAGES SUPPER

Rev. Kleffman Conducts Regular Class Session

Brack-Ex, Nov. 19 — The Ladies A. B. W. Class of Brack-Ex Methodist Church School served a roast turkey supper in the church social hall Saturday evening. Mrs. William S. Bullock, Mrs. William R. Fincher, Mrs. Bertha Moore, Mrs. Grace E. Wimmer, and Mrs. M. G. Seldonridge were in charge. The Rev. Dr. Albert H. Kleffman, pastor of West Presbyterian Church, Wilmington and moderator of the Elmere Presbyterian Church, officiated at the monthly meeting of the local church this week.

Plans for services through December were discussed and outlined and several recommendations for preachers to fill the pulpit during that time were made by Dr. Kleffman. A regular pastor will be assigned to the church by the Presbytery of New Castle early next spring.

Trustees of the church also held a meeting last week under the direction of Charles C. Dawson, president. Reports were presented on the improvements made at the church during the past year.

Musical Notes

by Burton Morris

A recent announcement from the Metropolitan Musical Bureau, managers of many famous artists, proclaims a tap dancer and a harmonica player have been added to its list! But what a tap dancer! His name is Paul Draper, nephew of Ruth Draper, and his dancing combines the traditional ballet technique with clicking heel and toe. Your correspondent never liked tap dancers until he saw Paul Draper dance to the music of Bach, Handel, Mozart, et al. The harmonica player is Larry Adler, a real virtuoso on his instrument, who has appeared as soloist with many symphony orchestras, and is widely known for his radio broadcasts. Draper and Adler will give joint recitals next season which should be exciting and different to say the least.

On December 5th, exactly 150 years to the day after Mozart's death, the Metropolitan Opera will give a performance of his "Don Giovanni". Bruno Walter will conduct and the cast will include Bidu Sayo, Richard Crooks, and Salvatore Baccaloni.

The world premiere of Robert Casadesu's second symphony will be presented by Eugene Goossens and the Cincinnati Symphony on November 21st. Two weeks ago Carnegie Hall was sold out to the doors when the same Casadesu, as piano soloist with the N. Y. Philharmonic Symphony, played the Mozart concerto in B flat major. The most prolonged ovation of the season greeted the artist.

It is incomprehensible to ordinary mortals that anyone could achieve success in so many varied fields. Yet Angna Enters has rung the bell as dancer, mime, painter, biographer, composer, designer, and now adds historian and playwright to her accomplishments. "Love Possessed Juana", just published, is a drama of Inquisition Spain in four acts. Historically correct in its setting, "Love Possessed Juana" is the story of the daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella. Interesting and authentic, the play provides for ballets and incidental music of Moorish and Flemish mood. Plays, ballets, stage scenery, music, and costumes are all the creation of Angna Enters!

Lily Pons and her husband, Aschik Kostelanetz presented a complete program of American compositions at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel last Saturday. Each number was written especially for this concert.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION BY W. W. REID

By W. W. Reid

The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Lowell Mason, America's first public school music teacher, and equally distinguished as the composer of hundreds of hymn tunes still used throughout the world and by every Christian denomination, will be observed on January 8, 1942. Special observances in public schools are being fostered by the Music Educators National Conference and its affiliated organizations in almost every state; and special programs and services in churches throughout the United States are being planned under the leadership of the Hymn Society of America. Observances will include a service and placing of a plaque at the grave of Dr. Mason in the Rosedale Cemetery, East Orange, N. J., and at the nearby church where he was organist for many years; and a nationwide dinner on the same evening in New York City.

According to the Rev. G. K. King, a missionary of the United Church of Canada, serving in Honan Province, China, a number of Chinese Christians have organized a "Gospel Brick Kiln" in that section. The sixty shareholders are all Christians, and each share is worth $100. The shares are non-profit bearing, and the proceeds are all used for the Christian church. Meanwhile an eight-hour day has been established, there is no Sunday labor, and workmen are given more generous treatment than are men in similar work anywhere else in Honan. They are planning to impress scripture texts upon some of the earthenware they manufacture.

