Dear Dannie:

This is just a very hurried note as if at all possible I want to leave with Marion for Cuernavaca this evening. She has been in bed all week and we are both looking forward to a few days there.

Marion and I and Jimmy and June are delighted that you all are coming. I think it may be best to leave plans for your stay here in abeyance until you get here. Perhaps you all may want to spend the first part of your stay down in Cuernavaca, and if you arrive on Saturday evening the 16th, we could go down to Cuernavaca on Sunday morning and spend a couple of days there, and you and I can come back to Mexico City and the others can stay down there as long as they want. If Hettie and Edna want to stay most of the time in Cuernavaca, as I gathered from your letter, June and the children could go down there to be with them. In any event, we can decide all this when you come. Please let us know whether you are coming by American or by Eastern-Pan American and the number of the flight so that we can meet you all. I am glad Simon plans to come down while you are here and it will be convenient any time he wants to come. Marion is feeling all right again today, but a little wobbly after having spent a week in bed.

With love and good wishes to you all from us both,

Cordially and faithfully yours,

George S. Messersmith
