Pressure Forces Council Into Last Minute Charter Changes

U. of D. Authorities Go Directly To Legislature To Insert Tax Exemption Clause; Referendum Rule Inserted At Battersby's Request

Pressure from a number of private sources has resulted in several last-minute changes to Newark's proposed new charter now before the General Assembly in Dover.

This was disclosed at the May meeting of the Town Council on Tuesday night and caused several of the lawmakers to charge that the charter proposal is being turned into a "political football" in the legislature.

The changes were made as a result of requests from the Chrysler Corporation, the Pennsylvania Railroad and the University of Delaware.

The latter action especially aroused the ire of the lawmakers. According to Mayor Wallace Johnson, university authorities managed to hold up the charter this week in a house committee until a provision was inserted exempting property from all municipal taxation and granting that institution a number of other special privileges.

Although university officials sent a belated letter to Council asking for cooperation, they went directly to the legislature to secure the change, the Mayor said. He indicated he intended to go to Dover personally in an effort to work out some compromise. University property currently is tax free, but the privileges are not so extensive as those called for in the new provision.

Another important change was recommended by Representative Norman Battersby, who introduced the charter in the Assembly. At Mr. Battersby's request, Councilman Carl S. Rankin, who heads the town charter group, and Town Solicitor John P. Sinclair agreed to a provision calling for a referendum here on the charter after it is approved at Dover.

Under the terms of this ruling, a majority of residents within the present town boundaries, and a majority of the residents in the areas of the proposed boundary extension would be required to approve the charter. Failure to secure a majority of either group would kill the entire measure.

Mr. Battersby, it was said, recommended the referendum because the legislature has never yet approved a municipal charter in Delaware without such a provision. The lawmakers, many of whom had not heard of this change, agreed that a referendum was desirable, but objected to splitting the vote.

They felt a simple majority of all the voters involved, both those living within the present limits and those who would be annexed, should be sufficient for approval.

The change requested by Chrysler would provide a 10-year tax exemption for new industries located here now as well as a change from last year's 10-year to a 5-year period. This is a change from last year's announcement, which said that existing industries brought into town by the new boundaries would benefit from the exemption.

The Council appeared not to be opposed to this measure, since it is merely an extension of present town policy.

The Pennsylvania Railroad requested a change exempting its right of way from town taxes. This would affect the tracks south of town, which would be included in the extension of the boundaries called for in the charter proposal.

This also would be a continuation of town policy, since the Atlantic and Ohio tracks, now passing through the town, are tax free.

The charter bill, formally entered in the house on Monday, was reported out of the corporation municipal committee yesterday, by the Mayor said. A two-thirds majority is required for passage in the house, after which it will go to the senate where another two-thirds vote is required.

Action is expected soon on the measure, since the Assembly is scheduled to close on the 8th legislative day. Deliberations concerning days intervene, this will be May 11.

Following is the letter which informed the Council of the university's intention to seek a change in the proposed charter:

"April 27, 1951
Dear Dr. Johnson:
I have been meaning to write for some time to commend you and your associates on the Council of Newark."

Two Autos Damaged In Mishap Early Saturday

Two cars suffered extensive damage in a sideswiping shortly after midnight Friday at the junction of East Main Street and the Christina Road at the eastern entrance to town.

A car, operated by Jerry A. Johnson, 134 New London Avenue, ploughed into a vehicle driven by Paul M. Kane, Elkton, Md. Kane, entering town from the Christina Road, had halted for the stop sign there, when the Johnson vehicle, leaving town from East Main Street, struck his front end. Johnson is said to have misjudged his distance.

Kane's car was damaged to the extent of about $150, police said, while Johnson's suffered approximately $50 in damages.

E-52 Production Of 'Finnian's Rainbow' To Run Five Nights

Dr. W. O. Sypherd To Be Cited On Opening Night, May 7

The University of Delaware's E52 Players, on the occasion of the fiftieth major production in their 19 year history, will celebrate by awarding a citation to one of their most consistent supporters, Dr. W. O. Sypherd.

The presentation will be made during a ceremony before the curtain goes up on the Players' opening night performance of "Finnian's Rainbow" at Mitchell Hall, on Monday, May 7. The ceremony will include other special observances.

Gov. Elbert N. Carvel, other officers of the state, the heads of various institutions, trustees of the university, and representatives of state and local civic groups, are being invited to witness the presentation and the play. All E52 alumni, numbering about 200, also are invited.

Dr. C. Robert Kase, director of dramatics at the university, said that the citation for Dr. Sypherd was decided upon by the E52 Players "for his important contribution to the development of the university's theatre program." The university's present active theatre program was instituted while Dr. Kase was a member of the English Department headed by Dr. Sypherd. Later, when Dr. Sypherd was the U. of D. president, he was instrumental in arranging for the creation of a Department of Dramatic Arts and Speech. Since 1947 he has been retired from active duty on the campus, though he continues his studies there regularly. His title is that of university professor, emeritus, and he is the first in the university's history to hold the position.

Dr. Kase described the fiftieth production as "an occasion which symbolizes one phase of the university's efforts to contribute to the cultural needs of the state."

"The E52 Players not only bring living theatre to the university and surrounding communities," he pointed out, "but also, whenever possible, take theatre to citizens in other sections. 'Finnian's Rainbow,' the recent New York musical success, is a worthy selection for presentation at this celebration."

The musical will continue nightly throughout that week, concluding its five-night stand on Saturday, May 11. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. (DST).

