

(4)

Put in many hours on an article. Sent it to the Sun and it came back so quickly I think it must have come through the pneumatic tube.

The whole world seems to be out a-sleighing. I wish I was.

Yesterday it was 20°. I feel was Washington.

Harrill, heard from sister
yet. Love you with all my heart

Wife

To: Paul H. Dunbar
Library of Congress

(1)

[FEB. 3, 1898]
Brooklyn, N.Y.
Mrs Paul H. Dunbar

Thursday,

My darling. I am just about to run out for a paper, and having read and kissed your two dear letters, I must write just a line.

I bade my children good-bye to day. There were tears, hysterics.
To-morrow I start in at #66 where I hope for peace.

About B. J. Washington. Read the work's Independent. I send

(2)
you the Ag. and Southern Post Workman in this mail. I have read Durham's article in the Atlantic Monthly I hope you will be obdurate to the arguments presented. The American Assoc. gives its annual blow out at Madison Square garden on the 12th. Ex. Pres.
Cleveland is to preside and Wm.
W. is to be the principal speaker.
Will you take any? I am very anxious to go, and I want to introduce you to Mr W. He is a very kind friend & partner.

(3)

All I can discuss about the meeting on the 11th is what Brainerd Matthews has to propose.

Well, dearest, this day one year ago I left Boston to come here to see you. Today is also anniversary of my engagement.

I wish to express to you my love for the day. I am going out to see you.