PLAY PLAN FUND DRIVE WILL OPEN HERE MAY 3

Rawstrom Is Renamed As Director Of Summer Plan

A house to house campaign seeking funds to finance Newark's summer recreation program will be staged here the first week in May.

The public is called on to support the drive generously, since the amount collected will determine the extent of the program here this spring and summer.

The campaign, sponsored by the Newark Recreation Association, will open Wednesday, May 3, and continue to the following Saturday.

Harry Rawstrom, swimming coach at the University of Delaware, will again direct the recreation program here. It was announced this week. Rawstrom, popular head of last year's project, was appointed for the 1948 season at a meeting of the Recreation Association on Tuesday night in the County Health offices.

Ned McCully was reelected president of the group in the annual election, which also marked the meeting. Bernie Gardner was named secretary and George Haney, treasurer.

New directors elected for three year terms were T. D. Smith, Bob Lewis and Mike Kubicko.

Plans for the summer program, McCully said, again include reopening of the town picnic area on West Main Street, softball and baseball leagues and swimming sessions at the university pool. A number of special events will also be staged periodically. Full details on the program will be announced as soon as possible.

WAYS TO GET FEDERAL AID ON LUNCHES

Cafeteria To Join Gov't. Subsidy Plan

The Newark School cafeteria will soon be eligible for funds under the Federal Lunch Subsidy Program, Wilmer E. Shue announced this week.

The move to join in the program was approved by the Newark School Board recently, after it was pointed out that the cafeteria here has been operating under a deficit since the first of the year.

In addition to money grants, the cafeteria will also get appropriations of surplus foods from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Reason the local cafeteria did not take advantage of the federal program sooner was because school officials felt that the lunch room should operate under its own power as long as it could without loss.

A reduction in cafeteria prices will not be possible until the deficit has been made up, Supt. Shue said. Within a few months, however, the cost of lunches to students should go down.

An increase in the lunch platter from 20 to 25 cents was made recently at the school because of the operating loss, which has grown steadily since the first of the year.

ONLY ONE FIRE CALL

Aetna Men Get Respite

Last week's rains brought a much needed breathing spell to the Aetna volunteers, who answered only one alarm during the seven day period, with a drop from the total of 19 alarms handled here the two preceding weeks.

The lone call was for a grass fire at Chestnut Hill. No damage was reported, and the owner of the property was unidentified.

A total of four alarms in town and 18 in the district were sounded here during March, according to Fire Recorder Charles E. Moore's report for the month. No serious loss was listed.

The ambulance, he said, made 29 mercy runs, covering 859 miles.

Bible Presbyterian Speaker

The Rev. Francis A. Schaeffer

The annual congregational meeting of the Bible Presbyterian Church will be held Tuesday at 6 p. m. in the church. The supper is for friends and members of the church.

An opening meeting will be held at 8:15 p. m., when the public is invited to hear the Rev. Francis A. Schaeffer, representative for the American Council of Christian Churches. Mr. Schaeffer, who recently returned from a tour of Europe, is heading the work for an International Council of Europe. He comes here with first-hand information on the situation in Europe and the movement toward a truly evangelical International Council.

Mr. Schaeffer is a dynamic speaker with a vital message of interest to everyone.

PLANS FOR STATE ART FETE EVENTS HERE LISTED

Activities To Be Phase Of Festival From May 1-14

Events to be held here as Newark's part in the 14th annual Delaware Festival of the Arts, scheduled for the first two weeks in May, were announced this week by Mrs. Harry Clark Boden, general chairman for the Newark observance.

Miss Harriet T. Baily is chairman of the University of Delaware's participation, while I. B. Finkelstein, of Wilmington, again heads the state committee.

An architectural exhibition is planned as one of Newark's major events during the festival period. Dr. William Carlsson is honorary chairman of this exhibition, which will be shown in the gallery of the Memorial Library of the university, from May 2 to 14th inclusive, at the usual gallery hours.

The exhibition will be composed of works by members of the Delaware Chapter, American Institute of Architects, of which George Pope of Wilmington, is president. This group of well known architects has formed their own committee to work on details of the exhibition. Samuel E. Homsey is chairman, assisted by W. H. Blake and William Manning. The exhibition which promises to be one of special interest will include drawings, renderings, photographs and models.