One-Way Traffic On 4 Central Streets Proposed By Council

Action Urged Despite Previous Objections of C. of C.; Hour's Grace On Parking Meter Violations Turned Down; Meeting May 7 On State's Plan For By-Pass

Despite previous objections by the Chamber of Commerce, the Town Council is planning to enact one-way traffic rules on four central streets here on a three months' trial basis.

The proposal was made at the first May meeting on Tuesday night. The thoroughfares affected are Main Street, College Avenue, Delaware Avenue and North Chapel Street.

Town Solicitor John P. Sinclair was ordered to draft an ordinance calling for one-way traffic on Main Street west from Chapel Street to South College Avenue, south on College to Delaware, east on Delaware to South Chapel and north on Chapel Street.

The proposed law is scheduled for its first and second reading at either Council's second May meeting on Tuesday, May 15, or its first June session. Just two weeks ago, the Chamber of Commerce voted against establishing one-way traffic here. The Council, however, pointed out that it had consulted business officials in other nearby communities and had found that one-way traffic plans, although at first opposed, eventually proved satisfactory. Councilman Carl S. Rankin cited Kennett Square particularly as a town where the C. of C. originally opposed one-way traffic but changed its stand after it saw the plan work out. In any case, the lawmakers were of the opinion that the 3 month trial period would prove a sufficient test.

The Council also turned down a C. of C. request for a hour's grace on parking meter violations. The plan called for cancellation of the dollar fine if the violator paid his overdue nickel at the Council office within one hour after his time limit expired. The lawmakers seemed to think this would only lead to greater laxity on the part of parkers.

It was also announced that state highway department plans for a by-pass skirting Newark on the east will be outlined at a special Council meeting on Monday, May 7 at 7 p.m. in the Council Offices. Officials of the department will be on hand to discuss several proposed routes now under consideration.

In further business, the Council turned down, at least for the time being, a request for a $2,500 annual grant to finance a year-round recreation program here. The request was made by Dr. Paul Dolan, president of the Newark Recreation Association, who outlined the results of a recent professional recreation survey here, proposing a summer day-week program under a full-time director with a $7,000 first year budget. The $2,500 in town funds, Dr. Dolan said, would be supplemented by money raised through a NRA campaign.

Fires Keep Aetnemen On Move Past Week

Six fire alarms, four on Friday, kept the Aetna volunteers on the run the past week.

Friday's strenuous schedule began around 10 a.m. with a call for a burning automobile owned by Mrs. Diane Marvomat, Delaware Avenue. The fire, believed caused by a short circuit, was out when the firemen arrived.

Two calls followed in quick succession at 2:30 p.m. and again at 3:15 p.m. for grass and weeds covered by Burton Pyle along Keeney Station Road. The Aetnemen were called to assist the Christiana Company, which found itself hard pressed to bring the extensive blaze under control.

Around 6 p.m. the volunteers joined with other county firemen in extinguishing a blazing Greyhound bus near Glasgow. The flames gutted the vehicle, causing an estimated $25,000 in damages, according to Fire Recorder Charles E. Moore. No passengers were reported injured, he said.

Referendum Expected Soon On Newark-Glasgow School Merger

Plans for a local referendum on the question of consolidating the Newark-Glasgow school districts will be drawn up at the May meeting of the Newark Board of Education tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the high school.

A school tax rate, based on the district's new assessment valuation of $17,218,348, will also be fixed by the board. The assessment figure, which represents an approximate $3,300,000 increase over the previous valuation, was set recently by county authorities. A jump in the local tax rate, now 23 cents on $100 assessment, probably will not be necessary, school authorities said this week.

The referendum will be a follow-up on the vote held in the Glasgow district on Feb. 17, when residents there approved by a slim margin the plan to merge their one-room school with the Newark district.

A legal mixup followed, however, when the vote was protested by the opposition. The issue was cleared up recently when the state's attorney general issued an opinion calling the referendum a valid one. Local authorities were notified of the decision this week by the Department of Public Instruction.

All that is required now to complete the merger is the approval of voters in the Newark district.

The board also is expected to approve a number of appointments to the school faculty, filling vacancies that will develop by the fall term. Resignations effective in June have been received from Mrs. Helen Morton, second grade; Mrs. Mamie Palmer, second grade; and Mrs. Phyllis Weeks, third grade.

Mrs. Weeks, who has been here one year, is resigning in order to accompany her husband, who has accepted a new job elsewhere. Both Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Weeks, who has seen two years service here, plan to devote their full time to homemaking.

C. Emerson Johnson and William Shelton Named Newark Trust Directors

C. Emerson Johnson, local merchant, and William A. Shelton, dairy farmer, were elected directors of the Newark Trust Company at the April 25 meeting of the board.

The announcement was made this week by J. Irvin Dayett, president.

Mr. Johnson was connected with Rhodes Drug Store for over 17 years before acquiring the business as owner in 1942. He resides on Orchard Road.

Mr. Shelton was associated with Mr. William duPont in a managerial capacity for 40 years. Mr. Shelton now operates his own dairy farms in Cecil County, Md. He resides on one of his farms.

J. Franklin Anderson, vice-president of Continental Diamond Fibre Company and a director of the bank since 1946, was elected vice president. Mr. Anderson is a long time resident of Newark.

W. D. Stonecipher Is Awarded 3 Patents On New Insecticides

Improved Products For Fighting Flies, Roaches, Other Pests

Three patents, covering improved insecticidal compositions, have been granted to William D. Stonecipher, Newark. The patents are entitled "Insecticidal Composition Containing a Polychloro p-Menthane."

