

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING CONTEST CALLED OFF

Movies Shown At Garden Club

The last meeting of the Newark Garden Club was held at the home of Miss Freda Ritz, West Park Place, on Monday evening, Mrs. Bessie Eastburn, vice-president, presided.

Due to war conditions it was decided to dispense with the usual contest for Christmas decorating of yards, doorways and houses for the duration, but an effort will be made to decorate a window on Main Street during the holiday season.

It was decided to donate several records to the Community Service Center.

Mrs. A. B. Cobb displayed a very attractive wild, winter bouquet, gathered in the country last week, consisting of nine varieties of grasses, dried flowers and seed pods.

The feature of the evening's program arranged by Mr. Frank Powell, was a two reel film in technicolor, showing in detail the growing of early spring and winter table vegetables and fruits in the Norfolk, Va., area. Among the food products shown were beets, potatoes, radishes and collards, spinach and strawberries, in all stages from preparing and fertilizing the ground for seeding to planting, harvesting, washing, sorting and packing.

The next meeting will be held on January 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Daugherty on Orchard Road. Mrs. Claude P. Hearn will be in charge of the program. The guest speaker will be Prof. John M. Amos of the University of Delaware faculty, who will talk on the subject, "Bees for Defense."

Many varieties of corn are on display, both single and ten-ear groups.

The grain department contains wheat, oats, rye, barley, red and crimson clover, timothy lespedeza, soy beans and cow peas.

Many varieties of apples were shown including Yorks, Grimes, McIntosh, Stamen and Delicious. The apple samples were piled five to a plate.

In the vegetable class, nineteen different kinds were on display. Nuts grown on local farms were also on display, including (black and English) and hickory nuts.

Fifteen kinds of hay were displayed in this class. Rabbits were also displayed.

The young farmers were fortunate in again securing the services of Carroll W. Mumford to judge the poultry and egg division as Mr. Mumford is one of the best authorities in this section of the country. The judging took place today with the winners being announced tomorrow.

Mrs. Hulihan Thanks Red Cross Knitters

Mrs. Walter Hulihan, chairman of the Newark Red Cross Branch wishes to express her appreciation of the work done by the knitters of Newark under the chairmanship of Mrs. George E. Dutton. Those knitted, number about 450 and last month 241 articles were turned in. These included--for the army: 42 sleeveless sweaters, 16 pairs wristlets, 18 mufflers, 7 sweaters with sleeves, 1 helmet, 1 pair mittens; for the navy: 9 helmets, 1 pair mittens, 2 turtle-neck sweaters with sleeves; for civilians: 39 children's sweaters, 29 beanies, 15 pairs of mittens, 7 pair of mens socks, 2 knit suits, 34 afghan squares, 1 shawl, 5 mens sweaters with sleeves, 2 pairs of children's socks, 6 wristlets and 6 anklets.

The workroom needs more workers on surgical dressings, Mrs. Hulihan stated. If the men can go to war and suffer from injuries, the women surely can make enough dressings to bind their wounds.

NEARLY 600 ENJOY USO FACILITIES AT CENTER

200 Women Act As Hostesses; Knee Hole Desk, Sweeper Needed

Close to six hundred girl defense workers, soldiers and friends have taken advantage of the facilities offered by the local USO Center located in the Old Academy building since it was opened on October 23, it was stated this week by Mrs. J. Fenton Daugherty, general chairman of the project.

The Center which was opened to provide recreation for members of our armed forces and girl defense workers who have no place to spend their leisure time has been the scene of several birthday parties and dances. The Center also provides a warm place for the girls to stay while waiting for their buses and eliminates the need for them to stand on the street corners and shiver while waiting for transportation to work.

Mrs. Daugherty stated that eighteen organizations have contributed hostesses to be at the Center at all times while it is open and close to two hundred persons have acted in that capacity since the opening date, working in shifts.