In addition to the above persons, the Newark Committee of the Festival of the Arts for 1948 includes Mrs. Ned Bliss Allen, Mrs. David Arm, Mrs. Earle Armstrong, Mrs. Harry L. Bonham, Mrs. Allan Colburn, Mrs. Cyrus Day, Mrs. David Eastburn, Miss Jane Gardner, Mrs. James Kakavas, Mrs. Victor M. Patterson, Mrs. Carl B. Rankin, Mrs. Francis Squire, Mrs. Gunnar Winckler, Mrs. Earle Wyatt, Dr. Ned Bliss Allen, John Ernest, Professor Anthony Loudis, Dr. Robert Kase, Eugene Kelecheva, Frederick B. Kutz, Wilmer E. Shue.

Posters advertising the architectural exhibition are now being made by pupils of the Newark High School and will be on display in local stores for ten days prior to the opening of the show. These will be judged and three prizes awarded, on the evening of May 6th at the Newark High School.

As there will be no printed programs for Newark, residents are urged to watch this paper for the Festival schedule and any further details.

Council Awards Contract To Del. Power And Light

A $1,847 contract was awarded to the Delaware Power and Light Company by the Town Council at Monday night's session for work to improve and renovate the municipal electric service.

No estimate was given on when the work would be completed.

STEEERS IS NAMED AS PRESIDENT OF ROTARY

Jack Handloff Is Elected As Vice-President In Vote Monday

Ken Steers, member of the athletic department staff at the University of Delaware, was elected president of the Newark Rotary Club at the group's annual election on Monday night.

Jack Handloff, head of the Newark Department Store, was the members' choice for vice-president, with Gilbert Nickel being named secretary and Holger Schaumann, treasurer.

The new officers will not take over their duties until July 1, when the club year begins.

Steers, who topped Clarence Ocheltree in the vote for president, succeeds W. S. Hamilton, who has directed the club for the past year. Other officers on the retiring list are: W. S. Martin, vice-president; Clarence Ocheltree, secretary; Vincent Mayer, treasurer.

Two named as directors for a year are Rodney H. Dann and W. S. Martin. Mr. Hamilton, as retiring president, automatically becomes a member of the board. Retiring directors are Holger Schaumann, D. Kenneth Steers and Dr. T. D. Mylrea.

Members of the committee to direct the recently organized Student Loan Fund were elected as follows: Gilbert Nickel, Dr. T. Manns, W. S. Hamilton, Kenneth Steers, Sam Handloff. The group was elected for from 1 to 5 year terms, with Mr. Handloff the only member to serve five years. Succeeding members will be elected every year for five year terms. The plan calls for raising a minimum of $1,000 as a revolving fund to provide loans to needy students.

Later Sgt. Leroy C. Hill of the Newark Police, addressed the members on plans for the Delaware Police Chiefs' Children's Camp being constructed near Ocean View, Del. About 400 youths, otherwise unable to have a healthy and profitable vacation, will be handled at the camp, including a quota from Newark. For a two week period the camp will be turned over to the state's 4-H boys and girls.

A preview of next year's Blue Hen football offensive will be shown at next week's meeting, when pictures of the recent grid practice match between Villanova and Delaware will be exhibited.

SCOUT HEAD WILL LEAVE

Eastman Is Lauded

Charles B. Eastman, veteran of Newark scouting, bade farewell to Troop 56 recently, before leaving to take up work in Seaford, Del.

Officials of the troop lauded him on his enthusiasm for scouting and his constant interest in troop affairs, which they said, set a standard that Newark scouts will long remember.

New scouts recently inducted into the troop are: Barton Mackey, Edward Pyle, John Smith, and Frank Stewart. Candidates for membership are: John Mavromatis, Marcel Bernier and Martin Johnson.

New patrol leaders are: Franklin Lee, Donald Miller and Robert Yader, with Barton Mackey, senior patrol leader.

With the arrival of spring, interest in the troop camp site on Christiana Creek has revived, according to Conrad Lewis, scoutmaster. Plans for outings are being considered.

Outdoor Town Forum Opens, Officially Ushering In Spring

One deceptively balmy day last week, Frank Glenn, portly proprietor of the State Restaurant, peeked out his front door, apparently didn't see his shadow, and was emboldened to carry forth a long, plain wooden bench, plumping it down on the curb facing his establishment.

This was accomplished with a minimum of pomp and practically no circumstance, Newark's annual spring rite. It was also the official opening of the town's informal forum.