The new products are designed to combat flies, mosquitoes, roaches, moths and many other pests, according to the patent notice, and may be used in the form of a spray or dust. The products are said to be superior in their action to many of the insecticides heretofore on the market.

The naturally occurring nicotine, pyrethrum (obtained from the dried flowers of several species of chrysanthemum) and rotenone (found in the roots of various vines of the bean family), which are among the more commonly used insecticidal toxicants, suffer from the disadvantage of not being uniform in their activity. Similarly, many of the synthetic products, which have been used as substitutes for these natural toxicants, do not have a high enough killing power and must be handled in concentrations that cause irritation to the user; and, if sufficiently toxic, they are poisonous to forms of animal life other than insect pests.

To overcome these limitations, Mr. Stonecipher has discovered that various compositions, which contain as a toxic ingredient any one of certain essential plant oils that are treated so as to have a chlorine content of from about 50% to 75%, possess an unusual degree of insecticidal activity.

In his patent specifications, he describes numerous tests in which after spraying his insecticide into a chamber, a number of flies were placed therein upon an observation cage containing a wad of cotton wet with a concentrated sugar solution. At the end of 24 hours, it was found that up to 100 percent of the flies were killed, the effectiveness depending upon the percentage of chlorine.

Mr. Stonecipher has assigned these patents to Hercules Powder Company.

In hailing the success of the drive, Dr. Lanier stated, "I would like to thank those who participated in any part of the campaign."

PTA Lends Active Support To Education Bills In Assembly

Several General Assembly bills, providing for aid for various phases of public education, are receiving active support from the Newark Parent Teachers Association.

The PTA has appointed a 4-member committee, headed by Mrs. Samuel Handloff, which is authorized to approach legislators in an effort to enlist their support for the bills.

Last week the committee, which includes Joseph Perkins, Mrs. C. E. Brown, Jr., and Robert Hall, attended a meeting of a joint house-senate finance committee by Dover and had a conference with Gov. Elbert N. Carvel.

The latter assured the group, according to Mrs. Handloff, that the Newark district would receive adequate state appropriations for future building work, including emergency needs. Gov. Carvel was non-committal, however, regarding such issues as teacher salaries and tenure.

The bills which the PTA is endorsing are: HB 139, covering teachers salaries; SB 216, teacher tenure; SB 237,

Only 3 Months Left Before Deadline On GI Education Bill

Vets Must Be In Training By July 25 To Get Full Benefits

Veterans have only three months in which to complete arrangements for starting or resuming GI Bill training before the July 25, 1951 cut-off date.

To receive GI Bill education or training benefits after July 25, veterans must actually be in training on that date unless they have temporarily interrupted their courses for summer vacations or other reasons beyond their control, such as re-entry into military service.

The forthcoming summer school session will be virtually the last chance for veterans to re-enter training before the deadline.

Veterans Administration pointed out that it takes time to process application for original or supplemental certificates of training eligibility and there may be a last-minute flood of applications for training if veterans delay their applications.

Those who have previously been in training and who desire to make a second change of course will be required to undergo advisement and guidance before VA can approve their applications.

After the deadline date:

1. Veterans will be expected to train "continuously until completion, except for conditions which normally would cause interruption by any student."

2. Once a veteran completes or discontinues his course of GI Bill training he may not start another course, and he may change his educational objective "only while in training and then for reasons satisfactory to the administrator."

The July 25 deadline applies to WW II veterans who were discharged before July 25, 1947. For those who were released from service later, the cut-off date is four years from date of discharge.

Wesley Introduces Job-Study Program

Establishment of a cooperative work and training program between the International Latex Corporation and Wesley Junior College was announced recently by Dr. O. A. Bartley, president of the college.

Under the plan, students will be enrolled in the secretarial curriculum of the college, spending a half day in classes and working the balance of the day, in conformity with a definite schedule set up by the college and Latex, in the Latex offices at Playtex Park in Dover.

All such trainees will be paid the prevailing wage for such work.

Participants in the program will live in the college dormitories and will have all the rights and privileges of any other college student. All courses will carry full credit toward the associate in arts degree awarded by the college. The group will be limited to 20.

Events of national and international importance will take place in Detroit and will be of interest to people from all parts of the country. Four nations—France, Britain, Canada and the United States—will take part in the ceremonies, marking the friendship that has long existed between these countries.

Because of Detroit's position as the largest border city in the world, and the cooperative spirit existing between Detroit and Windsor, this is an excellent opportunity to display to the world the amity that can develop between two peoples. One of the most active groups in the festival planning is the Canadian participation committee which is bringing participating organizations to Detroit from all parts of Canada.

Two huge International folk festivals will be presented July 23 and 25. They will feature the music, dances, costumes, and songs of the nationality groups that have migrated to Detroit during the 250 years of its existence. It will provide living proof of the way in which peoples of diverse creeds and national or racial backgrounds can live together peacefully.

Fire Prevention

Fire prevention is good management, says M. Katharine Jones, County Home Demonstration Agent. Practice it at home. Make your family fire prevention conscious. Fire means serious damage and even loss of life. It can be prevented, and it's up to you.

Miss Jones says that most fires can be prevented by following common sense in your home. Enforce good housekeeping methods. They will not only prevent fire but will increase efficiency.

Get rid of electrical hazards. Don't let electrical circuits become overloaded. Lighting circuits should have 15 ampere fuses and when fuses "blow" circuits should be checked by a competent electrician. See that worn wires are replaced and do not use temporary cords, running around the room or under rugs. Check smoking habits. Enforce "No Smoking" rules in the barn or where gasoline or hay is stored. Put rubbish in covered metal cans. Be sure all materials that burn are away from the heater before you start a fire. The heater room should not be a storage place for rubbish.

