BANQUET HELD FOR MEMEBERS OF JAY VEE'S

Athletic Council Host to Junior-Varsity Athletes; "Doc" Doherty Tells of New Athletic Rule; Boggs Speaks for Students

Last night the Athletic Council gave a banquet to the members of the various Junior Varsity teams of the University of Delaware. It was held in the Commons of Old College. Lieutenant Jolls, the toastmaster, introduced Gerald P. Doherty, Graduate Manager of Athletics, and "Doc" made a number of valuable remarks, one of which was that a member of the Jay-Vee Team for three years, if recommended by his coach, would receive a "D." "Joe" Rothrock then kept the guests in good spirits by providing all the humor for the occasion. As student representative, "Cale" Boggs made a speech and brought out that next year there would be more pep-fests, and that the Student Council would give the honorary fraternities complete charge of the athletic games and events during the oncoming season. The new method, when in effect, will add more spirit, in all ways, to the entire student body.

During the dinner Mr. Waddington, of Salem, played the saxophone, Ross Ford played the piano, and Jack Paris played the traps.

FRANK VIRDIN GOING ABROAD

Delaware Student Receives Scholarship Which Permits Him to Study a Foreign Language; France is His Destination

Frank A. Virdin, '31, has been selected by the Institute of International Education of New York as one of the college students who annually receives a scholarship for study in some foreign language abroad.

Virdin, who is a proficient French student, applied for the scholarship and recently received the information that he had been chosen to receive $600.00 which he is to use for foreign study. Virdin has decided to use the money by joining the Foreign Study Group next year.

The Institute which selected Virdin for this honor has for its purpose the promotion of interest in foreign languages in American colleges. Each year they select college students from all over the country and, on their recommendation, interested men from the locality of the college which the lucky students attend offer the money to the student. Mr. J. P. Wright, of the Delaware Electric Power Company, of Wilmington, is the donor of the sum awarded to Virdin.

Phi Kappa Tau	1.38
Kappa Alpha	1.17
Theta Chi	1.15
Sigma Phi Epsilon	1.08

FAREWELL HOP TO HAVE LARGE ATTENDANCE

Seniors Are Guests of Juniors At Gala Affair; Al Hollander Will Supply Music

With the issuance of tickets, plans for the Farewell Hop, which is coming off at the Newark Armory, on June 9, began to take definite shape. Members of the Junior Class, under whose auspices the affair is being arranged, are now busily preparing the details attendant upon making the dance a success.

The Farewell Hop has always been considered the merriest event of the year, for at the Hop the Senior class enjoys its final spree as a class, and the morning after the dance holds no classes in store for the dancers. So the merrymaking continues until far into the night and the wee hours of the morn.

Being the guests of honor at the Hop, members of the Senior class are given free admission to the affair. The Hop will mark the last meeting of the class of 1930 as a united body. The public has also been invited to the dance, and because of the noted torridity of June days, the affair will be informal. Tickets can be secured from members of the Junior class at the price of $2.50.

The appearance of Al Hollander's orchestra at the affair is expected to be a drawing card. Hollander will have the largest band he has ever had at the Hop. Ten men will help Hollander supply the syncopation. Having just returned from a successful winter season in the Sunny South, Hollander is more popular than ever.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT ENTERTAINS SENIORS

Last Tuesday the Military Department entertained the Seniors of the R. O. T. C. at Augustine Beach. In the afternoon the guests and their hosts went swimming, the exercise preparing every one for a hearty dinner. In the evening a dance was held. As a number of the girls from W. C. D. were also present, Miss Gillespie and Miss Templeton were chaperones. Military formality was not on the program, and naturally a most enjoyable day's entertainment was had by all.

COOCH GETS IN THE SWIM

Following the last home baseball game of the season, J. Wilkins Cooch, manager of the nine, was carried off the field in triumph by the entire Varsity squad. When he arrived in the gym, he found himself floating through air and landing in the pool, clothes and all. After this customary ceremony, J. Wilkins tried to do likewise to Captain Snowberger; but the nine again repeated the ceremony, and Cooch, clothes and all, went swimming again.