The resurrection of the bench was a sure sign to all Newark residents that Spring is, without a doubt, here. For a time, though, it looked as if nature were trying to double cross Frank, because immediately after the simple ceremony, the weather turned blustery

Wollaston Withdraws From Election Set For Tuesday

Opposed For Mayor

Mayor C. C. Hubert

In a surprise move yesterday, Herman Wollaston, veteran Councilman from the Middle District, withdrew from the municipal election scheduled for Tuesday.

Mr. Wollaston, now ending his seventh term on Council, failed to make any statement on his reasons for dropping from the race. He had filed for reelection early in the campaign.

The move automatically throws the election in the Middle District to Frank M. Durnall, Kells Avenue businessman, employed in Wilmington. Mr. Durnall is now running without opposition.

Mr. Wollaston submitted his formal notice to Town Secretary Vernon Steele yesterday morning. First elected to Council in 1933, Mr. Wollaston has served continuously since then, with the exception of 1935 when he did not run.

The remainder of the political picture promises one of the most heated votes in many years here next Tuesday.

The top contest on the slate developed just before the filing deadline on Saturday, when Ford McBerty, DuPont engineer, who is prominent in civic affairs here, filed opposite Mayor C. C. Hubert for President of Council.

McBerty, a resident here since 1935, is a past commander of the O'Daniel Post and now first vice-president of the Lions Club. He is also on the scout committee of Troop 56 and a member of the citizen committee, now working on a new charter draft. He offers the town thirty years of varied engineering experience and is campaigning on a platform promising a municipal policy of adequate town planning, with provisions for normal community growth.

He is opposed to a veteran town official here. First elected to Council in 1928, Mr. Hubert has been returned to office ten times by local voters. He first became Mayor in 1943 on the death of Frank Collins. After serving the remainder of Mr. Collins' term, he was twice reelected as head of the town governing body.

Another contest developed last week, when Alex F. Richards filed opposite F. A. Wheelless, incumbent, for Councilman from the Western District. A young business man and overseas veteran, Mr. Richards, who lives at 71 Amstel Avenue, is the grandson of J. F. Richards, late Councilman from the same district.

The full slate, which will go before approximately 1,700 qualified voters here on Tuesday, is as follows:

For President of Council—Mayor C. C. Hubert vs. Ford McBerty.

Western District—Wheelless vs. Richards.

Eastern District—Hopkins vs. Swan.

Middle District—Durnall.

Ford McBerty

Town Treasurer Lists Report For Past Month

With cash receipts for March totaling $66,166.53, less disbursement of $45,374.37, the town now has a cash balance of $20,792.16, according to Secretary-Treasurer Vernon Steele in his monthly report to the Town Council.

The upsurge in receipts, accounting for the increase in the balance this month, was due mainly to the cashing of two $10,000 war savings bonds, which Council decided was necessary to meet pending outlays.

Electric light receipts for March amounted to $12,566.63, with electric power returns coming to $9,400.16 and water rents netting $2,830.82.

OPERETTA PLANNED

Bobby McAlpine and Jacqueline Chickey will take the leads in an operetta "The Magic Beanstalk," to be given by the Newark Elementary School on May 6.

Bobby will take the part of a sailor, brave but unwise in bargaining, while Jacqueline will play Jack's mother.

Bill Shue will be Captain Kid, the ferocious pirate, and Frank Stewart will take the part of a fearsome orge, Blunderbuss.

The play will be enlivened with songs and dances by student choruses.

again, and winter tried to stage a comeback. Frank hastily retreated to his hibernation point at the table in the front window of his restaurant, but he left the bench on the sidewalk—staunch symbol of his faith in the calendar.

In the face of it, of course, nature finally had to bow and grudgingly loosen a few balmy breezes. The bench has now come into its own as the site of the outdoor Town forum, where Frank presides over debates ranging from affairs of state to major league prospects.

From now until fall, it will be a good place for alert poll takers and opinion samplers to lurk. And statesmen, who want to know what America—or at least Newark—is thinking, might here lend an ear.

PROTESTS BY 21 RESIDENTS DEFEAT APT. HOUSE PLANS

Hope Still Seen For Big Project; Council To Work On New Location

Although strong protests from Dallam Road residents this week killed the $325,000 apartment house project proposed for that area, hope still exists that a suitable site for the badly needed development may be found here.

After refusing to issue a building permit in the face of strong objections by a delegation from Dallam Road at Monday night's Council meeting, town officials later decided to cooperate with the two Wilmington promoters of the project in finding another location. Councilman Rodney Dann has agreed to take the lead in working on the problem.