A piano has been donated to the center and there is a radio and phonograph for the young folks amusement. Writing desks have been provided and games of all kinds help to pass the time away. Papers and magazines are also provided.

There is a need for the loan of a knee hole desk for the use of the hostesses on duty and a vacuum cleaner is also badly needed it was stated.

Assisting Mrs. Daugherty on the committee in charge of the USO Center are: Mrs. George A. Hyde, Mrs. A. D. Cobb, Mrs. R. O. Bausman, Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, Mrs. Robert Boyd, Mrs. F. Allyn Cooch, Jr., Mrs. Harold Tiffany, Mrs. Frank Jamison, Mrs. Andrew W. Mayer, Mrs. Paul Pie, Dena Marjorie S. Golder and Mrs. Willie Gray.

EARLY MAILING URGED

Postoffice Must Have Cooperation Of The Public

The Post Office Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history--the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels, cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December 1941, according to the Department of Commerce. And sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always presage heavy mailings.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time the public must cooperate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best efforts of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough, in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist

THANK YOU LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

Mayor's Committee Receiving Replies Of Appreciation For Xmas Gifts

Dr. John R. Downes, general chairman of the Mayor's Committee, which recently completed the mailing of checks and attractively illustrated Christmas Cards to all Newark men in the U. S. armed forces, has already received several replies of appreciation from men stationed on various action and training fronts.

Every Newark man in service, whose address could be learned, was remembered by the committee representing the Citizens of Newark. If anyone failed to receive a remembrance it was because friends or relatives were negligent in turning in his address.

With only approximately $1,100 received from contributions, the fund is still a little short, Dr. Downes said, and anyone who has not done so is requested to send their contribution in to help make up the deficit.

Although space will not permit reproduction of all letters received, some of them are reprinted below in order that those who contributed to this fund may fully appreciate the degree of their contribution.

SUNDAY'S TEST RAID LAST FOR THIS YEAR

Bonham Claims Test Success; Two Incidents Planned

Sunday's test air raid found the local defense setup working 100 per cent it was stated by Harry L. Bonham, chairman of the Newark Council for Civilian Defense. Every post was manned in a most efficient manner and the local council feels that they are prepared to cope with most any emergency.

While Sunday's test was of very short duration, two imaginary incidents were planned by Dr. Glenn S. Skinner in charge of the decontamination squad who sent his workers under the direction of Captain Clarence F. Wells and William H. Adams to the Baltimore and Ohio freight station on Elkton Road when it was reported that an imaginary gas bomb had been dropped there by enemy planes.

It was reported that traffic was very light at the time of the test raid, probably due to the fact that the public had been warned in advance.

Mr. Bonham stated this week that word had been received that there will be no further air raid tests or practice blackouts until after the first of the year.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Actual experience on the world's war fronts has proved the collapsible boat an essential safety feature for both Naval and land based planes. They are made of rubberized material, easily inflated.

At the Battle of Midway an Army Lieutenant, after bombing a carrier, was forced to bail out of his bomber. He was able to get a "fish eye" view of the entire battle from his collapsible boat and was later picked up by an American plane. WHOOPING COUGH IS DANGEROUS

Whooping cough is a disease dangerous to babies and small children, and, since it is highly contagious, parents should do everything they can to prevent their children from catching it by keeping them away from other children who are even slightly ill, warns the State Board of Health.

Of the 83 cases of whooping cough in Delaware so far this year, 59 have been among children between the ages of 1 and 6 years and 10 more cases were babies under one year of age. Last year there were 10 deaths from whooping cough in this state, as many as there were from the combined results of diphtheria, measles, scarlet fever and infantile paralysis. Seven of these ten deaths were in babies under 1 year.

Symptoms

Since whooping cough commences with a "runny nose", a symptom readily confused with an ordinary cold, and since it is most catching at this stage—before the whoop appears—parents are wise to keep their babies and little folk at home when there is any whooping cough in the area in which they live. Whooping cough continues to be contagious for at least 3 weeks after the spasms of coughing commence.

