

January 13, 1941

Mrs. Lilli Wendel,
Hotel Trotcha,
Vedado,
Havana, Cuba.

Dear Mrs. Wendel:

I am glad to hear that you and your son will be called shortly to appear before the American Consul General regarding your application for admittance as an immigrant to this country.

I don't know exactly what you may still require for your entry to the United States, but I wish to take this opportunity of assuring you that as an old friend of my wife and myself you can count on my helping you in every possible way.

You are at liberty to show this letter to the Consul General, and may also tell him that I am willing to give you all financial assistance if necessary.

As the Consul General does not know me personally, I would greatly appreciate his calling on Ambassador George S. Messersmith, who can furnish him with all the necessary information he may require about me.

With kindest regards from Hettie and myself,
I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

DNH:MG

Dannie Heineman.