Personal

Dear Friend:

Mr. Auchincloss took up with me some time ago the question of the status here so far as the immigration authorities are concerned of Mr. Friendsdorf, who I understand is here on behalf of some of the Sofina interests.

For your personal information I am very glad that the immigration authorities have informed me today that his status has been changed from that of a person here on a temporary visit to that of a treaty alien. In other words, there will be no further difficulty with regard to his indefinite continued stay in this country.

Believe me, with every good wish,

Faithfully yours,

D. N. Heineman, Esquire,