Clean all newspapers, magazines and old rags out of the basement and attic. Burn dead leaves and brush carefully. Enroll now in the campaign to make Delaware homes safer from fire. Call your Extension Office for details and

The story of a faith that paid off

YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE BECAUSE IT'S HAPPENED TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

PROBABLY YOU'VE never thought of yourself as a maker of history. But you are. And here is how you, as a citizen of the United States, are creating the greatest success in all history.

Remember back in 1941 when the Defense Bonds you were buying suddenly had to become War Bonds? How you and your neighbors pitched in to buy them in ever-increasing numbers, to back our fighting men and to help achieve the victory of World War II? After V-J Day, when those bonds became Savings Bonds, you continued to buy them because you had learned how regular saving could build security and contentment for yourself and those you love.

The face of the land has undergone some dramatic changes in those years since V-J Day. Now the landscape is dotted with new homes that Savings Bonds built. Thousands upon thousands of new automobiles travel the highways—Savings Bonds cars, bought with the product of individual thrift. On the farms, Bond-purchased equipment has helped produce bumper crops and prosperous years. Everywhere in America, man's urge to get into business for himself has become a bright reality. So has the ambition of loving parents to send their children through college. Time and time again, Savings Bonds have made those dreams and many others come true.

You KNOW they've come true, because it's happened to you or to some of your own friends.

And this is only the beginning of the story. Even after accomplishing so much, millions of American families still enjoy the financial security of owning more than fifty billion dollars—fifty thousand million dollars in Savings Bonds. More than at the peak of war-time Bond holdings!

How much money is that? It's enough to build a new $10,000 mortgage-free home for every family in San Francisco—and Sacramento—and Salt Lake City—and Denver—and Kansas City—and St. Louis—and Indianapolis—and Cincinnati—and Pittsburgh—and New York City—and the whole state of Texas!

And every week, everywhere in America, new millions of dollars are added to the total—as crisp new Savings Bonds are typed up with your name on them.

Kind of a king-size success story, isn't it? Your success story because you and the millions of your neighbors are living it right now. Your own faith in America—your own desire for the warmth of family security and independence—have made the story of United States Savings Bonds the thrift miracle of all time.

For your security, and your country's too, save now through regular purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds

The U. S. Government does not pay for this advertising. The Treasury Department thanks, for their patriotic donation, the Advertising Council.

So it's May! The weeks of Spring are rolling around rapidly and bringing beauty in all its glory to the countryside. The apple orchards are filled with gorgeous blossoms so are the plum and pear trees. The forsythias and japonica bushes are fading but the lilacs and bridal roses are coming out in bloom. Miss Lotte Geck, a foreign exchange student from Horkheim, Germany, spoke before the members of the Waverly Club last week. She told of life in Germany. The club's delegates to the state federation on June 7 and 8 will be Mrs. John Dennison and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell. Alternates are Mrs. William H. Naudain and Mrs. Greenville Eastburn. The club's next meeting, May 9, will be with Mrs. Henry C. Mitchell and not at Mrs. Henry P. Wilson's home.

The White Oak 4-H Club won honors last week when four members earned awards in the county public speaking contest. They were James L. Derickson, Jr., Ronald Woodward, Jane Walton and Charlotte Klair. The club held its monthly meeting also last week. Plans were made for collecting used clothing, toys and games for the Governor Bacon Health Center. Miss Anna Reynolds is chairman of this project. The members observed the Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church with Union, Y's Owl, and Forest Oak 4-H Clubs, all from areas in Mill Creek Hundred. National Home Demonstration Week is a busy one for the Wicodausis and Three-in-One clubs. Attendance at church, talks on TV programs, the state meeting, and inauguration of new community projects will all be enjoyed this week.

The Union Juveniles had a visit from the Harmony group last Saturday when the guests presented the following program: Piano solo "Cotton Flute" by Janet Pierson; reading by Sandra Naudain; vocal solo, "Mocking Bird Hills" by Betty Woodward; reading, "Hungry Bear" by Edwin Pierson, Jr.; riddles by Betty Woodward; piano solo "Boying Song" by Jackie Naudain; reading "Wherever You Are" by Billy Naudain; games conducted by Mrs. Emily Klair, matron. Mrs. Ruth H. Mitchell, national grange home economics chairman, spoke boosting the juvenile order. Union will have a bake sale May 25 in front of Jackson's Hardware store in charge of Mrs. Eulalia Dempsey, matron.

The monthly session of Union 4-H club last Friday was featured by a sewing demonstration by Miss M. Katharine Jones, county home demonstration leader. Miss M. Louise Stafford of Churchman Road, was honored at a surprise variety shower April 28 at the home of Mrs. Louise H. Dempsey at "Blackstone." Co-hostesses were Mrs. Norman Dempsey and Mrs. Melvin Dempsey. Approximately 70 guests including relatives, friends and members of the Booster Circle and MYAF of Ebenezer Church, were present. The wedding of Miss Stafford and Mr. Ferris H. Dempsey will take place early this summer.

HEALTHY HENS LOTS OF EGGS

with a CONCRETE POULTRY HOUSE

Egg production and poultry profits can be increased on American farms and ranches with more modern poultry houses.

For healthier, more productive flocks, build a concrete poultry house. Concrete has no crevices for lice, and other parasites; keeps out rats, weasels and vermin; is easy to keep warm, clean and dry; does away with the need for frequent, costly repairs.