All final details had been arranged by this afternoon for the academic procession and other exercises that will mark the opening of Mitchell Hall, the new auditorium, tomorrow. Members of the Committee on Arrangements, headed by Dr. W. O. Sypherd, state that practically no difficulties hindered them in working out the program, which they hope to make one of the most impressive witnessed here in years.

The first of the visitors from other colleges to arrive for the affair was Dr. Finley M. K. Foster of Western Reserve University. Dr. Foster is a former member of the English Department here and is highly esteemed by his wide circle of friends on the faculty and among his former students. He is considered one of the most popular professors in the annals of the University.

Sought Out by Friends

No sooner had his arrival become known Thursday than he was sought out and personally greeted by a large number of his friends. In his work in the English Department here, he was closely associated with Dr. Sypherd, who was host at a luncheon in the Blue Hen Tea Room in honor of Dr. Foster this afternoon.

The exercises will begin with the academic procession tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, daylight time. The procession will form at the Library.

Notice to Students

The three hundred thousand dollar building will formally be presented to the University by H. Rodney Sharp, the donor. The principal speaker will be Dr. Samuel Chiles Mitchell, president of Delaware College and the Women's College from 1914 to 1920, in honor of whom the auditorium was built.

A notice was issued Thursday from the office of Dean Dutton requesting students attending the exercises to occupy the balcony seats so that there will be no difficulty in accommodating representatives from other colleges and universities and the guests of Mr. Sharp.

OFFICERS TO GIVE BANQUET

On Monday night the Senior Cadet Officers of the R. O. T. C. will give a dinner in honor of the newly appointed Junior Officers at the Deer Park Hotel. The faculty of the Military Department will also be the guests of the Seniors.

The results of the following ballot on the W. C. D. girls will be published in the next issue of The Review. Please drop all marked ballots in the University Mail Box.

M. BRUNEAU GIVES TALK AT DELAWARE

Professor at the University of Nancy Speaks Before Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais of the Women's College and of the Men's College were the recipient of a wonderful talk, last Tuesday night in the "Common" room of Sussex Hall at the Women's College, given by M. Charles Bruneau, professor at the University of Nancy and Director of the Summer School courses, which all foreign study students take. His talk consisted of his Impressions of America as he has seen them. He is a scholar, having published works from various French dialects. The University of Delaware is very glad to welcome him on the campus—one who has contributed so much to the Foreign Study Plan.

M. Bruneau has recently been acting as visiting professor of French at Bowdoin College (Brunswick, Maine). He is now engaged in making a pilgrimage through the United States before starting back to France.

Dr. Hüllien, president of the University of Delaware, is offering a dinner to which he is inviting all the French speaking men and women of the college. Dr. Clemens, Miss Volkhardt, and Professor Byam will attend the affair.

M. Bruneau was born at Givet (Ardennes) in 1883. Graduating from the lycée of Reims, he obtained his "licence" from the Université de Paris and brilliantly passed the "agrégation de grammaire" two years later. (Continued on Page 2.)

COMMISSIONS TO BE GIVEN TO SENIORS

Major-General Gulick to Make Presentation Tuesday Morning

On Tuesday morning the entire battalion will hold a parade and review. Major-general John W. Gulick, Chief of Coast Artillery, will present the Seniors with commissions. Following the presentation there will be a review by Major-General Gulick and Colonel F. W. Stopford, of the Coast Artillery Corps, in charge of Coast Artillery Reserves in the 2nd Corps Area. This will be the concluding parade of the present scholastic year.

