Dear Jimmy :

I am clearing things up in preparation for going away and it is my understanding that you took notes of the last staff meeting on Wednesday, December 20, before you left, and that you will be writing them up and sending them to Miss Oberg to be transcribed. Would you be good enough to send her these notes?

We are going to have a meeting this afternoon, and I am going to dictate the report of this meeting tomorrow.

I am going to leave a memorandum here with Mr. Juan Pedrazzi for Mr. Maryssael, telling him about some of the most important things which require attention and which have been receiving attention while he was away. I will prepare a memorandum for you, covering some things which I think you may best look after while I am away, such as preliminary work in connection with the annual report, correspondence classification, etc.

It will be difficult to get away by Saturday, but I will have to do it. I hope all will go well, and by the time this letter reaches you I hope the baby will have arrived and that it will be a son and heir.

This is just a very hurried note, as I shall really have my hands full. Marion joins me in love and good wishes to you and June.

Cordially and faithfully yours,

George S. Messersmith.

May send Hines to arrive in New York before Jan 10.