Portland cement and concrete aggregates are readily obtainable for needed repairs, maintenance and improvements which help increase food production. Economical, life-time concrete improvements cost surprisingly little to build.

Write for free booklet, "Concrete Poultry Houses," showing layouts of poultry, incubator and brooder houses of various types approved by state agricultural colleges.

If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor, ready-mixed concrete producer or building material dealer.

With the beauties of springtime all about us, we are reminded of Arthur Powell's lines, entitled "The Welcome."
God spreads a carpet soft and green
O'er which we pass;
A thick-piled mat of jeweled sheen—
And that is Grass.

New-leaping grass, the feathery flute,
The sapphire ring,
The sea's full-voiced, profound salute—
Ah, that is Spring!

The many friends of Thomas Claringbold were deeply shocked to learn of his sudden death from a heart attack, early Saturday morning. Mr. Claringbold resided with his son, Thomas Cuthbert Claringbold, on Kirkwood Highway, at Roseville Park. His other son, Richard Bayard Claringbold, is living in Detroit. He is also survived by two sisters; Mrs. Mable Morgan and Mrs. John Appleby, both of Wilmington, and a step-brother, Charles Leach, of Wilmington. George P. Morgan, chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, is a nephew. There are five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Claringbold was born in Wilmington but had lived near Newark for 43 years.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from the Shellender Funeral Home, Newark, with Rev. James H. Bishop officiating burial in White Clay Cemetery.

White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church
The Junior-Hi Westminster Fellowship voted last Sunday to invite their mothers to attend the Sunday evening church service on May 13. Members of the fellowship will serve as ushers, receive the offering and sing in the youth choir.

The Westminster Fellowship is finding many ways to be of service to the church. Members will meet at the church at 1 p.m. this Saturday to wash the windows in the Sunday school room.

At the May meeting of the Young Adult Fellowship, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peach on Tuesday, the new program for the year was adopted. Plans for the annual spring festival to be held in June were discussed.

The church will be represented by Mrs. James H. Bishop at a luncheon meeting of the Newark Council of Church Women tomorrow at the Newark Methodist Church.

The improvement committee of White Clay Church is proud to announce the gift of an electric coffee urn from Mr. Bishop's Sunday school class. This will be a welcome addition to the kitchen equipment.

Mrs. Miller Darrell, Mrs. Walter Reign and Mrs. James Bishop attended the vacation school conference held in Wilmington, last Thursday, as preparation for the vacation school to be held at White Clay Church during the first two weeks in July. Anyone wishing to help with the school please contact Mrs. Bishop.

Rev. Bishop announces two important Sunday evening services. Mrs. Willard Purdy, of Wilmington, will be the speaker at a program May 13th, sponsored by the Women's Missionary Society. There will be a dramatization by members of the Young Adult Sunday School Class and an anthem by the Youth Choir.

On Sunday, May 27, at 8 p.m. the Newark Post of the American Legion will attend in a body a Memorial Sunday service. Members of the post will assist the pastor in this special service. Rev. Bishop was elected to serve as chaplain of the post at an election of officers held last week.

Next Sunday, May 6, at the 11 a.m. church service, the pastor will bring the message "A Dream Come True," the sixth in a series of great teachings of the Christian church. There will be a solo sung by Mrs. Paul Peach, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked." This will be of particular interest because the music was presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McQueen of Guelph, Ontario, Canada, who have been attending White Clay Church during their stay in Marshallton. The gift was inspired by the recent series of sermons on "Little Walks With Jesus." Mr. and Mrs. McQueen are returning to their home in Canada next week.

Six Fires

The firemen were routed out of bed at 8:55 a. m. Sunday to extinguish a chimney blaze at the home of Ernest Bland, Strickleville, Pa. No serious damage was reported.

Shortly after 5 p. m. Monday, the volunteers were called to a minor blaze at 25 Ray Street, which was out when they arrived.

Charter Changes

for your efforts to revise the Charter and modernize our local government. Your leadership means much to the orderly development of this growing community. Before writing, however, I wanted to study the proposed Charter in some detail and have legal advice upon it so my commendations would be completely meaningful.

"The proposed charter seems to confer upon the Town of Newark those powers, functions, duties, privileges and immunities which are usual and appropriate for a municipality to possess. However, inasmuch as the University of Delaware is an agency of the State, the relationship between the town and the state university is different from that between the town and other property owners and residents of the town. In order to avoid the possibility of difficulties arising in the future because of the unique relationship between the Town of Newark and the University of Delaware, I suggest that a new section, providing substantially as follows, be added to the proposed Charter:

"Section —UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE—Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the University of Delaware shall be exempt from any and all taxation by the City of Newark. The city shall not levy, assess, or collect any tax, charge or special assessment of any kind whatsoever for any purpose whatsoever against or from the University of Delaware or any property, real or personal, owned or held by the University of Delaware, except charges for utilities or that the charges for such utilities or utility services shall be reasonable, non-discriminatory and not in excess of the rates charged by the city to others for similar utilities or utility services. The right of eminent domain hereinbefore conferred upon the City of Newark shall not be exercised against and shall not apply with respect to property of the University of Delaware. Except with the approval of the Board of Trustees of the University of Delaware, the City of Newark shall not open or lay out any new street, square, lane, or alley upon any property of the University of Delaware; alter, extend, or widen any existing street, square, lane, or alley upon any property of the University of Delaware; or require the paving, graveling, or guttering of the sidewalks or the paving, curbing, and guttering outside of the curbing upon any property of the University of Delaware."