Some 21 residents of the Dallam Road section descended on Council Monday night to protest the erection of the elaborate, 40-family project, which, they claimed, would depreciate the property value of their homes as well as overcrowd the area. Most said they had bought property there with the understanding that it was a quiet neighborhood of single homes and an ideal place to raise a family. A large apartment house, they claimed, would alter the entire aspect of the neighborhood.

In view of the virtually unanimous objection, Council turned down the application for a building permit from Allan Hart and John K. Walters, Wilmington promoters.

If approved, the project would have been a major step towards relieving Newark's critical housing needs. Designed as a series of solid brick, two-story units of colonial design, the project would have provided modern, completely equipped apartments of from 4 to 5 rooms. The development would also have included indoor playgrounds and full indoor laundry facilities, plus private parking space.

Six other building permits were approved during March, the largest going to Herman Wollaston for an $18,000 concrete block apartment house at 3 Courtney Street.

The next largest was granted to Hugh R. Gibb for a $16,500 two-story brick dwelling at Orchard Road and Manns Avenue.

Others were issued as follows: Wallace M. George, $50 frame porch, 35 Lovett Ave.; Eric Mayer, $100 cement block garage, 92 East Main Street; Louis Mercuri, $300 glass and brick store front, 132 East Main Street; W. S. Hamilton, III for a $10,000 two-story frame dwelling, South Orchard Road.

TOWN TRUCK TO COLLECT SCRAP HERE

Will Tour All Streets; Aid Asked

Newark's scrap metal collection will be climaxed by an all-day drive, tomorrow.

George M. Haney, chairman for the collection, said that the Newark Town Council has provided one of its trucks to tour all streets beginning at 9 a. m. He urged residents to place all their scrap metal by the curb before that hour. The collection is to continue until 4 p. m.

All kinds of metal are needed to help feed the industries which now are suffering from severe shortages, Mr. Haney pointed out in asking that residents search their homes for all possible pieces to contribute.

Newark's scrap metal will be picked up by the Red Cross and added to the entire region's collection. The Red Cross is directing the scrap collection and receiving the proceeds from the industries benefiting. Mr. Haney is serving as chairman by appointment of A. P. Colburn, Area Chairman of the Delaware Chapter, American Red Cross.

P. T. A. Group To Discuss School Dental Program

The proposed school dental program, offering free examinations and tooth care to local pupils otherwise unable to obtain it, will be discussed at an executive meeting of the Newark P. T. A. tonight in the high school.

COMMUNITY THEATRE IS ON UPSWING

Commercial Stage On Decline, Says Kase In Address

The commercial theatre rapidly is being supplanted, in long-range importance by a "people's theatre" which is gaining enthusiastic support country-wide, Dr. C. Robert Kase, director of dramatics at the University of Delaware, told the Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting in the Hotel DuPont today. His subject was "The American Theatre Points West."

Dr. Kase, who is a director of the American National Theatre and Academy—authorized by Congress to establish a national theatre—said that the importance of this people's theatre is recognized by A.N.T.A. "The concept of a national theatre is not a glorious theatre edifice with a star-spangled acting company in New York or Washington," he explained, "but a great decentralized national theatre aiming to see that the best in theatre is available to all people in every part of the country. This hope is fast becoming a reality."

The future of the American theatre no longer depends so much on the commercial theatre, "which has been experiencing a steady decline over the last 20 years, and which has become more and more concentrated in New York," said Dr. Kase. "This shrinkage is more than compensated for by the development of a people's theatre, arising out of the recognition that America is no longer one or two large cities, but that the eager theatre audience is spread widely over the entire United States."

The "people's theatre," he added, has developed in two phases—theatre in schools and colleges, and the community theatre. Virtually every college, he said, has a theatre program, and this includes the University of Delaware, where there are monthly productions and a complete department of dramatic arts. Typical of community theatres which have sprung up everywhere, according to Dr. Kase, are the Wilmington Drama League and the University Drama Group at Newark. Through these groups, numerous others, and the schools—which now are holding elimination tournaments in preparation for the State Play Festival at the university April 30 and May 1—Delaware has been making "a considerable contribution" to the people's theatre, Dr. Kase commented.

NEW CLUB ACTIVATED AT BANQUET

75 Guests At Soroptimist Charter Nite

Seventeen charter members of the Soroptimist Club of Newark were installed in ceremonies activating the new unit at a dinner meeting last week in the New Century Club.

Miss Verna McClary, extension chairman of the North Atlantic Region of the American Federation of Soroptimists Clubs, presented the Newark club with its official charter.

