

To: Paul L. Dunbar
Library of Congress
From: Mrs. Paul L. Dunbar Brooklyn

[Apr. 14, 1898]

Paul dear. I wrote you a long letter in school to-day & religiously forgot to mail it, then went home, put it down. I am scribbling this in the P.O.

We didn't move to-day & won't until Monday - at least the M's won't. So you'll take me from 33 Poplar St after all. Will mail letters to-night which will explain all in a minute.