"Would you gentlemen join with us in securing this amendment so that there could be no possible confusion later that might disrupt the harmonious relationships between the city government and the University as an agency of the Commonwealth?"

"I shall transmit this amendment to the Charter to Mr. Battersby, who introduced the proposed Charter, and to the proper committee of the legislature.

"John A. Perkins"

Value and Dependability

—says MICHAEL OPPENHEIM

"Sure, I've owned and driven other make cars," says Michael Oppenheim, Ballerose, N.Y. "But since 1941 my cars have all been Dodges. I know how dependable Dodge cars are, how little they cost to run."

You could pay up to $1,000 more and not get all the extra room, comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge!

Compare what Dodge gives you... with what other cars offer. You'll understand why Dodge owners say they'll match Dodge with any car on the road.

Take riding comfort for example. You could pay far more for a car and still not get the almost unbelievable smoothness of the new Orloff ride. Even on roughest roads there's no wheel "hop" or bounce. You get the relaxing comfort of extra head room, leg room and shoulder room... the safety of "Watchtower" visibility. Dodge Gyro-Matic—the lowest priced automatic transmission—lets you drive without shifting. See and drive Dodge today.

Jensen and Repetoire Teamed Up Last Year At Delaware Park

A dog may be man's best friend, but with Alfred Jensen, it's a horse—Repetoire.

Less than a year ago, at Delaware Park, the Scandinavian horseman and the stocky chestnut colt became acquainted. Jensen had a one-horse stable consisting of a fair plater named Preacher. Right next door were quartered a couple of thoroughbreds owned by Stanley C. Mikell of Dover, Del., and registered in the name of his wife, Mrs. Nora Mikell. The two horses were Going Airy, a smart elderly mare, and an unheralded two-year-old, Repetoire.

At that time, Jensen was just "scuffling" and Repetoire, with one very mediocre race behind him, was an equine nonentity. Furthermore, the colt had badly bucked shins and just sat out that Delaware meeting. That's the way it was, then, when Jensen became friendly with Mikell—and Repetoire—and was given the job as the stable's trainer.

Together, Jensen and Repetoire traveled the rocky road from virtual obscurity to national fame. Today, they are very prominent in the Kentucky Derby picture. Repetoire this spring kept right on winning stakes and, with some of the more widely acclaimed sophomores fading as Derby prospects, the Delaware-owned chestnut seems certain to go postward as at least one of the select few favorites come May 5.

Jensen's love and knowledge of horses began early in his native Denmark. When Alfred came of voting age, the spirit of the wanderlust asserted itself and he traveled far and wide, eventually winding up in America as his choice. He had to learn to speak English but, horses being the same in any language, that knowledge helped him to hook on with the show horse stable of Sumner Welles, former Under Secretary of State. During eight years on that job, he became oriented and developed friends.

Alfred's real start on the road to success arrived when he joined Mikell at Delaware Park. Mikell, who hopes Repetoire will become the first Delaware-owned horse to win the Derby, took residence in Dover in 1938 and operates an automobile agency there. In 1946, he was elected to the city council. He acquired his first horse, Della Sand, in 1944. Next to Repetoire, Going Airy has been his best winner with some $60,000. The seven-year-old mare is now at a Marlboro, Md., breeding farm.

When Repetoire won the April 21 Wood Memorial at Jamaica for his fourth stakes triumph in as many 1951 starts, he boosted his total earnings to $89,440—of which $72,465 was gleaned from a total of 15 starts, the colt picked up eight victories, four seconds and one third—being unplaced but twice.

That's not bad for a horse that cost the Mikells only $4,000 at the 1949 Saratoga yearling sales. He was bred by Dr. F. O. Keefe and foaled at his Pine Brook Farm, Warrenton, Va. Repetoire might yet prove his right to be ranked with such other noted Virginians as Hill Prince and Phalanx.

One major stake that Jensen would like to win with Repetoire is the $25,000 added Kent on June 23 at Delaware Park—the place where their association was born. Sure, Repetoire's name is misspelled—it should be "Repetoire." The second "R" was inadvertently left out when the list of suggested names was made out to be submitted to the Jockey Club for approval. Mikell hasn't bothered to have the name corrected, being more concerned with how the colt performs. Anyway, the Mikells call him "Reppy."

Maybe this latest Cinderella horse should be called "Jensen's Jackpot."

Plan Special Train To Kentucky Derby

Local Fans Organizing Rooting Section

The Kentucky Derby, which still is America's favorite horse race despite repeated efforts of other state's tracks to lure the public's fancy, will have a brand new rooting section come May 5, at the historic Churchill Downs racing plant.

Some 100 racing enthusiasts from the Wilmington - Philadelphia - Camden - Trenton areas are expected to make up a joyous throng that will have its own "reserved seats" at the 1951 "Run For The Roses." At the same time they will cheer for such outstanding Philadelphia district thoroughbreds as George D. Widener's Battlediel, and Joe Colando's Uncle Mittie, and Repetoire, owned by Mrs. N. Mikell, of Dover, Del., all of whom are nominated for the mile-and-a-quarter test for three-year-olds.

The idea of the compact rooting section is the brainchild of Sid Schulman, owner of the Special Service Ticket Agency, Wilmington, who has chartered a crack Baltimore and Ohio railroad train, which will be pressed into service as "The Kentucky Derby Special."

Sid has announced his agency will offer an "all expenses paid" round trip to the derby, with pullman accommodations, meals, plus a reserved seat at the derby.