For five years the American Marathi Mission in Ahmednagar, Bombay Province, India, has been experimenting with the use of sisal hemp and has been teaching Indian men and women to develop sisal fibre crafts. Most of these trained people have been famine victims and village outcasts—the poorest of India's poor. The director of the enterprise has been Loy L. Long, of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; today he has the assistance of the Province's Department of Industries. First the Sisal Fibre Institute experimented in methods of cleaning, combing, dyeing, spinning, braiding and sewing this common grass of India. Now they are teaching people to make and sell rope, brushes, carpets, mats, dolls, sandals, belts and many other useful articles — and relieving the poverty of hundreds of families.

"The law of Christ is the law of love, of charity," says Bishop Charles D. White, of the Catholic Diocese of Spokane, Washington. "It is simply impossible to be Christians in fact unless we fulfill this law of love. And the love that is meant is a love that proves itself in deeds or helpfulness to our neighbor. It is a love that knows no boundary line of creed or race or social condition. . . . Our charity, of course, must go first to those in greatest need. Among that number I would direct your attention to the starving peoples of the conquered nations of Europe, millions of men and women and little children about whose sad plight you are hearing very little, but who are wasting away, becoming mere skeletons, for lack of food."

It is estimated that there are about 3,600 Christian missionaries of all nationalities serving in China today in all forms of service — educational, evangelistic, and medical chiefly. In pre-war days there were about 4,800 missionaries in service. The calling home of many European nationals and the evacuation of women from some sections account for the decrease in totals. In "free" China (West China) there are more missionaries today than heretofore because of their removal from "occupied" territory.

Newark, Delaware, Thursday, November 20, 1941

TIME FOR ACTION

Newark's increasing need for adequate zoning laws, or building restrictions, is becoming more acute daily if our town is to keep abreast of residential and industrial construction impending within the near future.

Why some definite step in this direction has not been taken by town officials, we do not know. However, the time for procrastination is past. Unless something is done to curb, restrict or zone sites for the erection of commercial and industrial plants, residential property values, in affected areas, will be depreciated unfairly.

We believe Newark needs and welcomes additional industrial growth. We are definitely and whole-heartedly in favor of such growth and expansion for our community. BUT, we also believe residents who own or have purchased real estate for investment or building purposes are due the consideration and protection of adequate zoning areas.

It is our firm conviction that adequate zoning is one of Newark's greatest and foremost needs of today. Such action has the sanction and endorsement of local civic organizations and prominent real estate owners. Immediate and effective steps should be taken to designate just which areas in our community should be available for commercial and industrial purposes thereby affording proper protection for the property rights of present and potential home owners.

With the proposed erection of defense housing units and additional industrial construction looming imminent in the immediate future, further failure to act favorably for the adoption of zoning laws will indeed be difficult to understand.

BADGE OF PATRIOTISM

Because of greatly increased responsibilities in the national defense program the Red Cross has appealed to the nation for a 1941 membership comparable to that of the first World War when more than 18,000,000 adult Americans gave their support. Membership in the Red Cross is more than a sentimental indorsement of good will. The entire machinery of Red Cross peacetime operations has been geared into a vital part of our military and civilian defenses. Red Cross membership dollars thus are transformed into a tangible means of protecting the American way of life.

The Red Cross is on the job with the Army and Navy here and abroad, providing an important link of communication between the service man and his family back home. With 2,000,000 men under arms this task has grown almost tenfold. The corps of Red Cross field directors is assisting with experienced counsel and the financial aid to solve the problems of our service men and their families back home.

Red Cross volunteers are giving their blood for emergency transfusions in the Army and Navy. In the coming year some 10,000 Red Cross nurses will have been inducted for military and naval service. Uniformed volunteers are nearing completion of 40,000,000 surgical dressings requested by the Surgeons of the Army and Navy.

