October 25, 1939.

Dear Mr. Allen:

I received, in due course, your letter of October 6 with its enclosure, which, I need not tell you, I read with much interest. I also took the liberty of bringing it to the attention of some of my associates here in the Department, who read it with equal interest. Sometime when I see you I will have the opportunity of commenting to you on some of the questions which you raise.

Believe me, with very good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Allen, Jay