The Kentucky Derby Special will leave Philadelphia at 3:42 p.m., May 4; take on additional passengers in Wilmington at 4:07 p.m., then begin its non-stop trip to Churchill Downs, arriving between 8 and 9 a.m., day of the race. The train will arrive in Philadelphia at 3 p.m., Sunday, May 6.

The famous race—this year's running will be the 76th—annually plays to a S.R.O. crowd. Over 100,000 last year saw Middleground, Hill Prince and Mr. Trouble flash across the finish line in that order. Tickets usually are at a premium, thus the fact "The Kentucky Derby Special" offer includes a reserved seat has its merits. Often a racing fan has traveled cross country to be on hand, but has been denied a seat. Schulman already has made seating arrangements for his patrons.

Hen Nine To Meet Haverford Saturday, Temple U. Monday

Both Games Here: Delaware Downs Johns Hopkins For Eighth Win

The University of Delaware Blue Hen nine, bowling along with a creditable record of eight wins in 14 games to date, is scheduled for two appearances before the home fans.

The first comes Saturday when Coach "Shack" Martin's charges play host to Haverford on Frazer Field with game time set for 3 p.m. Monday, Temple University will invade the local field for a game starting at 3:30 p.m.

The Hens kept their season's accounts in the black last Saturday when they downed Johns Hopkins, 13-5, on Frazer Field. The Delaware sluggers opened up with a 15-hit barrage, driving three opposition hurlers from the mound.

Delaware scored in every inning excepting the fourth and the last, leading from the start. The visitors broke into the scoring column early, but after pushing across single runs in the first and second, remained scoreless until the ninth when they came to life momentarily for a 3-run outburst.

The Yellowjacket "9" finally broke into the win column by downing Salesianum 2-1 in a pitching duel between Tom Baker and Len Szafranski of Sallies. This was Newark's first win in three attempts. Baker also got his first win against two losses. Newark came back to play a superb game after losing to Claymont 3-2.

In the Claymont game, Allen Lee started for N. H. S. and pitched five no-hit scoreless innings and then gave up two unearned runs. Tom Baker came in in the sixth and set the Indians down in order. At the last of the seventh, Claymont pushed across a run on an error, infield out, and a fielder's choice.

The Yellowjackets were weak on offense getting three scratch hits; they got both runs when Pitcher Lee doubled with runners on second and third.

Newark pushed across a run in the bottom of the seventh inning on a walk, and a single by Albie Sparks. The Yellowjackets got their first tally in the first. Sallies tied the game up in the fifth. Newark played an all-around better game against Sallies than they have played in all of the other tilts. Although their hitting is not yet up to par, they are improving in every game. Newark's fielding is getting better also; in the first two games the Yellowjackets had ten errors, but in the Sallies game they had only one miscue.

"Jockey" Collins, famous Phillies scout, was down to see Newark and Sallies play. Mr. Collins saw the entire game and had much praise for some of the players on both squads.

Some of the high school players are going to keep on playing ball through the summer. Most of the boys will contest together and play for Harmony in the County League and some will play with Newark's town team.

Interest Increases In Kiwanis Horse Show

Entries are numerous and interest is increasing in the Kiwanis Club horse show to be held in June at Foxcatcher Farms, Fair Hill, Md.

This was disclosed at the club's weekly dinner meeting last week in the College Inn, where plans for the colorful event were worked out.

Assisting the Kiwanians in staging the program will be the members of the Key Club, Kiwanis sponsored organization at the Newark High School. The youth group performs services within the high school similar to those carried out by the adult club in the community at large.

James Draper, president of the Key Club, and Eric Schauman, a member, were present at the Kiwanis session.

Field To Handle TV Description Of Derby

Bryan Field, Delaware Park's vice-president and general manager, will do some fast moving to handle the description of the Kentucky Derby for television at Louisville on May 5.

Immediately following the race, he will leave the racetrack with a film of the event and head for the Louisville airport with a police escort. There he will board a special plane for a non-stop flight to Dayton, O. The plane will be equipped with high speed development equipment so that by the time the airship arrives in the Buckeye State, the film will be ready for projection over the Columbia Broadcasting System TV Network, from 9:45 to 10 p.m. Eastern time.

Dayton was selected as the transmission point since it is the nearest city to Louisville where the coaxial cable is available.

A seasoned veteran at calling "Derbies," this will mark the third consecutive year that Field has handled the television description of the "Run For The Roses."

Jacket Nine Evens Year's Record With 6-3 Win Over Elkton

Though Outbit, 5-3, Newark Holds Lead Throughout Game Monday

Newark High's Yellowjacket nine evened up the season's mark at two and two on Monday afternoon here, when they tripped Elkton High, 6-3.

Though outbit by the visitors 5 to 3, the Jackets were in the driving seat from the start, bunching their scoring in 3-run burst in the first and final innings.

A big factor in the victory was Bunny Blaney's homer in the first with a man on base.

Thorpe topped the Newark batsmen with two hits. Blaney's circuit clout was the only other safe blow for the Jackets.

ROTC Drill Officers Face Trio Of Twins

Double trouble in triplicate—that's what confronts officers of the University of Delaware's ROTC regiment when they drill the cadets this spring.

Among the freshmen in the regiment are three sets of identical twins: Joseph and Edmond Stout, John and James Todd, and Frank and Robert Stevens.

The Stout twins, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stout, live at 19 Linden Street, Newark, and are studying agriculture. They are graduates of Salesianum High School, Wilmington.

The Todds are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Todd, Nottingham, Pa., and are graduates of Oxford, Pa., High School. They are studying engineering.

The Stevens twins, also prospective engineers, are residents of Bloomfield, N.J. (37 West Street), and were graduated from the high school there. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alton Stevens.