A mother who suspects that her child has whooping cough should put him to bed AT ONCE in a room by himself and call the family doctor for the doctor can do much to relieve the child's discomfort and guard against complications and serious after effects.

Care of Pneumonia

Not only is whooping cough, itself, serious but there are frequently such complications as bronchopneumonia which further endanger the lives of small patients. Even if there are no complications, the whooping cough is a long and wearing disease, for the child's strength is severely taxed by the violent coughing and the frequent vomiting. Special care is needed to foster and restore his strength even after the acute illness is past. Rest is needed particularly. Careful feeding is very important since frequent vomiting leads to mal-nutrition. The Board of Health advises only simple nourishing foods that are easily digested. If vomiting is frequent and severe, small amounts of food given often may be easier to keep down than larger meals 3 times a day. The family doctor may wish to give special instructions about diet. Precautions should be taken to prevent chilling. Guard against over-activity and excitement which tend to exhaust the child. Keep other folk away from him, especially those with colds.

Avoid Spreading Disease

Under no circumstances should a child with whooping cough be taken to the movies or any other public gathering nor be allowed to travel on any train or bus. Do not allow a child to return to school or to resume his usual activities until the doctor considers it safe to do so. Guard both your own child's health and that of your neighbors' children, urges the Board of Health.

TAXES WILL BE INCREASED

The Government deficit naturally imposes many strange taxes upon the people. The Government is trying to devise ways and methods so that a big hunk of the deficit will be assimilated in the coming year.

About 15 billion dollars will be tacked onto the 1943 tax liability. This is a part of the effort to check inflation. If prices advance next year, or in future years, it will bring on inflation—that's what Washington tells us.

For the past eight years, the Administration, with the help of Congress, has increased the "excise" taxes, and these taxes are laid upon specified commodities or services.

The reason it isn't called a sales tax is that President Roosevelt in his early days in the Presidency went out on a limb and said that the sales tax plan belonged to the States. The States "saw it first," and the New Deal brought out new models of its own, and got the same results through the excise taxes.

A huge burden of new tax levies will be laid on people of moderate and small incomes, and in order to guard against defaults in payments the neat little device being hatched makes it necessary to pay the tax in installments—"pay as you go."

The problem in the future will be—for you and me—how are we going to pay these tremendous taxes?

Large incomes of individuals and heavy taxes upon big business and big industry were pegged up to the top limits in the huge tax bill passed a few weeks ago.

BANKS AND SMALL BUSINESS

Much has been heard about the necessity for protecting the small business man during the economic turmoil of war—but, according to spokesman for small business, very little has actually been done.

Instead, some of the most effective work to help adjust small business to the war program is being done by a private enterprise—banking.

Banks in all parts of the country are offering small business an invaluable service which has two distinct phases. First, whenever possible they are making loans to convert plants to war work. Second, and equally important, they are in a position to give small business accurate advice on how it may fit itself into the war picture.

The small business man hasn't the facilities for dealing with all the intricacies involved in obtaining war contracts. He simply doesn't understand how to go about it. The banks do—and their advice is free for the asking.

Support your Government in this national emergency. Build a wall of defense by buying Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps.

Senior Service Awards For Girl Scouts

Sixteen Girl Scouts of Troop No. 4 received their Senior Service Awards from Girl Scout Headquarters in Wilmington on Tuesday of last week. Since Pearl Harbor the National Scout Headquarters has been working on a program for Senior Scouts. After passing the preliminary essentials, the girls receive an emblem with the letters S.S.S. on a triangle. This makes them eligible to go on with the Service Program, which includes: First Aid, Child Care, Nutrition, and Transportation and Communication. Most of the girls have already passed their Junior Red Cross First Aid and, also, the Child Care Badge. The object of this program is to prepare the girls to assist with National Defense Work in the Community.