For its part in the civilian defense program, the Red Cross has undertaken the training of 100,000 Nurse's Aides, an auxiliary corps of volunteers to help relieve the current shortage of registered nurses. During the coming year, 1,000,000 men and women will be taught Red Cross first aid as a civilian preparedness measure. Disaster relief preparedness is being widened to meet the challenge of sabotage, fire, explosions and to stand as a backlog of readiness in the event of sporadic bombing or armed invasion. Nutrition and Home Nursing courses will be extended to additional thousands as protective health measure.

These are the reasons why the Red Cross asks your support this year. Your membership button is a badge of patriotism, a way you can express your belief in America.

THANKS TO MR. RICHARDS

No longer will patrons of the Post be forced to jerk, rattle and bounce over an unsightly Thompson Lane to reach their destination, thanks to Mr. John F. Richards and members of the Town Council who have made possible the paving of this street.

Thompson Lane, thank you, has a new surface that is smooth, velvety and a decided pleasure after having traversed the bumps and mud-holes of the former cinder beaten path for years.

Although serving only three property owners, Thompson Lane is one of the shortest within corporate limits but, we venture to say, bears as much traffic as any other similar stretch of street in town with the exception, of course, of Main Street.

The paving of this street solves a long existing and annoying traffic problem. We, as one of the principal users of this street, are deeply grateful to Mr. Richards, the Town Council and others who have made the new surface possible.

A teddy bear she won at a carnival 50 years ago was buried with Mrs. Carrie E. Donegan, 75, of Cambridge, Mass., as a memento of her husband's courtship. Her will stated that it should be placed in her coffin.

When W. E. Mahoney of San Francisco, was held for speeding, he said he was hurrying home to his sick wife, but his small daughter said: "Daddy was seeing how fast the new car would go." Mahoney was fined $2.50.

Weekly Sermon

OUR HANDS

Text: "Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it."—Psalm 90:17.

How important are our hands in our daily work! Almost every task we do calls for some movement of the hands. From his very beginning on earth, man has done things with his hands.

First, let us think of tolling hands. These are represented by those of the farmer. They are bronzed and calloused, for they belong to a healthy, hard working man. They are busy, useful hands. Tolling hands alone, however, do not receive favor with God. The story of Cain makes this plain (Gen. 4). He brought the fruit of the ground as an offering to the Lord, and his brother, Abel brought of his flock. Cain had tolled long and hard with his hands, but his offering did not please God, while Abel's offering did, for God demands a consecrated and devoted heart. No matter how hard we toil, we cannot obtain salvation. Salvation is a free gift of God.

In contrast with tolling hands we find idle hands. With idle hands go idle bodies and idle minds and idle tongues. We read in I Timothy 5:13: "And while they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not." Let us keep busy, serving the Lord; then there will be no time for the sins of idleness to creep in.

Then, there are strong hands. We see these pictured in the story of David and Goliath. The huge Philistine came with a sword and a spear and a shield. But David came with the strength of the Lord in his hands.

In contrast with strong hands we find weak hands. In II Chronicles 15:7 we read: "Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded." It is easy to be strong when things go smoothly, but when adversity comes, too often we submit to the easy way and yet our hands become weak and unproductive.

We must not overlook yielded hands. God can use these better than any other, for through yieldedness come all types of service. Yielded hands are portrayed by Moses' deliverance of Israel from Egypt. As Moses yielded his hands, they were used to perform miracles.

Hands reveal character. Barring accident, our hands never change. What kind of hands do you have? Are they young or old, representing youth with its ambition and possibilities for good, or old age, having lived a rich and abundant life? Are they eager or lazy hands, ready to do the Master's bidding, or sluggish and slothful? Are they clean or soiled hands, denoting honesty or dishonesty? Are they warm or cold hands, full of sympathy or apathy? Are they giving or taking hands, symbolizing charity or greed? Are they peaceful or fighting hands, revealing a spirit of love or hate?

Lord, "take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of Thy love."