About 75 guests, including a number of Soroptimists from out of state, were present. Among the special guests were Mayor C. C. Hubert, who gave Soroptimism its official welcome to Newark; the Rev. H. E. Hallman, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, who asked the invocation; Mrs. R. O. Bausman, president of the New Century Club; Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, president of the Newark Branch, A. A. U. ## HOMEMAKER WEEK IS SET FOR MAY 2-8

During National Home Demonstration Week, May 2-8, Delaware homemakers will prove that women's place is not only in the home, but also in community, national and world-wide activities.

More than 2,000 rural women, members of 61 home demonstration clubs throughout Delaware, will join in the nation-wide observance. With the theme, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World," they will survey the work of the past year and study the resources open to them in bettering today's home for a better world of tomorrow.

Highlighting the week will be a state-wide meeting of home demonstration members on May 6, at a place to be announced later.

Special meetings of the clubs, tours to improved homes, exhibits, neighborhood open-houses, newspaper articles and radio talks will be used to bring before the local community the work which the women have done and the needs for future effort.

Home demonstration work in Delaware, as in other states, is perhaps the most far-reaching voluntary on-the-job education program for rural families. It is carried into rural homes and communities by home demonstration agents, joint employees of the University of Delaware and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Homemaking information is spread with the help of volunteer club leaders who receive special training.

The Delaware home demonstration staff, members of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, includes Miss M. Gertrude Holloway, state home demonstration leader and nutrition specialist; Miss Louise Whitcomb, home management specialist; Miss Adeline Hoffman, clothing specialist; and county home demonstration agents: Miss M. Katharine Jones, New Castle County; Mrs. Violet Goodwill, Kent County; a new agent to be named in Sussex County; and Mrs. Camille Jacobs, Kent and Sussex County Negro agent.

WareAbouts

Newark has lost the active services of one of its prominent pioneer businessmen and civic workers as of April 1 . . . and that's no stale April Fool's pun, either . . . with the announcement that I. Newton Sheaffer has retired from the wallpaper and paint business that he has so successfully and satisfactorily operated for more years than we know.

We're going to miss Newt's cheerful greeting and friendly words of encouragement on our rounds of solicitation. His store has always been one place where we could rest briefly while chatting interestingly of the times—past, present and future.

But, in Newt's own words, here is what he has asked us to convey to the public that has patronized him and that he has served well during his career:

"This is to advise you that as of April 1, 1948, I am retiring from the wallpaper and paint business and am transferring management and ownership of same to my son, C. Harold Sheaffer, who has been associated with me for many years. All business in the future will be conducted by him.

"I have appreciated all courtesies extended to me through these many years and hope your dealings with him in the future will be as pleasant as ours have been in the past. Please insert an item in your paper to this effect."

So, there you have it . . . and C. Harold's the boy who can carry on, we think, where Dad left off. Good luck, Newt in your well-earned retirement and Best Wishes, Harold, in your richly deserved acquisition.

Nobody reads the Newark Post any way (say some) so it must have been by strange coincidence or mental telepathy that nearly twenty-five property owners visited Town Council simultaneously Monday night to successfully protest the erection of a proposed apartment building on the Dallam Road extension.

Of course the double column story was tucked away inconspicuously on the front page of this newspaper, where no one could possibly have seen it, so it couldn't have been that they saw the published notice—could it?

Considerable interest being evidenced in the forthcoming town election, Tuesday, which five hours before the deadline for filing developed into a contest for every office up for election.

Of particular (or peculiar) interest is the lip service being promoted by a number of the younger citizens of our town—which just may be doing their self-imposed cause more harm than good. We, too, have often been accused of "opening our big mouth and putting our foot in it!"

One comment which struck us as being pertinent was the remark passed by a middle-aged resident who, so far as we know, has lived here all his life when he said: "You know, I never knew there was so many things wrong with Newark; I have always thought it a pretty nice place in which to live. But, I don't know what the outcome would be if this group of proposed candidates should be elected to the council."

Which, we think, pretty well sums up the feelings of the vast majority of property owners who have dwelt here for more than the past few years . . . and we're pretty confident that they'll go to the polls and register that opinion, come Tuesday.

As an unasked-for opinion—we believe that this election will see more "renters" voting than ever before with all incumbents being returned to office (except Wollaston, who withdraw) by comfortable majorities.

We don't see anything wrong with Newark that the would-be, new candidates can change . . . do you?

