AMERICAN EMBASSY
Mexico, January 5, 1943

My dear friend:

Marion and I are leaving here on the 15th of January for at least a brief stay at home. I shall have to go directly to Washington and will have to spend several weeks there, after which I hope to spend some time in New York and to have the pleasure of seeing you. I shall not be in New York until some time early in February, but I will keep in touch with you from Washington with regard to my plans. I am so sorry to learn of Mrs. Heineman's illness and I hope that by this time she has entirely recovered. Needless to say, we look forward very much to seeing you all.

Mr. Teppema, the Dutch Minister in Buenos Aires, has presented your letter and I hope to see him this afternoon.

With affectionate regard to you and Mrs. Heineman from us both, and looking forward to seeing you, believe me

Faithfully yours,

Mr. D. Heineman,
Suite 1700,
50 Broadway,
New York City.