Captain Wells and Sortman Star for Delaware; Augustine Highlight St. Joe Highlight; Shot-Putters Fail to Take Single Place

Delaware's track and field men barely lost to St. Joseph's track team yesterday on the latter's field in Philadelphia, the final score being 64 1/6 to 61 5/6. The Blue Chick shot-putters were below par, and although they should have taken the first two places, St. Joe's putters managed to take all three places, thus winning the meet. Captain Wells took first place in both the high and low hurdles, while Sortman won both the century and furlong. Summary:

JUDGE RODNEY TO SPEAK HERE

Subject of Great Interest to All Delawareans Will Be Theme of Lecture

Honorable Richard S. Rodney, Associate Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware, will deliver a lecture in Wolf Hall, Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock, daylight saving time. The subject of the address will be "Early Relations of Pennsylvania and Delaware." Undoubtedly this lecture will be of great interest to all Delawareans and especially to those students of Delaware History. The public is invited to hear Judge Rodney. Admission will be free.

DELAWARE REPRESENTED AT INTERCOLLEGIATES

Today and tomorrow the track team will be represented at the Middle Atlantic which are being held at Haverford. Those wearing the Blue and Gold for Delaware will be Manns, Parkinson, Benson, Wells, Sloan, and Sortman. On Saturday the Freshman Medley Relay Race will take place. Delaware's relay team will be as follows: Chase, Jacobs, Lynch, and Lindstrand, who will probably run the half-mile, furlong, quarter, and mile in the respective order.

CAULK ELECTED CAPTAIN OF SOCCER TEAM

It has been announced recently that James D. Caulk has been elected captain for next year's soccer team. Caulk has won his "D" on the soccer team the last two years, and next year he will lead them in the hardest season that the team was ever scheduled for. The schedule includes week-end trips to West Point and Atlantic City.

DELAWARE NINE TAKES FINAL HOME GAME

Catholic U. Defeated as Snowberger and Roman Hit Hard; Hill Stars at Short; Steele Gets Three Hits

Delaware avenged an earlier defeat when they pounded out a 5 to 1 victory over Catholic University in a return game on Frazer Field yesterday afternoon. Playing an improved brand of ball, the home team snapped out of their losing streak to cop their seventh win of the season.

"Rube" Hall started the game in an impressive fashion when he struck out two men in the first inning. Catholic, however, seemed to have solved Hall's delivery, for they found the veteran right hander for two runs. Pieffer singled on the first pitched ball. Kelley tripled bringing in Pieffer. Frankvitz hit a sacrifice fly, and Kelley scored. Walsh walked, but "Izzy" Reitzes nailed Walsh trying to steal second with a beautiful peg to Skura. Hall then proceeded to walk the next two batters. Oliver reached first on Roman's error, filling the bases. Blasi, however, fied out, ending the inning.

Delaware scored one run in the same inning. Roman fied out. Taylor cracked a hard single. Skura followed with another single, Taylor reaching third. Cain lifted a sacrifice fly, and Taylor tallied. Hall ended the inning by grounding out to first.

Both teams went scoreless until the fifth inning when Delaware pounded hardly from the mound and netted four runs. Cain slammed his second single. Hall grounded out to first, Cain advancing to second. Snowberger evades a hit on which Cain crosses the plate. Steele grounds out. With Snowberger perched on second, Hill caught a fast one for another single, and Snowberger scurried home. Reitzes reached first by virtue of being hit with a pitched ball, if there is any virtue in being hit. Then Roman clouted a mighty triple, bringing in Hill and Reitzes. At this point Fanjol replaced Hurley in the box. Taylor grounded out ending an exciting rally.

With a three-run lead and fine support, Hall had little trouble in taming the visitors in the remaining innings. Hall retired the cardinal team in regular order during the last three innings, and finished as he started, by (Continued on Page 4.)