Field Study Course In Geography Is Planned

A field-study course in the regional geography of Delaware will be one of the offerings of the University of Delaware during the first term of 1950-51 summer school.

The principal object is to develop an understanding of the state as a living geographical region, shaped no less by its geology, climate and physical geography than by its history and modern social, economic, and political trends.

Another object is to train students in the arts and techniques of systematic field studies and observations.

J. J. Groot, of the University's Department of Geography and Geology, who will give the course, states that about one-third of the time will be devoted to classroom lectures on the state's physical aspects, its history, its problems of industrial and agricultural economics.

Newark AA Defeats Christiana, 7-2, In County Loop Debut

Play Harmony Here Tonight And Workhouse Nine On Tuesday

The Newark AA nine made its debut in the New Castle County League on Tuesday night with a routing, 7-2, victory over Christiana.

Billy Foster and Hi Miller shared the mound duties for Newark, holding the opposition to five hits, while teammates collected eight.

Christiana took a one run lead in the opening inning, but the Jackets quickly nullified this with two in the second stanza and four more in the third. They added their final tally in the fourth in the game called at the end of five innings due to darkness.

Buddy Cataldi paced the Newark sluggers with two safe hits.

The club meets Harmony tonight at 6:15 p.m. on the Newark High School field, with "Fuzzy" Corroick scheduled to start on the mound.

Next Tuesday, Newark will take on the County Workhouse nine at 4:30 p.m.—guess where.

Little Things about the Stars TELEVISION - RADIO - HOLLYWOOD

NEW YORK, N. Y. — After just three months on the air, television's "Pulitzer Prize Playhouse" walked away with the most coveted award in the business—the "Emmy," counterpart to film's "Oscar," presented by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The citation names the full-hour ABC-TV program "Best Dramatic Show of 1950."

Budd Schulberg Helen Hayes Judith Anderson

Even to television's severe critics, the "Pulitzer" shows have been quite a wonder. The series quickly lured into their first full-length TV appearance theatrical greats Judith Anderson and Helen Hayes. Top authors, including Budd Schulberg ("The Disenchanted"), have made their TV writing debut here, while the show's production methods have absolutely amazed movie makers. One story, "The Pharmacist's Mate," a Grade-A production hailed by critics, was filmed for only $30,000, a budget never approached by Hollywood. Three directors, with entirely separate crews, work on "Pulitzer Prize Playhouse." Each gets out a drama every three weeks.

Speaking of "HENRY" "The Aldrich Family" (Thurs. nights, NBC), the radio show its creator, Clifford Goldsmith, felt he couldn't carry on after the first few broadcasts (no more material) is in its 12th year and going strong.

Erra Stone ... soft touch

Bert Parks on top Bert Parks, an exuberant young (35) fellow from Atlanta, Ga., is quite likely the busiest personality in television today. And not only the busiest. In a recent poll of newspaper and magazine editors he was voted the best master-of-ceremonies. Bert holds forth three afternoons a week (Mon., Wed., Fri., NBC-TV) on his own "Bert Parks Show"—first TV program to bring nighttime TV to daytime stars: Betty Ann Grove, singing comedienne who starred in "Kiss Me Kate," bands...

Columnist Talks At Rotary Club Meeting

Frank Urges Old Fort Be Made State Shrine

Maintenance of old Fort Delaware on Pea Patch Island as a state shrine was asked by William P. Frank, speaker at the Newark Rotary Club Monday evening. Frank traced the history of the fort from its construction in 1821. The Wilmington columnist, a member of the Fort Delaware Society, told of the burning of the first fort, destruction of the second by a tidal wave, and the final construction of the present building. He told how Delaware gave the island to the federal government in 1814 and got it back when the fort was retired in 1914. "Fort Delaware," said Frank, "was a notoriously bad prison during the war between the states. Its dungeons were overcrowded with both military and political prisoners—over 12,000 of them." Many of these were helped to escape by friendly Delawareans. Two new Rotary Club members, Charles Clark and William Rogers, were inducted into the club by Sam Handloff, President Joseph Shields announced that the club ladies' night will be held May 28, with Whitey Burnham as chairman.

The Council also rescinded a letter it has had on file since 1934 with the Delaware Liquor Commission. The letter, which requests the Commission not to grant additional liquor licenses in Newark, has always been honored, although it has no legal standing.

In withdrawing it, the Council stressed its action should not be construed as favoring the granting of further liquor licenses here. The lawmakers made it clear they merely want the decision on future requests left up to the Commission, where it belongs under Delaware law. Only dissenting vote on the measure came from Councilman Rankin, who said he felt the Council should continue to stand responsible for granting licenses here.

A 400-home development, proposed by L. W. Richards, Wilmington real estate agent, for the Wilson property southeast of town, ran into a stumbling block, when Council said it would be unable to provide sewer lines by the deadline set by the developer.

The latter requested the installation by this summer, but Council pointed out this would require a temporary line, costing about $25,000, which eventually would have to be scrapped. The lawmakers said that, although they did not feel justified in such an unprofitable outlay. They added that, in any case, materials for the lines could not be secured before next November.

Originally, the proposed development had been for 200 homes, but Mr. Richards indicated he planned to increase the number to about 400.

The lawmakers also gave the final reading to an ordinance prohibiting parking at any time on portions of South Chapel Street and limiting it to two hours on Ashley and Wyoming Roads and Chambers Street. The affected areas on South Chapel are between Chamber Street and East Park Place and between Delaware Avenue and Continental Street.