The following girls have earned their emblems: Ann Baker, Barbara Dean, Katherine Duffy, Nancy Everhart, Theresa Ford, Jane Fouracre, Marilyn Fox, Vera Gould, Dorothy Hanson, Elizabeth Hyde, Barbara Hutchinson, Dorothy Mays, Sophie McVey, Betty Jane Perry, Marian Phillips, Wilberia Stradley, and Helen Tierney.

Newark High School's defeat Thanksgiving Day was a great disappointment to local sport fans.

The period of inactivity following the win over P. S. duPont can probably be blamed for the failure of the Yellowjackets to hand the Redskins a sixth straight setback.

We all realize that Coach Bill Gillespie had his hands full for several days with rationing which was followed by rainy weather keeping the boys off the practice field. Still we all wanted to see Newark win. Any way the local boys now know how they made Conrad feel for five straight Thanksgivings.

The Yellowjackets started the season poor and ended the season poor. The second game from each end of the schedule was a victory, the Jackets turning back both Wilmington High and P. S. duPont. The first against Wilmington High was a shutout 6 to 0 and the P. S. duPont victory was the only defeat the Dynahs suffered this season.

Between the poor start and poor end of the season the Jackets showed flashes of being a real competitive outfit. Coach Bill stated that without a doubt this year's combine was the smallest team to represent the school in recent years.

Anyway everyone had a chance to see Red Henderson run, and did he run. Well, Red just gathered the ball in his arms, evading all the tacklers on the Redskin team as he raced to pay dirt. (Red asked me to be sure and put his name in big type so coach Murray could see it. Maybe Red wants to go to Delaware next year.)

Dick Robinson did not do bad either. He hung up six more points for the Jackets, but 13 points was not enough to defeat the Redskins. Now there were other boys on the team beside Red Henderson and Dick Robinson although they did not get a chance to cross the goal line. Had it not been for the other members of the team the two heroes would have been outnumbered 11 to 2. Some credit must always go to the boys on the line who hold the other team back while some fellows can take the ball and star, but as a rule, no one ever thinks of them.

It was remarkable how many Newarkers can climb fences. If everybody at the game last Thursday had paid their way in, Coach Gillespie would have had enough do-re-mi to pay for the annual turkey dinner given to the football team. Me-Pay-No, I go in on a Press Card.

Mike Dayett, mayor of Glasgow was reported to have brought a rabbit to the editor of this paper. No one knows how he got the bunny as there was no mark on it. The editor said that without the fact that it might have been one of Mike's pets, it was mighty good eating.

It was stated that Raymond Buckingham, secretary of the Eastern Beagle Club and the owner of some of the finest beagle hounds in the East went gunning this week accompanied by Sam Stewart. Stewart shot one bunny but Buck had no luck at all. Even though Buck took Oakwood Patsy Ann and Black River Mij, (two of the best field trial hounds to ever show at the Eastern) along with him, he still did not get a shot. Probably it was because Buck has just returned from South Carolina where he was judge of a large trial, and Buck picked up a Southern accent down there and kept say, Now, You-All Dogs, Scare up You-All Self a Rabbit.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, accompanied by their son Dick were reported to have been gunning recently. Now, A. D. is a fine chap, but he is not so hot a gunning. No bunnies.

Air plane spotter captains are still having their troubles, even after the article in this paper two weeks ago asking for volunteers. There were only two volunteers who told me that they would help out. Denver Roberts, proprietor of the ice cream store next to the movies offered his services and Town Officer "Bud" Wassmer.

Now folks, those Newark Cops are not so bad. Bud Wassmer after working a full shift last Friday went with me to the observation post at midnight and spent two hours trying to make the stars move. At night that is how you spot a plane. When you see a star moving you just know it must be a plane.

More about Cops. It is reported that every member of the police force are taking turns doing traffic at the Delaware Avenue and Academy Street crossing in the hope of making as many friends with the Kids as our former chief "Bill" had. Possibly they think they will be presented with a wrist watch when they are called into service.

