Dear Little Hyphens:

I intended to write you yesterday but was kept going so that I did not get the time. The reading was a great success though they fooled me in the 100 guarantee. It was a 93.75 house and an enthusiastic one.

I am delighted with Richmond and the people but I want to. Shall come home tomorrow, that is Sabbath start home by boat. This may not throw me there until Saturday. Charlie is calling to me and I must write much. He is suffering terribly with his foot. He got