PARENTS CORNER

A weekly contribution of timely and helpful suggestions for the benefit of parents and children alike, written and submitted by local members of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Sweets for the Holidays

Every child wants and expects sweetmeats for Thanksgiving and Christmas; just so every parent indulges the youngsters. Children need sweets, they are active and the energy they may derive from a limited amount of the simpler sugars is invaluable.

Let's plan a bit this year. Save the rich, filled chocolates and the fancy bonbons for the adults. For the children, provide some more easily digested sweets.

Of course, one of the best ways to satisfy the longing for sugar is with fruit. Most children love raisins, dates and figs; and pears, apples, oranges, tangerines and grapes are attractive, too. Dates are an especial treat if stuffed with peanuts, walnuts or peanutbutter and then rolled in sugar.

What child doesn't love to help make candy as well as eat it? When we know what goes into the "mixture" we can worry less when those extra pieces disappear so fast. How about a taffy pull with the children? Plain or molasses taffies are both good. Then there is that old favorite fudge; and there are good fudge mixes on the market which make the process so easy.

No home is complete for children without a cookie jar. Plain chocolate, vanilla and oatmeal cookies are all simple enough for even small children and with a dash of sugar, a raisin or nut on top may be made quite festive in a child's eye. Do you ever spread graham crackers with butter, sprinkle with brown sugar and put into a slow oven for a few minutes? Even the baby with a few teeth may safely have one of them and neither do the older children turn them down.

If we do buy sweets, let's remember the wrapped ones are cleaner. The clear, hard candies, gum drops and milk or semi-sweet chocolate bars are easy for children to digest. Then, when the turkey and pudding have been enjoyed to the utmost, there is nothing like a piece of hard peppermint to dissolve on your tongue.

MRS. FRAM SPEAKER AT WOMEN'S MEETING

Varied Activities Discussed By New Century Club At Regular Session

The consumer is the forgotten woman. Mrs. Clarence Fram, of Wilmington, told members of the Newark New Century Club at their regular weekly meeting held Monday afternoon at the clubhouse.

In industry, there are four groups of segments of equal importance, the manufacturer, the laborer, the distributor, and the consumer," she continued. "The consumer is the only free one of the groups, able to buy when and where she pleases about 85 per cent of the nation's purchases."

"However," she continued, "we have great responsibility as consumers not to buy sweet shop goods and to purchase materials properly labeled."

Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, president, was in charge of the session. Mrs. George Eney, corresponding secretary, introduced two new members, Mrs. Stansberry and Mrs. F. W. Johns, Jr.

Dr. Douglas Mylrea, vice president of the New Castle County organization, urged all members to register for National Defense. Mrs. Richard L. Eney is in charge of the registration, and decided that club members bringing clothing to be used for relief on Dec. 1, and the following Wednesday will be spent in putting garments in condition. Miss Jane Smith is chairman of the project.

Robert Jones and Mrs. J. Pearce were again appointed to cooperate with the Council of Newark in preparing Christmas gifts for local boys living in the National Guard.

Mr. Gibbs, who was introduced by Howard Jernie, chairman of the recreation home department, sang a selection of three old English melodies, accompanied by Miss Nell Wilson. Mrs. Eney also introduced the guest speaker.

An interesting exhibition of children's garments and cloth toys, prepared by a dressmaking class at Women's College, University of Delaware, for the welfare committee, was shown to club members. The garments were explained by Miss Pauline Roorbach, a member.

The service was by Mrs. Edward Curran and her committee of hostesses, including Mrs. Frank Simons, Mrs. Jay Simons, Mrs. George M. Haney, Mrs. Bert L. Spencer, and Mrs. Raymond Curran.

How to Save Money

1. If you are Buying, Building, or Remodeling your home, the NEWARK BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION can save you money.
2. Here's how—our carrying charges are lower than most other financing plans. This means that there is no need to drain your income to make payments. This means also that your home is debt-free in less time.
3. To illustrate:—While you are charged 6% interest against your shares, our experience indicates that on a paid-up share of $200.00 approximately $61.00 represents earnings — making your net carrying charge much less than the 6% charged against the share.