CONRAD DEFEATS NEWARK YELLOW JACKETS 27-13 IN THANKSGIVING DAY GAME

Yellowjackets Drop 2nd Thanksgiving Day Game Since 1928; Dick Robinson Scores Touchdown In Last Few Minutes; Manager Vogel Ducked In Pool

The Newark High School football team staged a last period rally after being held scoreless by the Conrad Redskins for three periods but despite the fact that Red Henderson, who has played a brilliant game all season, dashed 90 yards to pay dirt and Dick Robinson followed with another score a few minutes later the Yellowjackets could not hang up enough score to offset the 27-point lead the Redskins garnered during the second and third periods.

WRESTLING NEW SPORT AT DELAWARE

Lorelli And Nassivera Head Squad

Wrestling is coming to the front as a new sport at the University of Delaware. Started in a small way last year, it has developed to an extent where thirty candidates are out for the squad this year.

William "Shack" Martin who is coaching the grunt and groan boys states that they are a husky bunch, full of energy and determination to put this new sport at Delaware on the successful side of the ledger.

Martin said that the boys are so interested in the sport that while a room was provided in the new field house, the boys laid their own mats, put up chinning bars and furnished jumping rope so that the sport could get under way. If enthusiasm means anything, he stated, they should have a bang up team.

GROWERS TO MEET AT DOVER ON DEC. 10-11

Horticultural Society Annual Meeting In State Legislative Hall

Fruit and vegetable growers will witness still another effect of the war when they meet for the 50th annual Peninsula Horticultural Society meeting to be held December 10 and 11.

Dropped as a feature of this year's meeting will be the exhibits of quality fruits and vegetables.

Because of wartime conditions William H. Richter, Dover, president of the Society, reports that the Executive committee has designated Thursday, December 10, as Fruit Day, and Friday, December 11, as Vegetable Day.

This year's program for fruit growers will be held in the Legislative Hall at Dover and the sessions for vegetable growers will be held in the auditorium of Bridgeville High School.

The two-day meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society features a program tuned to wartime conditions and covers a wide variety of horticultural subjects. Prominent fruit and vegetable research workers, Department of Agriculture, and war agency representatives are listed as speakers during the meetings and as discussion leaders, reports Dr. T. F. Monns, University of Delaware plant pathologist and secretary of the Society.

Officials: Referee, Kelleher, Mt. St. Mary's; umpire, Reitzes, Delaware; linesman, Ware, Lehigh.

California Oil Fields Find New Market The "heavy oil" fields of California are coming into their own as a result of war.

The defeat last Thursday was the first suffered at the hands of the Conrad team who have been on the losing end of the score for the past five years. And it was stated that the setback on Thursday was only the second Turkey Day game lost by the Yellowjackets since Coach Bill Gillespie has been directing the local football activity.

The game this year was played on Frazer Field before a record crowd who came out expecting anything to happen in the way of a score as the game was predicted to be a toss-up as far as picking a winner. Considering their meeting with Alexis I. duPont High, Conrad was favored on account of having topped the Kennett Pike Eleven 25 to 0 while the Jackets played a 7 to 7 tie.

However, both schools collided with P. S. duPont and while Conrad dropped a 20 to 0 verdict the Yellowjackets handed the Dynahs their only setback of the year, 13 to 6.

The game got under way at eleven o'clock with both stands well filled and Newark won the kickoff.

Turning back a Yellowjacket threat midway in the first period the Redskins pushed across two spectacular touchdowns in the second period.

Conrad broke the scoring ice with six minutes remaining in the first half when Bill Lambert's pass to Harry Sennigan was good for 40 yards placing the ball on Newark's 11 yard stripe. Three plays netted a first down for the Redskins on the Jackets 1 yard line from where Dutch Walsten went over for the score. Lambert failed to kick the extra point.