MEETING HELD BY PROFESSORS

American Association of University Professors Reports on Teaching Conditions

The University of Delaware Chapter of the American Association of University Professors held its last regular meeting on Friday, May 16, in the Faculty Club rooms. The chapter has been actively engaged this year in making a thorough survey of teaching conditions at the University, committees having been engaged in the study of four distinct problems. As a result of the work of these committees, four reports have been submitted to the chapter during the past two months for discussion and adoption. These reports together with a consolidated report embodying their principal findings and recommendations were adopted in their final form last Friday evening and have since been submitted to the President of the University. The four reports are as follows: (a) Length of Tenure of Teaching Positions at the University of Delaware, (b) Living Costs and Conditions of the Men Members of the University Faculty, (c) Conditions arising from the Dual Organization of the University, (d) Encouragement to Better Students.

At a meeting held by the Sophomore Class at noon today, the following officers for next year's Junior Class were elected: Vice-President, Bob Chesney; Secretary, L. Byam; Treasurer, Al Bennett.

The next and last issue of The Review for the present scholastic year will be published on Commencement Day, Monday, the ninth of June.

Assisted by a specialist in phonograph recording, M. Bruneau registered a number of records of dialogues, fables and folk-songs in the "patois". These records are now deposited at the Sorbonne in the "Archives de la Parole".

MANY CHANGES IN LIBRARY

Large Part of Staff Resigns; Few New Books Received

There will be several major changes in the Library Staff before next term. Mr. Moses has resigned to assume a position at Kalamazoo, where he will be occupied after the first of September. Miss Fitz, one of the cataloguers, has also resigned. She will be Librarian of the Upper Darby Free Public Library. Katherine Pié is going to be her assistant. Miss Dalton, the other cataloguer has likewise resigned. President Hullihen is at present undecided as to whom will be appointed to fill these vacancies.

The Library will receive, in a few days, a set of ten volumes on the history, morals, and ethics of temperance. It is an exhaustive study of the subject, and discusses this matter pro and con without prejudice. It should be of great value to Sociology students, especially with the present nation-wide interest in the problem of Prohibition. This edition is valued at one hundred dollars, and is the gift of the friends of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association to about three hundred institutions of which our library is one.

The Library has just received a book entitled "Eminent Asians," by Mr. Upton Close, who spoke at College Hour recently.

Mr. Moses wishes to remind the students that all books must be in by June 2nd.

The Library will be closed tomorrow during the dedication exercises at Mitchell Hall, but will be open for the inspection of visitors immediately after the dedication.

DR. CROOKS IS HONORED

Re-elected President of the Consumer's League of Delaware

The Consumer's League of Delaware will again be headed the coming year by Dr. E. B. Crooks, professor of economics at the University of Delaware.

This announcement was made at the twenty-third annual meeting of the League held at noon yesterday in the Hotel du Pont-Biltmore. The luncheon which was held in the foyer of the ballroom was attended by seventy guests. I. B. Finkelstein, first vice-president of the League, presided.

Included among the speakers for the luncheon was Dr. Crooks, who reviewed the work of the League during the past year and the very definite need the league is filling in Wilmington.

MONARCH CLUB HEAR DR. RYDEN

Delaware Professor Speaks Before Combined Philadelphia and Wilmington Clubs

Dr. George H. Ryden, professor of history and American Government, was the speaker of the evening at a joint meeting of the members of the Monarch Clubs of Wilmington and Philadelphia, held Tuesday, May 20, in the Y. M. C. A. in Wilmington. Addresses were also made by E. M. Taylor, president of the Wilmington Chapter, and Harrison B. Henry, president of the Philadelphia Club.

C. J. Meetz, who organized both the Wilmington and Philadelphia Chapters in 1928, spoke briefly. He especially congratulated the Wilmington Chapter for sponsoring a wood-working class of sixty boys at the Community Service Headquarters. The guests of the evening were Robert S. Ramsey, George R. McDougall, and John V. Davidson, of Wilmington.

that advice given in the proper spirit by a professor would be valuable.

I think that a big bull session with a few of the profs chiming in would be very interesting and informative; or perhaps an open forum conducted by one of the faculty members would bring about closer contact with the faculty. In brief the thing that I would like to see is this: closer contact with the faculty which would inevitably lead to higher intellectual standard among the students and would tend to bring about a spirit of co-operation between student and faculty instead of the present antagonistic spirit.

