Personal and confidential

Dear Mr. Feldheim:

I have your confidential note of December 21 in reply to mine of December 18 and I appreciate very much the further information which you have given me. I need not assure you that all these things are a matter of interest to us and that we are not unmindful of their importance. They are getting our constant and careful attention.

Hoping that you and yours will have a very Happy Christmas and with best wishes for a New Year filled with all good things,

Sincerely yours,

G. S. Messersmith
