Dear Jerry -

This rendering you a copy of the letter I wrote your father. I hope to write you in more detail very soon when I feel more like it & have finished. I should have, and intended to Call you from Washington to Complete your Curriculum, but this Politics business me so I did only what I was compelled to do. You know how much I think of your problems. I hope you had a good trip. Marian joins in affectionate good wishes to you all. I'll be writing soon. I think I have the address for the time being anyway, but it can give me hell — all the best — write frankly

George