Signed, Joe College.

There are, on this campus, certain institutions of Babbity, certain manifestations of the "joining" spirit, as Abbé Dimnet has it, or certain proofs of the gregariousness of the animal, man, called fraternities. complacent pen against them, I will discuss them in order.

The honorary fraternities are so-called because the chief honor consists in wearing a hat when it rains. Yes, I know the well-known cry that the grapes taste of vinegar. But I have never been particularly fox-like in my methods—more like a super-cynical hyena, as Stet puts it. Theoretically, these honorary fraternities pick the outstanding men of the upper three classes. But I have skeptically noted that, if a social fraternity has four men from the year before, there are usually four men picked from that house. One campus cynic said that these organizations are for politically ambitious young men whose hopes have not been realized. It may be so.

There is a scholastic fraternity on this campus—believe it or not. Although a few bold spirits—one bold spirit in particular to whom I doff a respectful cap—have had the courage to refuse the honorary fraternities, none has yet dared to refuse the scholastic fraternity. The answer to this is simple. Most of us are compelled to scratch for our daily bread after we leave college or we go to graduate schools. To secure admittance to a graduate school or to clamp onto gainful employment it is usually necessary to secure recommendations from some of our most illustrious professors. It is generally supposed that these illiberal professors would be greatly influenced in their judgments if one of us refused the honorary fraternity. So we write down the ten dollars in red ink.

Since I have not the honor of belonging to one of the social fraternities, it is commonly thought that I am opposed to them "en toto." I must shamefacedly admit that the real reason for my not joining a fraternity is that I have never been asked. But I have found the snow not unpleasant. Nevertheless, I think that fraternities should be and are a necessary part of the life of the college man. It is only when the welfare of the college is subordinated, as it too often is, to the welfare of a fraternity, or fraternities, that I howl. I think, and I believe that many fraternity men will bear me out, that this college, small as it is, would be better off without social fraternities. But these organizations are here and are here to stay. We must make the best of an existing—pardon the word—evil.

I have omitted our dramatic fraternity because it is the recognition, theoretically at least, of some special talent.

I am anti-fraternity in the sense that I would favor the abolition of ALL fraternities: honorary, scholastic, and social. But there is too much of our previous capital invested in hats, pins, charms, and houses. So I gracefully yield to the inevitable. But I would urge that less importance be attached to these organizations. The college comes first!

A milestone of Telephone progress

This marker is used to show the position of a new type of underground cable line. It is also a monument to the Bell System policy of constantly improving established methods and developing new ones.

For years underground telephone cables have been laid in hollow duct lines especially constructed for the purpose. By this newly developed supplementary method they can be buried directly in the ground without conduit—and, under many conditions, at a saving of time and money.

To do this it was necessary to develop a new type of cable, many kinds of special equipment including labor-saving installation machinery, and to work out an entirely new installation procedure.

Progress means change. The Bell System holds no procedure so sacred that it is not open to improvement.

Dear Editor:
It seems to me that contact between professor and student at Delaware College is at a minimum. In fact I believe that the Freshmen are the only ones that have any contact with their professors; and their associations with the instructors are necessary ones.

Before I came to college I felt that the close relation which a student can have with his professor was one of the advantages at a small school; but now it seems as though I was all wrong. Instead of a close relationship there exists an intangible aloofness on the part of some of our profs.

I realize that the commuting situation at Delaware College is one of the major vices and that perhaps this is one of the reasons for lack of school spirit and so on; but even in spite of this fact I believe that the profs could be in closer contact with the men that "live down." After all we are all human beings, we are all in college for the same purpose and I believe

No provision has been made for running water in the proposed men's dormitory of Washington University. The antique dealers are prepared for a rush in wash-stand, pitchers, and bowl trade.

Starting next fall, a course in aviation will be included in the curricula of Barnard College for Women in New York City. Which brings to mind the fact that the U. S. War Department has donated $10,000 worth of flying equipment to the air course at the University of Pittsburgh. It might be better than R. O. T. C.