Speaking of another kind of race, the spring season opens at Havre de Grace on Monday, April 12 to May 1, inclusive.

An AP news story in a New York daily recently stated: "The average drinking American gets drunk on six shots of whiskey or six bottles of beer. At least, that's the verdict of drunkometers and similar devices in use in several cities for testing the intoxication of persons involved in auto accidents."

What's the dif, one bottle or six wouldn't make any difference to an old teetotaler, like you.

Eight

It's too bad that Shaek Martin's Blue Hen nine was "wet-grounded" out in both games scheduled for the home lot last week—against Harvard and LaSalle. The weather conditions which prevented those games from being played also caused the Hens to take off early this week on their annual trek to the northern reaches of the Southland without a game or two of actual competition under their belts.

The records show that Delaware baseball teams have usually found the going mighty tough on these tours to Virginia which have served to open many a diamond season. Last year, for example, the Martinsons lost the first four games on the Southern trip before annexing a lone victory. In 1942, the last previous year in which such a trip was made, Delaware won one and lost three. Two of those defeats, however, were at the hands of the Norfolk Naval Training Station—and that was the year in which every position on the Sailors' nine was held down by a former major or minor league ball player, including slugger Sam Chapman, currently starring for the A's.

The other two games on that trip are also worth recalling. In the opener against Virginia Medical, the Hens won 10-7 in seven innings. But here are some of the strange things that happened. The Delawareans stole a total of 18 bases. And in the fifth inning three Hens stole home while the SAME batter was at the plate.

The following day the Hens played Randolph-Macon. On the mound was big Bill Tibbett whom the Ashland (Va.) Yellowjackets had defeated by one run in each of the two previous years. When the seventh inning rolled around Delaware was out in front by the comfortable margin of 7-1, and it appeared to all and sundry that at last Bill, in his senior year, would beat the Jackets. But although Tibbett continued to pitch splendidly, it didn't turn out that way. The Hen support fell apart as error followed error. In the end, Bill lost to Randolph-Macon for the third time by the margin of a single run—8-7.

According to the odds established by baseball bookmakers, the 1948 battle for the American League pennant will be closer as to the first two teams than in the National, but the senior circuit race will be tighter in so far as all eight teams are concerned.

The bookmakers, or betting commissioners as they are sometimes called, have established the Yankees and the Red Sox as co-favorites in the American at odds of 5 to 6. At the other extreme in the same league are the Chicago White Sox and the St. Louis Browns, each at 100 to 1. Picked for fifth place, at pennant odds of 25-1, are Connie Mack's Athletics.

In the National the St. Louis Cards are favored, the odds having been set at 8-5, with the Boston Braves next at 2 to 1. The Bums of Brooklyn, last year's bunting winners who are again under Leo the Lip following his one year banishment, can be backed at odds of 3-1. Longest odds in the National are Bob Carpenter's Phillies, quoted at 40 to 1.

With the above selections Bill Corum of INS differs to the extent that he picks the Detroit Tigers to cop the American flag; the Flatbush Dodgers to repeat; and the Phillies to finish in seventh ahead of the Chicago Cubs.

Have been a-readin' where the aging and aching Bucky Walters is trying to perfect a knuckle ball to replace the speed ball he no longer has. Working out at Tampa, spring training base of the Cincinnati Reds, Bucky, who was voted the most valuable player in 1939 when his 27 victories led the Reds to the pennant, is preparing for his fifteenth year in the majors and twentieth in pro baseball. With 198 major league pitching victories to his credit, the tall, bandy-legged Philadelphian whose 8-8 record last year enabled him to complete ten consecutive years in which he did not fall below the .500 mark, is hoping to win enough games this year to put him above the coveted 200 mark in victories.

It's not very often now that a hurler achieves that goal of 200 wins. But at least five twirlers of other generations topped the 300 mark. Leading all pitchers in the victory column is Cy Young who won 511 games. He is followed by Walter (Big Train) Johnson who won 414. The other three are Christy Mathewson and Grover Alexander, each with 373, and Charlie Radbourn with 308.

Last week we reported that Chauncey Simpson, of University of Missouri, had succeeded Neil (Skip) Stahley, former Delaware mentor, as head grid coach at George Washington University. This is to say that in reporting thusly we were both right and wrong. We were right because Simpson had actually signed a "long term" contract with GW authorities. What we had failed to notice, however, was that the "long term" contract had lasted exactly 34 hours—at the end of which Simpson announced his "resignation" because of certain additional financial inducements at Missouri. Named to "succeed" Simpson was Bo Rowland, who had been head coach at Oklahoma City University. After seven full days Rowland is still at George Washington U.

NEWARK STARTS DRILLS FOR SUSQUEHANNA LEAGUE RACE; NEW TALENT BEING SOUGHT

Newark's top-ranking baseball talent gathered last Sunday on the Continental-Diamond field to try-out for the community nine which will be entered in the Susquehanna League again this year. Practice drills will be held every Sunday until the club's opener on the Continental field May 2 against Elkton.

Club officials are still on the look-out for new talent, and anyone interested in trying out for the squad is urged to report at next Sunday's session scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Candidates who earn berths on the team will be signed up for the season shortly before the league opens.

In addition to Newark, clubs competing in the eight team league will be Kenmore, Rising Sun, North East, Aberdeen, Elkton, Havre de Grace and Perryville. Last year, Elkton finished top in the standings for the regular season, but Aberdeen emerged the winner of the play-offs.

DON SAVAGE IS WINNER IN SWEEPSTAKES

Don Savage, on a handicap of 108 pins, upset the dopesters to come through the winner over about sixty top-flight local kegglers last Saturday in the Handicap Sweepstakes at the Newark center.

Savage rolled up a 625 total to top his nearest competitor W. Baker by three big pins to walk off with the $23 prize money. Baker, on a handicap of only 18 points, welded a potent ball to wrack up 622 pins, but his efforts were in vain, when Savage, in rare form, used his big starting lead to best advantage.

Third in the hotly contested match was Jack Hudson, who notched a 616 total on a 104 handicap.

Much interest among the spectators was aroused over the stiff competition which 14-year-old Jimmie Sydel gave the leaders. With a 120 pin handicap, he burned the alley for a 608 total to come in sixth in the standings.

Scores for the first seven contestants are:

Handicap	Total
D. Savage	108 625
W. Baker	18 622
J. Hudson	104 616
F. Dunn	21 610
H. Holmquist	42 609
J. Sydel	120 608
A. Fuller	84 598

CAMPAIGN TO PLOW UNDER CORN BORER

Delaware's 1948 crop of corn borers can cost corn growers $185,000 but they will not run up this bill if the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service can help it.

During the month of April and until May 10, specialists and county agricultural agents of the Extension Service hope to rally farmers of the State behind a state-wide project to encourage plowing under of all corn stalks by the May 10 date.

Dr. L. A. Stearns, extension entomologist, reveals that millions of borers have overwintered in stalks now standing in fields and that unless these stalks are plowed under or otherwise destroyed early, a costly infestation of the 1948 corn crop can be expected.

Though not a new problem for growers, the corn borer takes its toll each year in reduced corn yields. Counts of infestation of last year's crop showed an average of 71 borers per hundred corn plants in fields of the State, except in a demonstration area in lower Delaware. In this area the infestation was reduced to 33 borers per hundred plants. Farmers in this area cooperated in an intensive "plow before May 10" campaign last year.

With these results, the Extension Service is now including the entire State in the project to reduce borer damage. To further combat this pest, demonstrations and research will be conducted on a number of farms to show the effectiveness of ground and place spraying and dustings to combat the borers which may escape the "plowing under" ordeal.

BOYS' CLUB FORMED IN NORTH SIDE

Cleveland Ave. Clippers Plan Sport Program

What may be the first in a series of community boys' clubs, offering full-scale athletic programs, is the newly formed Cleveland Avenue Clippers Athletic Club.

Planning to form teams for competition in all sports, the club is open to all boys between 11 and 16, who live north of the B & O railroad. The club already has some 25 members eagerly making plans for the coming baseball season.

Don Butterworth, sponsor of the club said this week the members are keenly interested in seeing similar outfits formed in other sections of town, with a view to working out intra-community competition in all sports.

Highlight of the Clippers' activities right now is a campaign to raise funds for the purchase of baseball uniforms for the boys. Those interested in contributing are urged to notify Howard Long, president of the new group, or Donald Sharp, treasurer. Weekly meetings are being held in the basement of the Methodist Church.

A formal baseball schedule hasn't been lined up yet, according to Long, but tentative games have been arranged with Roselle, Del., and Pomeroy, Pa. The club is seeking matches with other clubs in the 11 to 16 age level.

New Salt Betters Taste Of Foods

A new type of salt is being produced in this country which is supposed to make certain foods taste better. Its jaw-breaking name is monosodium glutamate, and is described as an amino acid. The foods it is said to improve most are seafood, meat, soup, chowder and stew.

Penicillin Spray Used On Diphtheria Carriers

Penicillin spray or drops are showing good results in ridding diphtheria carriers of the germ, a physician reported recently.

Dr. A. J. Levy, of Dixon, Ill., said that of 31 carriers given this treatment, the condition was cleared up in 74 per cent.

A carrier is a person who has no sign of the disease but has the diphtheria bacilli in his throat. He transmits the germs to others. Because the bacilli remain in the carrier's throat, it is reached easily by the penicillin in the spray or lozenge. The drug had little value when administered directly into the tissues, he added in his report. The report was published in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

JACKETS FACE CLAYMONT TOMORROW IN SEASON'S OPENER ON NEWARK FIELD

Brown Vocational To Be Here On Tuesday In Second Game Of Year For Jackets; Dick Davis Will Start Against Claymont

Winding up four weeks of steady drilling, the Yellowjackets appeared set for its opener tomorrow before the home lot here against Claymont High.

The Jackets will be in their own territory again next Tuesday in the season's second game when they meet Brown Vocational here. Dick Davis will take the mound against Claymont, Coach Frank Mercer said yesterday in listing the probable starting line-up, sorbing Davis' stuff behind the plate will be Tom Murphy.

The infield shapes up with a veteran array of talent, lead-off with Phil Harrison on the first. Holding down the keystone sack will be Jim Ford and flanking him will be Don Martin.

The third base berth, which was in doubt at the start of practice, has been given to Ralph Barrow.

In the outfield letterman Bob W. will stalk left field, with John W. ranging center. Bob Haman, who also is available for hurling duty, will hold down right field.

Plenty of able replacements are to fill any weak spots in the first according to Mercer, who says Jackets' chances are good for a successful season. The least he expects to outdo last year's record of five wins in 13 games.

NHS SPORT BANQUET To Be Held On April 28

An all-sport banquet, honoring members of all varsity and junior varsity teams at the Newark High School, will be held Wednesday, April 28. Walter Mait, athletic director, announced this week.

Speakers for the event have not been named yet, he said. Both boy and girl athletes of the school will be guests at the joint banquet.

Highlight of the evening will be the awarding of letters to varsity members of the boys' football, basketball and baseball teams and the girls' hockey, softball and basketball teams.

AUXILIARY UNITS HEAR DR. C. REES

Local Group Is Host To County Units

A resume of the work and aims for the organization for Crippled Children and Adults was given by Dr. Carl J. Rees, department commander of the American Legion, at a joint county meeting of Auxiliary units here on Monday night.

The J. A. O'Daniel Unit, No. 10, was host to units from throughout New Castle County at the session in the Legions rooms. Mrs. Frank Boling, department vice-president, presided, along with Mrs. William Mote, president of the local unit.

Greetings were extended to the group by department president, Mrs. Harry McSherry, of Dover.

William K. Richardson, commander of the O'Daniel Legion Post, thanked the Auxiliary members for their cooperation in carrying out the Legion program.

Another feature of the meeting was a report by the rehabilitation chairman on the work at Perry Point Hospital and New Castle Veterans Hospital. Weekly parties or entertainments are being held for patients there, she said.

The Department donated $50 to the fund for the paraplegic bus, being sponsored by World War II Mothers.

Sgt. Leroy C. Hill, of the Newark Police, made a plea for contributions to the Children's Camp being constructed by the Delaware Chiefs of Police at Ocean View, Del. The local unit promised a donation.

Rational Approach In Teen-Age "Dating" Urged

Parents should help build standards to replace "chaos" in dating, a Bowling Green State University dating expert believes.

Dr. S. Harman Lowrie, who teaches the only American college course exclusively devoted to dating, urges parents to point out "reasonable, rational" bases of choosing a mate and to provide counseling and guidance.

"Too many parents are afraid to talk sex with their children," Dr. Lowrie says. "When they do talk, often they don't know what to say."

FORESIGHT!

It's strange to hear this talk of war in light of what we've seen before. That such disaster could impend is hard, indeed, to comprehend. But since affairs are getting tense, to be prepared to common sense. For, he who is equipped to fight is seldom forced to use his might.

It indicates a particular brand of commonsense to buy the range best equipped to handle all of your cooking needs. The Frigidaire electric range has such outstanding features as a deep-well cooker, a high-speed broiler, a big, automatically controlled even-heat oven and fast five-speed surface units.