The Redskins bounced back with another score when Bob Lind blocking George's kick was hit in the chest by it and wrapping his arms around the ball he raced 30 yards to pay dirt. Lind's pass was one of the most unusual seen in grid circles. Officials who witnessed the play stated that they had never heard of such a thing before. Lambert placekicked the extra point.

Conrad scored again early in the third period when Shockley took Lambert's pass on the Newark 30 and went to the 2 yard stripe where Sennigan bucked the line for the score. Lambert kicked the extra point. After an exchange of kicks Mettenet took another Lambert pass on Newark's 35 and raced for the Redskins fourth score. Lambert again scored the extra point with a placekick.

Trailing 27 to 0 at the end of the third period and with the ball on Newark's 10 yard line, Red Henderson took George's pass and shaking off the Redskin tacklers raced 90 yards for the Yellowjackets first score. Huston's kick went wide.

Newark made their second score with only four minutes remaining in the ball game when and after driving to the Conrad 22 yard line Red Henderson lined a pass to Dick Robinson who caught it in the end zone and tallied the Jackets second score. Huston kicked the extra point.

Following the game Manager Vogel was ducked in the college pool, clothes and all.

California Oil Fields Find New Market

The "heavy oil" fields of California are coming into their own as a result of war.

Light petroleum readily convertible into gasoline has held the spotlight for years to the detriment of local fields. Now both the Navy and war industry have created a heavy demand for fuel oils, and California fields are trying to meet an estimated demand of 800,000 barrels daily.

Newark Youth Stars For Fort Monmouth

Andrew L. Tryens, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Tryens of Kells Avenue was the star of the annual football classic between the Fort Monmouth and the Fort Totten teams when they met on Sunday for the title of champion of the 2nd Corps Area. Both teams entered the final period scoreless and with three minutes of playing time left, young Tryens recovered a fumble and raced 72 yards from his own 21 yard stripe to pay dirt to win the coveted trophy for Fort Monmouth.

Young Tryens is a graduate of the Newark High School where he was a football and track star. He graduated in 1939.

Farmers Urged To Convert Checks Into War Bonds

More than 6,000,000 farmers, recipients of Agricultural Adjustment Agency checks, are receiving a leaflet from the Treasury Department urging them to convert a part or all of the payment into War Savings Bonds. Mailing of the leaflets began late in October and is to continue until late winter.

The leaflet, in addition to pointing out the benefits to purchasers of War Bonds, contains an order form on its back to facilitate the conversion of AAA checks into War Bonds. It especially emphasizes that farmers will get $4 for every $3 invested if they hold their Bonds until they mature.

Delaware Students Take Holiday

Students of Delaware College absented themselves from classes last Friday and Saturday, as the result of the failure of the faculty to forward their petition requesting that the days following Thanksgiving be holidays, to the trustees of the institution. They returned to their studies on Monday. A faculty committee, appointed to investigate the matter, has not yet reported.

The situation is attracting state-wide interest. In view of the fact that Juniors and Seniors in the college are accepting pay for drill hours from the United States government, and that Friday was a drill day, the situation takes on a serious aspect.

Smith — Peters

Charles G. Smith, of Newark, and Miss Etta W. Peters, of Christiansa, daughter of Dr. Benjamin B. Peters, were married at Asbury parsonage, Wilmington, last Saturday, by the Rev. George W. Dawson.

Ask For Train To Be Restored

Commuters between Newark and Wilmington on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad are making an effort to have the 6 o'clock evening train from Wilmington restored. Under the new schedule which went into effect last week, several trains and the above train among them were taken off. This leaves no train on this road from Wilmington until after 7 o'clock in the evening. Many persons living at Elk Mills, Singlerly and other points south of Newark are also affected and under the new schedule do not reach their home until after 8 o'clock in the evening.

Special Services Postponed

Special services which were to have been held in the Presbyterian Church, Christiansa Village, during this week have been indefinitely postponed, owing to a low coal supply. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated on Sunday, December ninth, however, as previously announced. Rev. Joel S. Gillilan, pastor of Olivet Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, will be present and take part in the services. Sunday School will be resumed next Sunday, following the regular church service.

Women of St. Thomas Plan Innovation

At a meeting of the Guild of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church Monday night plans were made for Holy Communion and Choral services midnight Christmas Eve. The choir will sing carols in the streets and afterwards will be entertained by the women of the guild in the parish house. The meeting was unusually largely attended and luncheon was served by the women. Announcement was made that $70 had been paid off on the church debt that being the proceeds of the recent organ recital held in the church and some private subscriptions.

Arrangements have been made for an apron and fancy work sale to be held tomorrow, Friday and Saturday in the building on Main Street was formerly the office of Samuel M. Donnell.

Red Cross Sends Donation

At a special meeting of the Red Cross held in the Elliott building last Friday, the treasurer was instructed to send $25.00 to Mrs. J. Danforth Bush, in Wilmington to be used for Christmas boxes to be sent to Delaware soldiers at Annisston.

A second convalescent robe has been received by the chapter from Mrs. Walter Hilton, which is the fifth of these attractive hand knit robes, to be forwarded to headquarters by the Newark organization.

Army Detachment Passes Through Newark

Newark witnessed an army on the move, at first hand, on Monday when 135 motor trucks comprising the Eighth, Thirtieth and Fifteenth Battalions, Hospital Corps of the United States Army, passed through here about one p. m. The battalions comprising about eight hundred men, were on their way from Washington to their main camp at Allentown, Pa. The detachment was in command of Captain Elbert Clarke, and included fifty big automobile trucks, eighty ambulances, two scout cars, three touring cars, and several motorcycles with sidecars. The men rode in trucks and ambulances. They came here from Havre de Grace, Md., where they spent the night after a stop in Baltimore on Sunday. They expected to reach Allentown on Monday evening.

Thank You Letters

of gratitude with which the Christmas messages were received by our boys.

The letters follow:

Dear Committee:

I sincerely appreciate your thoughtfulness and want to thank you for the splendid backing you are giving me who are away from home and in the action. 'Twas indeed a lovely card and one that I shall keep with me in my travels.

I've travelled in miles more than six times around the world since I've been in the Navy, but none of the ports visited could quite equal good old Newark.

Thank you once again and may God give you all full power in carrying out your tasks.

Roger H. Attick.

I want to express my most sincere thanks to all the citizens of Newark for the very nice Christmas card and check received in yesterday's mail. The pictures of Main Street, on the card, did much to revive many pleasant memories. . . we are all well and thinking of you folks at home always. Keep up the good work and we'll do our jobs—and pretty soon the whole thing will be over.

Thanking you again, I remain,
Lt. Alex D. Cobb, Jr.

Dear Friends:

I'm writing to thank you for your Christmas gift received last week. I'm more than proud of the fact that I'm the first man in my division who has received a gift from citizens of his home town. . .

The pictures of Main Street were a great help in chasing that homesick feeling away. I'm hoping I'll soon be with you all again. About all I can say now is "We've got the situation well in hand."

Delaware Raymond Reed

Dear Committee:

I am acknowledging receipt of my Christmas check. To receive a gift from the people of the home town certainly does make one feel good. When I realize the effort necessary to send gifts of this kind, I feel that Newark is on its toes as usual and I'm glad to be a part of it.

May I thank you from the bottom of my heart for a gift that will always be remembered.

Capt. Ernest Lomax.

Mayor's Committee:

I received your gift and pictures of Newark's Main Street today and wish to extend my sincere gratitude. I must say that it brings to me some cherished memories when I look at the pictures of good old Newark. I may be a long way from home but home is home in any language—even Eskimo.

Thank you dear friends and neighbors for your thoughtfulness. . . . Washing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I say God bless you and cheerio.

Corp. Raymond Thompson.

Mayor's Committee:

Your Christmas gift was received and certainly appreciated it to the highest degree.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Pvt. Clarence Spencer.