Ohio State has made each sport a major sport. This move was liked by some, and vice versa. Room for discussion.

According to a questionnaire in the Pitt Weekly, the co-eds claim that colds are the favorite excuses for missing classes. Indigestion is second. Now we wonder?

Lehigh had Fletcher Henderson and His Roseland Ballroom Orchestra for their Junior Prom. Some one said they don't "monkey."

In the University of Vermont publication we find the following announcement: "Alpha Chi Omega wishes to state that it will not enter into any fraternity combine." Maybe this is similar to our own Alpha Psi Omega fraternity; but truthfully speaking, it looks like a "sour grape" proposition.

At Boston University girls are not allowed to go anywhere to eat after a dance. Bad for De Luxe, but not for "de boys."

Girls of Marshall College, West Virginia, who are taking the zoology course, are permitted to buy cats of any color for dissection purposes. The cats may be purchased at the college book-store for $4.50, no extra charge being made for the color.

Because of the high cost of cigarettes, University of Tennessee's co-eds are smoking corn-cob pipes. Although this fad is very popular, rumor has it that the pipe is going to be abolished and replaced by hand-rolled cigarettes.

So far Stanford University seems to have published the most interesting questionnaire. According to the results which were published in the "Chap-apperel," the student newspaper, 30 per cent of the co-eds are experienced in love, 40 per cent are in love, and 70 per cent enjoy kissing for its own sake. Come on, fellows, let's go to Stanford.

According to results in the student publications at both Penn State and Lehigh University, about 87 per cent of the student body seems to be in favor of abolishing compulsory chapel. Delaware's per centage regarding the abolishment of compulsory classes wouldn't be quite that low.

In replacing the stalled fire apparatus, the girls saved from destruction thousands of dollars worth of furniture, including a three thousand dollar piano.

A senior at Washington State College never missed a class in his entire sixteen years of schooling. Not bad.

Dr. Walter James, geologist, says that the women of today do not differ from those of 10,000 years ago. Of six hundred ancient skeletons dug up in Alabama, all the women had their mouths open; those of the men, as usual, were shut.

The province of Toronto has joined with the students of McGill University in demanding that beer be sold on the campus for the accommodation of the students. If the wets win, McGill will be the most crowded university in the entire world, especially for research courses.

One hundred and fifty dollars goes to the highest scorer in the Carnegie examinations, and four prizes of $100 to the highest students in each of the four classes at Bucknell. Do you think that fraternity politics will interfere with the awarding of prizes?

PRESENT GIFT TO MAJOR GLASSBURN

Photograph of Cadet Officers' Club Given to Major Robert P. Glassburn; Praises Work of Officers

Major Robert P. Glassburn, C. A. C. "Del." was presented with a large photograph of the members of the Cadet Officers Club by the Cadet Officers of the R. O. T. C. at the University of Delaware. The presentation was made at a recent meeting of the club by the club's president, Cadet Lieutenant Charles B. Middleton.

In making the presentation Lieutenant Middleton stressed the fact that this is the first class to graduate from the Coast Artillery Unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University of Delaware. As president of the club he thanked Major Glassburn for the great interest he has taken in the club and the R. O. T. C. unit as a whole, the result of this interest having been demonstrated in the fine showing of the unit.

Major Glassburn in accepting the photograph expressed his thanks to the club and informed the members that the photograph should never get far away from him. He explained that the success of the unit meant much to him and that he appreciated the work of the Cadet Officers and Cadet Non-Commissioned Officers in helping him bring the Delaware unit to its present high standard.

GOLF TEAM DROPS MATCH

Blue Hen Golfers Drop Final Match to Villanova; Complete Successful Season

The golf team was defeated on Saturday by Villanova, at the Marble Hall course, 4 1/2 to 2 1/2. This was the final match of the season. In view of the fact that this was the first season for an organized golf team at Delaware, the team has made an excellent showing. Dr. Sypherd, with the aid of Captain Fulling, has organized the team very well since he became coach and advisor. The team has defeated Franklin and Marshall twice, Haverford and Villanova, and has been defeated by Haverford, Swarthmore and Villanova, thus winning four out of seven matches. The team has excellent prospects for the next few years, since all the members are Sophomores except for one man, who is a Freshman. Next week there will be a Faculty-Student match, which will give golfers not on the team a chance to demonstrate their ability.

The results of Saturday's match: Lewis (D.), Winehart (V.), even up. Baker (V.) defeated Capt. Fulling (D.), 2 and 1.

Baker and Winehart (V.) defeated Lewis and Capt. Fulling (D.), 3 and 2.

Pie (D.) defeated Capt. Murray (V.), 5 and 4.

O'Neil (V.) defeated Crooks (D.), 5 and 4.

Pie and Crooks (D.) defeated Capt. Murray and O'Neil (V.), 1 up.

Martin defeated Williams, 6 and 5.

REUNION HELD LAST SATURDAY

Sons of Delaware of Philadelphia Guests of the University; Many Attend and See Baseball Game

As has been customary for several years, the Sons of Delaware of Philadelphia made their annual pilgrimage to their native state last Saturday and were guests of the University of Delaware. The party numbered about 125, of which some came by train, while others motored to Newark. In the afternoon the group was entertained by a baseball game between the University of Delaware and Temple University. They also spent part of the afternoon in inspecting the new additions to the college and were particularly impressed with the evidence of remarkable development of the University.

TWO SENIORS CLAIM RECORD

Walking Championship Now Held By Flanzer and Reitzes; Mayor Forrest Fails to Welcome Hikers

Carrying out a resolution made in their Freshman year, Joe Flanzer and "Izzy" Reitzes, two midget members of the present Senior class, walked to Wilmington from Newark last Wednesday evening. The entire jaunt was made in the record time of two hours and fifty minutes. Besides being offered a ride by "Johnny" Lecarpentier near Marshallton, and another by a stranger at Elsmere, the trip was uneventful. The two local "Willie Plants" left Newark at exactly 8:30 p. m. and arrived in Wilmington at 11:20 p. m. According to the hikers, they intend laying claim to the walking championship for the thirteen miles which separate Wilmington from Newark. Their application is to be acted upon at the next meeting of the A. A. U. The walkers did not use starting blocks, nor did they have the wind at their backs.

PROGRESS MADE AFTER FIRE

St. Bonaventure's College to Hold Commencement Despite Drastic Ruins by Fire

Amid the historic buildings destroyed by fire on May 5, the faculty of St. Bonaventure's College is busy making arrangements for "Commencement as usual" to be held on Tuesday, June 10. This will be the seventieth commencement of the college and the exercises will be held for the first time, because of the results of the fire, in the open air, under the shadow of the burned buildings, but with all the customary ceremony of an indoor commencement. There is every prospect that there will be a record-breaking attendance of alumni of the institution who will revisit their Alma Mater in the hour of misfortune on the day that the class of 1930 receives its diplomas. While practically all the students of the college were sent home after the fire, because of the destruction of the big dining hall and other necessary buildings, the members of the Senior class remained for final examinations. With the spirit characteristic of the institution, the Seniors carried on and held their annual ball in Olean on the evening of May 9.

The graduating class of St. Bonaventure's this year numbers over one hundred, besides those who will receive the degrees of master of arts or science. A number of graduates in the extension school will be given degrees, including some twenty women. Plans for the Jubilee enrollment in celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the college are progressing. Already a number of the alumni have pledged substantial sums for the rebuilding of the structures destroyed by fire.

"Izzy" Reitzes played his usual sterling game behind the bat, and contributed a timely bingle. Everybody hit but Hall. Rod Steele snapped out of a season's batting slump to pole out three hits. Cain also had a good day at bat. Cain has batted 500 during the past two contests. The score:
